

ELECTIONS BILL

Consideration of Lords Amendments

Wednesday 27 April 2022

Grouping of Lords Amendments by Secretary Michael Gove and selection of motions relating to Lords Amendments by the Speaker

None of the Lords Amendments engage financial privilege

Electoral Commission; voter identification; requirement of secrecy; undue influence; assistance with voting for persons with disabilities; candidates; regulation of expenditure and recognised third parties; disqualification of offenders from office; electronic material; post-legislative scrutiny; technical, minor and consequential amendments

Govt motion to disagree 22

- + Govt (a) to (i) to words so restored to the Bill
- + Govt motion to disagree 23
- + Govt (a) to (k) in lieu of 22 and 23
- + Govt motion to disagree 86
- + 1 to 21 + 24 to 85 + 87 to 126

Two hours from start of proceedings on the Lords Amendments
(if the Programme (No.2) Motion is agreed to)

---

27 April 2022

By order of Mr Speaker