

HIGHER EDUCATION (FREEDOM OF SPEECH) BILL

Consideration of Lords Amendments

Tuesday 7 February 2023

Grouping of Lords Amendments by Secretary Gillian Keegan

None of the Lords Amendments engages financial privilege

Civil claims; duties of registered higher education providers; duties of constituent institutions; duties of students' unions; general functions; minor and consequential amendments

Govt motion to disagree LA10 + LA1 to LA9 + LA11 + LA12

Two hours from start of proceedings on the Lords Amendments
(if the Programme (No. 2) motion is agreed to)

7 February 2023

By order of Mr Speaker

Notes:

If the Programme (No. 2) motion is agreed to and the two-hour 'knife' is reached before the decision is made on the motion to disagree to LA10:

(a) the Question before the House will be disposed of,

(b) followed by a single question put by the (Deputy) Speaker that all remaining Lords Amendments be agreed to.