Clause 40, page 31, line 26, at end insert—

“(2A) On or after IP completion day, an appropriate authority must not exercise any function in a way that would—

- (a) result in an existing kind of GB-NI check, control or administrative process being used—
  - (i) for the first time, or
  - (ii) for a new purpose or to a new extent; or
- (b) result in a new kind of GB-NI check, control or administrative process—
  - (i) being introduced, or
  - (ii) being used.

“(2B) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) a “GB-NI” check, control or administrative process is one applicable to the direct movement of goods produced in a part of the United Kingdom from Great Britain to Northern Ireland;
- (b) goods are to be regarded as “produced in” a part of the United Kingdom (if not wholly produced there) if the most recent significant regulated step in their production has occurred there.”
- (c) an “existing kind” of GB-NI check, control or administrative process is one that—
  - (i) was in use or available for use immediately before IP completion day, or
  - (ii) is the same as, or substantially similar to, one that was in use or available for use immediately before IP completion day (the “predecessor”);
- (d) a “new kind of” GB-NI check, control or administrative process is one that is not of an existing kind;
- (e) where an GB-NI check, control or administrative process is of an existing kind because of paragraph (b)(ii), that check, control or administrative process and the predecessor are to be treated as a single function for the purpose of determining whether subsection (1)(a) prevents its exercise;
- (f) the purpose for which, or extent to which, a function would be used is “new” if the function has not been used for that purpose, or to that extent, before IP completion day.

(2C) A Minister of the Crown may by regulations amend this section so that it applies to a type of movement instead of, or in addition to, a type of movement to which it already applies (whether that type of movement is direct movement or another type of movement provided for by regulations under this subsection).”

- (a) the appropriate authority exercising the function is the Treasury, the Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs, or the Director of Border Revenue,
- (b) the function is exercised for the purposes of VAT or excise duty (including for the purposes of preventing double taxation, partial or complete non-taxation, or evasion), and
- (c) the appropriate authority exercising the function considers that the exercise is necessary in consequence of the Northern Ireland Protocol.

(3B) For the purposes of this section the exercise of a function “is necessary for the purpose of dealing with a threat to biosecurity in Great Britain” if the exercise of the function consists of—

- (a) the making, or operation, of legislation which satisfies the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Schedule 1, or
- (b) any other activity which satisfies the conditions set out in paragraph 1(2) (3), (4) and (6) of Schedule 1 (reading any reference in those conditions to “legislation” as a reference to the activity in question).

(3C) In determining for the purposes of subsection (3B)(b) whether the condition in paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 1 is met, a pest or disease is to be taken to be present in Northern Ireland if it is, or may be, present in qualifying Northern Ireland goods (including when the goods are in Great Britain).”

Clause 14, page 9, line 1, leave out subsection (4) and insert—

“(4) A production step occurring in a part of the United Kingdom is “regulated” for the purposes of subsection (3) if —

- (a) it is the subject of any statutory requirement in that part of the United Kingdom, or
- (b) it is a step that could materially affect a person’s ability to sell the goods without contravening—
  - (i) any relevant requirement for the purposes of the mutual recognition principle for goods, or
  - (ii) any statutory requirement that is excluded from being a relevant requirement by section 4(1), that would be applicable to a sale of the goods in that part of the United Kingdom (being a sale of a kind for which the goods are being produced).

(4A) A production step is “significant” for the purposes of subsection (3) if it is significant in terms of the character of the goods being produced and the purposes for which they are to be sold or used (but see subsections (4B) and (4C)).

(4B) A production step falling within any of the following descriptions is not significant (whether or not it is regulated)—

- (a) activities carried out specifically to ensure goods do not deteriorate before being sold (such as maintaining them at or below a particular temperature);
- (b) activities carried out solely for purposes relevant to their presentation for sale (such as cleaning or pressing fabrics or sorting different coloured items for packaging together);

- (c) activities involving a communication of any kind with a regulatory or trade body (such as registering the goods or notifying the goods or anything connected with them or their production);
  - (d) activities carried out for the purpose of testing or assessing any characteristic of the goods (such as batch testing a pharmaceutical product).
- (4C) A production step involving the packaging, labelling or marking of goods is not significant (whether or not it is regulated) unless the step is fundamental to the character of the goods and the purposes for which they are to be sold or used.”
