★ To move the following Clause—

“Granting of public contracts

- (1) The Secretary of State may not grant a public contract to a company, and may intervene to prevent the granting of a public contract to a company where the contract is to be granted by someone other than the Secretary of State, if there is a real risk that the granting of such a contract to such a company would result in conduct which—
 - (a) is, or could be, contrary to the safety or interests of the UK,
 - (b) has, or could have, an effect within section 13(2), or
 - (c) enables, or could enable, involvement in foreign power threat activity (see section 26).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), there is a real risk that the granting of a contract to a company may be used for the purposes mentioned in sections (1)(a) (b) and (c) if the—
 - (a) Secretary of State,
 - (b) National Cyber Security Centre, or
 - (c) Biometrics and Surveillance Camera Commissionerconsiders there to be such a risk.”
