NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Equality impact analysis

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the equality impact of sections 87 to 89 and schedule 16 and 17 of this Act and lay a report of that review before the House of Commons within six months of the passing of this Act.
- (2) A review under this section must consider the impact of those sections on—
 - (a) households at different levels of income,
 - (b) people with protected characteristics (within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010),
 - (c) the Treasury’s compliance with the public sector equality duty under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010, and

- (d) equality in England, Northern Ireland and in different regions of England.
- (3) A review under this section must provide a separate analysis in relation to each of the following matters—
 - (a) the temporary period for reduced rates on residential property,
 - (b) increased rates for non-resident transactions, and
 - (c) relief from higher rate charge for certain housing co-operatives etc.
- (4) In this section “regions of England” has the same meaning as that used by the Office for National Statistics.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor of the Exchequer to carry out and publish a review of the effects of sections 87 to 89 and schedules 16 and 17 of the Bill on equality in relation to households with different levels of income, people with protected characteristics, the Treasury’s public sector equality duty and on a geographical basis.

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Fiscal and economic impact of 2% non-resident surcharge

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the impact of section 88 and schedule 16 and lay a report of that review before the House of Commons within six months of the passing of this Act and once a year thereafter.
- (2) A review under this section must estimate the expected impact of section 88 and schedule 16 on—
 - (a) Stamp Duty Land Tax revenue at the increased rates of 2%, and what the revenue impact would have been if the rate had been 3%,
 - (b) residential property prices, and
 - (c) affordability of residential property.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to report on the effect of the 2% stamp duty land tax non-resident surcharge on tax revenues and on the price and affordability of property.

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Review into the effects of replacement of LIBOR

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must undertake a review within six months of the passing of this Act of the effects of sections 128 and 129.
- (2) This review must consider—
 - (a) the implications for tax revenue,
 - (b) effects on financial stability, and
 - (c) effects on businesses that use LIBOR as a benchmark, including businesses offering supply chain finance.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require a review into the effects of the provisions of the Bill about replacing LIBOR.

NC6

★ To move the following Clause—

“Review of impact on corporation tax revenues of global minimum rate of corporation tax

The Chancellor of the Exchequer must within six months of Royal Assent lay before the House of Commons an assessment of the effect on corporation tax revenues in 2022 and 2023 of a global minimum corporation tax rate set at 21%.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to publish an assessment of the revenue effect of a global minimum corporation tax rate of 21%.

NC7

★ To move the following Clause—

“Analysis of effectiveness of provisions of this Act on tax avoidance and evasion

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the effectiveness of the provisions of this Act in accordance with this section and lay a report of that review before the House of Commons within six months of the passing of this Act.
- (2) A review under this section must—
 - (a) assess the effects of the provisions in reducing levels of artificial tax avoidance,
 - (b) assess the effects of the provisions in combating tax evasion and money laundering, and
 - (c) estimate the role of the provisions of this Act in reducing the tax gap in each tax year from 2021 to 2024.”

1

Clause 9, page 5, line 2, at end insert “provided that any such company which has more than £1 million in qualifying expenditure must also make a climate-related financial disclosure in line with the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures within the 2021/22 tax year.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would, in respect of companies with qualifying expenditure of over £1 million, add a condition relating to climate-related financial disclosure to the conditions that must be met in order for expenditure to qualify for super-deductions.
