Agreed to on division: agreed following a vote.

Negated: rejected without a vote.

Negated on division: rejected following a vote.

Not called: debated in a group of amendments, but not put to a decision.

Not moved: not debated or put to a decision.

Question proposed: debate underway but not concluded.

Withdrawn after debate: moved and debated but then withdrawn, so not put to a decision.

Not selected: not chosen for debate by the Speaker.

Mr Kevan Jones

Withdrawn after debate NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Judicial oversight of investigations

- (1) This section applies to any investigation by a police force into alleged conduct as described in subsection 3 of section 1.
- (2) The police force investigating the conduct must place their preliminary findings before an allocated judge advocate as soon as possible, but no later than 6 months after the alleged offence was brought to their attention.
- (3) The judge advocate shall have the power to determine—
 - (a) that no serious, permanent or lasting psychological or physical injury has been caused; and order that the investigation should cease;

Overseas Operations (Service Personnel and Veterans) Bill, continued

- (b) that the evidence is of a tenuous character because of weakness or vagueness or because of inconsistencies with other evidence, and that it is not in the interests of justice to continue an investigation; and order that the investigation should cease; or
 - (c) that there is merit in the complaint; and make directions as to the timetable and extent of further investigation.”

Mr Kevan Jones

Not called NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Limitation of time for minor offences

No proceedings shall be brought against any person in relation to a relevant offence, where—

- (a) the condition set out in subsection 3 of section 1 is satisfied,
 - (b) the offence is subject to summary conviction only, or is one in the commission of which no serious, permanent or lasting psychological or physical injury has been caused, and
 - (c) a period of six months has passed from the time the offence was committed or discovered.”

Mr Kevan Jones

Not called NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Access to justice for service personnel

Within 12 months of this Act coming into force, the Secretary of State shall commission an independent evaluation comparing—

- (a) access to justice for members and former members of the regular and reserve forces and of British overseas territory forces to whom section 369(2) of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (persons subject to service law) applies, in relation to legal proceedings in connection with operations of the armed forces outside the British Islands, with
 - (b) access to justice for asylum seekers and prisoners seeking to bring an action against the Crown.”

Overseas Operations (Service Personnel and Veterans) Bill, continued

John Healey
Mrs Sharon Hodgson
Stephen Morgan
Mr Khalid Mahmood
Chris Evans

Not called NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Ability to conduct a fair trial

The principle referred to in section 1(1) is that a relevant prosecutor making a decision to which that section applies may determine that proceedings should be brought against the person for the offence, or, as the case may be, that the proceedings against the person for the offence should be continued, only if the prosecutor has reasonable grounds for believing that the fair trial of the person has not been materially prejudiced by the time elapsed since the alleged conduct took place.”

John Healey
Mrs Sharon Hodgson
Stephen Morgan
Mr Khalid Mahmood
Chris Evans

Negatived on division NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Restrictions on time limits: actions brought against the Crown by service personnel

Nothing in this Part applies to any action brought against the Crown by a person who is a member or former member of the regular or reserve forces, or of a British overseas territory force to whom section 369(2) of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (persons subject to service law) applies.”

John Healey
Mrs Sharon Hodgson
Stephen Morgan
Mr Khalid Mahmood
Chris Evans

Not called NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Duty of care to service personnel

- (1) The Secretary of State shall establish a duty of care standard in relation to legal, pastoral and mental health support provided to service personnel involved in investigations or litigation arising from overseas operations, as defined in subsection (6) of section 1.

Overseas Operations (Service Personnel and Veterans) Bill, continued

- (2) The Secretary of State shall lay a copy of this standard before Parliament within six months of the date on which this Act receives Royal Assent.
 - (3) The Secretary of State shall thereafter in each calendar year—
 - (a) prepare a duty of care report; and
 - (b) lay a copy of the report before Parliament.
 - (4) The duty of care report is a report about the continuous process of review and improvement to meet the duty of care standard established in subsection (1), in particular in relation to incidents arising from overseas operations of—
 - (a) litigation and investigations brought against service personnel for allegations of criminal misconduct and wrongdoing;
 - (b) civil litigation brought by service personnel against the Ministry of Defence for negligence and personal injury;
 - (c) judicial reviews and inquiries into allegations of misconduct by service personnel;
 - (d) in such other fields as the Secretary of State may determine.
 - (5) In preparing a duty of care report the Secretary of State must have regard to, and publish relevant data in relation to (in respect of overseas operations)—
 - (a) the adequacy of legal, welfare and mental health support services provided to service personnel who are accused of crimes;
 - (b) complaints made by service personnel and, or their legal representation when in the process of bringing or attempting to bring civil claims against the Ministry of Defence for negligence and personal injury;
 - (c) complaints made by service personnel and, or their legal representation when in the process of investigation or litigation for an accusation of misconduct;
 - (d) meeting national care standards and safeguarding to families of service personnel, where relevant.
 - (6) In section (1) “service personnel” means—
 - (a) members of the regular forces and the reserve forces;
 - (b) members of British Overseas Territory forces who are subject to service law;
 - (c) former members of any of Her Majesty’s forces who are ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom; and
 - (d) where relevant, family members of any person meeting the definition within (a), (b) or (c).”
 - (7) In subsection (1) “Duty of Care” means both the legal and moral obligation of the Ministry of Defence to ensure the well-being of service personnel.
 - (8) None of the provisions contained within this clause shall be used to alter the principle of Combat Immunity.”

Not called NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Duty of care to service personnel

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person has been acquitted of an offence relating to conduct on overseas operations; or
 - (b) a determination has been made that an investigation into an offence relating to such conduct should cease under section (Judicial oversight of investigations).
- (2) No further investigation into the alleged conduct shall be commenced unless—
 - (a) compelling new evidence has become available; and
 - (b) an allocated judge advocate determines that the totality of the evidence against the accused is sufficiently strong.”
