Finance (No. 2) Bill, As Amended

(Amendment Paper)

This document lists all amendments tabled to the Finance (No. 2) Bill. Any withdrawn amendments are listed at the end of the document. The amendments are arranged in the order in which it is expected they will be decided.

★ New Amendments.

☆ Amendments which will comply with the required notice period at their next appearance.

New Amendments: NC4 (a)

The Chancellor of the Exchequer

Gov NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Domestic top-up tax to apply from 31 December 2023

This Part has effect in relation to accounting periods commencing on or after 31 December 2023.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause makes it clear that the domestic top-up tax imposed by Part 4 of the bill commences at the same time as the multinational top-up tax imposed by Part 3 of the bill.

As an Amendment to The Chancellor of the Exchequer’s proposed New Clause (Domestic top-up tax to apply from 31 December 2023) (Gov NC4):—

★ Line 3, at end insert—

“(2) The Treasury may by regulations amend subsection (1) by substituting a later date for the date for the time being specified there.”

The Chancellor of the Exchequer

Gov NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Communications data

- (1) Section 12(2) of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 (restriction of powers to obtain communications data) does not apply to a power falling within subsection (2).
- (2) A power falls within this subsection if it is conferred (whether before, on or after the passing of this Act) by or under—
 - (a) any Finance Act of any year (including this Act and any other numbered Finance Act);
 - (b) the Taxes Acts (within the meaning of TMA 1970);
 - (c) the customs and excise Acts (within the meaning of CEMA 1979);
 - (d) any enactment relating to value added tax;
 - (e) any enactment, not falling within paragraphs (a) to (d), that relates to tax.
- (3) But subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the exercise of such a power by a public authority in the course of a criminal investigation by the authority.
- (4) In section 12 of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016, after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Subsection (2) is subject to section (Communications data)(1) of the Finance (No. 2) Act 2023 (no restriction on tax related powers).”
- (5) In Schedule 36 to FA 2008 (information and inspection powers), in paragraph 19, omit sub-paragraphs (4) and (5).
- (6) In consequence of the repeal made by subsection (5), omit paragraph 10 of Schedule 2 to the Investigatory Powers Act 2016.
- (7) The modification and amendments made by subsections (1) to (6) are to be treated as having always had effect.
- (8) Subsections (9) and (10) apply where—
 - (a) before the day on which this Act is passed, a public authority imposed a requirement on a person under a power falling within subsection (2), and
 - (b) as a result of section 12(2) of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 the public authority did not, ignoring this section, have the power to impose it.
- (9) The requirement is to be treated as having been imposed on the day on which this Act is passed (and accordingly the period in which it must be complied with is to be treated as starting on that day) unless—
 - (a) the requirement was withdrawn by the public authority before that day, or
 - (b) the person complied with the requirement before that day.

- (10) Where, before the day on which this Act is passed, the public authority imposed a penalty on the person for contravening the requirement—
- (a) the penalty is of no effect, and
 - (b) if already paid, the authority is liable to repay it.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause removes a restriction on the exercise of civil information powers (for example, Schedule 36 of the Finance Act 2008 which HMRC use to obtain information from, and about, taxpayers) which otherwise might prevent their use in certain cases (for example, where online banks or other financial institutions are regarded as telecommunications or postal operators).

To move the following Clause—

“Review of alternatives to the abolition of the lifetime allowance charge

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed—
 - (a) conduct a review of the impact of the abolition of the lifetime allowance charge introduced by section 18 of this Act and other changes to tax-free pension allowances introduced by sections 19 to 23 of this Act, and
 - (b) lay before the House of Commons a report setting out recommendations arising from the review.
- (2) The review must make recommendations on how the policies referred to in subsection (1)(a) could be replaced with an alternative approach that provided equivalent benefits only for NHS doctors.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor to review the impact of the tax free pension allowance changes and to recommend an alternative approach targeted at NHS doctors.

To move the following Clause—

“Reports to Treasury Committee on measures to simplify tax system

- (1) The Treasury must report to the Treasury Committee of the House of Commons on steps taken by the Treasury and HMRC to simplify the tax system in the absence of the Office of Tax Simplification.
- (2) Reports under this section must include information on steps to—
 - (a) simplify existing taxes, tax reliefs and allowances,
 - (b) simplify new taxes, tax reliefs and allowances,
 - (c) engage with stakeholders to understand needs for tax simplification,
 - (d) develop metrics to measure performance on tax simplification, and performance against those metrics.
- (3) A report under this section must be sent to the Committee before the end of each calendar year after the year in which section 346 (abolition of the Office of Tax Simplification) comes into force.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Treasury to report annually to the Treasury Committee on tax simplification if the Office of Tax Simplification is abolished.

To move the following Clause—

“Review of public health and poverty effects of Act

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the public health and poverty effects of the provisions of this Act and lay a report of that review before the House of Commons within six months of the passing of this Act.
- (2) The review must consider—
 - (a) the effects of the provisions of this Act on the levels of relative and absolute poverty across the UK including devolved nations and regions,
 - (b) the effects of the provisions of this Act on socioeconomic inequalities and on population groups with protected characteristics as defined by the 2010 Equality Act across the UK, including by devolved nations and regions,
 - (c) the effects of the provisions of this Act on life expectancy and healthy life expectancy across the UK, including by devolved nations and regions, and

- (d) the implications for the public finances of the public health effects of the provisions of this Act.”

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of business taxes

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed—
- (a) conduct a review of the business taxes, and
 - (b) lay before the House of Commons a report setting out recommendations arising from the review.
- (2) The review must make recommendations on how to—
- (a) use business taxes to encourage and increase the investment of profits and revenue;
 - (b) ensure businesses have more certainty about the taxes to which they are subject; and
 - (c) ensure that the system of capital allowances operates effectively to incentivise investment, including for small businesses.
- (3) In this section, “the business taxes” includes any tax in respect of which this Act makes provision that is paid by a business, including in particular provisions made under sections 5 to 15 of this Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Chancellor to conduct a review of business taxes, and to make recommendations on how to increase certainty and investment, before the next Finance Bill is published.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Statement on efforts to support implementation of the Pillar 2 model rules

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within three months of this Act being passed, make a statement to the House of Commons on how actions taken by the UK Government since October 2021 in relation to the implementation of the Pillar 2 model rules relate to the provisions of Part 3 of this Act.
- (2) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must provide updates to the statement at intervals after that statement has been made of—
- (a) three months;

- (b) six months; and
 - (c) nine months.
- (3) The statement, and the updates to it, must include—
- (a) details of efforts by the UK Government to encourage more countries to implement the Pillar 2 rules; and
 - (b) details of any discussions the UK Government has had with other countries about making the rules more effective.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Chancellor to report every three months for a year on the UK Government's progress in working with other countries to extend and strengthen the global minimum corporate tax framework for large multinationals.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of energy (oil and gas) profits levy allowances

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within three months of the passing of this Act—
- (a) conduct a review of section 2(3) of the Energy (Oil and Gas) Profits Levy Act 2022, as introduced by subsection 12(2) of this Act, and
 - (b) lay before the House of Commons a report arising from the review.
- (2) The review must include consideration of the implications for the public finances of the provisions in section 2(3)—
- (a) were all the provisions in section 2(3) to apply, and
 - (b) were the provisions in section 2(3)(b) not to apply.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor to review the investment allowances introduced as part of the energy profits levy, and to set out what would happen if the allowance for all expenditure, apart from that spent on de-carbonisation, were removed.

James Murray

NC9

Abena Oppong-Asare

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of section 36

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed, publish an assessment of the impact on the public finances of the measures provided for by section 36 of this Act (“the section 36 measures”).

- (2) The assessment must include details of any analysis by the Treasury or HMRC of—
- (a) the amount of additional tax raised by the section 36 measures and,
 - (b) the number of individuals who are required to pay additional tax as a result of the section 36 measures.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor to review the impact of the measures in the Act that affect people with non-domiciled status, including by setting out how many people will be required to pay additional tax and how much this will raise in total.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of new bands and rates of air passenger duty

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed, publish an assessment of the impact of the changes to air passenger duty introduced by this Act on—
- (a) the public finances;
 - (b) carbon emissions; and
 - (c) household finances.
- (2) The assessment under subsection (1) must consider how households at a range of different income levels are affected by these changes.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor to publish an assessment of this Act’s changes to air passenger duty on the public finances, carbon emissions, and on the finances of households at a range of different income levels.

James Murray

NC11

Abena Oppong-Asare

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of impact of tax changes in this Act on households

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed, publish an assessment of the impact of the changes in this Act on household finances.
- (2) The assessment in subsection (1) must consider how households at a range of different income levels are affected by these changes.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor to publish an assessment of the changes in this Act on the finances of households at a range of different income levels.

Sarah Olney

NC12

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of Part 5

- (1) The Treasury must conduct a review of the provisions of Part 5 of this Act (electricity generator levy).
- (2) The review must consider the case for ending or amending the charge on exceptional generation receipts when energy market conditions change.
- (3) The report of the review must be published and laid before the House of Commons within six months of this Act being passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to conduct a review into the energy generator levy with a view to sunsetting the levy when market conditions change.

Sarah Olney

NC13

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of effects of Act on the affordability of food

The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed, lay before the House of Commons an assessment of the impact of the measures of this Act, and in particular sections 1 to 4 (income tax), on the ability of households to afford the price of food.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to produce an impact assessment of the effect of the Act on the affordability of food.

Sarah Olney

NC14

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of effects of Act on small businesses

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within six months of this Act being passed, lay before the House of Commons a report on the likely impact of the measures of this Act on small businesses.

- (2) The report must assess the effect on small businesses of any taxes charged under this Act, in the context of other financial pressures currently facing small businesses including—
 - (a) the rate of inflation, and
 - (b) b) the cost of energy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to produce an impact assessment of the effect of the Act on small business with particular regard to inflation and the cost of energy.

Sarah Olney

NC15

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Review of effects of Act on SME R&D tax relief

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must lay before Parliament within six months of the passing of this Act a review of the impact of the measures in section 10 relating to research and development tax relief for small and medium-sized enterprises.
- (2) The review must compare the impact of the relief before and after 1 April 2023, with regard to the following—
 - (a) the viability and competitiveness of UK technology start-up and scale-up businesses,
 - (b) the number of jobs created and lost in the UK technology sector, and
 - (c) long-term UK economic growth.
- (3) In this section, "technology start-up" means a business trading for no more than three years; with an average headcount of staff of less than 50 during that three-year period; and which spends at least 15% of its costs on research and development activities.
- (4) In this section, "technology scale-up" means a business that has achieved growth of 20% or more in either employment or turnover year on year for at least two years and has a minimum employee count of 10 at the start of the observation period; and spends at least 15% of its costs on research and development activities.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to produce an impact assessment of the effect of changes to SME R&D tax credits in this act on tech start-ups and scale-ups.

Gov 9

Clause 7, page 4, line 25, leave out from “that” to end of line 26 and insert “has been the subject of that or any other first-year allowance or has been allocated to a pool for that or any other accounting period”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the rules for determining the amount of a balancing charge work as originally intended in all scenarios.

The Chancellor of the ExchequerGov 10

Clause 7, page 5, line 8, leave out from “that” to end of line 9 and insert “has been the subject of that or any other first-year allowance or has been allocated to a pool for that or any other accounting period”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the rules for determining the amount of a balancing charge work as originally intended in all scenarios.

The Chancellor of the ExchequerGov 11

Clause 12, page 8, line 37, leave out “a subsea” and insert “an”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the relief works as intended for onshore activities.

The Chancellor of the ExchequerGov 12

Clause 12, page 8, line 41, leave out from “infrastructure” to end of line 42 and insert “means any upstream petroleum pipeline, oil processing facility or gas processing facility (as those expressions are defined by section 90 of the Energy Act 2011 but as if that section also applied (with the appropriate modifications) to Northern Ireland).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the relief works as intended for onshore activities and Northern Ireland.

The Chancellor of the ExchequerGov 13

Clause 12, page 9, line 1, leave out subsection (7) and insert—

“(7) The amendments made by subsections (2) to (4) have effect in relation to expenditure incurred on or after 1 January 2023 and the amendments made by subsections (5) and (6) have effect in relation to expenditure incurred on or after 26 May 2022.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the relief for operating expenditure works as intended for onshore activities and Northern Ireland from the time when the charge to energy (oil and gas) profits levy was imposed (26 May 2022).

Gov 14

Clause 23, page 15, line 2, leave out from “(S.I. 2006/572),” to end of line 12 and insert “in article 25C (payment of stand-alone lump sums: tax consequences), for paragraph (3) substitute—

“(3A) Section 636A of ITEPA 2003 (exemptions and liabilities for certain lump sums under registered pension schemes) is to be read as if, after subsection (1C), there were inserted—

“(1D) In the case of a stand-alone lump sum paid under a registered pension scheme—

- (a) no liability to income tax arises on so much of the sum as does not exceed the 5 April 2023 maximum, and
- (b) section 579A applies in relation to the remainder (if any) of the sum as that section applies to any pension under a registered pension scheme.

(1E) In subsection (1D) and this subsection—

- (a) “stand-alone lump sum” has the meaning given by paragraph (3) of article 25 of the Taxation of Pension Schemes (Transitional Provisions) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/572);
- (b) “the 5 April 2023 maximum” means the maximum amount that, on 5 April 2023, could have been paid to the member under the registered pension scheme by way of a stand-alone lump sum.

(1F) For the purposes of determining the maximum amount mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (1E), condition C in article 25A of the order mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection (condition that member has reached normal minimum pension age etc) is treated as met.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides that any amount of a stand-alone lump sum in excess of the maximum amount that could have been paid to the relevant pension scheme member free of tax on 5 April 2023 is subject to income tax at the member’s marginal rate.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer

Gov 15

Clause 51, page 41, line 1, after “produced” insert “in the United Kingdom”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that overseas producers (who cannot be approved under clause 82) can access the relief.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer

Gov 16

Clause 58, page 45, line 5, after “produced” insert “in the United Kingdom”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that overseas producers (who cannot be approved under clause 82) can access the relief.

Clause 115, page 74, line 10, at end insert—

“(1A) Wine which—

- (a) is obtained from the alcoholic fermentation of fresh grapes or the must of fresh grapes and fortified with spirits,
- (b) is included in one or more of the United Kingdom Geographical Indication Scheme registers, and
- (c) is of an alcoholic strength of at least 15.5% but not exceeding 20%, is treated, for the purposes of the charge to alcohol duty, as if it were of an alcoholic strength of 17.5%.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Chancellor to provide comparable transitional relief to fortified wine made from fresh grapes, such as port and sherry, as has been made available to other forms of table wine.

Daisy Cooper

☆ Clause 115, page 74, line 10, at end insert—

“(1A) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must, within one month of this Act coming into force, lay before the House of Commons an assessment of the impact of extending the provision of subsection (1) to wine which—

- (a) is obtained from the alcoholic fermentation of fresh grapes or the must of fresh grapes and fortified with spirits,
- (b) is included in one or more of the United Kingdom Geographical Indication Scheme registers, and
- (c) is of an alcoholic strength of at least 15.5% but not exceeding 20%.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Chancellor to lay before the House an assessment of the impact of providing comparable transitional relief to fortified wine made from fresh grapes, such as port and sherry, as has been made available to other forms of table wine.

This amendment is linked to Amendment 24.

Sarah Olney 24

☆ Clause 278, page 198, line 12 at end insert—

“Where the generating undertaking is a generator of renewable energy, determine the amount of relevant investment expenditure and also subtract that amount.” expenditure and also subtract that amount.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, together with Amendments 23, 25 and 26 would allow generators of renewable energy to offset money re-invested in renewable projects against the levy.

Sarah Olney 25

☆ Clause 279, page 199, line 21, at end insert—

“a “generator of renewable energy” means—

- (a) a company, other than a member of a group, that operates, or
- (b) a group of companies that includes at least one member who operates a generating station generating electricity from a renewable source within the meaning of section 32M of the Energy Act 1989;

“relevant investment expenditure” means any profits of a generator of renewable energy that have been re-invested in renewable projects;”

This amendment introduces an assumption that is intended to clarify how, in the case of deposit amounts that are not repaid, the liability to account for VAT works.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer

Gov 19

Clause 314, page 236, line 14, at end insert—

“(2A) The applicable assumption is that, in the case of those goods, section 55C(3) is ignored and the deposit amount and the price payable for the goods are regarded instead as indistinguishable parts of the consideration for the supply of the goods.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes it clear that, in calculating the VAT liability, unreturned deposit amounts and the price payable for the goods are treated in exactly the same way.
