 - (b) there are no reasonable grounds for that decision.
- (7) In deciding whether to believe any statement made by or on behalf of the age-disputed person that is relevant to the assessment of their age, the decision-maker must take into account, as damaging the age-disputed person's credibility (or the credibility of a person who has made a statement on their behalf), the decision not to consent to the use of the specified scientific method.
- (8) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (9) This section does not prevent the use of a scientific method that is not a specified scientific method for the purposes of an age assessment under section (Persons subject to immigration control: referral or assessment by local authority etc) or (Persons subject to immigration control: assessment for immigration purposes) if the decision-maker considers it appropriate to do so and, where necessary, the appropriate consent is given."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause provides for use of scientific methods in age assessments. If a person refuses to consent to a method specified in regulations, this may damage their credibility. Before a method can be specified, it must be considered appropriate, on the basis of scientific advice. Other (non-specified) scientific methods may be used in appropriate circumstances, but failure to consent to those would not affect credibility.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“New information following age assessment or appeal

- (1) This section applies where—

 - (c) the decision-maker becomes aware of new information relating to P’s age.
- (2) In this section, the age assessment referred to in subsection (1)(a) is referred to as the “first age assessment”.
- (3) In a case where the first age assessment was conducted by a designated person, they must—
 - (a) decide whether the new information is significant new evidence, and
 - (b) if they decide that it is, conduct a further age assessment on P.
- (4) In a case where the first age assessment was conducted by a local authority, it must—

- (6) A further age assessment conducted by a designated person under subsection (3) or (4)(b)(ii) is to be treated—
- (a) in a case where the first age assessment was conducted under section (Persons subject to immigration control: referral or assessment by local authority etc), as an age assessment conducted by the designated person following a referral under subsection (3)(a) of that section;
 - (b) in a case where the first age assessment was conducted under section (Persons subject to immigration control: assessment for immigration purposes), as an age assessment conducted under that section.
- (7) A further age assessment conducted by a local authority under subsection (4)(b)(i) is to be treated as an age assessment conducted by a local authority under section (Persons subject to immigration control: referral or assessment by local authority etc)(3)(b).
- (8) A person conducting a further age assessment under this section does not need to revisit matters that were considered in the first age assessment if they do not think it is necessary to do so."
