- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Commissioner approval for authorisations to identify or confirm journalistic sources

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if a designated person has granted a criminal conduct authorisation for the purposes of identifying or confirming a source of journalistic information.
- (2) The authorisation is not to take effect until such time (if any) as a Judicial Commissioner has approved it.
- (3) A Judicial Commissioner may approve the authorisation if, and only if, the Judicial Commissioner considers that—
  - (a) at the time of the grant, there were reasonable grounds for considering that the requirements of this Part were satisfied in relation to the authorisation, and
  - (b) at the time when the Judicial Commissioner is considering the matter, there are reasonable grounds for considering that the requirements of this Part would be satisfied if an equivalent new authorisation were granted at that time.
- (4) In considering whether the position is as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) and (b), the Judicial Commissioner must, in particular, have regard to—
  - (a) the public interest in protecting a source of journalistic information, and
  - (b) the need for there to be another overriding public interest before a relevant public authority seeks to identify or confirm a source of journalistic information.
- (5) Where, on an application under this section, the Judicial Commissioner refuses to approve the grant of the authorisation, the Judicial Commissioner may quash the authorisation.

★ To move the following Clause—

Section 29C: Criminal conduct authorisations: Granting to children and vulnerable sources

- (1) This section applies when the source is—
    - (a) under the age of 18,
    - (b) a vulnerable individual, as defined in subsection (5),
    - (c) a victim of modern slavery or trafficking, as defined in subsection (6).
  - (2) No criminal conduct authorisations may be granted for a source to whom subsection (1) applies unless the authorising officer believes that exceptional circumstances apply that necessitate the authorisation.
  - (3) Where a source is one to whom subsection (1) applies the arrangements referred to in section 29(2)(c) of this Act must be such that there is at all times a person holding an office, rank or position with a relevant investigating authority who has responsibility for ensuring that an appropriate adult is present at all meetings between the source and a person representing any relevant investigating authority.
  - (4) In subsection (3) “appropriate adult” means—
    - (a) the parent or guardian of the source;
    - (b) any other person who has for the time being assumed responsibility for his welfare; or
    - (c) where no person falling within paragraph (a) or (b) is available, any responsible person aged eighteen or over who is neither a member of nor employed by any relevant investigating authority.
  - (5) A “vulnerable individual” is a person who by reason of mental disorder or vulnerability, other disability, age or illness, is or may be unable to take care of themselves, or unable to protect themselves against significant harm or exploitation.
  - (6) A “victim of modern slavery or trafficking” is a person who the relevant investigating authority believes is or may be a victim of trafficking as defined by section 2 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, or exploitation as defined by section 3 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
  - (7) The “exceptional circumstances” in subsection (2) include—
    - (a) where authorisation of the criminal conduct authorisation is necessary to protect life and limb, including in relation to the CHIS; and
    - (b) where authorisation of the criminal conduct authorisation is necessary on the grounds of national security. “
