Mr Simon Clarke

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary procedure for judicial schemes: transitory provision

- (1) This section applies to scheme regulations for a scheme relating to the judiciary that are made at any time within the period of one month beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.
- (2) A statutory instrument containing scheme regulations to which this section applies must be laid before Parliament after being made.
- (3) Regulations contained in a statutory instrument laid before Parliament under subsection (2) cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the instrument is made unless, during that period, the instrument is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (4) In calculating the period of 28 days, no account is to be taken of any whole days that fall within a period during which—
  - (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
  - (b) either House of Parliament is adjourned for more than four days.
- (5) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of subsection (3), that does not—
  - (a) affect the validity of anything previously done under the regulations, or
  - (b) prevent the making of new regulations.
- (6) If regulations otherwise subject to the negative procedure are combined with scheme regulations to which this section applies, the combined regulations are subject to the procedure set out in this section.
- (7) Section 24 of PSPA 2013 (other procedure) does not apply to scheme regulations to which this section applies.

(8) In this section, the following expressions have the same meaning as in PSPA 2013—

“the judiciary” (see paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to that Act);

“negative procedure” (see section 38(3) of that Act);

“scheme” (see section 37 of that Act);

“scheme regulations” (see section 1(4) of that Act).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause disapplies the affirmative procedure in relation to judicial scheme regulations made within one month of Royal Assent of the Bill, and provides for those regulations (and other regulations in the same statutory instrument) to be subject to the made-affirmative procedure.

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Guidance to public service pension scheme managers on investment decisions

- (1) The Public Service Pensions Act 2013 is amended in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) In schedule 3, paragraph 12(a), at end insert “including guidance or directions on investment decisions which it is not proper for the scheme manager to make in light of UK foreign and defence policy”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would enable the Secretary of State to issue guidance to those authorities that administer public sector pension schemes, including the local government pension scheme, that they may not make investment decisions that conflict with the UK’s foreign and defence policy.

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Investment decisions in funded schemes: fossil fuel assets

- (1) Section 3 of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 is amended in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) After sub-paragraph (3) insert—
  - “(3A) Scheme regulations must require the fund to have removed all investment in fossil fuel assets by 2030.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require public sector pensions schemes to disinvest from fossil fuels by 2030, by removing fossil fuel assets from their investment portfolios, securities transactions and balance sheets.

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Review of the impact of this Act on fairness

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must commission a review of the impact of this Act on fairness to members in receipt of pensions to which this Part applies.

- (2) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must prepare and publish a report on this review within six months of the passage of this Act and must lay a copy of the report before Parliament.
- (3) The review under subsection (1) must include an assessment of the impact of the provisions of this Act on women.
- (4) The review under subsection (1) must make recommendations as to whether further legislation should be brought forward by the Government to close the public service pensions gap between men and women."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to report on the impact of this Part on fairness, especially with regards to women.

NC5

To move the following Clause—

"Guidance

- (1) Within six months of the passage of this Act the Chancellor of the Exchequer must lay before Parliament a copy of guidance to members of pension schemes affected by this Part.
- (2) The purpose of the guidance under subsection (1) is to ensure members are able to make informed choices about their pensions.
- (3) The Government must provide a free helpline or online service which members can use to receive further guidance about their pension.
- (4) Within six months of the day on which the guidance is published the Government must lay before Parliament a report on its effectiveness in achieving the purpose in subsection (2)."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to publish guidance to members of pension schemes affected by this Part and allows for provision of a helpline or online service to offer further assistance.

Christine Jardine

NC6

To move the following Clause—

"Impact on the recruitment of new holders of judicial offices

- (1) Within 12 months of the passage of this Act the Government must commission an evaluation of the impact of this Act on recruitment of new holders of judicial offices and on the diversity of the judiciary.
- (2) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must prepare and publish a report on this evaluation and must lay a copy of the report before Parliament."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to publish an annual update on progress on recruiting new members to the judiciary and increasing diversity.

NC8

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Compensation of losses incurred by closure of legacy schemes

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review how a loss incurred by a member with remediable service who is transferred to the new scheme under section 80 and—
  - (a) reaches the required number of years of pensionable service to retire with full benefits under the legacy scheme, and
  - (b) is unable to access the full value of those benefits because they must continue to work to retire with full benefits under the new schemecould be compensated.
- (2) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must prepare and publish a report on this review within two months of the passage of this Act and must lay a copy of the report before Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to review how losses arising from the “pension trap” could be compensated, and to report on the review within two months of the passage of the Act.

NC9

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Equality impact analysis of provisions of this Act

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the equality impact of the provisions of this Act in accordance with this section and lay a report of that review before the House of Commons within six months of the passage of this Act.
- (2) A review under this section must consider the impact of those provisions on—
  - (a) people with protected characteristics (within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010), and
  - (b) the Government's compliance with the public sector equality duty under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010.
- (3) A review under this section must include a separate analysis of each separate measure in the Act, and must also consider the cumulative impact of the Act as a whole.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to review the equality impact of the provisions of this Act, and to report on the review within six months of the passage of the Act.

John McDonnell

NC10

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Report on losses incurred by closure of legacy schemes

The Chancellor of the Exchequer must consult with the relevant trade unions and other bodies representing pension scheme members and report within 6 months of the passage of this Act on the options available for addressing in a non-discriminatory manner any loss incurred by a member with remediable service who is transferred to the new scheme under section 80 and—

- (a) reaches the required number of years of pensionable service to retire with full benefits under the legacy scheme, but
- (b) is unable to access the full value of those benefits because they must continue to work to retire with full benefits under the new scheme.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to consult with the trade unions and other bodies representing members of the pension schemes who are affected by the “pensions trap” and to report on the options available to address this issue without causing discrimination.
