To move the following Clause—

“Animal Welfare Strategy

- (1) The Animal Sentience Committee must publish and lay before Parliament an animal welfare strategy within 12 months of the passing of this Act.
- (2) The animal welfare strategy must set out the process by which government departments and Ministers are to ensure that in the formulation or implementation of policy all due regard has been had to any adverse welfare consequences for the welfare of animals as sentient beings.
- (3) Each department must notify the Committee of any policy under consideration where there is a reasonable likelihood that it would have an adverse impact on the welfare of animals.
- (4) Where the Committee is of the view that in the process of formulating or implementing policy a department has not complied, or is not complying, with the process set out in the strategy and therefore may not be having, or has not had, all due regard to animal welfare, the Committee can make recommendations to that department or request an explanation from the relevant minister. Any recommendations or explanation must be made in writing and published.
- (5) Recommendations and explanations need not be published if they concern a matter of national security or commercially sensitive information.
- (6) Failure to comply with the process set out in the strategy, will not automatically be taken as a failure to have had all due regard to animal welfare, if the Minister can demonstrate that they have met the objective of having had all due regard by other means.
- (7) Ministers and departments must provide the Committee with any information the Committee reasonably requests to enable it to carry out its function.”

To move the following Schedule—

“The Animal Sentience Committee

Membership

- 1 (1) The Animal Sentience Committee is to consist of—
 - (a) a member appointed by the Secretary of State to chair the Committee, and
 - (b) at least 8 but no more than 11 other members appointed by the Secretary of State.
- (2) In appointing members, the Secretary of State shall have all due regard to the need for the Committee to possess appropriate expertise and experience, to include animal behaviour, animal welfare, neurophysiology, veterinary science, law, and public administration.
- (3) A member is appointed for such period not exceeding 4 years as the Secretary of State determines.
- (4) The Secretary of State may reappoint as a member of the Committee a person who is, or has been, a member. A member shall not normally be reappointed consecutively for more than two terms of office.
- (5) The Secretary of State may not appoint a person as a member of the Committee if the person is—
 - (a) a member of the House of Commons,
 - (b) a member of the House of Lords,
 - (c) a member of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (d) a member of Senedd Cymru,
 - (e) a member of the Northern Ireland Assembly,

- (f) a councillor of a local authority,
- (g) an employee or former employee, or a consultant or former consultant to a charity or campaigning organisation concerned with animal welfare or animal rights, and
- (h) a person in receipt of, or previously in receipt of, any direct or indirect payments or funding from a charity or campaigning organisation concerned with animal welfare or animal rights.

General Powers

- 2 (1) The Committee may do anything which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of, or in connection with, the performance of its function as defined in section 1(2).
- (2) The foregoing includes, but is not limited to, requesting from the government such information and material as it considers necessary.
- (3) So far as is reasonable and practicable, the government shall comply with any request from the Committee under paragraph 2(2). If the government declines such a request it shall provide to the Committee its reasons for doing so in writing.
- (4) In the event that the Committee considers the government has failed to meet the duty in paragraph 2(3) it may make reference to this in any report produced in accordance with section 2 of this Act.
- (5) It shall be for the Committee to identify those policies which in its view might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.
- (6) Without prejudice to the foregoing, the government shall take reasonable steps to advise the Committee of its intention to formulate or implement any policy which might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.
- (7) If in producing a report under section 2 of this Act the Committee considers it to be desirable that the government receives further guidance on how animal welfare might be improved in relation to the relevant policy, it may refer the matter to an appropriate committee established for the purpose of providing such advice to ministers.
- (8) The Committee may invite to attend its meetings on either a permanent or temporary basis any person appointed to chair a body established by the UK Government, the Scottish Government, the Welsh Government or the Northern Ireland Executive to provide advice on the welfare or protection of animals in relation to the process of the formulation and implementation of policy. Persons attending in such an ex officio capacity shall not participate in any decisions of the Committee.
- (9) The Committee shall publish the name and qualifications of any person invited to provide advice to the Committee and shall publish any advice given.

Independence and transparency

- 3 (1) The Committee shall be independent and autonomous of any other body.
- (2) Within six months of its establishment, the Committee shall publish a memorandum setting out how it intends to carry out its function. The memorandum is to be kept under review and may be amended from time to time as the Committee considers appropriate.

- (3) The memorandum shall include guidance as to how it expects ministers to demonstrate they have had all due regard to the ways in which a policy might have an adverse effect on the welfare of animals as sentient beings.
- (4) Within 12 months of being established, and thereafter as soon as practicable after the end of each calendar year, the Committee shall prepare and publish a report on the exercise of its functions during that year.
- (5) The Committee's reports shall be laid before Parliament.
- (6) The Committee will determine the form and content of each of its reports.

Expenses and resources

- 4 (1) Members of the Committee, and any members of sub-committees established under paragraph 6, who are not members of the Committee, are entitled to such expenses as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) The government is to provide the Committee with such staff and other resources as the Committee requires to carry out its function.
- (3) Staff serving the Committee shall be based in the Cabinet Office and independent of any other Department of State.

Early termination of membership

- 5 (1) A member of the Committee may resign by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of State.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, by giving notice to the member in writing, remove a member of the Committee if the Secretary of State considers that the member is—
 - (a) unable to perform the functions of a member, or
 - (b) unsuitable to continue as a member.
- (3) A person's membership of the Committee ends if the person becomes—
 - (a) a member of the House of Commons,
 - (b) a member of the House of Lords,
 - (c) a member of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (d) a member of Senedd Cymru,
 - (e) a member of the Northern Ireland Assembly,
 - (f) a councillor of a local authority, and
 - (g) an employee of or a consultant to a charity or campaigning organisation concerned with animal welfare or animal rights, or receives any direct or indirect payment or funding from such a charity or organisation.

Sub-Committees

- 6 (1) The Committee may establish sub-committees.
- (2) The membership of a sub-committee may include persons who are not members of the Committee but those persons are not entitled to vote at meetings of the sub-committee.
- (3) The Committee must publish a list of the membership of any sub-committee where it includes persons who are not members of the main Committee.

Regulation of procedure

- 7 The Committee may regulate its own procedure (including quorum) and that of any sub-committees.

Validity of things done

- 8 The validity of anything done by the Committee or its sub-committees is not affected by—
- (a) a vacancy in membership,
 - (b) a defect in the appointment of a member, and
 - (c) the disqualification of a person as a member after appointment.”

Bill read the third time, and passed with amendments.
