Member's explanatory statement

  - (i) the residential unit complies in all material respects with all applicable statutory requirements and with all applicable building regulations in force as at the date of completion.
- (2) Every residential renovation contract is to be taken to contain terms that any renovation works—

To move the following Clause—

“Leaseholder Costs Protection

- (1) This section applies to a relevant building where a landlord has carried out any fire safety works to a building in consequence of any provision, duty or guidance arising from—
  - (a) the Housing Act 2004;
  - (b) the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety Order) 2005;
  - (c) this Act;
  - (d) any direction, recommendation or suggestion of any public authority or regulatory body; and
  - (e) such other circumstances or enactment as the Secretary of State may prescribe by regulations.
- (2) If any of the conditions in subsection (1) are met, then the costs incurred by the landlord in connection with those matters may not be the subject of a demand for payment of service charges, administration charges or any other charge permitted or authorised by any provision of any long lease.
- (3) Any demand for payment which contravenes this section shall be of no force or effect and will have no validity in law.
- (4) Any covenant or agreement, whether contained in a lease or in an agreement collateral to such a lease, is void insofar as it purports to authorise any forfeiture or impose on the tenant any penalty, disability or obligation in the event of the tenant refusing, failing or declining to make a payment to which this section applies.

- (5) This section applies to demands for payment before the landlord incurs the costs in the same way as it applies to demands for payment made after the costs have been incurred.
- (6) This section does not apply where the landlord is a company in which the majority of the shares are held by leaseholders or where the landlord is an RTM company.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, a relevant building is any building containing one or more residential dwellings let on a long lease.
- (8) In this section—

“administration charge” has the meaning given by Schedule 11 to the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002;

“fire safety works” means any work or service carried out for the purpose of eradicating or mitigating (whether permanently or temporarily) any risk associated with the spread of fire, the structural integrity of the building or the ability of people to evacuate the building;

“long lease” has the meaning given by sections 76 and 77 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002;

“residential dwelling” means any dwelling or other unit of residential accommodation, including any internal or external common parts of any building necessary for the occupation of that residential unit;

“service charge” has the meaning given by section 18 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985;

“RTM company” has the meaning given by section 113 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002.

- (9) This section comes into force on the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause prevents the costs of any fire safety or building safety remedial works being passed on to leaseholders.

- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the list in sub-paragraph (3).

Special measures order: change in accountable person etc

- 22 (1) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) apply where at any time (“the relevant time”) during which a special measures order relating to a higher-risk building is in force, an accountable person for the building (“the outgoing person”)

- (2) From the relevant time the special measures order ceases to apply to the outgoing person in relation to the relevant part of the building.
- (3) From the relevant time the special measures order applies to any person who, immediately after the relevant time—
  - (a) is an accountable person for the building, and
  - (b) is responsible for the relevant part of the building or any part of the relevant part,as it applied to the outgoing person in relation to the relevant part or part of the relevant part (as the case may be) immediately before the relevant time.
- (4) But sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) do not affect any liability under the order to which the outgoing person became subject before the relevant time.
- (5) Where an enactment requires interests, charges or other obligations affecting land to be registered, sub-paragraph (3) has effect whether or not the special measures order is registered.
