Secretary Alok Sharma

90

Clause 2, page 3, line 4, leave out paragraph (b) and insert—

“(b) can be sold there without contravening any relevant requirements that would apply to their sale.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment makes a drafting correction to clause 2(1)(b) to cater more clearly for relevant requirements that take the form of a prohibition. The new wording means that the previous reference in parenthesis to a case where there are no relevant requirements is no longer necessary.

89

Clause 2, page 3, line 8, leave out from “requirements)” to end of line 10 and insert “must meet the relevant requirements of the part of the United Kingdom with the highest level of standards for that sale of that good.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that any good produced, or imported, into the United Kingdom would have to meet the level of standards for sale of that good in the part of the UK with the highest level standards.

Secretary Alok Sharma

Clause 2, page 3, line 21, leave out from “can” to end of line 24 and insert “be sold by auction in the originating part without contravening any applicable relevant requirements there”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment makes clause 2|(2) conform to the wording of clause 2)1)(b) as amended by Amendment 90.

34

Clause 3, page 7, line 23, leave out “consult” and insert “gain the agreement of”

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

73

Clause 4, page 7, line 12, leave out “not”

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment, linked to Amendment 74, is to ensure that mutual recognition applies to existing legislation as well as future legislation.

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

74

Clause 4, page 7, line 14, leave out from “principle” to end of line 18 on page 8.

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment, linked to Amendment 73, is to ensure that mutual recognition applies to existing legislation as well as future legislation.

Clause 6, page 11, line 23, leave out “consult” and insert “gain the agreement of”

Edward Miliband

86

Clause 8, page 15, line 15, at end insert—

“(c) the promotion of environmental, social and labour standards.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would expand the definition of “legitimate aim” that could permit discrimination against incoming goods to include the promotion of environmental, social and labour standards.

Ian Blackford

36

Clause 8, page 15 line 16, after “State” insert “after, obtaining the agreement of the devolved administrations,”

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

76

Clause 9, page 16, line 3, leave out “not”

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment, linked to Amendment 77, is to ensure that the non-discrimination principle applies to existing legislation as well as future legislation.

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

77

Clause 9, page 16, line 10, leave out subsections (2) and (3).

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment, linked to Amendment 76, is to ensure that the non-discrimination principle applies to existing legislation as well as future legislation.

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

78

Clause 10, page 16, line 27, at end, insert—

“(2A) In making these regulations, the Secretary of State must have special regard to the need to maintain the integral place of Northern Ireland in the United Kingdom internal market.

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment is to ensure that further exclusions from the application of the access principles have regard to safeguarding unfettered access of NI businesses to the UK Internal Market.

Secretary Alok Sharma

Schedule 1, page 96, line 5, leave out from “The” to “not” on line 6 and insert

“United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment means that measures aimed at preventing the spread of pests or diseases are capable of being excluded from the non discrimination principle for goods (as well as the mutual recognition principle for goods).

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Secretary Alok Sharma

Schedule 1, page 97, line 13, at end insert—

“(6A) In determining whether the fifth condition is met the following consideration is to be taken into account: whether the legislation, taken together with any similar legislation applying in the restricting part, imposes measures of similar severity in response to threats of similar severity arising from the potential movement of the pest or disease into, or within, the restricting part (wherever those threats originate).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment means that, in assessing whether a measure aimed at preventing the spread of pests or diseases can reasonably be justified as necessary, account will be taken of whether similar threats are addressed with similar severity.

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

Schedule 1, page 102, line 28, at end, insert—

“(6A) In the case that there is one REACH authorisation process for Great Britain, an authorisation that is lawful for the Northern Ireland market will be valid for the Great Britain market.”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member's explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment is to apply the non-discrimination principle to the REACH (Registration, Evaluation, Authorisation and Restriction of Chemicals) regime.

Secretary Alok Sharma

Schedule 1, page 103, line 15, at end insert—

“Fertilisers and pesticides

8A The mutual recognition principle for goods does not apply to (and section 2(3) does not affect the operation of) any of the following—

(a) a prohibition or condition imposed in accordance with Article 15(1) of Regulation (EC) No 2003/2003 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 October 2003 relating to fertilisers, as it forms part of retained EU law;

(b) regulations under section 74A(1) of the Agriculture Act 1970, to the extent that such regulations can reasonably be justified as a response to a risk to—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (i) the health or safety of humans, animals or plants, or
- (ii) the environment.

8B The mutual recognition principle for goods does not apply to (and section 2(3) does not affect the operation of) any of the following—

- (a) Regulation (EC) No 1107/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 concerning the placing of plant protection products on the market (etc), as it forms part of retained EU law;
- (b) the Plant Protection Products Regulations 2011 (S.I. 2011/2131);
- (c) the Plant Protection Products Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2011 (S.R. (N.I.) 2011 No. 295).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment excludes certain measures in relation to fertilisers and pesticides from the operation of the mutual recognition principle for goods.

Ian Blackford

80

Schedule 1, page 103, line 15, at end insert—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

“(8A) The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to fisheries within the jurisdiction of Scottish Government Ministers.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would exempt fisheries in Scotland from market access principles.

Edward Miliband

87

Schedule 1, page 104, line 20, at end insert—

“11 The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of) any legislation so far as it relates to public procurement.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would include specific reference to public procurement within those areas of regulation that are exempt from market access principles under Schedule 1.

Secretary Alok Sharma

93

Clause 14, page 20, line 11, after “thing” insert
“(including any packaging or label)”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment clarifies that “goods” for the purposes of Part 1 includes their packaging and any label attached to them.

Secretary Alok Sharma

94

Clause 14, page 20, line 17, leave out “significant regulated step in their production” and insert “significant production step which is a regulated step”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment, with Amendment 95 clarifies the rule for determining whether goods have been produced in a part of the United Kingdom for the purposes of Part 1.

Secretary Alok Sharma

95

Clause 14, page 20, line 19, leave out subsection (4) and insert—

“(4) A production step occurring in a part of the United Kingdom is “regulated” for the purposes of subsection (3) if —

(a) it is the subject of any statutory requirement in that part of the United Kingdom, or

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(b) it is a step that could materially affect a person's ability to sell the goods without contravening—

(i) any relevant requirement for the purposes of the mutual recognition principle for goods, or

(ii) any statutory requirement that is excluded from being a relevant requirement by section 4(1), that would be applicable to a sale of the goods in that part of the United Kingdom (being a sale of a kind for which the goods are being produced).

(4A) A production step is “significant” for the purposes of subsection (3) if it is significant in terms of the character of the goods being produced and the purposes for which they are to be sold or used (but see subsections (4B) and (4C)).

(4B) A production step falling within any of the following descriptions is not significant (whether or not it is regulated)—

(a) activities carried out specifically to ensure goods do not deteriorate before being sold (such as maintaining them at or below a particular temperature);

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(b) activities carried out solely for purposes relevant to their presentation for sale (such as cleaning or pressing fabrics or sorting different coloured items for packaging together);

(c) activities involving a communication of any kind with a regulatory or trade body (such as registering the goods or notifying the goods or anything connected with them or their production);

(d) activities carried out for the purpose of testing or assessing any characteristic of the goods (such as batch testing a pharmaceutical product).

(4C) A production step involving the packaging, labelling or marking of goods is not significant (whether or not it is regulated) unless the step is fundamental to the character of the goods and the purposes for which they are to be sold or used.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment explains terms used in clause 14(3) as amended by Amendment 94.

Ian Blackford

40

Clause 14, page 22, line 9, at end insert—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

“(8A) A reference in this Part to “regulations” must take into account the requirements of section (Maintenance of minimum standards).”

Secretary Alok Sharma

92

Clause 14, page 22, line 13, at end insert—

“(4) “Contravening” includes failing to comply.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This drafting amendment ensures that references to contravening a relevant requirement cover a failure to comply with such a requirement (for example a failure to comply with a condition).

Secretary Alok Sharma

97

Clause 15, page 22, line 17, after “application” insert
“and effect”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure the introductory provision in clause 15 properly reflects the effects of clauses 18 and 19.

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Secretary Alok Sharma

98

Clause 15, page 23, line 7, after “requirements” insert “as defined”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is a textual clarification to accommodate the change in Amendment 99.

Secretary Alok Sharma

99

Clause 15, page 23, line 7, leave out from “of” to end and insert “the mutual recognition principle for goods (see section 3);”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow provision within the scope of the non-discrimination principle for goods to also fall within the scope of the services provisions.

Secretary Alok Sharma

100

Clause 15, page 23, line 10, leave out paragraph (b) and insert—

“(b) provision of the sort described in section 22(1) or 26(1) (professional qualifications and regulation) to the extent it has the effect described in those subsections;”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify what it means for provision to be within the scope of Part 3.

Secretary Alok Sharma

101

Clause 15, page 23, line 14, after “force” insert “, or otherwise has effect,”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify how the exception for existing requirements is to apply to requirements not contained in legislation.

Secretary Alok Sharma

102

Clause 15, page 23, line 16, after “force” insert “and has not been substantively changed after that day”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify how the exception for existing requirements is to apply to requirements not contained in legislation.

Secretary Alok Sharma

106

Clause 15, page 24, line 1, leave out from “of” to end and insert “being authorised to provide services in a part of the United Kingdom other than the part in which the requirement applies.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that it is requirements to provide evidence of having been authorised that are excluded from Part 2.

Secretary Alok Sharma

107

Clause 15, page 24, line 2, at end insert—

“(5A) Subsection (5)(c) does not exclude (and, accordingly, references to authorisation requirements do include) an authorisation requirement that applies in a part of the United Kingdom if, after the relevant day, a corresponding authorisation requirement in another part of the United Kingdom is substantively changed.

(5B) For the purposes of subsection (5A)—

(a) an authorisation requirement corresponds to another authorisation requirement if it relates to the same, or substantially the same, services;

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(b) an authorisation requirement is substantively changed if, for example, the circumstances in which permission may be granted are changed;

(c) the “relevant day” is the day before the day on which this section comes into force.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would bring a requirement into the scope of Part 2 if a corresponding requirement in another part of the UK was substantively changed after the section comes into force.

Secretary Alok Sharma

108

Clause 16, page 25, line 24, leave out “Part” and insert “section”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that the time limit will be counted from the day the section comes into force.

Secretary Alok Sharma

112

Schedule 2, page 110, line 23, at end insert—

“Notarial services”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would list notarial services as an exception to services non-discrimination.

Secretary Alok Sharma

111

Schedule 2, page 106, line 27, at end insert—

“Notarial services”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would list notarial services as an exception to services mutual regulation.

Secretary Alok Sharma

109

Clause 21, page 32, line 5, leave out from “regulator” to end and insert “means a person exercising regulatory functions, and includes—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (a) a Minister of the Crown,
- (b) the Scottish Ministers,
- (c) the Welsh Ministers, and
- (d) a Northern Ireland department;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the omission of clause 20 - it replicates subsections (1) and (2) of that clause, leaving subsections (3) and (4) to be omitted.

Secretary Alok Sharma

110

Clause 21, page 32, line 11, at end insert—

“(2) Any effect of sections 5, 18 or 19 (direct and indirect discrimination for goods and services) is to be disregarded when considering whether a person is authorised to provide services in another part of the United Kingdom for the purposes of section 17 (mutual recognition for services).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that a service provider may rely on an authorisation based on discriminatory requirements when demonstrating existing authorisations for mutual recognition.

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is linked to Amendment 81.

Colum Eastwood

84

Clause 24, page 36, line 4, after “resident” insert “or frontier worker”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would accord the same rights to frontier workers as to qualifying UK residents under this clause.

Colum Eastwood

85

Clause 24, page 36, line 16, leave out “, the resident” and insert “or frontier worker, the resident or frontier worker”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is linked to Amendment 84.

Secretary Alok Sharma

96

Clause 27, page 45, line 28, leave out “all or any”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that registration or licensing requirements that relate only to a specific professional or occupational activity, rather than to activities that (as a whole) comprise the practice of a profession or occupation, do not fall within clause 22.

Ian Blackford

27

Clause 27, page 47, line 27, after “training” insert “that has been agreed and approved by the devolved ministers”

Secretary Alok Sharma

NC12

To move the following Clause—

“Guidance relating to Part 1

- (1) The Secretary of State may issue guidance on any matter relating to—
 - (a) the practical operation of the market access principles, or
 - (b) the effect of any provision of this Part.
- (2) Guidance may be directed towards the public generally or towards any description of persons

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(such as traders, persons with enforcement functions or a class of such traders or persons).

- (3) In subsection (2) “enforcement function” means a function relating to the enforcement of anything which is (or is capable of being) a relevant requirement for the purposes of either of the market access principles for goods.
- (4) The power of the Secretary of State under subsection (1) includes power to revise or withdraw (in whole or part) any guidance previously issued.
- (5) The Secretary of State must arrange for the publication of—
 - (a) any guidance that has been issued, as revised from time to time;
 - (b) any revisions made under subsection (4);
 - (c) notice of the withdrawal of any guidance under subsection (4).
- (6) In this section “guidance” means guidance under subsection (1).”

Member’s explanatory statement

The new clause confers a statutory power on the Secretary of State to issue and publish guidance in relation to Part 1 of the Bill.

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Ian Blackford

NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Maintenance of minimum standards

Regulations under this Part must not result in lower food or environmental standards applying in any part of the United Kingdom than apply in the European Union.”

Caroline Lucas

NC10

To move the following Clause—

“Environmental derogation for market access principles

The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of) any legislation or other requirement so far as—

- (a) its purpose is to protect the environment, and
- (b) it is a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim.”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this new clause is to provide for exceptions and derogations that allow all four UK nations to put in place proportionate measures to protect the environment and improve environmental standards.

Sir Jeffrey M Donaldson

72

Clause 48, page 90, line 2, at end insert—”or
(b) has the effect of making Northern Ireland businesses less competitive in the Great Britain market.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this amendment is to include within the definition of distortive or harmful subsidies a subsidy which has the effect of making NI businesses less competitive in the GB market.

Liz Saville Roberts

13

Page 87, leave out Clause 48.

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Margaret Ferrier

88

Clause 49, page 90, line 2, leave out subsection (1)
Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent the United Kingdom Internal Market Act 2020 from being inserted into Schedule 4 of the Scotland Act 1998, meaning that this Bill would not become a “protected enactment” under that legislation.

Ian Blackford

38

Clause 54, page 95, line 15, leave out “Scotland”
Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent this Act extending to Scotland.

Sir Robert Neill

Clause 54, page 95, line 18, at end insert—

“(2A) The relevant sections of this Act come into force in accordance only if—

(a) a Minister of the Crown has moved a motion in the House of Commons specifying on which date a relevant section comes into force, and

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(b) that motion is approved by resolution of the House of Commons.

(2B) The relevant sections for the purposes of subsection (2A) are sections 42, 43 and 45.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent any of sections 42 (Power to disapply or modify export declarations and other exit procedures), 43 (Regulations about Article 10 of the Northern Ireland Protocol) and 45 (Further provision related to sections 42 and 43 etc) coming into force before the House of Commons had approved by resolution the date from which they would take effect.

Liz Saville Roberts

Clause 54, page 95, line 19, leave out subsections (3) and (4) and insert—

“(2A) The other provisions of this Act may not come into force (and in particular no additions may be made to Part 2 of Schedule 7A to the Government of Wales Act 2006 (specific reservations), Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998 (specific reservations) or Schedule 2 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (excepted matters)) until the Prime Minister is satisfied that resolutions

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

have been passed in Senedd Cymru, the Scottish Parliament and the Northern Ireland Assembly in favour of those provisions coming into force.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that no additional powers are reserved to Westminster through this Bill unless either the devolved legislatures of Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland give their consent.

Liz Saville Roberts

Clause 54, page 95, line 19, leave out subsections (3) and (4) and insert—

“(2A) The other provisions of this Act may not come into force (and in particular no additions may be made to Part 2 of Schedule 7A to the Government of Wales Act 2006 (specific reservations), Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998 (specific reservations) or Schedule 2 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (excepted matters)) until the Prime Minister is satisfied that majority votes in favour of this Bill are achieved in referendums in Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that no additional powers are reserved to Westminster through this Bill unless a majority of the electorate of Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland vote in favour of the Bill through referendums.

Secretary Alok Sharma

Clause 54, page 95, line 22, at end insert—

“(3A) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (3) may not appoint a day for the commencement of section 42, 43 or 45 unless—

(a) a Minister of the Crown has moved a motion in the House of Commons to the effect that sections 42, 43 and 45 may be commenced on or after a day specified in the motion (“the specified day”),

(b) the motion has been approved by a resolution of that House,

(c) a motion to the effect that the House of Lords takes note of the specified day (or the day which is proposed to be the specified day) has been tabled in the House of Lords by a Minister of the Crown, and

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(d) the day appointed by the regulations is the same as or is after the specified day.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would provide that clauses 42, 43 and 45 could only be commenced on or after a day approved by the House of Commons and referred to in a motion tabled in the House of Lords.

Ian Blackford

39

Clause 54, page 95, line 22, at end insert—

“(3A) Regulations under subsection (3) may not be made before a legislative consent motion relating to this Act has been approved by the each of the devolved legislatures in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the remainder of the Act to have gained consent of the devolved legislatures before coming into effect.

Wendy Chamberlain

NC9

To move the following Clause—

“UK Council of Ministers

- (1) The Secretary of State must publish no later than three months from the date on which this Act is passed a framework for a UK Council of Ministers to be agreed by resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (2) The responsibilities of the UK Council of Ministers must include—
 - (a) considering the UK Government’s use of financial assistance for economic development in terms of section 46 of this Act;
 - (b) considering the terms of any reports prepared by the Competition and Markets Authority in terms of section 29 of this Act;
 - (c) considering the extent to which its members have acted in a manner consistent with the devolved settlement;
 - (d) reviewing and considering the impact of any aspect of the internal market of the United Kingdom on any part of the United Kingdom;
 - (e) requesting that the Secretary of State take specific necessary action to facilitate policy objectives in an area within the competence of the Secretary of State.

- (3) The membership of the UK Council of Ministers must include representatives from all parts of the United Kingdom and its devolved administrations.” Member’s explanatory

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause establishes a UK Council of Ministers to ensure the effective functioning of the Internal Market and to examine spending under this Bill.

Edward Miliband

NC11

To move the following Clause—

“Review of the Act

- (1) Within three months of the date on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must lay a report before each House of Parliament on the dates on which each section—
- (a) was commenced; or
 - (b) is planned to be commenced.
- (2) The Secretary of State must arrange for a review to be carried out within three months of the date on which this Act is passed, and thereafter at least once in each calendar year on the operation of this Act.

- (3) The Secretary of State must invite the Scottish Government, the Welsh Government and the Northern Ireland Executive to contribute to the reviews in subsection (2).
- (4) The reviews under subsection (2) must make an assessment of—
 - (a) the functioning of the United Kingdom internal market;
 - (b) the effectiveness of market access principles;
 - (c) progress towards agreeing common frameworks with the devolved administrations;
 - (d) progress towards drawing up a shared prosperity fund framework; and
 - (e) progress in resolving issues through the Joint Committee machinery in the Withdrawal Agreement.
- (5) The Prime Minister must arrange for a report of any review under this section to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as practicable after its completion.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this new clause is to provide Parliament with information on the working of this
