

TRADE (AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND) BILL

EXPLANATORY NOTES ON LORDS AMENDMENT

What these notes do

- 1 These Explanatory Notes relate to the Lords Amendment to the Trade (Australia and New Zealand) Bill as brought from the House of Lords on 20 March 2023.
- 2 These Explanatory Notes have been prepared by the Department for Business and Trade in order to assist the reader of the Bill and the Lords amendment, and to help inform debate on the Lords amendment. They do not form part of the Bill and have not been endorsed by Parliament.
- 3 These Explanatory Notes, like the Lords amendment itself, refer to HL Bill 81, the Bill as first printed for the Lords.
- 4 These Explanatory Notes need to be read in conjunction with the Lords amendment and the text of the Bill. They are not, and are not meant to be, a comprehensive description of the Lords amendment.
- 5 Lords Amendment 1 was tabled in the name of the Minister.

Commentary on Lords amendments

Lords Amendment to Clause 2: Further provision about power

Lords Amendment 1

- 6 This amendment corrects a typographical error in the Bill and inserts a word missing from Clause 2(1)(a).
- 7 The amendment clarifies that regulations under the Bill may make different provision for different purposes or areas.

Financial Effects of Lords Amendments

- 8 There are no financial implications related to the Lords amendment.
