NC1

To move the following Clause—

“National Security definition

When assessing a risk to national security, the Secretary of State may have regard to factors including, but not restricted to—

- (a) whether the trigger event risks enabling a hostile actor to gain control of a crucial supply chain, obtain access to sensitive sites, corrupt processes or systems, conduct espionage, exert inappropriate leverage or engage in any other action which may undermine national security;
- (b) whether the trigger event adversely impacts the UK's capability and capacity to maintain economic security;
- (c) the potential impact of the trigger event on the UK's defence capabilities and interests;
- (d) the potential impact of the trigger event on the transfer of sensitive data, technology or know-how outside of the UK;
- (e) the characteristics of the acquirer, including its jurisdiction of incorporation and proximity to any state;
- (f) the potential impact of the trigger event on the security of the UK's critical national infrastructure;

- (g) whether the acquirer in respect of a trigger event has a history of compliance with UK and other applicable law;
- (h) the potential impact of the trigger event on the UK's international interests and obligations, including with respect to the protection of human rights and climate risk; and
- (i) the potential of the trigger event to involve or facilitate illicit activities, including terrorism, organised crime and money laundering.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause specifies a number of factors which the Secretary of State may consider when assessing a risk to national security.

Stephen Flynn
Peter Grant

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Report on impact on Small to Medium Enterprises

Not later than 18 months after the day on which this Act receives Royal Assent, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament—

- (a) a report setting out the impacts the Act has had on Small to Medium Enterprises and early-stage ventures, and
- (b) guidance for Small to Medium Enterprises and early-stage ventures on complying with the provisions of this Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to produce a report setting out the impacts of this legislation on Small to Medium Enterprises and early-stage ventures, and to produce relevant guidance.

Stephen Flynn
Peter Grant

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Grace period for SMEs

For the purposes of section 32, a person has a reasonable excuse if—

- (a) the entity concerned is a Small to Medium Enterprise;
- (b) this Act has been in force for less than six months.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause creates a grace period whereby – for alleged offences committed under Section 32 – Small to Medium Enterprises would have a ‘reasonable excuse’ if the alleged offence was committed within the first six months after the Bill's passage.
