TO

Make provision for the carrying out of the functions of the Prime Minister in the event that a Prime Minister, or a person temporarily carrying out the functions of the Prime Minister, is incapacitated; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Temporary appointment of the Prime Minister

- (1) Nothing in this Act prevents Her Majesty appointing a Prime Minister.
- (2) The office of Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury shall, in the event of the temporary or permanent incapacitation of the person holding such office, be conferred upon another Secretary or Minister of State in accordance with the order of succession in Schedule 1. 5
- (3) Where the next Secretary or Minister of State in the order of succession in Schedule 1 is temporarily or permanently incapacitated, the office shall be conferred upon the first Secretary or Minister of State not so incapacitated, in accordance with the order of succession in Schedule 1. 10
- (4) Any salary payable to the Prime Minister under the Ministerial and other Salaries Act 1975 shall instead be payable to the Secretary or Minister of State assuming the office of Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, in accordance with the provisions of that Act.
- (5) Any functions or responsibilities of the Prime Minister, whether statutory or otherwise, shall be transferred to the Secretary or Minister of State assuming the office of Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury. 15
- (6) But a Secretary or Minister of State may not assume the office of Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury if they are a member of a different political party to the person they replace under subsection (2). 20
- (7) "Minister of State" has the same meaning as in the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975.

2 Extent, commencement and short title

- (1) This Act extends to England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.
- (2) This Act comes into force on the day on which it is passed.
- (3) This Act may be cited as the Prime Minister (Temporary Replacement) Act 2021.
