NC4

To move the following Clause—

"Automatic Voter Registration

- (1) It is a duty of—
  - (a) the Secretary of State; and
  - (b) registration officers
 to take all reasonable steps to ensure that persons eligible to register to vote in elections in the United Kingdom are so registered.
- (2) The Secretary of State must by regulations require public bodies to provide information to registration officers in accordance with the duty under subsection (1).
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2) must apply to public bodies including but not limited to—

- (a) HM Revenue and Customs;
  - (b) the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency;
  - (c) the National Health Service;
  - (d) NHS Scotland;
  - (e) all types of state funded schools;
  - (f) local authorities;
  - (g) the Department for Work and Pensions;
  - (h) HM Passport Office;
  - (i) police forces;
  - (j) the TV Licensing Authority.
- (4) Registration officers must—
- (a) use the information provided under regulations under subsection (2) to register otherwise unregistered persons on the appropriate electoral register or registers, or
  - (b) if the information provided does not contain all information necessary to register a person who may be eligible, contact that person for the purpose of obtaining the required information to establish whether they are eligible to register and, if so, register them on the appropriate electoral register or registers.
- (5) If a registration officer has registered a person under subsection (4), the officer must notify that person within 30 days and give that person an opportunity to correct any mistaken information.
- (6) The Secretary of State may issue guidance to registration officers on fulfilling their duties under this section.
- (7) Where a person is registered under subsection (4), that person shall be omitted from the edited register unless that person notifies the registration officer to the contrary.
- (8) Nothing in this section affects entitlement to register to vote anonymously."

NC9

To move the following Clause—

“Permissible donors to be based in the United Kingdom and associated offences

- (1) Section 54 of PPERA (permissible donors) is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) At the end of subsection (2)(a), insert “ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom, and domiciled in the United Kingdom for purposes of individual taxation.”
- (3) After subsection (2)(b)(ii) insert—
  - “(iii) employing a majority of its staff at locations within the United Kingdom, and
  - (iv) employing at least five staff within the United Kingdom”.
- (4) At the end of subsection (2)(f), insert “has a majority of partners who are on a UK electoral register, are ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom and are domiciled in the United Kingdom for purposes of individual taxation, employs a majority of its staff at locations within the United Kingdom, and employs at least five staff within the United Kingdom.”
- (5) At the end of subsection (2)(h), insert “has a majority of those persons with significant control who are on a UK electoral register, are ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom and are domiciled in the United Kingdom for purposes of individual taxation, and also either employs no staff at all, or employs a majority of its staff at locations within the United Kingdom.”
- (6) Section 61 of PPERA (offences concerned with evasion of restrictions on donations) is amended in accordance with subsection (7).
- (7) After subsection (2) insert—

“(3) A person commits an offence if they are a director of a company, hold a position of significant control in an unincorporated association, or are a partner in a limited liability partnership, and that company, association or partnership—

  - (a) is not a permissible donor and offers a donation to a political party (whether the donation is accepted or not), or
  - (b) commits, or otherwise causes to be committed, an act which were the body be a person, would be an offence under subsection (1) or (2).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause makes requirements for individual and company donors to be based in the United Kingdom and makes persons running companies liable for donation restriction evasion offences committed by those companies.

NC10

★ To move the following Clause—

“Removal of requirement for election agent’s address to be published

- (1) The Representation of the People Act 1983 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 67 (appointment of election agent), after subsection (6) insert—

“(6A) Though if the candidate or the person acting on behalf of the candidate under this section provides a statement signed by the candidate that the candidate requires the address of the election agent not to be made public and instead states the relevant area within which that address is situated, the public notice under subsection (6) should state that relevant area rather than the address.

(6B) In this section, “relevant area” means—

- (a) for a parliamentary election, the constituency,
- (b) for an Authority election, the Assembly constituency,
- (c) for any other local election, local government area, or
- (d) if the address is outside the United Kingdom, the country within which it is situated.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would remove the requirement for public notice of the addresses of election agents (including candidates acting as their own agent) to be given at parliamentary and local elections. The area in which the address is situated could instead be given, as for candidates.

Clause 8, page 11, leave out lines 20 to 31 and insert—

(a) in paragraph (3A)(b), for "a device" substitute "equipment";

(b) after paragraph (3A)(b) insert—

“(c) such equipment as it is reasonable to provide for the purposes of enabling, or making it easier for, relevant persons to vote in the manner directed by rule 37.”;

(c) after paragraph (3A) insert—

“(3B) In paragraph (3A)(c), “relevant persons” means persons who find it difficult or impossible to vote in the manner directed by rule 37 because of a disability.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would retain the requirement for returning officers to make specific provision at polling stations to enable voters who are blind or partially-sighted to vote without any need for assistance from the presiding officer or any companion and change the nature of that provision from “a device” to “equipment”.

Brendan O’Hara
Patrick Grady

Clause 13, page 22, line 19, at end insert—

“(4A) The Secretary of State may not designate the statement under section 4A unless the Scottish Parliament has, before the end of the 40-day period, passed a motion of the form “That the Parliament approves the draft Electoral Commission strategy and policy statement so far as it relates to the Commission’s devolved Scottish functions”.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Scottish Parliament to approve an Electoral Commission strategy and policy statement so far as it relates to the Commission’s devolved Scottish functions before the strategy could have effect.
