To move the following Clause—

“Emergency appointment of proxy

- (1) The Secretary of State must make regulations enabling voters on a relevant electoral register to apply to appoint a proxy on grounds of a personal emergency.
- (2) Such applications shall be granted by the relevant registration officer provided that the officer—
 - (a) is satisfied that the reason for the application is such that it would be unreasonable for the applicant to vote in person,
 - (b) has no reasonable grounds to believe that the stated basis for the application is untrue, and

- (c) has received the application not later than 5 pm on the day of the poll at that election.
- (3) The Secretary of State may issue guidance to registration officers on fulfilling their duties under this section."

 - (n) the Home Office; and
 - (o) the Ministry of Justice.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (2) may also apply to other public bodies.
- (5) Registration officers must—
 - (a) use the information provided by the public bodies listed in regulations under subsection (3) to register otherwise unregistered persons on the appropriate electoral register or registers, or
 - (b) if the information provided does not contain all information necessary to register a person who may be eligible, contact that person for the purpose of obtaining the required information to establish whether they are eligible to register and, if so, register them on the appropriate electoral register or registers.

- (6) If a registration officer has registered a person under subsection (5), the officer must notify that person within 30 days and give that person an opportunity to correct any incorrect information.
- (7) Where a person is registered under subsection (5), that person shall be omitted from the edited register unless that person notifies the registration officer to the contrary.
- (8) Nothing in this section affects entitlement to register to vote anonymously.
- (9) The Secretary of State may issue guidance to registration officers on fulfilling their duties under this section."

★ To move the following Clause—

“Report on electoral integrity and interference by foreign powers

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a report on—
 - (a) the extent to which the measures in this Act and other related enactments provide adequate protection against interference by foreign powers in UK elections, and
 - (b) where necessary, recommendations for change.
- (2) In preparing the report the Secretary of State must consider the potential implications for electoral integrity of moving the operational role for protecting the integrity of British democracy from the Department for Culture, Media and Sport, to the Home Office and MI5, in line with its statutory responsibility for “the protection of national security and, in particular, its protection against threats from espionage, terrorism and sabotage, from the activities of agents of foreign powers and from actions intended to overthrow or undermine parliamentary democracy” and for that policy role to sit with the Office for Security and Counterterrorism (OSCT).
- (3) The report must be laid before Parliament within 90 days of the day on which this Act is passed.”
