Schedule 2 — Registrable beneficial owners

purposes of this Schedule as holding that share or right.

Joint arrangements

- 12(1) If shares or rights held by a person and shares or rights held by another person are the subject of a joint arrangement between those persons, each of them is treated for the purposes of this Schedule as holding the combined shares or rights of both of them. 5 10
- (2) A “joint arrangement” is an arrangement between the holders of shares (or rights) that they will exercise all or substantially all the rights conferred by their respective shares (or rights) jointly in a way that is pre-determined by the arrangement. 15
- (3) “Arrangement” includes—
- (a) any scheme, agreement or understanding, whether or not it is legally enforceable, and 20
 - (b) any convention, custom or practice of any kind.
- (4) But something does not count as an arrangement unless there is at least some degree of stability about it (whether by its nature or terms, or the time it has been in existence, or otherwise). 25

Schedule 2 — Registrable beneficial owners

Calculating shareholdings

- 13(1) In relation to a legal entity that has a share capital, a reference to holding “more than 25% of the shares” in that entity is a reference to holding shares comprised in the issued share capital of that entity of a nominal value exceeding (in aggregate) 25% of that share capital. 5
- (2) In relation to a legal entity that does not have a share capital— 10

- (b) a reference to holding “more than 25% of the shares” in that entity is a reference to holding a right or rights to share in more than 25% of the capital or, as the case may be, profits of that entity. 20

Voting rights

- 14(1) A reference to the voting rights in a legal entity is to the rights conferred on shareholders in respect of their shares (or, in the case of an entity not having a share capital, on members) to vote at general meetings of the entity on all or substantially all matters. 25

92 Economic Crime (Transparency and Enforcement) Bill
Schedule 2 — Registrable beneficial owners

(2) In relation to a legal entity that does not have general meetings at which matters are decided by the exercise of voting rights—

(a) a reference to exercising voting rights in the entity is to be read as a reference to exercising rights in relation to the entity that are equivalent to those of a person entitled to exercise voting rights in a company registered under the Companies Act 2006; 5
10

(b) a reference to exercising more than 25% of the voting rights in the entity is to be read as a reference to exercising the right under the constitution of the entity to block changes to the overall policy of the entity or to the terms of its constitution. 15
20

15 In applying this Schedule, the voting rights in a legal entity are to be reduced by any rights held by the entity itself.

Rights to appoint or remove members of the board 25

16 A reference to the right to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors of a legal entity is a reference to the right to appoint or remove directors holding a majority of the voting rights at meetings of 30 the board on all or substantially all matters.

 - (i) each of which (other than the last) has a majority stake in the entity immediately below it in the chain, and 15

- (b) where the shares are held in connection with the granting of loans as part of normal business activities and apart from the right to exercise them for the purpose of preserving the value of the security, or of realising it, the rights are exercisable only in that person's interests. 15 20
