2

Clause 1, page 2, line 9, at end insert—

“(5A) For the purposes of subsection (5), “the start of the proceedings” means—

- (a) in the case of an application that is to proceed as an application by both parties to the marriage, the date on which both parties apply for an order under subsection (1), or
- (b) in the case of an application that is to proceed as an application by one party to the marriage only, the date when the notice of an application for a divorce order has been received by the other party to the marriage.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would define the start of divorce proceedings so that it is clear when the 20-week period would start.

Clause 1, page 2, line 19, at end insert—

“(8A) In the case of an application that is to proceed as an application by one party to the marriage only, there shall be no commencement of financial provision proceedings until the end of the period of 20 weeks from the start of the proceedings for the divorce order unless—

- (a) the other party to the marriage agrees to the commencement of financial provision proceedings, or
- (b) there is an application under section 22 for the court to make an order for maintenance pending suit.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that there are no discussions about financial settlement in the 20 week period unless both parties agree or there is an application to the court for interim maintenance and financial injunctions.

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Increased support for marriage and civil partnerships

- (1) Section 22 of the Family Law Act 1996 (Funding for marriage support services) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for “may” substitute “must”.
- (3) In subsection (1)(a), at end insert “, both before and during a marriage”.
- (4) After subsection (1)(a) insert—
  - “(aa) marriage counselling for any partners to a marriage where an application has been made to the court to dissolve the marriage under section 1 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973.”
- (5) After subsection (3) insert—
  - “(4) Any reference to marriage or marital breakdown in this section also applies to civil partnerships.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure increased support for marriages and new support for couples where an application for divorce has been made to the court.

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Report on the impact on divorce applications and marriage support

- (1) The Secretary of State must publish an annual report on the impact of this Act on divorce and dissolution proceedings and marriage and civil partnership with the first report to be published no later than 18 months after the day on which this section comes into force.

- (2) The report under subsection (1) must include, but is not limited to—
- (a) the number of divorce and dissolution applications made under the provisions of this Act by the sex and income of the applicant and respondent, and
  - (b) the number of children in the relationships subject to the divorce and dissolution applications, and
  - (c) the number of married couples or civil partners who seek counselling during the divorce process, broken down by geographic location, and
  - (d) a statement on the support services and marriage counselling available to married couples or civil partners as an alternative to divorce proceedings under this Act, broken down by geographic location.
- (3) The report under subsection (1) must be laid before both Houses of Parliament.”

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Divorce after one year separation with consent

- (1) The Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1(2), omit subsection (d) and insert—
  - “(d) that the parties to the marriage have lived apart for a continuous period of at least one year immediately preceding the presentation of the petition (hereafter in this Act referred to as “separation for one year”) and the respondent consents to a decree being granted;”
- (3) In section 10(1), substitute “separation for one year” for “two years’ separation”;
- (4) In section 10(2)(a), substitute “separation for one year” for “two years’ ”;
- (5) In section 10(2)(b), substitute “separation for one year” for “two years’ ”.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this new clause is to adopt in England and Wales the approach currently available in Scotland allowing a no-fault divorce to be granted on consent grounds in just one year.

NC5

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Legal aid for divorce proceedings report

- (1) The Secretary of State must conduct a review of the cost and benefits of providing legal aid for divorce proceedings.
- (2) In conducting the review under subsection (1), the Secretary of State must take account of the disparity between men and women in their capacity to afford legal advice in matrimonial proceedings.
- (3) The Secretary of State must make arrangements for a copy of the report of the review to be laid before both Houses of Parliament no later than six months after the date on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to carry out a review within six months of the impact of extending legal aid for divorce proceedings, taking account of any disproportionate effect on women of lack of access to legal aid.

NC7

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Bereavement support payments report

- (1) The Secretary of State must conduct a review of the cost and benefits of extending eligibility for higher and standard bereavement support payments under section 30 of the Pensions Act 2014, where—
  - (a) the parents of a child had been married to each other but were divorced when one of them died,
  - (b) the parents of a child had not been married to each other and were separated when one of them died, or
  - (c) the parents of a child had never been married to each other when one of them died.

- (2) The Secretary of State must make arrangements for a copy of the report of the review to be laid before both Houses of Parliament no later than six months after the date on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to present to Parliament, within six months, a report on the impact of extending bereavement support payment to families where married parents divorce, where unmarried parents separate or where parents have never lived together.
