NEW CLAUSES, NEW SCHEDULES AND AMENDMENTS RELATING TO PARTS 1 AND 2

Kemi Badenoch

NC11

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

To move the following Clause—

“Power to make regulations about registration, absent voting and other matters

Schedule (Power to make regulations about registration, absent voting and other matters) contains provision, including provision amending Schedule 2 to RPA 1983, in connection with applications relating to registration, applications to vote by post or proxy, and applications for particular kinds of document.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause, to be inserted after clause 1, introduces NS1.

Alex Norris

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Voting from age 16 in parliamentary elections

In section 1(1)(d) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (definition of voting age for parliamentary elections), for “18” substitute “16”.”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would lower the voting age to 16 in UK parliamentary elections.

Brendan O'Hara

NC3

To move the following Clause—

"Citizens' assembly on electoral systems

- (1) The Secretary of State must establish a citizens' assembly representative of the population aged 16 and over to consider electoral systems in the United Kingdom.
- (2) The Secretary of State must, for each category of election reformed by section (Simple majority system to be used in elections for certain offices), provide to the assembly a report assessing the effects of the reforms on the matters in subsection (3).
- (3) The matters are—
  - (a) voter engagement and understanding,

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (b) electoral integrity,
  - (c) fairness and proportionality.
- (4) A report under subsection (2) must be provided to the assembly no later than three months after the first election in each category of election after this section comes into force.
- (5) The assembly must—
- (a) consider the reports under subsection (2),
  - (b) consider other evidence relating to the matters in subsection (3).
- (6) The assembly may make recommendations for legislative or policy change, including for parliamentary elections.”

Brendan O’Hara

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Automatic Voter Registration

- (1) It is a duty of—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (a) the Secretary of State; and
  - (b) registration officers to take all reasonable steps to ensure that persons eligible to register to vote in elections in the United Kingdom are so registered.
- (2) The Secretary of State must by regulations require public bodies to provide information to registration officers in accordance with the duty under subsection (1).
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2) must apply to public bodies including but not limited to—
- (a) HM Revenue and Customs;
  - (b) the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency;
  - (c) the National Health Service;
  - (d) NHS Scotland;
  - (e) all types of state funded schools;
  - (f) local authorities;
  - (g) the Department for Work and Pensions;

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (h) HM Passport Office;
- (i) police forces;
- (j) the TV Licensing Authority.

(4) Registration officers must—

- (a) use the information provided under regulations under subsection (2) to register otherwise unregistered persons on the appropriate electoral register or registers, or
- (b) if the information provided does not contain all information necessary to register a person who may be eligible, contact that person for the purpose of obtaining the required information to establish whether they are eligible to register and, if so, register them on the appropriate electoral register or registers.

(5) If a registration officer has registered a person under subsection (4), the officer must notify that person within 30 days and give that person an opportunity to correct any mistaken information.

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (6) The Secretary of State may issue guidance to registration officers on fulfilling their duties under this section.
- (7) Where a person is registered under subsection (4), that person shall be omitted from the edited register unless that person notifies the registration officer to the contrary.
- (8) Nothing in this section affects entitlement to register to vote anonymously."

Brendan O'Hara

NC5

To move the following Clause—

"Voting by convicted persons sentenced to terms of 12 months or less

In section 3(1A) (exceptions to the disenfranchisement of prisoners) of the Representation of the People Act 1983, after "Scotland" insert "or a parliamentary election".

Member's explanatory statement

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

This new clause would allow prisoners serving a sentence of 12 months or less to vote in UK parliamentary elections.

Brendan O'Hara

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Voting by qualifying foreign nationals

In section 1(1) (entitlement to vote in parliamentary elections) of the Representation of the People Act 1983, for paragraph (c) substitute—

“(c) is a Commonwealth citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland or a qualifying foreign national; and””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would allow foreign nationals who either do not need leave to remain in the UK or have been granted such leave to vote in UK parliamentary elections.

Brendan O'Hara

NC7

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

To move the following Clause—

“Voting by EU nationals

In section 1(1) (entitlement to vote in parliamentary elections) of the Representation of the People Act 1983, for paragraph (c) substitute—

“(c) is a Commonwealth citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland or a relevant citizen of the Union; and”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would allow EU citizens to vote in UK parliamentary elections.

Margaret Ferrier

NC10

To move the following Clause—

“Removal of requirement for election agent’s address to be published

(1) The Representation of the People Act 1983 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 67 (appointment of election agent), after subsection (6) insert—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

“(6A) Though if the candidate or the person acting on behalf of the candidate under this section provides a statement signed by the candidate that the candidate requires the address of the election agent not to be made public and instead states the relevant area within which that address is situated, the public notice under subsection (6) should state that relevant area rather than the address.

(6B) In this section, “relevant area” means—

- (a) for a parliamentary election, the constituency,
- (b) for an Authority election, the Assembly constituency,
- (c) for any other local election, local government area, or
- (d) if the address is outside the United Kingdom, the country within which it is situated.””

Member’s explanatory statement

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

This new clause would remove the requirement for public notice of the addresses of election agents (including candidates acting as their own agent) to be given at parliamentary and local elections. The area in which the address is situated could instead be given, as for candidates.

Mr Alistair Carmichael

NC13

To move the following Clause—

“Proportional representation for elections to the House of Commons

- (1) The simple majority system must not be used for any Parliamentary general election after the end of the period of six months beginning on the day on which this Act is passed.
- (2) The Secretary of State must take all reasonable steps to establish a new proportional representation system of election for Members of the House of Commons that would be expected to result in seats being held by each party roughly reflecting the proportion of votes cast for candidates of that party at the preceding general election.

- (3) A system is suitable for the purposes of subsection (2) if it would over the past five Parliamentary general elections have had a mean average Gallagher proportionality index of less than 10.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision (which may include provision amending any enactment) contingent on the prohibition in subsection (1)."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would abolish first past the post for UK general elections and require the Government to take all reasonable steps to introduce proportional representation.

Alex Norris

NC14

To move the following Clause—

"Enfranchisement of certain foreign nationals at parliamentary elections

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

(1) Section 1(1) (entitlement to vote in parliamentary elections) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 is amended as follows.

(2) In paragraph (c), after "Ireland" insert—

"or a foreign national who has—

(i) the right of abode in the United Kingdom;

(ii) settled status under the EU Settlement Scheme;

(iii) indefinite leave to enter the United Kingdom; or

(iv) indefinite leave to remain in the United Kingdom."

Mr Richard Holden

NC15

To move the following Clause—

"Prohibition of double registration

In section 4 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (Entitlement to be registered as

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

parliamentary or local government elector), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) A person is only entitled to be registered at one address within the United Kingdom at any one time.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to provide an additional check and balance against double voting in UK Parliamentary elections.

Dr Luke Evans

NC17

To move the following Clause—

“Publication of candidates’ home address information

(1) The Representation of the People Act 1983 is amended as follows.

(2) In Schedule 1, paragraph 6(5)(b), after “constituency” insert “, or town or village,.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would allow candidates who do not wish their full home address to be published the option (as an alternative to giving the constituency of their home address) of providing

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill the town or village within which that address is situated. That information would then be published on the returning officer's statement of persons nominated by virtue of Rule 14(3A).

Alex Norris

Page 2, line 4, leave out Clause 1

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Voter ID provisions.

Brendan O'Hara

126

Clause 3, page 5, line 13, leave out "dishonestly"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment probes the necessity of adding a further test of dishonesty to the defence in subsection (4) of the inserted provision 112A.

Alex Norris

2

Clause 8, page 33, leave out lines 1 to 15 and insert—

“(a) in paragraph (3A)(b), for “a device” substitute “equipment”;

(b) after paragraph (3A)(b) insert—

“(c) such equipment as it is reasonable to provide for the purposes of enabling, or making it easier for, relevant persons to vote in the manner directed by rule 37.”;

(c) after paragraph (3A) insert—

“(3B) In paragraph (3A)(c), “relevant persons” means persons who find it difficult or impossible to vote in the manner directed by rule 37 because of a disability.””

Member’s explanatory statement

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

This amendment would retain the requirement for returning officers to make specific provision at polling stations to enable voters who are blind or partially-sighted to vote without any need for assistance from the presiding officer or any companion and change the nature of that provision from “a device” to “equipment”.

REMAINING PROCEEDINGS ON CONSIDERATION

Kemi Badenoch

NC12

To move the following Clause—

“Purposes referred to in section 39

(1) This section sets out the purposes referred to in section 39.

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (2) The first purpose is influencing the public, or any section of the public, to give support to or withhold support from—
  - (a) a registered party,
  - (b) registered parties who advocate (or do not advocate) particular policies or who otherwise fall within a particular category of such parties, or
  - (c) candidates or future candidates who hold (or do not hold) particular opinions or who advocate (or do not advocate) particular policies or who otherwise fall within a particular category of candidates or future candidates.
- (3) For the purposes of determining whether electronic material can reasonably be regarded as intended to achieve the purpose mentioned in subsection (2), it is immaterial that it does not expressly mention the name of any party, candidate or future candidate.
- (4) The second purpose is influencing the public, or any section of the public, to give support to or withhold support from a particular candidate or particular future candidate.

- (5) For the purposes of determining whether electronic material can reasonably be regarded as intended to achieve the purpose mentioned in subsection (4), it is immaterial that it does not expressly mention the name of any candidate or future candidate.
- (6) The third purpose is influencing the public, or any section of the public, to give support to or withhold support from an elected office-holder.
- (7) The fourth purpose is influencing the public, or any section of the public, to give support to or withhold support from elected office-holders who hold (or do not hold) particular opinions or who advocate (or do not advocate) particular policies or who otherwise fall within a particular category of elected office-holders.
- (8) For the purposes of determining whether electronic material can reasonably be regarded as intended to achieve the purpose mentioned in subsection (6) or (7), it is immaterial that it does not expressly mention the name of any elected office-holder.

(9) The fifth purpose is influencing the public, or any section of the public, to give support to or withhold support from—

(a) the holding of a referendum in the United Kingdom or any area in the United Kingdom, or

(b) a particular outcome of such a referendum.

(10) For the purposes of determining whether electronic material can reasonably be regarded as intended to achieve the purpose mentioned in subsection (9)(b), it is immaterial that it does not expressly mention a particular outcome of a referendum.

(11) In this section “referendum” does not include a poll held under section 64 of the Government of Wales Act 2006.”

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause and Amendments 22 and 23 replace the purposes set out in clause 39(3) as the purposes intended to be achieved by paid-for electronic material in order for Part 6 to apply to the material. In particular the New Clause makes it clear that this covers material in support of categories of parties, candidates and elected office-holders and applies whether or not the material expressly names the party etc.

company or limited liability partnership satisfies that condition.

- (2) A declaration under this section must also state the company or limited liability partnership's full name, address and registration number.
- (3) A person who knowingly or recklessly makes a false declaration under this section commits an offence.
- (4) The Commission may issue a notice to a person to provide accounts for the purpose of verifying whether a declaration made under this section is accurate.
- (5) A person who fails to comply with a notice under subsection (4) commits an offence.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring a declaration under this section to be retained for a specified period.
- (7) The requirement in subsection (1) does not apply where, by reason of section 71B(1)(b), the entity by whom the donation would be made is a permissible donor in relation to the donation at the time of its receipt by the party.

rise to or may give rise to a risk to national security in relation to electoral integrity.

- (2) If the Commission decides to give a call-in notice, the notice must be given to—
  - (a) the person who made the donation,
  - (b) the party that received the donation,
  - (c) the Secretary of State, and
  - (d) such other persons as the Commission considers appropriate.
- (3) When assessing whether a donation has given or may give rise to a risk to national security in relation to electoral integrity, Commission must consider the characteristics of the person who made the donation, including—
  - (a) their sector or sectors of commercial activity or holdings,
  - (b) their technological capabilities,
  - (c) any links to entities which may seek to undermine or threaten the interests of the United Kingdom, including the integrity of its elections, activities that are related to national security, or activities that have given rise to or may give rise to a risk to national security.

- (4) In this section, a “qualifying donation” is a donation of an amount exceeding £25,000.
- (5) The Commission may, in relation to the Commission’s functions under this section, issue a notice to a person to—
  - (a) provide information, or (b) attend, or (c) give evidence as if such a notice was a notice under section 19 or 20 of the National Security and Investment Act 2021.
- (6) A person who fails to comply with a notice under subsection (5) commits an offence.
- (7) In this section, “assessment period” in relation to a call-in notice under this section has the same meaning as in section 23 of National Security and Investment Act 2021 in relation to a call-in notice under that Act.
- (8) The Commission must, before the end of the assessment period in relation to a call-in notice—

All line references relate to the large font accessible version of the Bill

- (a) make a final order, or
  - (b) give a final notification to each person to whom the call-in notice was given.
- (9) The Commission may, during the assessment period, make a final order if the Commission—
- (a) is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the qualifying donation to which the call-in notice applies has given rise to or may give rise to a risk to national security in relation to electoral integrity, and
  - (b) reasonably considers that the provisions of the order are necessary and proportionate for the purpose of preventing, remedying or mitigating the risk.
- (10) During the assessment period, the Commission may make an interim order in relation to a qualifying donation if the Commission reasonably considers that the provisions of the order are necessary and proportionate for the purpose of safeguarding electoral integrity during that period.

(11) An order under subsection (9) or (10) may—

(a) require a donation to be held unspent for a period as may be prescribed in the order,

(b) require a donation to be refused,

(c) require a donation to be returned, or

(d) prohibit the acceptance of any donation by any registered party from the person who made the donation to which the call-in-notice applies, or from a prescribed person or category of person connected to that person, for a period as may be prescribed in the order.

(12) The Commission must keep each order under review and may vary or revoke it.”

(7) In section 156 (orders and regulations)—

(a) in subsection (3), before paragraph (a) insert—

“(za) any order under section 55A;”;

(b) after subsection (4D) insert—
