Secretary Grant Shapps

Gov NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Assimilated law”

- (1) As regards all times after the end of 2023, the things listed in the left-hand column are to be known by the names in the right-hand column.

At or before the end of 2023	After the end of 2023
Retained EU law	Assimilated law
Retained case law	Assimilated case law
Retained direct EU legislation	Assimilated direct legislation
Retained direct minor EU legislation	Assimilated direct minor legislation
Retained direct principal EU legislation	Assimilated direct principal legislation
Retained domestic case law	Assimilated domestic case law
Retained EU case law	Assimilated EU case law
Retained EU obligation	Assimilated obligation

- (2) Accordingly, as regards all times at or before the end of 2023, the things listed in the right-hand column continue to be known by the names in the left-hand column.
- (3) Schedule ("Assimilated law": consequential amendments) contains amendments consequential on subsection (1).
- (4) A reference in an enactment to a thing in the left-hand column of the table in subsection (1) is to be read, as regards all times after the end of 2023, as a reference to the thing by its name in the right-hand column.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to any title of an enactment (including any provision about how an enactment may be cited) or any reference to a title of an enactment.
- (6) The provision that may be made by regulations under section 19 (power to make consequential provision) in consequence of subsection (1) of this section includes, in particular—
  - (a) provision adding entries to the table in subsection (1) for things which relate to the things for which there are entries in the table (and adding definitions for those things to subsection (7));
  - (b) provision amending an enactment in consequence of the name of a thing being changed by subsection (1) (including by virtue of regulations under section 19).
- (7) In this section—

"retained case law", "retained domestic case law" and "retained EU case law" have the meaning given by section 6(7) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (as it has effect on the day on which this Act is passed);

"retained EU law", "retained direct EU legislation", "retained direct minor EU legislation", "retained direct principal EU legislation" and "retained EU obligation" have the meaning given by Schedule 1 to the Interpretation Act 1978 (as it has effect on the day on which this Act is passed)."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause renames "retained EU law" and related bodies or types of law and makes related provision.

NC2

To move the following Clause—

"Conditions for bringing sections 3, 4 and 5 into force

- (1) None of sections 3, 4 or 5 may be brought into force unless all the following conditions have been satisfied.

- (2) The first condition is that a Minister of the Crown has, after consulting organisations and persons representative of interests substantially affected by, or with expertise in the likely legal effect of, that section on a draft of that report, laid a report before each House of Parliament setting out, with reasons, the Minister's view as to the likely advantages and disadvantages of bringing that section into force, setting out in particular the effect of that section on:
  - (a) the rights of and protections for consumers, workers, and businesses, and protections of the environment and animal welfare;
  - (b) legal certainty, and the clarity and predictability of the law;
  - (c) the operation of the Trade and Cooperation agreement between the United Kingdom and the EU, and UK exports of goods and services to the European Economic Area; and
  - (d) the operation of the Protocol on Ireland/Northern Ireland in the EU withdrawal agreement.
- (3) In relation to section 4, that report must take into account any regulation made or likely to be made by a relevant national authority under section 8(1).
- (4) The second condition is that a period of sixty days has passed since that report was laid before Parliament, with no account to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which either House is adjourned for more than four days.
- (5) The third condition is that, after the end of that period, both Houses of Parliament have approved a resolution that that section come into force.
- (6) If both Houses of Parliament have approved a resolution that that section should not come into force unless it is amended in a way set out in that resolution, then the Minister may by regulation amend that section accordingly, and that section may not be brought into force until that amendment has been made."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires Ministers to analyse, and to explain their analysis of, the effect of the removal of retained EU law rights, the principle of supremacy of EU law, and of the general principles. It also includes opportunity for Parliamentary approval and timeframes for laying reports before both Houses.

To move the following Clause—

"Conditions on the exercise of powers under section 15 and 16

- (1) The first condition is that the relevant national authority has consulted such organisations as appear to it to be representative of interests substantially affected by its proposals, and any such other persons as it considers appropriate, on a draft of those regulations.

- (2) The second condition is that the national authority has, after that consultation has concluded and after considering any representations made to it, laid a draft of the regulations before each House of Parliament (or, as the case may be, the Scottish Parliament, Senedd or Northern Ireland Assembly), together with a report setting out, with reasons, the authority's view as to the likely advantages and disadvantages of making those regulations, setting out in particular:
  - (a) a summary of the objectives and effect of those regulations as compared to the instrument that they will revoke, replace or modify;
  - (b) any difference as between that instrument and the proposed regulations in terms of protections for consumers, workers, businesses, the environment, or animal welfare;
  - (c) any benefits which are expected to flow from the revocation or replacement of that instrument;
  - (d) the consultation undertaken as required by subsection (2);
  - (e) any representations received as a result of that consultation;
  - (f) the reason why the national authority considers that it is appropriate to make those regulations, having considered those representations;
  - (g) the reasons why the national authority considers that section 15(5) (overall reduction in burdens) does not preclude the making of the regulations, explaining what burdens are reduced or increased as a result of the making of the regulations;
  - (h) the compatibility of the revocation, modification, or replacement of that instrument with obligations in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement between the United Kingdom and the EU, and the likely effect on UK exports of goods or services to the European Economic Area; and
  - (i) the likely effect of the revocation, modification, or replacement of that instrument on the operation of the Protocol on Ireland/Northern Ireland in the EU withdrawal agreement.
- (3) The third condition is that a period of sixty days has passed since those draft regulations or that report were laid as required by subsection (2) with no account to be taken of any time during which Parliament (or, as the case may be, the Scottish Parliament, Senedd Cymru or Northern Ireland Assembly) is dissolved or prorogued or during which either House or that body is adjourned for more than four days, and where they were laid before Parliament, paragraph 8(11)(a) of Schedule 3 shall apply in determining the commencement of that period.
- (4) The fourth condition is that the national authority has considered any representations made during the period provided for by subsection (3) and, in particular, any resolution or report of, or of any committee of, either House of Parliament (or, as the case may be of the Scottish Parliament, Senedd Cymru or Northern Ireland Assembly) with regard to the proposals, and has published its reasons for accepting or rejecting any such representations, resolution, or report."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the relevant national authorities to consult with key stakeholders on proposed regulations revoking or replacing REUL, and to show Parliament their assessment of the impact of the changes

NC4

Liz Saville Roberts
Ben Lake

To move the following Clause—

“Assessment of the merits of devolving employment law

- (1) Within one month of the date of Royal Assent to this Act, the Secretary of State must work with the Welsh Government to carry out an assessment of the potential merits of fully devolving employment law to Senedd Cymru to empower the Welsh Government to legislate in relation to saving, reforming or removing those parts of retained EU law which provide for employment rights.
- (2) A report on the findings of the assessment must be laid before Parliament within three months of its publication.
- (3) The Secretary of State must make an oral statement to the House of Commons when any report under subsection (2) is laid.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the UK Government to work with the Welsh Government to conduct an assessment of the merits of devolving employment law to the Senedd in the context of enabling the Senedd to decide how to legislate in relation to retained EU law which provide for employment rights.

To move the following Clause—

“Powers to revoke or replace: application to environmental law

- (1) This section applies in respect of provision which may be made by a relevant national authority under section 15 where the provision is in respect of secondary retained EU law which is environmental law.
- (2) No provision may be made unless the relevant national authority considers that the provision will contribute to a significant improvement in environmental protection.
- (3) The relevant national authority must—
  - (a) have regard to international environmental protection legislation and international best practice on environmental protection,

- (b) comply with the requirements and objectives of the Aarhus, Bonn, Bern, Ramsar, OSPAR and Biodiversity Conventions, and
  - (c) comply with environmental principles and the policy statement on environmental principles.
- (4) The relevant national authority must—
- (a) seek advice from persons who are independent of it and have relevant expertise,
  - (b) seek advice from, as appropriate, the Office for Environmental Protection, Environmental Standards Scotland, a devolved environmental governance body or other person exercising similar functions, and
  - (c) publish a report setting out—
    - (i) how the provision will contribute to a significant improvement in environmental protection, and
    - (ii) how the authority has taken into account the advice from the persons referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (5) In this section—
- “Aarhus Convention” means The UNECE Convention on access to information, public participation in decision making and access to justice in environmental matters (Aarhus, 25 June 1998);
  - “Bern Convention” means the Council of Europe’s Convention on the Conservation of European Wildlife and Natural Habitats (Bern, 1979) [ratified / signed];
  - “Biodiversity Convention” means the UN Convention on Biodiversity (Rio, 1992);
  - “Bonn Convention” means The Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals (Bonn, 1979);
  - “devolved environmental governance body” has the same meaning as in section 47 of the Environment Act 2021;
  - “environmental law” has the same meaning as in section 46 of the Environment Act 2021, but without the exception set out in section 46(3) and (4) (devolved legislative provision);
  - “environmental protection” has the same meaning as in section 45 of the Environment Act 2021;
  - “environmental principles” and “policy statement on environmental principles” have the same meanings as in section 17 of the Environment Act 2021;
  - “Environmental Standards Scotland” has the same meaning as in section 19 of the UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Continuity) (Scotland) Act 2021;
  - “international environmental protection legislation” has the same meaning as in section 21 of the Environment Act 2021;
  - “Office for Environmental Protection” has the same meaning as in section 22 of the Environment Act 2021;
  - “OSPAR Convention” means The Convention for the Protection of the Marine Environment of the North-East Atlantic (1992);

“RAMSAR Convention” means The Convention on Wetlands of International Importance especially as Waterfowl Habitat (Ramsar, 1971).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause creates additional conditions to be satisfied before the powers set out in clause 15 can be exercised where the subject matter of their exercise concerns environmental law.

Clause 1, page 1, line 6, at end insert—

“(1A) Subsection (1) does not apply to an instrument, or a provision of an instrument, that—

- (a) would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament if it were contained in an Act of the Scottish Parliament, or
- (b) could be made in subordinate legislation by the Scottish Ministers, the First Minister or the Lord Advocate acting alone.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment restricts the automatic revocation or “sunsetting” of EU-derived subordinate legislation and retained direct EU legislation under Clause 1 of the Bill so that it does not apply to legislation that is within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.

Clause 1, page 1, line 12, at end insert—

- “(3A) The Secretary of State must, no later than three months before the date specified in subsection (1), publish a list of all legislation being revoked under this section (the “revocation list”) and lay a copy before Parliament.
- (3B) With each update of the revocation list up to the date specified in subsection (1), the Secretary of State must lay an updated copy of the revocation list before Parliament.
- (3C) Any legislation not included in the revocation list, as updated, on the date specified in subsection (1) is not revoked.
- (3D) At any time before the date specified in subsection (1), the House of Commons may by resolution amend the revocation list by adding or removing instruments specified in the resolution, and the Secretary of State must accordingly lay the updated revocation list before Parliament.
- (3E) At any time before the date specified in subsection (1), the House of Lords may by resolution propose amendment of the revocation list by adding or removing instruments specified in the resolution.
- (3F) If the House of Commons does not pass a motion disagreeing with a resolution of the House of Lords under subsection (3E) within ten days of the date of that resolution, the Secretary of State must amend the revocation list in accordance with the resolution of the House of Lords and lay the updated version before Parliament.
- (3G) If the Secretary of State does not amend the revocation list when required to do so by paragraphs (3D) or (3F) before the date specified in paragraph (1), the revocation list will be deemed to have been amended as specified in the resolution of the relevant House of Parliament, and the relevant legislation will be treated as though the change has been made.
- (3H) Any legislation to which section (3C) applies is not to be considered as either retained EU law or assimilated law.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to publish an exhaustive list of every piece of legislation being revoked under the Sunset Clause, and allow for Parliamentary oversight of this process so that it is the House of Commons which has the ultimate say on which legislation is affected.
