- (3) Condition B is that the order is necessary and proportionate to protect that person from domestic abuse, or the risk of domestic abuse, carried out by P. 25
- (4) It does not matter—

Part 3 — Powers for dealing with domestic abuse

- (a) whether the abusive behaviour referred to in subsection (2) took place in England and Wales or elsewhere, or
 - (b) whether it took place before or after the coming into force of this section. 5
 - (5) A domestic abuse protection order may not be made against a person who is under the age of 18.

 - (a) the welfare of any person under the age of 18 whose interests the court considers relevant to the making of the order (whether or not that person and P are personally connected); 15
 - (b) any opinion of the person for whose protection the order would be made— 20

31 Making of orders without notice

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the making of an order under section 25 on an application made in accordance with subsection (3) of that section (see instead section 26(4) to (6)).

Part 3 — Powers for dealing with domestic abuse

- (3) In deciding whether to exercise its powers under subsection (1), the court must have regard to all the circumstances, including—
- (a) any risk that, if the order is not made immediately, P will cause significant harm to the person for whose protection the order would be made, 5
 - (b) in a case where an application for the order has been made, whether it is likely that the person making the application will be deterred or prevented from pursuing the application if an order is not made immediately, and 10
 - (c) whether there is reason to believe that— 15
 - (i) P is aware of the proceedings but is deliberately evading service, and
 - (ii) the delay involved in effecting substituted service will cause serious prejudice to the person for whose protection the order would be made. 20
- (4) If a court makes an order against a person by virtue of subsection (1), it must give the person an opportunity to make representations about the order— 25
- (a) as soon as just and convenient, and

- (b) at a hearing of which notice has been given to all the parties in accordance with rules of court.

32 Provision that may be made by orders

“Requirement” includes any prohibition or restriction. 10
- (2) The court must, in particular, consider what requirements (if any) may be necessary to protect the person for whose protection the order is made from different kinds of abusive behaviour. 15
- (3) Subsections (4) to (6) contain examples of the type of provision that may be made under subsection (1), but they do not limit the type of provision that may be so made. 20

 - (a) may not contact the person for whose protection it is made;
 - (b) may not come within a specified distance of any premises in England or Wales in which that person lives.

Part 3 — Powers for dealing with domestic abuse

“Specified” means specified in the order.

- (a) prohibiting P from evicting or excluding that person from the premises;
- (b) prohibiting P from entering the premises;
- (c) requiring P to leave the premises. 10
- (6) A domestic abuse protection order may require P to submit to electronic monitoring in England and Wales of P’s compliance with other requirements imposed by the order. 15
- In this Part a requirement imposed by virtue of this subsection is referred to as an “electronic monitoring requirement”.
- (7) Sections 33 and 34 contain further provision about the requirements that may be imposed by a domestic abuse protection order. 20

 - (b) interference with any times at which the person normally works or attends an educational establishment; 5
 - (c) conflict with the requirements of any other court order or injunction to which the person may be subject.
- (2) A domestic abuse protection order that imposes a requirement to do something on a person (“P”) must specify the person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with that requirement. 10
- (3) Before including such a requirement in a domestic abuse protection order, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from the person to be specified under subsection (2). 15
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply in relation to electronic monitoring requirements (see instead section 34(3) to (6)). 20
- (5) It is the duty of a person specified under subsection (2)—
 - (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (the “relevant requirements”); 25

Part 3 — Powers for dealing with domestic abuse

- (b) to promote P’s compliance with the relevant requirements;
 - (c) if the person considers that—
 - (i) P has complied with all the relevant requirements, or 5
 - (ii) P has failed to comply with a relevant requirement, to inform the appropriate chief officer of police.
- (6) In subsection (5)(c) the “appropriate chief officer of police” means— 10
- (a) the chief officer of police of the force maintained for the police area in which it appears to the person specified under subsection (2) that P resides, 15
 - (b) if it appears to that person that P resides in more than one police area, whichever one of the relevant chief officers of police the person thinks it most appropriate to inform, or 20
 - (c) if it appears to the person specified under subsection (2) that P does not reside in any police area, the chief officer of police of the force maintained for the police area in which the court that made the order is situated. 25
- (7) A person (“P”) who is subject to a requirement imposed by a domestic abuse protection order—

- (a) must keep in touch with the person specified under subsection (2) in relation to that requirement, in accordance with any instructions given by that person from time to time; 5
- (b) if P changes home address, must notify the person specified under subsection (2) of the new home address;
- (c) if P ceases to have any home address, must notify the person specified under subsection (2) of that fact. 10

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.

34 Further provision about electronic monitoring requirements 15

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) apply for the purpose of determining whether a court may impose an electronic monitoring requirement on a person (“P”) in a domestic abuse protection order. 20
- (2) The requirement may not be imposed in P’s absence.
- (3) If there is a person (other than P) without whose co-operation it would be impracticable to secure the monitoring in question, the requirement may not be imposed without that person’s consent. 25
- (4) The court may impose the requirement only if—

Part 3 — Powers for dealing with domestic abuse

- (a) it has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available in the relevant area, and
- (b) it is satisfied that the necessary provision can be made under the arrangements currently available. 5
- (5) In subsection (4)(a) “the relevant area” means—
- (a) the local justice area in which it appears to the court that P resides or will reside, and 10
- (b) in a case where it is proposed to include in the order—

- (6) A domestic abuse protection order that includes an electronic monitoring requirement must specify the person who is to be responsible for the monitoring. 25
- (7) The person specified under subsection (6) (“the responsible person”) must be of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(8) Where a domestic abuse protection order imposes an electronic monitoring requirement on a person, the person must (among other things)—

(i) being fitted with, or the installation of, any necessary apparatus, and

10

20

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.
