To move the following Clause—

“Extension of the implementation period

After section 15 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (publication of and rules of evidence) insert—

“15A Extension of the implementation period

- “(1) A Minister of the Crown must seek to secure agreement in the Joint Committee to a single decision to extend the implementation period by two years, in accordance with Article 132 of the Withdrawal Agreement unless one or more condition in subsection (2) is met.
- (2) Those conditions are—
- (a) it is before 15 June 2020;
 - (b) an agreement on the future trade relationship has been concluded;
 - (c) the House of Commons has passed a motion in the form set out in subsection (3) and the House of Lords has considered a motion to take note of the Government’s intention not to request an extension.
- (3) The form of the motion mentioned in subsection (2)(c) is “That this House approves of the Government’s decision not to apply for an extension to the period for implementing the agreement between the United Kingdom and the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union which sets out the arrangements for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU”.
- (4) If the Joint Committee does not agree the extension specified in subsection (1) but EU representatives on the Joint Committee indicate that they would agree an extension for a shorter period, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons to agree the shorter period proposed, and if that motion is agreed, a Minister of the Crown must agree that shorter extension in the Joint Committee.

- (5) Any Minister of the Crown who attends the Joint Committee may seek agreement to terminate the implementation period if a final agreement on the future trade relationship is ratified before the end of the implementation period.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would restore the role for Parliament in deciding whether to extend transition to avoid a WTO Brexit.

NC19

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Exit day chimes of Big Ben

- (1) The United Kingdom leaves the European Union, in accordance with Article 50 (2) of the Treaty on European Union, at 11.00pm Greenwich Mean Time on Friday 31 January 2020.
- (2) The Speaker of the House of Commons and the Corporate Officer of the House of Commons, together with any other relevant parliamentary authorities, must make arrangements for the occasion in subsection (1) to be marked by the sounding of the hourly chimes including eleven strikes of the principal bell (Big Ben) of the Great Clock in the Elizabeth Tower of the Houses of Parliament at 11.00pm Greenwich Mean Time on Friday 31 January 2020.”

Sir Edward Davey
Mr Alistair Carmichael

NC36

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Extension of implementation period

After section 15 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (publication and rules of evidence) insert—

“15A Extension of implementation period

- (1) If by 1 June 2020, agreements on both of the matters specified in subsection (2) have not been concluded, any Minister of the Crown who attends the Joint Committee must seek to secure agreement in the Joint Committee to a single decision to extend the implementation period by two years, in accordance with Article 132 of the Withdrawal Agreement.
- (2) The specified matters for the purposes of subsection (1) are—
- (a) the future trade relationship between the United Kingdom and the EU.

- (b) a security partnership including law enforcement and judicial cooperation in criminal matters.
- (3) If the Joint Committee does not agree the extension specified in subsection (1) but EU representatives on the Joint Committee indicate that they would agree an extension for a shorter period, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons to agree the shorter period proposed, and if that motion is agreed, a Minister of the Crown must agree that shorter extension in the Joint Committee.
- (4) Any Minister of the Crown who attends the Joint Committee may seek agreement to terminate the implementation period if final agreements on both of the matters specified in subsection (2) are ratified before the end of the implementation period.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the UK Government to seek an extension to the implementation period if agreements on trade and security have not been completed by 1 June 2020.

CLAUSES 7 TO 14; SCHEDULE 1; CLAUSE 15; SCHEDULE 2; CLAUSES 16 AND 17; NEW CLAUSES RELATING TO PART 3; NEW SCHEDULES RELATING TO PART 3

Stuart C McDonald
Joanna Cherry
Patrick Grady
Dr Philippa Whitford

5

Clause 7, page 9, line 36, leave out from “Crown” to end of Clause and insert “must by regulations make provision—

- “(a) implementing article 18(4) of the withdrawal agreement (right of eligible citizens to residence documents proving legal status), including making provision for a physical document;
- (b) implementing article 17(4) of the EEA EFTA separation agreement (right of eligible citizens to residence documents proving legal status) including making provision for a physical document; and
- (c) implementing article 16(4) of the Swiss citizens’ rights agreement (right of eligible citizens to residence documents proving legal status).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that EEA and Swiss citizens residing in the UK would automatically have rights under article 18(4) of the withdrawal agreement (and equivalent provisions in the EEA EFTA and Swiss citizens rights agreements) rather than having to apply for them, and would have the right to a physical document proving their status.

Stuart C McDonald
Joanna Cherry
Patrick Grady
Dr Philippa Whitford

6

Clause 7, page 10, line 41, at end insert—

“(3A) Regulations made under this section shall apply to—

- (a) the rights of all persons eligible for leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom by virtue of—
- (i) the withdrawal agreement, or

- (ii) residence scheme immigration rules (see section 17) as in force on 21 December 2019, and
- (b) such other persons as Ministers consider appropriate.
- (3B) The residence scheme immigration rules (see section 17) may not be amended so as to reduce the range of persons eligible for leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom by virtue of those rules (other than by primary legislation), but other persons may be added as Ministers consider appropriate.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that the range of persons entitled under UK law to benefit from the rights set out in the Withdrawal Agreement cannot be reduced except by primary legislation.

Sir Edward Davey
Mr Alistair Carmichael

27

★ Clause 7, page 10, line 41, at end insert—

“(3A) Regulations made under this section may not prevent EEA and Swiss nationals, or their family members, who are resident in the United Kingdom on or prior to 31 December 2020 applying for settled status at any time.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that people eligible for settled status would not be prevented from obtaining it by an application deadline.

To move the following Clause—

“Protecting EU Citizens’ Rights

- (1) This section applies to—
 - (a) European Union citizens having the right to reside permanently in the UK according to Article 15 (“Rights of permanent residence”) of the Withdrawal Agreement;
 - (b) persons to whom the provisions in (a) do not apply but who are eligible for indefinite leave to enter or remain, or limited leave to enter or remain by virtue of residence scheme immigration rules (see section 17).
- (2) A person to which this section applies has the rights and obligations provided in Article 12 and Title II Part II ‘Citizens’ Rights’ of the Withdrawal Agreement.
- (3) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision—
 - (a) implementing article 18(4) of the withdrawal agreement (right of eligible citizens to receive a residence document), including making provision for a physical document providing proof of residence;
 - (b) implementing article 17(4) of the EEA EFTA separation agreement (right of eligible citizens to receive a residence document) including making provision for a physical document providing proof of residence;
 - (c) implementing article 16(4) of the Swiss citizens’ rights agreement (right of eligible citizens to receive a residence document) including making provision for a physical document providing proof of residence.
- (4) No provision of this or any other enactment, or adopted under this or any other enactment, may be used to require European Union nationals and their family members, or nationals of Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein and Switzerland and their family members, who reside in the United Kingdom immediately prior to the end of the implementation period, to apply for a new residence status under Article 18(1) of the Withdrawal Agreement, or to introduce a deadline for applications under residence scheme immigration rules or relevant entry clearance rules.
- (5) Residence scheme immigration rules and relevant entry clearance immigration rules may not be amended to provide that any person who benefited or is eligible to benefit under those rules on the day on which this Act is passed benefits any less than he benefited or was eligible to benefit on the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause provides for all EU citizens who are resident in the UK before exit day to have the right of permanent residence, whether or not they have been exercising treaty rights, and makes sure that every person who is entitled to settled status has the same rights.

Stuart C McDonald

NC18

★ To move the following Clause—

“Fee levels and exemptions

- (1) No person to whom regulations under section 7(1) (as qualified by section 7(2) and 7(3)) apply may be charged a fee to register as a British citizen that is higher than the cost to the Secretary of State of exercising the function of registration.
- (2) No child of a person to whom subsection (1) applies may be charged a fee to register as a British citizen if that child is receiving the assistance of a local authority.
- (3) No child of a person to whom subsection (1) applies may be charged a fee to register as a British citizen that the child or the child’s parent, guardian or carer is unable to afford.
- (4) The Secretary of State must take steps to raise awareness of people to whom this section applies of their rights under the British Nationality Act 1981 to register as British citizens.
- (5) A Minister of the Crown may amend, waive or restrict any requirement of any other person to pay a fee to register as a British citizen where the Secretary of State considers it appropriate or necessary to do so in consequence of any discrimination between people of, or children of people of, differing nationality or other status.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that persons entitled to benefit from the citizens’ rights protections in the Bill did not miss out on registering as a citizen of the UK because of the level of fee currently charged.

NC33

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“EU Settlement Scheme: physical documented proof

The Secretary of State must make provision to ensure that EEA and Swiss nationals and their family members who are granted settled or pre-settled status are provided with physical documented proof of that status.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to provide physical documents to enable people to prove their settled status.

Sir Edward Davey
Mr Alistair Carmichael

NC34

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Settled status: right to appeal

- (1) A person may appeal against a settled status decision to the First-tier Tribunal.
- (2) A settled status decision includes a decision—
 - (a) to refuse to grant leave to remain under Appendix EU of the Immigration Rules made under section 3(2) of the Immigration Act 1971, or
 - (b) to grant limited leave to remain under Appendix EU of the Immigration Rules made under section 3(2) of the Immigration Act 1971 to a person who has applied for indefinite leave to remain under that Appendix.
- (3) An appeal against a decision under subsection 2(b) may be brought only on the grounds that the person is entitled to indefinite leave to remain under Appendix EU of the Immigration Rules.
- (4) While an appeal under subsection 2(a) is pending, the person concerned shall be deemed to have all the rights associated with indefinite leave to remain under Appendix EU of the Immigration Rules in particular as concerns residence, employment, access to social security benefits and other services.
- (5) While an appeal under subsection 2(b) is pending, the limited leave to remain granted under Appendix EU to the Immigration Rules shall continue in force.
- (6) “Pending” shall have the same meaning for the purposes of subsections (4) and (5) above as in section 104 of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would establish a right to appeal settled status decisions.

Clause 21, page 25, leave out lines 1 and 2 and insert—

“(2) A Minister of the Crown must, on or before 30 June 2020, publish a comprehensive economic impact assessment of the effect of the Ireland/Northern Ireland Protocol and regulations made under subsection (1) on—

- (a) the UK’s Internal Market and the access of Northern Ireland goods to Great Britain and Great British goods to Northern Ireland;
- (b) the Northern Ireland economy, including levels of imports and exports;
- (c) fiscal and regulatory compliance of goods travelling from NI to GB and from GB to NI; and
- (d) barriers to entry for third-country goods entering NI and GB from Ireland, the rest of the EU and third countries.

(2A) The Secretary of State must make arrangements for—

- (a) a copy of each report published under subsection (2) to be laid before each House of Parliament, and conveyed to the Presiding Officer of each devolved legislature, by the end of the day on which it is published;
- (b) a motion in neutral terms, to the effect that the House of Commons has considered the report, to be moved in the House of Commons by a Minister of the Crown; and
- (c) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the report to be tabled in the House of Lords and moved by a Minister of the Crown.

(2B) The motions required under subsections (2A)(b) and (c) must be moved in the relevant House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of five calendar days beginning with the end of the day on which the report is laid before Parliament.

(2C) The Secretary of State shall make a further report under subsection (2) on or before 31 October 2020 and at least every 12 months thereafter.”

★ Clause 37, page 37, line 3, leave out from “Europe)” to the end of line 19 and insert “the following amendments are made—

(1) After subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) The Secretary of State must, before IP completion day, make provision to ensure that, after the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU, an unaccompanied child who has made an application for international protection to a member State may, if it is in the child’s best interests, come to the United Kingdom to join a relative who—

(a) is a lawful resident of the United Kingdom, or

(b) has made a protection claim which has not been decided.”

(2) In subsection (2) after “(1)(a)(i)” insert “and (1A)(a)”.

(3) In subsection (3) after “(1)(a)(ii)” insert “and (1A)(b)”.

Member’s explanatory statement

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary sovereignty over negotiations for the future relationship

After section 13B of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (certain dispute procedures under withdrawal agreement) (for which see section 30 above) insert—

“13C Negotiations for future relationship

- (1) A Minister of the Crown must, before the end of the period of 30 Commons sitting days beginning with the day on which exit day falls, make a statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU.
- (2) A Minister of the Crown may, at any time after the initial statement is made, make a revised statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU.
- (3) A Minister of the Crown may not engage in negotiations on the future relationship with the EU unless—
 - (a) a statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU has been approved by the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown that can be amended by the House of Commons so as to change the objectives for the future relationship, and
 - (b) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of that statement has been moved in that House.
- (4) Prior to the House of Commons’s consideration of a motion under subsection (3)(a), a Minister of the Crown must have consulted with each devolved administration on the negotiating mandate.
- (5) In conducting negotiations on the future relationship with the EU, a Minister of the Crown must seek to achieve the objectives set out in the most recent statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU to have been—
 - (a) approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown, and
 - (b) the subject of a motion of the kind mentioned in subsection (3)(b).
- (6) The Secretary of State must publish the negotiating text of a proposed future relationship agreement on the same day that they are shared with EU negotiators.

- (7) After the end of each reporting period, a Minister of the Crown must—
- (a) lay before each House of Parliament a report on the progress made, by the end of the period, in negotiations on the future relationship with the EU, including—
 - (i) the Minister’s assessment of the extent to which the outcome of those negotiations is likely to reflect the most recent statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU to have been approved by the House of Commons, and the subject of a motion in the House of Lords, as mentioned in subsection (3), and
 - (ii) if the Minister’s assessment is that the future relationship with the EU is, in any respect, not likely to reflect that statement, an explanation of why that is so, and
 - (b) provide a copy of the report to the Presiding Officer of each of the devolved legislatures and to—
 - (i) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (ii) the Welsh Ministers, and
 - (iii) the First Minister and deputy First Minister in Northern Ireland or the Executive Office in Northern Ireland.
- (8) Subsections (9) and (10) apply if, in the opinion of a Minister of the Crown, an agreement in principle has been reached with the EU on a treaty the principal purpose of which is to deal with all or part of the future relationship with the EU.
- (9) A Minister of the Crown must, within one week of an agreement outlined in subsection (8), lay before each House of Parliament—
- (a) a statement that political agreement has been reached, and
 - (b) a copy of the negotiated future relationship treaty.
- (10) Prior to the laying of the text of the proposed treaty, the Secretary of State must have consulted with each devolved administration on the text of the proposed agreement and taken their views into account, with special consideration given to matters relating to devolved competences.
- (11) A treaty in the same form, or to substantially the same effect, as the negotiated future relationship treaty may be ratified only if the negotiated future relationship treaty has been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown and—
- (a) the House of Lords has not resolved, within the period of 14 Lords sitting days beginning with the day on which the negotiated future relationship treaty is laid before that House, that any treaty resulting from it should not be ratified, or
 - (b) if the House of Lords has so resolved within that period, a Minister of the Crown has laid before each House of Parliament a statement indicating that the Minister is of the opinion that the treaty should nevertheless be ratified and explaining why.
- (12) Section 20 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (treaties to be laid before Parliament before ratification) does not apply in relation to a treaty if subsection (11) applies in relation to the ratification of that treaty.

(13) In this section—

“devolved legislature” means—

- (a) the Scottish Parliament,
- (b) the National Assembly for Wales, or
- (c) the Northern Ireland Assembly;

“future relationship with the EU” means the main arrangements which are designed to govern the security and economic aspects of the long-term relationship between the United Kingdom and the EU after IP completion day and to replace or modify the arrangements which apply during the implementation period, but does not include the withdrawal agreement;

“negotiated future relationship treaty” means a draft of a treaty identified in a statement that political agreement has been reached;

“negotiations” means negotiations the opening of which, on behalf of the EU, has been authorised under Article 218 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union;

“reporting period” means—

- (a) the period of three months beginning with the first day on which a statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU is approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown, and
- (b) each subsequent period of one month;

“statement on objectives for the future relationship with the EU” means a statement—

- (a) made in writing by a Minister of the Crown setting out proposed objectives of Her Majesty’s Government in negotiations on the future relationship with the EU, and
- (b) published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate;

“statement that political agreement has been reached” means a statement made in writing by a Minister of the Crown which—

- (a) states that, in the Minister’s opinion, an agreement in principle has been reached with the EU on a treaty the principal purpose of which is to deal with all or part of the future relationship with the EU, and
- (b) identifies a draft of that treaty which, in the Minister’s opinion, reflects the agreement in principle;

“treaty” has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (see section 25(1) and (2) of that Act).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause restores the role for Parliament in providing scrutiny and oversight in the negotiations over the UK’s future relationship with the EU.

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval of the future relationship

- (1) The Secretary of State may not engage in negotiations on the future relationship between the UK and the EU until a Minister of the Crown has laid a draft negotiating mandate before each House of Parliament and—
- 5 (a) moved an amendable motion in the House of Commons containing the text of the draft negotiating mandate;
- (b) the draft negotiating mandate (as amended) has been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons, and
- 10 (c) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the draft negotiating mandate has been moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown.
- (2) The draft negotiating mandate must set out in detail—
- (a) the UK’s negotiation objectives,
- (b) all fields and sectors to be included in the proposed negotiations,
- 15 (c) the principles to underpin the proposed negotiation,
- (d) any limits on the proposed negotiations, and
- (e) the desired outcomes from the proposed negotiations.
- (3) Prior to laying the draft negotiating mandate, a Minister of the Crown must have consulted each devolved administration on the negotiating mandate.
- 20 (4) Prior to the House’s consideration of a motion under subsection (1)(b), a Minister of the Crown must lay before both Houses of Parliament a sustainability impact assessment conducted by a credible body independent of government following consultation with—
- (a) each devolved administration,
- 25 (b) public bodies, businesses, trade unions and non-governmental organisations which, in the opinion of the independent body, have a relevant interest, and
- (c) the public.
- (5) The assessment shall include both qualitative and quantitative assessments of the potential impacts of the proposed trade agreement, including—
- 30 (a) social,
- (b) economic,
- (c) environmental,
- (d) gender,
- (e) equalities,
- 35 (f) climate change,
- (g) human rights,
- (h) labour,
- (i) development, and

- 40 (j) regional impacts.
- (6) In conducting negotiations on the future relationship with the EU, a Minister of the Crown must seek to achieve the objectives set out in the negotiating mandate approved under subsection (1)(b).
- 45 (7) After the end of each reporting period, a Minister of the Crown must—
- (a) lay before each House of Parliament a report on the progress made, by the end of the period, in negotiations on the future relationship with the EU, including—
- 50 (i) the Minister’s assessment of the extent to which the outcome of those negotiations is likely to reflect the negotiating mandate approved under subsection (1)(b), and
- (ii) if the Minister’s assessment is that the future relationship with the EU is, in any respect, not likely to reflect that mandate, an explanation of why that is so, and
- 55 (b) lay before each House of Parliament the latest rounds of negotiating texts, by the end of each reporting period, and
- (c) provide a copy of the report to the Presiding Officer of each of the devolved legislatures and to—
- 60 (i) the Scottish Ministers,
- (ii) the Welsh Ministers, and
- (iii) the First Minister and deputy First Minister in Northern Ireland or the Executive Office in Northern Ireland.
- (8) Subsections (9) to (13) apply if, in the opinion of a Minister of the Crown, an agreement in principle has been reached with the EU on a treaty the principal purpose of which is to deal with all or part of the future relationship with the EU.
- 65 (9) A Minister of the Crown must lay before each House of Parliament—
- (a) a statement that political agreement has been reached, and
- (b) a copy of the negotiated future relationship treaty.
- 70 (10) Prior to the laying of the text of the proposed treaty, the Secretary of State must have consulted with each devolved administration on the text of the proposed agreement and taken their views into account, with special consideration given to matters relating to devolved competences.
- 75 (11) Prior to considering a motion approving the text of the negotiated future relationship treaty, the Government must lay before each House of Parliament a response to any report by a relevant Parliamentary committee (such as the Exiting the EU select committee) containing a recommendation in relation to the ratification of the agreement.
- 80 (12) A treaty in the same form, or to substantially the same effect, as the negotiated future relationship treaty may be ratified only if the negotiated future relationship treaty has been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on an amendable motion moved by a Minister of the Crown and—
- (a) the House of Lords has not resolved, within the period of 14 Lords sitting days beginning with the day on which the negotiated future relationship treaty is laid before that House, that any treaty resulting from it should not be ratified, or
- 85 (b) if the House of Lords has so resolved within that period, a Minister of the Crown has laid before each House of Parliament a statement indicating that the Minister is of the opinion that the treaty should nevertheless be ratified and explaining why.

- 90 (13) Section 20 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (treaties to be laid before Parliament before ratification) does not apply in relation to a treaty if subsection (11) applies in relation to the ratification of that treaty.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause ensures that MPs get a guaranteed vote with an amendable motion on the EU-UK Future Relationship and negotiating objectives, and sets out scrutiny of the negotiating mandate. It requires a sustainability impact assessment of the future relationship; the regular release of negotiation texts; and engagement with devolved administrations.

 - (a) reducing the level of protection provided by retained EU law in respect of a protected matter (specified in subsection (2)), or
 - (b) weakening governance processes associated with retained EU law in respect of a protected matter (specified in subsection (2)).
- (2) The protected matters are—
 - (a) the environment;
 - (b) food safety and other standards;
 - (c) the substance of REACH regulations; and
 - (d) animal welfare.

14B Primary legislation

- (1) A Minister of the Crown in charge of a Bill in either House of Parliament must, before Second Reading of the Bill—
 - (a) make a statement to the effect that in the Minister’s view the provisions of the Bill are not intended to have, and are not reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect, or
 - (b) make a statement that although provisions of the Bill are intended to have, or are reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect, the Government nevertheless wishes the House to proceed with the Bill.
- (2) If the Bill relates to environmental law—
 - (a) in preparing the statement the Minister must—
 - (i) consult the Office for Environmental Protection (“OEP”); and
 - (ii) publish their response, and
 - (b) if the OEP’s response asserts that provisions of the Bill are reasonably likely to have a regressive effect on environmental law, that response must also suggest how to avoid that effect.
- (3) A Minister who makes a statement under subsection (1)(b) must also—
 - (a) publish the reasons for including in the Bill provisions that are intended, or reasonably likely, to have a regressive effect (“regressive provisions”);
 - (b) arrange for a motion to be moved in the House of Commons, before the Bill leaves that House, for a resolution that the House approves the inclusion of regressive provisions; and
 - (c) arrange for a motion to be moved in the House of Lords, before the Bill leaves that House, for a resolution that the House approves the inclusion of regressive provisions.

European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Bill, *continued14C Subordinate legislation

- (1) Regulations under this Act are unlawful if and to the extent that they are intended to have, or in practice are reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect.
- (2) A statutory instrument under any other Act which is made for the purposes of or in connection with the withdrawal of the UK from the EU is unlawful if and to the extent that it is intended to have, or in practice is reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect.

14D Other action by public authorities

- (1) Any action taken by or on behalf of a Minister of the Crown under this Act is unlawful if and to the extent that it is intended to have, or in practice is reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect.
- (2) Any action taken by or on behalf of a Minister of the Crown for the purposes of or in connection with the withdrawal of the UK from the EU is unlawful if and to the extent that it is intended to have, or in practice is reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect.
- (3) A public authority exercising a function in respect of a protected matter must not exercise the function in a way that is intended to have, or in practice is reasonably likely to have, a regressive effect.

14E Guidance

The Secretary of State must publish guidance for government departments and other public authorities designed to ensure and facilitate the avoidance of action that would be unlawful by virtue of sections 14B to 14D.

14F Divergence tracking

- (1) In this section “divergence report” means a report containing—
 - (a) a summary of new EU environmental laws;
 - (b) a summary of steps taken by the Government in relation to the issues addressed by those laws;
 - (c) a summary of steps taken by the Government as set out in previous divergence reports;
 - (d) an independent review identifying any divergence between UK law and EU law in respect of those issues and recommending action to remedy the divergence;
 - (e) a statement of action Ministers propose to take; and
 - (f) if Ministers do not propose to give effect to the recommendations of the independent review, the reasons for that.
- (2) The Secretary of State must publish a divergence report—
 - (a) within the period of 6 months beginning with the date of commencement of this section; and
 - (b) during each subsequent period of 6 months.
- (3) The Secretary of State must—
 - (a) prepare each divergence report in consultation with persons appearing to the Secretary of State to represent the interests of businesses, workers, public bodies and relevant non-governmental organisations;

- (b) publish each divergence report;
 - (c) lay it before Parliament; and
 - (d) arrange for a motion to be moved in each House of Parliament, within the period of 28 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the date of publication of the report, for a resolution that the House approves the divergence report.
- (4) If a Committee of the House of Lords, or a Joint Committee of the House of Lords and the House of Commons, publishes a report relating to matters to be considered in a divergence report, the divergence report must contain Ministers' response to the Committee report.
- (5) If a motion in either House for the approval of a divergence report is not passed unamended, a Minister of the Crown must as soon as reasonably practicable publish a report—
- (a) setting out the steps that Ministers intend to take to rectify any divergence between UK law and EU law in respect of environmental matters, and
 - (b) including, in particular, legislative proposals designed to remedy the divergence, together with a timetable and strategy for enacting the legislation.
- (6) In this section “independent review” means a review undertaken by a body established by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purpose of reviewing new EU law and giving independent advice to Ministers about divergence.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (6)—
- (a) may include provision about the membership, funding and proceedings of the body;
 - (b) may confer appointment and other functions on the Secretary of State or another specified person;
 - (c) may include incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provisions;
 - (d) must be made by statutory instrument; and
 - (e) may not be made unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (8) Provision about membership of the body under subsection (7)(a) must, in particular, aim to ensure the inclusion of individuals who are independent of the government and have relevant knowledge and experience including expertise in environmental law.””

 - (f) that nothing in this clause shall prevent the United Kingdom from introducing amendments to Workers’ Rights for the purpose of making such provisions more favourable to the protection of workers;

- (g) that the terms at (a) to (f) shall have direct effect and shall be recognised and available in law and be capable of enforcement by individuals and their trade unions in courts and tribunal.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) cease to apply if the Government has secured an agreement with the European Union that achieves the objective in subsection (1).
- (3) A Minister of the Crown must make an oral statement to the House of Commons on the objective in subsection (1)—
 - (a) within three months of this Act coming into force;
 - (b) at least as frequently as every 28 days thereafter.
- (4) Each statement made under subsection (3) must set out—
 - (a) the steps taken by the Government, and the progress made in negotiations with the European Union, for the purpose of achieving the objective in subsection (1); and
 - (b) whether in the Minister’s opinion an agreement with the European Union achieving the objective of subsection (1) is likely to be achieved by IP completion day and, if not, setting out the reasons for this.
- (5) For the purpose of this section—
 - “New EU Worker Right” means any Workers’ Rights—
 - (a) which Member States are obliged to confer by an EU directive published in the Official Journal of the European Union on or after IP completion day; or
 - (b) that are conferred by an EU regulation or other instrument published in the Official Journal of the European Union on or after IP completion day; or
 - (c) that arise out of a judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union on or after IP completion day;and shall include any improvement to a Workers’ Right which existed before IP completion day;
 - “Retained EU Worker Rights” means Workers’ Rights which—
 - (a) immediately before IP completion day, the United Kingdom was obliged to confer by virtue of the Treaties and the EU directives listed in Schedule 1, or which were, without further enactment, given legal effect in the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) on IP completion day, continued to have effect in any part of the United Kingdom;
 - “Workers’ Rights” means rights of individuals, classes of individuals and their trade unions, in all areas of labour protection including—
 - (a) fundamental rights at work, including all forms of discrimination;
 - (b) fair working conditions and employment standards;
 - (c) information and consultation rights;
 - (d) restructuring of undertakings and acquired rights; and
 - (e) health and safety at work.
 - “Exit day” shall have the same meaning as in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.

“IP completion day” shall have the same meaning as in the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Act 2020.”
