- (2) The requirements imposed on a person (“P”) by a serious disruption prevention order may, in particular, have the effect of requiring P— 10

- (b) to remain at a particular place for particular periods;

- (5) References in this section to a particular place or area or particular persons, activities or articles include a place, area, persons, activities or articles of a particular description. 10
- (6) A serious disruption prevention order which imposes prohibitions on a person may include exceptions from those prohibitions. 15
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the generality of sections 12(6) and 13(5).
- (8) The requirements or prohibitions which are imposed on a person by a serious disruption prevention order must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid— 20

- (a) any conflict with the person's religious beliefs, and
- (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the person normally works or attends any educational establishment. 5

15 Requirements in serious disruption prevention order

- (1) A serious disruption prevention order which imposes on a person ("P") a requirement, other than a notification requirement under section 17, must specify a person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement. 10
- (2) That person may be an individual or an organisation. 15
- (3) Before including such a requirement, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from—
 - (a) the individual to be specified under subsection (1), if an individual is to be specified; 20

- (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified under subsection (1), if an organisation is to be specified.
- (4) Before including two or more such requirements, the court must consider their compatibility with each other. 5
- (5) Subsections (1) to (4) do not apply in relation to electronic monitoring requirements (see section 16). 10
- (6) It is the duty of a person specified under subsection (1)—
 - (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (the “relevant requirements”); 15
 - (b) to promote P’s compliance with the relevant requirements;
 - (c) if the person considers that P—
 - (i) has complied with all of the relevant requirements, or 20

- (ii) has failed to comply with a relevant requirement, to inform the appropriate chief officer of police.
- (7) In subsection (6)(c) “the appropriate chief officer of police” means— 5
- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in which it appears to the person specified under subsection (1) that P lives, or 10
- (b) if it appears to that person that P lives in more than one police area, whichever of the chief officers of police of those areas the person thinks it is most appropriate to inform. 15
- (8) Where P is subject to a requirement in a serious disruption prevention order, other than a notification requirement under section 17, P must—
- (a) keep in touch with the person specified under subsection (1) in relation to that requirement, in accordance 20 with any instructions given by that person from time to time, and

(b) notify that person of any change of P's home address.

- (9) The obligations mentioned in subsection (8) have effect as if they were requirements imposed on P by the order. 5

16 Further provision about electronic monitoring requirements

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) apply for the purpose of determining whether a court may impose an electronic monitoring requirement on a person ("P") in a serious disruption prevention order. 10
- (2) The requirement may not be imposed in P's absence. 15
- (3) If there is a person (other than P) without whose co-operation it would be impracticable to secure the monitoring in question, the requirement may not be imposed without that person's consent. 20

- (4) The court may impose the requirement only if—
- (a) it has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available 5 in the relevant area, and
 - (b) it is satisfied that the necessary provision can be made under the arrangements currently available.
- (5) In subsection (4)(a) “the relevant area” 10 means—
- (a) the local justice area in which it appears to the court that P resides or will reside, and
 - (b) in a case where it is proposed 15 to include in the order—
 - (i) a requirement that P must remain, for specified periods, at a specified place, or

- (7) The person specified under subsection (6) must be of a description specified in regulations made by statutory instrument by the Secretary of State. 10
- (8) Where a serious disruption prevention order imposes an electronic monitoring requirement on a person (“P”), P must (among other things)— 15
- (a) submit, as required from time to time by the person specified under subsection (6), to—
- (i) being fitted with, or the installation of, any necessary apparatus, and 20

- (ii) the inspection or repair of any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring,
- (b) not interfere with, or with the working of, any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring, and 5
- (c) take any steps required by the person specified under subsection (6) for the purpose of keeping in working order any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring. 10

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.

- (9) Regulations under this section may—
 - (a) make different provision for different purposes or in relation to different areas; 15
 - (b) contain supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional or saving provision. 20

- (7) Subsection (6) is subject to any variation or renewal of the order under section 21.

- (8) Where a court makes a serious disruption prevention order in respect of a person and the person is already subject to such an order, the earlier order ceases to have effect. 5
