NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Power for operator to upgrade or share apparatus

- (1) The electronic communications code is amended as follows.
- (2) In paragraph 17, in sub-paragraph (1), for the words “sub-paragraphs (2) and (3)” substitute “sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (4A)”.
- (3) After sub-paragraph (4) insert—
 - “(4A) The third condition is that, where a site is provided by an emergency service, before the beginning of the period of 21 days, ending with the day on which the main operator begins to upgrade the electronic communications apparatus or (as the case may be) share its use, the main operator provides written notice to the site provider.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require operators with agreements under the code that are not subsisting agreements to provide written notice to site providers that are an emergency service before the beginning of the period of 21 days (with the 21 days ending the day the operator begins upgrading the apparatus).

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Review of the changes to the Electronic Communications code

- (1) The Secretary of State must conduct a full economic review of the effect of Schedule 1 of the Digital Economy Act 2017 (The Electronic Communications Code).
- (2) The Secretary of State must prepare and publish a report on this review within two months of the passage of this Act and must lay a copy of the report before Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to outline the economic impact of the 2017 introduction of the Electronic Communications Code.

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Report on security risks to UK consumer connectable products

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a report on the security risks to UK consumer connectable products—
 - (a) within the period 3 months beginning with the day on which this Act receives Royal Assent, and
 - (b) every 12 months thereafter.
- (2) Any report prepared under subsection (1) must be laid before Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to lay before Parliament a report on the security risks to UK consumer connectable products.

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Requirement to consult on imposition of minimum periods of time for which products would need to receive security updates

- (1) Within three months of the date on which this Act receives Royal Assent, the Secretary of State must publish the text of draft regulations exercising the power in subsection (1) of section 1 (Power to specify security requirements) so as to provide for minimum periods of time for which relevant connectable products would need to receive security updates.

- (2) The Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) representatives of all relevant persons (as defined in section 7 (Relevant persons)), and
 - (b) any other person the Secretary of State thinks appropriate on the draft regulations.
 - (3) Within three months of the final date for receipt of responses to the consultation, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report on the responses.”
