NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Provision of opportunities for education and skills development

- (1) Any person of any age has the right to free education on an approved course up to Level 3 supplied by an approved provider of further or technical education, if he or she has not already studied at that level.
- (2) Any approved provider must receive automatic in-year funding for any student covered by subsection (1), and supported by the Adult Education Budget, at a tariff rate set by the Secretary of State.
- (3) Any employer receiving apprenticeship funding must spend at least two thirds of that funding on people who begin apprenticeships at Levels 2 and 3 before the age of 25.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would provide for education and skills development up to a Level 3 qualification for any person of any age supplied by an approved provider if they have not already studied at that level.

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Amendments to section 42B of the Education Act 1997

- (1) Section 42B of the Education Act 1997 is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) In complying with subsection (1), the proprietor must give a representative range of education and training providers (including, where reasonably practicable, a university technical college) access to registered pupils on at least three occasions during each of the first, second and third key phase of their education.”
- (3) After subsection (2) insert—

“(2A)The proprietor of a school in England within subsection (2) must—

 - (a) ensure that each registered pupil meets, during both the first and second key phase of their education, with a representative

- range of education and training providers to whom access is given, and
- (b) ask providers to whom access is given to provide information that includes the following—
 - (i) information about the provider and the approved technical education qualifications or apprenticeships that the provider offers,
 - (ii) information about the careers to which those technical education qualifications or apprenticeships might lead,
 - (iii) a description of what learning or training with the provider is like, and
 - (iv) responses to questions from the pupils about the provider or technical education qualifications and apprenticeships.
- (2B) Access given under subsection (1) must be for a reasonable period of time during the standard school day.”
- (4) After subsection (5)(a), insert—
- “(aa) a requirement to provide access to a representative range of education and training providers to include where practicable a university technical college;”
- (5) In subsection (5)(c), after “access” insert “and the times at which the access is to be given;”
- (6) After subsection (5)(c), insert—
- “(d) an explanation of how the proprietor proposes to comply with the obligations imposed under subsection (2A).”
- (7) After subsection (9), insert—
- “(9A) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) the first key phase of a pupil’s education is the period—
 - (i) beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil’s class attain the age of 13, and
 - (ii) ending with 28 February in the following school year;
 - (b) the second key phase of a pupil’s education is the period—
 - (i) beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil’s class attain the age of 15, and
 - (ii) ending with 28 February in the following school year;
 - (c) the third key phase of a pupil’s education is the period—
 - (i) beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil’s class attain the age of 17, and
 - (ii) ending with 28 February in the following school year.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause will ensure that Section 2 of the Technical and Further Education Act 2017, commonly known as the Baker Clause, is legally enforceable.

Chris Skidmore

NC4

★ To move the following Clause—

“Green Skills Strategy

The Secretary of State must, before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, publish a Green Skills Strategy, setting out a plan to support people to attain the skills, capabilities or expertise through higher education, further education or technical education that directly contribute to, or indirectly support, the following—

- (a) compliance with the duty imposed by section 1 of the Climate Change Act 2008 (United Kingdom net zero emissions target),
- (b) adaptation to climate change, or
- (c) meeting other environmental goals (such as restoration or enhancement of the natural environment).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to publish a national green skills strategy which would set out a plan to support people to attain skills which will directly contribute to or indirectly support climate change and environmental goals.
