Schedule 1, page 124, line 40, at end insert—

“12A(1) At the start of each five-year period, the Secretary of State must publish and lay before Parliament an indicative five-year budget for the OEP.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1) “five-year period” means—

- (a) the period of five financial years beginning with the financial year that begins after the commencement of this Schedule, and
- (b) each subsequent period of five financial years.

12B If the OEP requests additional funding, due to a change in the nature or extent of its functions, the Secretary of State must publish and lay before Parliament a statement responding to the request.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the OEP to be given a five-year indicative budget, and allows it to request in-budget increases.

Clause 22, page 13, line 18, at end insert—

“(5A) The Energy Act 2013 is amended in accordance with subsections (5B) and (5C).

(5B) In section 131(1), for “may” substitute “must”.

- (5C) In section 131(2), after subsection (c), insert—
 “(d) the duty of the Authority in assisting the delivery of greenhouse gas emissions targets as set out in the Climate Change Act 2008.”
- (5D) This section comes into force at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is intended to facilitate co-operation between the OEP and the Energy Authority.

Rebecca Pow

203

Clause 22, page 13, line 22, after “33(1)(b)” insert “, 35(1)(b)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 208. It requires the OEP’s enforcement policy to set out how the OEP will determine whether a failure to comply with environmental law is serious for the purposes of clause 35(1)(b), which is inserted by Amendment 208.

Rebecca Pow

204

Clause 22, page 13, line 22, after “36(1)” insert “and (6A)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 220. It requires the OEP’s enforcement policy to set out how the OEP will determine whether a failure to comply with environmental law is serious for the purposes of clause 36(6A), which is inserted by Amendment 220.

Deidre Brock

Clause 24, page 14, line 29, at end insert—

- “(g) a Scottish local authority,
(h) a Scottish housing association, or
(i) a Scottish environmental regulator.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure clear reporting lines in Scotland and to ensure that the OEP’s remit does not clash with that of the Scottish regulator.

Clause 26, page 15, line 31, at end insert “(including international environmental law)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment clarifies that international environmental law must be monitored and reported on by the OEP.

Rebecca Pow

30

Clause 26, page 15, line 33, at end insert—

“(2A) But the OEP must not monitor the implementation of, or report on, a matter within the remit of the Committee on Climate Change.

(2B) A matter is within the remit of the Committee on Climate Change if it is a matter on which the Committee is, or may be, required to advise or report under Part 1, sections 34 to 36, or section 48 of the Climate Change Act 2008.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment modifies the OEP’s duty to monitor, and power to report on, the implementation of environmental law under clause 26. It provides that the OEP must not monitor or report on matters within the remit of the Committee on Climate Change, which is defined in subsection (2B) by reference to specified provisions of the Climate Change Act 2008.

117

Clause 28, page 16, line 30, after “means a” insert “Minister of the Crown, a government department and public body, including a local authority, or any”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment clarifies that Ministers, government departments and public bodies are public authorities in respect of all their functions.

Deidre Brock

191

Clause 28, page 16, line 39, at end insert—

- “(f) a Scottish local authority,
- (g) a Scottish housing association, or
- (h) a Scottish environmental regulator.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to increase the definition of ‘public authority’ in relation to failures by public authorities to comply with environmental law.

Deidre Brock

192

Clause 29, page 17, line 5, leave out subsection (4)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow public bodies to report the actions of other public bodies where they are at fault.

6

Clause 32, page 18, line 40, leave out “may” and insert “must”

Member’s explanatory statement

Where the OEP has reasonable grounds for suspecting a serious break of environmental law, this amendment seeks to ensure that an information notice is given.

Rebecca Pow

205

Clause 32, page 19, line 2, at end insert—

“(aa) explains why the OEP considers that the alleged failure, if it occurred, would be serious, and”

Member’s explanatory statement

Under clause 32 the OEP may give a public authority an information notice if it has reasonable grounds to suspect that the authority has failed to comply with environmental law, and it considers that the failure, if it occurred, would be serious. This amendment requires the information notice to explain why the OEP considers that the alleged failure, if it occurred, would be serious.

Rebecca Pow

206

Clause 33, page 19, line 36, at end insert—

“(aa) explains why the OEP considers that the failure is serious, and”

Member’s explanatory statement

Under clause 33 the OEP may give a public authority a decision notice if it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the authority has failed to comply with environmental law, and it considers that the failure is serious. This amendment requires the decision notice to explain why the OEP considers that the failure is serious.

Clause 33, page 19, line 39, at end insert—

“(2A) A decision notice may also direct the public authority to rectify the failure to comply with environmental law.

(2B) A public authority must comply with a direction under subsection (2A).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows the OEP to require a public authority to remedy a failure to comply with environmental law.

Rebecca Pow

207

Clause 35, page 20, line 40, leave out “Upper Tribunal” and insert “court”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment replaces a reference to the Upper Tribunal with a reference to the court, which means either the High Court or the Court of Session. Similar changes are made by Amendments 210, 211, 212, 214 and 216.

Rebecca Pow

Clause 35, page 20, line 40, at end insert “, but only if—

(a) it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the authority has failed to comply with environmental law, and

(b) it considers that the failure is serious.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the OEP may only bring an environmental review against a public authority if it is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the authority has failed to comply with environmental law, and it considers the failure is serious. This aligns the conditions for bringing an environmental review with the conditions for giving a decision notice.

Clause 35, page 20, line 40, at end insert—

“(1A) Where the OEP has given a decision notice to a public authority but has not applied for an environmental review, any person with sufficient interest may apply for an environmental review.”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows any person to apply for an environmental review where the OEP decides not to.

Rebecca Pow

209

Clause 35, page 21, line 1, leave out paragraph (b)

Member’s explanatory statement

The OEP may only bring an environmental review after it has given a decision notice. This amendment removes the OEP’s power to bring an environmental review in relation to conduct occurring after a decision notice is given, which is similar or related to the conduct described in the decision notice.

Clause 35, page 21, line 14, at end insert—

“(4A) A person who has made a complaint under section 29 may intervene in an environmental review which relates to that complaint or an issue which the Upper Tribunal considers is related to the issue in that complaint.

(4B) Any person with sufficient interest may make an application to the Upper Tribunal to intervene in an environmental review.

(4C) The Upper Tribunal may not order an intervener to pay the costs of any relevant party to the proceedings in connection with the proceedings.

(4D) The Upper Tribunal may not order a relevant party to the proceedings to pay the intervener’s costs in connection with the proceedings.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows relevant people to intervene in environmental reviews and any other person to apply to intervene in environmental reviews. It also makes provision about payment of costs of proceedings.

See Amendment 207.

Rebecca Pow

217

Clause 36, page 22, line 11, at end insert “, and

(b) the urgency condition is met.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the OEP may only bring a judicial review under clause 36, rather than proceeding by way of information notice, decision notice and environmental review, in urgent cases. Amendments 218 and 219 define what is meant by urgent.

Rebecca Pow

218

Clause 36, page 22, line 12, leave out from beginning to “(rather” in line 13 and insert “The urgency condition is that making an application under subsection (1)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, together with Amendment 219, provides that a case is urgent only if it is necessary to bring a judicial review, rather than proceeding by way of information notice, decision notice and environmental review, to prevent or mitigate serious damage to the natural environment or to human health.

Rebecca Pow

219

Clause 36, page 22, line 14, after “35)” insert “is necessary”

Member’s explanatory statement

See Amendment 218.

Environment Bill, continued

Rebecca Pow

220

Clause 36, page 22, line 29, leave out subsection (6) and insert—

“(6) Subsection (6A) applies to proceedings (including any appeal) that—

- (a) are in respect of an application for judicial review or a statutory review, and
- (b) relate to an alleged failure by a public authority to comply with environmental law (however the allegation is framed in those proceedings).

(6A) If the OEP considers that the alleged failure, if it occurred, would be serious, it may apply to intervene in the proceedings (whether it considers that the public authority has, or has not, failed to comply with environmental law).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the OEP may apply to intervene in a judicial or statutory review relating to an alleged failure by a public authority to comply with environmental law only if it considers that the failure, if it occurred, would be serious. If that test is satisfied, it may apply to intervene whether or not it considers that the authority has in fact failed to comply with environmental law.

Clause 41, page 25, line 35, after “structures” insert “but including sites of archaeological, architectural, artistic, cultural or historic interest insofar as they form part of the landscape”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to widen the definition of “natural environment” in this Part to include the historic environment. For the avoidance of doubt, we do not seek the inclusion of the historic environment in the definition of “environmental law”, or in the enforcement functions of the OEP.

125

Clause 41, page 25, line 35, after “water” insert “, including the marine environment”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment clarifies that the natural environment includes a reference to the marine environment and is not confined to inland waters.

Deidre Brock

193

Clause 41, page 25, line 35, at end insert—

“(d) the marine environment,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment aims to ensure that the seas and oceans and the health of those environments are considered when the OEP is working.

Rebecca Pow

31

Clause 42, page 26, line 1, after “considering” insert “advising”

Member’s explanatory statement

The fourth limb of the definition of environmental protection covers the functions of monitoring, assessing, considering or reporting on anything within the other three limbs. This amendment adds the function of “advising”, which was included in the equivalent provisions of the draft Environment (Principles and Governance) Bill (clause 31(2)(d)), and last session’s Environment Bill (clause 40(2)(d)).

Clause 44, page 27, line 24, at end insert—

“global footprint” means—

- (a) direct and indirect environmental harm, caused by, and
 - (b) human rights violations arising in connection with the production, transportation or other handling of goods which are imported, manufactured, processed, or sold (whether for the production of other goods or otherwise), including but not limited to direct and indirect harm associated with—
 - (i) greenhouse gas emissions;
 - (ii) ecosystem conversion and degradation;
 - (iii) deforestation and forest degradation;
 - (iv) biodiversity loss;
 - (v) water pollution and abstraction; and
 - (vi) air pollution.”

Schedule 2, page 127, line 6, leave out sub-paragraph (4) and insert—

“(4) An environmental improvement plan must set out—

- (a) the steps that the Department intends to take to improve the natural environment;
- (b) any steps that any other Northern Ireland department intends to take to improve the natural environment;
- (c) long-term targets, setting a measurable standard which must be achieved by a specified date that is no less than 15 years after the target is set; and
- (d) interim targets relating to each long-term target, setting a measurable standard which must be achieved by a specified date that is—
 - (i) no more than 5 years after the target is set; and
 - (ii) no more than 5 years after the most recent review of the environmental improvement plan.

(4A) It is the duty of the Department to ensure that all long-term and interim targets set in an environmental improvement plan are met and the Department must publish an annual report stating how it is meeting these targets.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment will ensure that Northern Ireland has interim and long-term environmental targets, and places a duty on the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs to ensure these targets are met.

Richard Graham

202

Schedule 2, page 127, line 11, leave out “may” and insert “must”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to include steps to improve people’s enjoyment of the natural environment in its Environmental Plan and is consequential on Amendment 201.

Rebecca Pow

65

Schedule 2, page 132, line 1, after “considering” insert “advising”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes provision for Northern Ireland equivalent to the provision made by Amendment 31.

Rebecca Pow

66

Schedule 3, page 133, line 33, at end insert—

“(2A) But the OEP must not monitor the implementation of, or report on, a matter within the remit of the Committee on Climate Change.

(2B) A matter is within the remit of the Committee on Climate Change if it is a matter on which the Committee is, or may be, required to advise or report under Part 1, sections 34 to 36, or section 48 of the Climate Change Act 2008.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment modifies the OEP’s duty to monitor, and power to report on, the implementation of Northern Ireland environmental law under paragraph 2 of Schedule 3. It provides that the OEP must not monitor or report on matters within the remit of the Committee on Climate Change, which is defined in sub-paragraph (2B) by reference to specified provisions of the Climate Change Act 2008.

Rebecca Pow

Schedule 3, page 146, line 24, at end insert—

“22A(1) Section (Guidance on OEP’s enforcement policy and functions) (guidance on OEP’s enforcement policy and functions) is amended as follows.

(2) At the end of subsection (1) insert “, so far as relating to the OEP’s Part 1 enforcement functions.”

(3) In subsection (2)—

(a) in paragraph (a) after “policy,” insert “so far as relating to its Part 1 enforcement functions,”;

(b) in paragraph (b) for “enforcement functions” substitute “Part 1 enforcement functions”.

(4) In subsection (5) for “enforcement functions” substitute “Part 1 enforcement functions”.

Member’s explanatory statement

Schedule 3 to the Bill confers on the OEP enforcement functions in relation to Northern Ireland, which are similar to its enforcement functions under Part 1 of the Bill. Guidance issued by the Secretary of State under NC24 is not to apply to the enforcement functions conferred by Schedule 3, which are devolved. This amendment ensures that when Schedule 3 comes into force, the guidance power under NC24 will be limited to the OEP’s enforcement functions under Part 1 of the Bill and will not include its enforcement functions under Schedule 3.

“Demesne land

- 3 (1) Where land belongs to Her Majesty in right of the Crown but is not held for an estate in fee simple absolute in possession—
- (a) Her Majesty in right of the Crown is to be regarded for the purposes of Part 7 and this Schedule as holding an estate in fee simple absolute in possession in the land, and
 - (b) any estate granted or created out of the land is to be regarded for those purposes as derived from that estate in fee simple.
- (2) The land referred to in sub-paragraph (1) does not include land which becomes subject to escheat on the determination of an estate in fee simple absolute in possession in the land if—
- (a) it is land to which an obligation under a conservation covenant related when the estate determined, or
 - (b) it is not land to which such an obligation related at that time and Her Majesty in right of the Crown has not taken possession or control of the land, or entered into occupation of it.

Land subject to escheat

- 3A (1) This paragraph applies where land becomes subject to escheat on the determination of an estate in fee simple absolute in possession in land to which an obligation under a conservation covenant relates.
- (2) The conservation covenant is not terminated on the determination of that estate, even though the appropriate authority has no liability in respect of the obligation unless and until the Crown—
- (a) takes possession or control of the land, or enters into occupation of it, or
 - (b) becomes the holder of—
 - (i) an estate granted by the Crown out of the land, or
 - (ii) an estate in land derived (whether immediately or otherwise) from an estate falling within sub-paragraph (i).
- (3) If the Crown takes possession or control of the land, or enters into occupation of it—
- (a) the Crown is to be regarded for the purposes of Part 7 and this Schedule as holding an estate in fee simple in possession in the land, and
 - (b) that estate is to be regarded for those purposes as immediately derived from the determined estate.
- (4) If the Crown grants an estate out of the land after having previously taken possession or control of the land, or entered into occupation of it, the estate is to be regarded for the purposes of Part 7 and this Schedule as immediately derived from the estate mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)(a).
- (5) But if the Crown grants an estate out of the land without having previously taken possession or control of the land, or entered into occupation of it—
- (a) the acts of the Crown in granting that estate are not to be regarded for the purposes of Part 7 and this Schedule as taking possession or control of the land, or entering into occupation of it, and

- (b) the new estate is to be regarded for those purposes as immediately derived from the determined estate.
- (6) In this paragraph and paragraph 3B “the Crown” means Her Majesty in right of the Crown or of the Duchy of Lancaster, or the Duchy of Cornwall, as the case may be.”

Bona vacantia

- 3B (1) This paragraph applies where an estate in land to which an obligation of the landowner under a conservation covenant relates vests in the Crown as bona vacantia.
- (2) The appropriate authority has no liability in respect of the obligation in relation to any period before the Crown takes possession or control of the land or enters into occupation of it.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment replaces paragraphs 3 and 4 of Schedule 17 with three new paragraphs. Paragraph 3A is new and deals with the application of Part 7 to land to which a conservation covenant relates which becomes subject to escheat to the Crown (for example where the land is disclaimed by a trustee in bankruptcy). Paragraphs 3 and 3B are derived from the current paragraph 3, subject to some minor changes arising from consideration of paragraph 3A.

“Species conservation strategies

- (1) Natural England may prepare and publish a strategy for improving the conservation status of any species of fauna or flora.
- (2) A strategy under subsection (1) is called a “species conservation strategy”.
- (3) A species conservation strategy must relate to an area (the “strategy area”) consisting of—
 - (a) England, or
 - (b) any part of England.
- (4) A species conservation strategy for a species may in particular—
 - (a) identify areas or features in the strategy area which are of importance to the conservation of the species,
 - (b) identify priorities in relation to the creation or enhancement of habitat for the purpose of improving the conservation status of the species in the strategy area,
 - (c) set out how Natural England proposes to exercise its functions in relation to the species across the whole of the strategy area or in any part of it for the purpose of improving the conservation status of the species in the strategy area,
 - (d) include Natural England’s opinion on the giving by any other public authority of consents or approvals which might affect the conservation status of the species in the strategy area, and
 - (e) include Natural England’s opinion on measures that it would be appropriate to take to avoid, mitigate or compensate for any adverse impact on the conservation status of the species in the strategy area that may arise from a plan, project or other activity.
- (5) Natural England may, from time to time, amend a species conservation strategy.
- (6) A local planning authority in England and any prescribed authority must co-operate with Natural England in the preparation and implementation of a species conservation strategy so far as relevant to the authority’s functions.
- (7) The Secretary of State may give guidance to local planning authorities in England and to prescribed authorities as to how to discharge the duty in subsection (6).
- (8) A local planning authority in England and any prescribed authority must in the exercise of its functions have regard to a species conservation strategy so far as relevant to its functions.
- (9) In this section—
 - “England” includes the territorial sea adjacent to England, which for this purpose does not include—
 - (a) any part of the territorial sea adjacent to Wales for the general or residual purposes of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (see section 158 of that Act), or
 - (b) any part of the territorial sea adjacent to Scotland for the general or residual purposes of the Scotland Act 1998 (see section 126 of that Act);
 - “local planning authority” means a person who is a local planning authority for the purposes of any provision of Part 3 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990;

“Protected site strategies

- (1) Natural England may prepare and publish a strategy for—
 - (a) improving the conservation and management of a protected site, and
 - (b) managing the impact of plans, projects or other activities (wherever undertaken) on the conservation and management of the protected site.
- (2) A strategy under subsection (1) is called a “protected site strategy”.
- (3) A “protected site” means—
 - (a) a European site,
 - (b) a site of special scientific interest, or
 - (c) a marine conservation zone,
 to the extent the site or zone is within England.
- (4) A protected site strategy for a protected site may in particular—
 - (a) include an assessment of the impact that any plan, project or other activity may have on the conservation or management of the protected site (whether assessed individually or cumulatively with other activities),
 - (b) include Natural England’s opinion on measures that it would be appropriate to take to avoid, mitigate or compensate for any adverse impact on the conservation or management of the protected site that may arise from a plan, project or other activity,
 - (c) identify any plan, project or other activity that Natural England considers is necessary for the purposes of the conservation or management of the protected site, and
 - (d) cover any other matter which Natural England considers is relevant to the conservation or management of the protected site.
- (5) In preparing a protected site strategy for a protected site, Natural England must consult—
 - (a) any local planning authority in England which exercises functions in respect of an area—
 - (i) within which any part of the protected site is located, or
 - (ii) within which a plan, project or other activity that Natural England considers may have an adverse impact on the conservation or management of the protected site is being, or is proposed to be, undertaken,
 - (b) any public authority in England—
 - (i) that is undertaking, or proposing to undertake, a plan, project or other activity that Natural England considers may have an

- adverse impact on the conservation or management of the protected site,
- (ii) the consent or approval of which is required in respect of a plan, project or other activity that Natural England considers may have an adverse impact on the conservation or management of the protected site, or
 - (iii) that Natural England considers may otherwise be affected by the strategy,
- (c) any IFC authority in England which exercises functions in respect of an area—
- (i) the conservation or management of which Natural England considers may be affected by the strategy, or
 - (ii) the sea fisheries resources of which Natural England considers may be affected by the strategy,
- (d) the Marine Management Organisation, where—
- (i) any part of the protected site is within the MMO's area, or
 - (ii) Natural England considers any part of the MMO's area may otherwise be affected by the strategy,
- (e) the Environment Agency,
- (f) the Secretary of State, and
- (g) any other person that Natural England considers should be consulted in respect of the strategy, including the general public or any section of it.
- (6) In subsections (4) and (5), a reference to an adverse impact on the conservation or management of a protected site includes—
- (a) in relation to a European site, anything which adversely affects the integrity of the site,
 - (b) in relation to a site of special scientific interest, anything which is likely to adversely affect the flora, fauna or geological or physiographical features by reason of which the site is of special interest,
 - (c) in relation to a marine conservation zone, anything which hinders the conservation objectives stated for the zone pursuant to section 117(2) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009, and
 - (d) any other thing which causes deterioration of natural habitats and the habitats of species as well as disturbance of the species in the protected site, in so far as such disturbance could be significant in relation to the conservation or management of the protected site.
- (7) A person whom Natural England consults under subsection (5)(a) to (e) must co-operate with Natural England in the preparation of a protected site strategy so far as relevant to the person's functions.
- (8) The Secretary of State may give guidance as to how to discharge the duty in subsection (7).
- (9) A person must have regard to a protected site strategy so far as relevant to any duty which the person has under—
- (a) the Conservation of Habitats and Species Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/1012),
 - (b) sections 28G to 28I of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981, or
 - (c) sections 125 to 128 of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009.
- (10) Natural England may, from time to time, amend a protected site strategy.
- (11) The duty to consult a person under subsection (5) also applies when Natural England amends a protected site strategy under subsection (10) so far as the amendment is relevant to the person's functions.

- (12) In this section—
- “England” has the meaning given in section (Species conservation strategies);
 - “European site” has the meaning given in regulation 8 of the Conservation of Habitats and Species Regulations 2017;
 - “IFA authority” means an inshore fisheries and conservation authority created under section 150 of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009;
 - “local planning authority” has the meaning given in section (Species conservation strategies);
 - “marine conservation zone” means an area designated as a marine conservation zone under section 116(1) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009;
 - “MMO’s area” has the meaning given in section 2(12) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009;

- (2) When deciding whether to give a penalty notice to a public authority and determining the amount of the penalty, the OEP must have regard to the matters listed in subsection (3).
- (3) Those matters are—
 - (a) the nature, gravity and duration of the failure;
 - (b) the intentional or negligent character of the failure;
 - (c) any relevant previous failures by the public authority;
 - (d) the degree of co-operation with the Commissioner, in order to remedy the failure and mitigate the possible adverse effects of the failure;
 - (e) the manner in which the infringement became known to the OEP, including whether, and if so to what extent, the public authority notified the OEP of the failure;
 - (f) the extent to which the public authority has complied with previous enforcement notices or penalty notices;
 - (g) whether the penalty would be effective, proportionate and dissuasive.
- (4) Once collected, penalties must be distributed to the NHS and local authorities to be used for pollution reduction measures.
- (5) The Secretary of State must, by regulations, set the minimum and maximum amount of penalty.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative procedure.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would allow the OEP to impose fines.

To move the following Clause—

“Ongoing relationship with EU-REACH

- (1) The Secretary of State must not use regulations under Schedule 19 to diminish protections provided by REACH legislation.
- (2) The Secretary of State must by regulations seek to maintain regulatory parity with any new or amended regulations of the European Parliament and of the Council concerning the regulation of chemicals after IP completion day.
- (3) It is an objective of Her Majesty’s Government as part of any trade negotiations with the European Union to seek to secure associate membership of the European Chemicals Agency for the United Kingdom after IP completion day to enable it to continue to participate in the EU-REACH framework.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (2) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (5) In this section, “IP completion day” has the same meaning as in section 39 of the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Act 2020.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require continued parity with REACH.

To move the following Clause—

“Duty to follow recommendations

- (1) A “public authority” must follow the course of action set out in a recommendation made by the OEP in a report issued under sections 25 or 26 unless the public authority has determined that there are reasons of public interest demonstrating that it is not necessary for it to do so in order to comply with the law.
- (2) If the authority does not follow a recommendation, it must publish a report setting out the reasons for not doing so and set out what alternative course of action it proposes to take.
- (3) In this section public authority carries the same definition as in section 28(3).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires a public authority to whom the OEP has issued a recommendation to normally follow that recommendation.

To move the following Clause—

“Duty to prepare a Tree Strategy for England

- (1) The Government must prepare a Tree Strategy for England as set out in subsection (2) and (3).
- (2) The strategy must set out the Government’s vision, objectives, priorities and policies for trees in England including individual trees, woodland and forestry, and may set out other matters with respect to the promotion of sustainable management of trees in these contexts.
- (3) The Tree Strategy for England must include the Government’s targets and interim targets with respect to—
 - (a) the percentage of England under tree cover;
 - (b) hectares of new native woodland creation achieved by tree planting;
 - (c) hectares of new native woodland creation achieved by natural regeneration;
 - (d) the percentage of native woodland in favourable ecological condition; and
 - (e) hectares of Plantation on Ancient Woodland (PAWS) undergoing restoration.
- (4) The Government must keep the Tree Strategy for England under review, and may, if they consider it appropriate to do so, revise the strategy.
- (5) If the Government has not revised the Tree Strategy for England within the period of 10 years beginning with the day on which the strategy was last published, they must revise the strategy.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The aim of this new clause is to ensure that the Government prepares a tree strategy for England. It will ensure that the Government has to produce targets for the protection, restoration and expansion of trees and woodland in England.

To move the following Clause—

“State of nature target

- (1) The Secretary of State must publish documents setting out how the Government will exercise the power conferred in section 1 to set a target to reverse the decline in the state of nature in England.
- (2) The Secretary of State must publish the first such document—
 - (a) no later than 30 days before the opening plenary meeting of the next Conference of the Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity; and
 - (b) within three months of this Bill receiving Royal Assent.
- (3) The Secretary of State must exercise the power conferred in section 1 to set the target described in subsection (1)—
 - (a) as soon as reasonably practicable following the end of the next Conference of the Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity; and
 - (b) no later than October 2022.
- (4) The Secretary of State must publish an updated document as set out in subsection (1) before each Conference of the Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity.
- (5) In carrying out the duties in subsections (1) and (4) the Secretary of State shall consider the appropriate domestic effort to contribute to improving the state of nature globally.
- (6) In this section, “the state of nature” includes—
 - (a) the abundance and diversity of species;
 - (b) the risk of extinction; and
 - (c) the extent and condition of habitats.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause obliges the Secretary of State to set out his intentions for setting a target to reverse the decline of nature in time to influence ongoing international negotiations and then to set that target as soon as possible following the conclusion of those negotiations.

 - (b) the commitments in subsection (3).
- (2) The environmental objective is to achieve and maintain—
- (a) a healthy, resilient and biodiverse natural environment;
 - (b) an environment that supports human health and well-being for everyone; and
 - (c) sustainable use of resources.
- (3) The commitments are—
- (a) all commitments given by Her Majesty’s Government in the United Nations Leaders’ Pledge for Nature of 28 September 2020, including, but not limited to, the urgent actions committed to be taken by it over the period of ten years from the date of that pledge;
 - (b) any enhanced commitments given by Her Majesty’s Government pursuant to that pledge, any other pledge, and any international agreement; and
 - (c) all relevant domestic legislation, including, but not limited to, the Climate Change Act 2008, as amended from time to time.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of the requirement in subsection (1), that requirement applies to—
- (a) the Secretary of State in setting, amending and ensuring compliance with the environmental targets; preparing, amending and implementing environmental improvement plans; and performing all their obligations and exercising all their discretions under this Act;
 - (b) the Office for Environmental Protection and the Upper Tribunal in performing their respective obligations and exercising any applicable discretions; and
