Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Bill

(Amendment Paper)

This document lists all amendments tabled to the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Bill. Any withdrawn amendments are listed at the end of the document. The amendments are arranged in the order in which it is expected they will be decided.

This document should be read alongside the Chair's provisional Selection and Grouping, which sets out the order in which the amendments will be debated.

★ New Amendments.

New Amendments: 130 to 136

Mike Wood

That the Order of the Committee of 13 June be varied by the omission of paragraph 1(h). (Standing Order No. 83C(10))

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 71

Clause 217, page 146, line 5, leave out second "trader" and insert "person"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the definition of "commercial practice" for the purposes of Chapter 1 of Part 4 of the Bill includes an act or omission by a trader relating to the promotion or supply of a consumer's product to another consumer.

Neil Coyle

118

Clause 217, page 146, line 11, at end insert—

"(c) a person marketing P's goods for sale online."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes a person marketing goods online a trader, for the purposes of this Act.

Neil Coyle

119

Clause 217, page 146, line 22, after "222)," insert—

- "(ba) a product is sold online, and the operator of the online marketplace has not taken reasonable steps, as defined by regulations made under section 234 of this Act, to ensure that the goods offered for sale in the online marketplace comply with—
- (i) the General Product Safety Regulations 2005 (SI 2005 No 1803) ("the 2005 Regulations"), and
 - (ii) such other safety requirements as the Secretary of State may specify."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes it an unfair commercial practice to sell goods online unless the specified safety requirements have been complied with.

Richard Thomson

68

Schedule 18, page 343, line 2, at end insert—

- "32 Making claims about—
- (a) the environmental benefits, or
 - (b) the sustainability (as defined by section 234(1C)) of a product or service which are not based on evidence which can be verified by a court."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ban the practice of "greenwashing". It would include the making of unsubstantiated claims about the sustainability of products and services an unfair commercial practice.

Seema Malhotra

115

Alex Davies-Jones
Richard Thomson

Schedule 18, page 343, line 2, at end insert—

- "32 At any stage of a purchase process, presenting a price for a product which omits obligatory charges or fees (or an estimate thereof) which are payable by the majority of consumers, which are not revealed to the consumer until later in the purchase process."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment adds the practice of "drip-pricing", a pricing technique in which traders advertise only part of a product's price and reveal other obligatory charges later as the customer goes through the buying process, to the list of unfair commercial practices.

Seema Malhotra

116

Alex Davies-Jones
Richard Thomson

Schedule 18, page 343, line 2, at end insert—

- "32 Commissioning, incentivising or authorising the writing or submission of false consumer reviews or endorsements, in order to promote products.
- 33 Offering or advertising to submit, commission or facilitate false consumer reviews or endorsements.
- 34 Displaying consumer reviews of products on an online interface—
- (a) without taking reasonable and proportionate steps to ensure that such reviews are submitted by consumers who have used or purchased the products in question;
 - (b) where any consumers who provided reviews were incentivised to describe certain products in a particular way, without taking reasonable and proportionate steps to ensure this is not the case; or
 - (c) in a way that deceives or manipulates consumers, or where a practice has been undertaken in relation to reviews that otherwise materially distorts or impairs the ability of consumers to make free and informed decisions, without taking reasonable and proportionate steps to ensure this is not the case."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment adds the practice of commissioning fake reviews, offering services to write fake reviews, and displaying consumer reviews without taking reasonable steps to verify their accuracy, to the list of unfair commercial practices.

Neil Coyle

123

Schedule 18, page 343, line 2, at end insert—

- "32 Marketing online products that are either—
- (a) counterfeit; or
 - (b) dangerous."

Neil Coyle

125

Schedule 18, page 343, line 2, at end insert—

- “32 Stating or otherwise creating the impression that reviews of a product are submitted by consumers who have actually used or purchased the product without taking reasonable and proportionate steps to check that they originate from such consumers.
- 33 Submitting or commissioning another legal or natural person to submit false consumer reviews or endorsements, or misrepresenting consumer reviews or social endorsements, in order to promote products.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would add fake reviews to the list of banned practices.

Neil Coyle

120

Clause 218, page 147, line 9, at end insert—

- “(e) an operator of an online marketplace failing to take reasonable steps, as defined by regulations made under section 234 of this Act, to ensure that no goods offered for sale in the marketplace have been the subject of a notification to an enforcement authority under regulation 9 of the 2005 Regulations.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes it a misleading action to sell goods online without taking reasonable steps to ensure that those goods have not been subject to a recall.

Seema Malhotra

127

Alex Davies-Jones
Neil Coyle

Clause 222, page 149, line 21, at end insert—

- “(j) for goods and services offered on online marketplaces, whether the third party offering the products is a trader or not, on the basis of the declaration of that third party to the provider of the online marketplace.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would add whether or not a third party seller on an online marketplace is a trader or a consumer to the list of omissions of material information in an invitation to purchase.

Neil Coyle

126

Clause 222, page 150, line 11, leave out “and its price”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment expands the definition of an invitation to purchase to cases where the information provided to the consumer covers the characteristics of the product but not its price.

Neil Coyle

124

Clause 223, page 150, line 27, at end insert—

“(4A) Where a commercial practice has been found to be unfair under paragraph 32 of Schedule 18 of this Act, the authorities under this section have the power to require the removal of the relevant online marketing from the internet.”

Richard Thomson

Clause 225, page 152, line 30, at end insert—

“(4A) The Secretary of State must by regulations make any further provision necessary to ensure that the rights of redress available under this Chapter are equivalent to, and not lesser than, those available under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008 (S.I. 2008/1277).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure that the “Consumer Rights to Redress” that will be set out through secondary legislation cannot offer a reduced level of the protection than the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.

Seema Malhotra

114

Alex Davies-Jones

Clause 225, page 152, line 33, at end insert—

- “(7) The Secretary of State must—
- (a) prepare a report on the merits of introducing a consumer right to individual and collective redress by regulations set out in 225(1), and
 - (b) lay a copy of this report before Parliament.
- (8) The report must be laid within the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to prepare and lay before Parliament a report on the merits of introducing a consumer right to individual and collective redress through secondary legislation, as is the case in EU member states.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 72

Clause 230, page 154, line 32, at end insert "subsection (1), (2), (3), (6) or (7) of"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the defence provided for in clause 230(1) (defence of due diligence) does not apply in relation to an offence under clause 229(4) (offence of engaging in an unfair commercial practice which involves a contravention of the requirements of professional diligence). This replicates the current position under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 73

Clause 230, page 155, line 5, after "under" insert "subsection (1), (2), (3), (6) or (7) of"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the defence provided for in clause 230(3) (defence of innocent publication) does not apply in relation to an offence under clause 229(4) (offence of engaging in an unfair commercial practice which involves a contravention of the requirements of professional diligence). This replicates the current position under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 74

Clause 231, page 155, line 30, after "under" insert "subsection (1), (2), (3), (6) or (7) of"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the imposition of liability on another person does not apply in relation to an offence under clause 229(4) (offence of engaging in an unfair commercial practice which involves a contravention of the requirements of professional diligence). This replicates the current position under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 75

Clause 231, page 155, line 31, leave out "section" and insert "subsection"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 74.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 76

Clause 231, page 155, line 40, after "under" insert "subsection (1), (2), (3), (6) or (7) of"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 74.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 77

Clause 231, page 155, line 41, leave out “section” and insert “subsection”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 74.

Richard Thomson

69

Clause 234, page 157, line 29, at end insert—

- “(1A) The Secretary of State must consult on a definition of sustainability for the purposes of paragraph 32 of Schedule 18.
- (1B) A consultation under subsection (1A) must—
- (a) set out which products and services can be labelled sustainable; and
 - (b) require the definition to comply with international standards.
- (1C) Following a consultation under subsection (1A) the Secretary of State must by regulations amend this Chapter to add a definition of sustainable.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ban the practice of “greenwashing”. It requires the Government to define which products and services can be labelled “sustainable” and requires that this definition complies with international standards.

Seema Malhotra

Alex Davies-Jones

Clause 234, page 157, line 30, leave out subsection (2)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that future “banned practices” are both criminal and civil breaches, reflecting their potential seriousness and putting them in line with all but two of the current banned practices.

Neil Coyle

121

Clause 234, page 158, line 4, at end insert—

- “(4A) The Secretary of State must by regulations define “reasonable steps” for the purposes of sections 217 and 218 of this Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to make regulations to define “reasonable steps” for the purposes of clauses 217 and 218 of this Act.

Neil Coyle

122

Clause 241, page 160, line 14, at end insert—

““online marketplace” means a service using software, including a website, part of a website or an application, operated by or on behalf of a trader, which allows consumers to conclude distance contracts with other traders or consumers;

“safety requirement” includes—

- (a) any relevant enactment governing the safety of products or of a specific type of products,
- (b) any voluntary national standard of the United Kingdom, and
- (c) any standard adopted by an international standardising body.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment defines the terms “Online Marketplace”, and “Safety Requirements”.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 78

Clause 243, page 161, line 21, at end insert—

“(3A) In section 393(5) of the Communications Act 2003 (exceptions to general restrictions on disclosure of information), after paragraph (r) insert—

“(s) Chapter 1 of Part 4 of the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Act 2023.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment enables OFCOM to disclose information to the CMA for the purpose of the CMA exercising its functions under Chapter 1 of Part 4 of the Bill in the same way that OFCOM may currently disclose information to the CMA for the purpose of the CMA exercising its functions under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.

Richard Thomson

Schedule 19, page 349, line 39, at end insert—

“Non-commercial society lotteries

- 13 (1) A contract under which a lottery ticket or tickets are purchased for one or more non-commercial society lotteries.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1), “non-commercial society” has the meaning given by section 19 of the Gambling Act 2005, and “lottery ticket” has the meaning given by section 253 of that Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to exclude lottery tickets purchased for non-commercial society lotteries from the scope of the provisions on subscription contracts.

Neil Coyle

130

- ★ Clause 250, page 166, line 16, leave out “to which subsection (2) applies” and insert “relating to a period which is six months or longer”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment extends the requirement to require the subsequent reminder to be sent where renewal is for 6 months or more.

Neil Coyle

131

- ★ Clause 250, page 166, line 17, leave out subsections (2) and (3)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on amendment 127

Neil Coyle

132

- ★ Clause 250, page 166, line 23, at end insert “unless the consumer has received goods or services, or accessed digital content, under the subscription contract since the previous renewal payment”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment removes the need to send renewal reminders to contracts where the customer has actively received goods or services or accessed digital content in period since they last made an ‘avoidable’ payment.

Neil Coyle

133

- ★ Clause 252, page 167, line 40, leave out “single communication” and insert “straightforward, cost-effective and timely manner”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment changes this requirement for a single communication but requires that consumers must be able to end contracts in a simple, cost effective and timely way.

Neil Coyle

134

- ★ Clause 252, page 168, line 17, after “means” insert “supported by the trader for the purposes of communicating with its customers about their subscription contract”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment introduces a qualification that consumers should communicate their wish to exit a contract to a trader via a supported means of enquiry.

Neil Coyle

135

★ Clause 252, page 168, line 19, at end insert “and to allow the trader to verify that it is its customer making the request”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that a trader can verify a request made by a customer to exit a contract.

Giles Watling

113

Clause 256, page 170, line 22, leave out “any circumstances” and insert “circumstances where the consumer has not yet made use of the goods or service provided under the contract”

Seema Malhotra

128

Alex Davies-Jones

Clause 263, page 175, line 40, leave out “level 5 on the standard scale” and insert—

“the statutory maximum;

(c) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine (or both).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would make subscription traps offences “triable either way”, therefore bringing it in line with other similar offences in the Bill, for example for misleading actions.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 79

Clause 264, page 176, line 31, after “period” insert “or date”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment corrects a drafting error.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 80

Clause 272, page 180, line 35, leave out “pre-contract”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to expand the definition of “durable medium”.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 81

Clause 272, page 181, line 1, leave out “pre-contract”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to expand the definition of "durable medium".

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 82

Clause 272, page 181, line 4, leave out "pre-contract"

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to expand the definition of "durable medium".

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 83

Clause 283, page 189, line 5, leave out subsection (9) and insert—

"(9) For the meaning of "exempt ADR provider" and "exempt redress scheme" see section 287."

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment provides a signpost for the reader to clause 287, which identifies who are exempt ADR providers for the purposes of Chapter 4.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 84

Clause 284, page 189, line 34, leave out "(the gas code)" and insert ", or by section 12(1) or (2) of the Energy Act (Northern Ireland) 2011 (2011 c. 6),"

Member's explanatory statement

The provisions of the Gas Act 1986 referred to in clause 284(3)(b) do not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 85

Clause 284, page 189, line 39, leave out "(the electricity code)" and insert "or by paragraph 3(1) or (2) of Schedule 6 to the Electricity (Northern Ireland) Order 1992 (S.I.1992/231 (N.I.1))"

Member's explanatory statement

The provisions of the Electricity Act 1989 referred to in clause 284(3)(d) do not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 86

Clause 284, page 190, line 4, at end insert "or Part 2 of the Electricity (Northern Ireland) Order 1992"

Member's explanatory statement

Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989 does not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 87

Clause 284, page 190, line 6, at end insert "or Part 2 of the Gas (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (S.I.1996/275 (N.I.2))"

Member's explanatory statement

Part 1 of the Gas Act 1986 does not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 88

Clause 284, page 190, line 8, at end insert—

- “(b) a person supplying water under a water services licence within the meaning of the Water Services etc. (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 3), or
- (c) a water undertaker within the meaning of the Water and Sewerage Services (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 (S.I.2006/3336 (N.I.21)).”

Member's explanatory statement

The definition of “water supplier” in Part 1 of the Water Industry Act 1991 only extends to England and Wales. This amendment would add references to the corresponding suppliers in Scotland and Northern Ireland. In the current text of the definition, the words after “means” will become paragraph (a).

Kevin Hollinrake

Clause 284, page 191, leave out line 4

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment deletes an unnecessary word: the term “business” does not need to be defined as it is not used in Chapter 4 of Part 4 of the Bill.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 90

Clause 286, page 191, line 39, after “the” insert “accredited”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to clarify which ADR provider is referred to in clause 286(2)(a).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 91

Clause 286, page 192, line 4, after “the” insert “accredited”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to clarify which ADR provider is referred to in clause 286(2)(c).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 92

Clause 287, page 192, line 11, leave out subsection (1) and insert—

“(1) In this Chapter—

“exempt ADR provider” means a person who—

- (a) is listed (or of a description of persons listed) in Part 1 of Schedule 22, or
- (b) is (when carrying out ADR or making special ADR arrangements) acting under or for the purposes of an exempt redress scheme;

“exempt redress scheme” means a scheme or other similar arrangement which is listed (or of a description listed) in Part 1A of Schedule 22.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment reflects the approach proposed by the government amendments to Schedule 22 to have two lists: Part 1 will list particular authorities (or descriptions of authorities) who are (if and to the extent they carry out ADR or make special ADR arrangements) exempt ADR providers. Part 1A will list “exempt redress schemes”. A person who carries out ADR or makes ADR arrangements under or for the purposes of an exempt redress scheme will be an exempt ADR provider.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 93

Clause 287, page 192, line 19, leave out subsection (3) and insert—

“(3) Regulations under subsection (2) may, in particular—

- (a) provide for an entry in Part 1 of Schedule 22 to apply to a specified person or to any person of a specified description;
- (b) provide for an entry in Part 1A of that Schedule to apply to a specified scheme or any scheme of a specified description;
- (c) limit the scope of the exemption given to a person by virtue of an entry in Part 1 or 1A of that Schedule, whether in relation to carrying out ADR or making special ADR arrangements (or both).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment clarifies the scope of the power to make regulations under clause 287(2). The effect of the exemption given to a person by an entry in Part 1 or 1A of Schedule may be limited, for example by reference to the purposes for which an otherwise prohibited activity is carried out or to the kinds of otherwise prohibited activity that are (or are not) exempt.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 94

Clause 287, page 192, line 34, leave out subsection (5) and insert—

- “(5) Subject to any limitation on its scope provided for by Schedule 22—
- (a) an exemption given to a person by virtue of an entry in Part 1 of that Schedule covers anything done by the person in the exercise of the person’s functions that would otherwise be prohibited, and
 - (b) an exemption given to a person by virtue of an entry in Part 1A of that Schedule covers anything done under or for the purposes of an exempted redress scheme that would otherwise be prohibited.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment clarifies the general scope of an exemption that will apply by default, unless there is provision in the Schedule for it to be more limited.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 95

Clause 287, page 192, line 37, after “section” insert “—

“prohibited” means prohibited by section 285(1) or (2);”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment defines “prohibited” for the purposes of the clause by reference to clause 285.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 96

Clause 287, page 193, line 1, leave out subsection (8)

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment omits a subsection that is no longer needed as a result of the other government amendments to clause 287 and Schedule 22.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 108

Schedule 22, page 356, leave out from beginning of line 31 to end of line 11 on page 357 and insert—

“LIST OF EXEMPT PERSONS

The Commission for Local Administration in England (also known as the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman) and each Local Commissioner within the meaning of section 23(3) of the Local Government Act 1974

The Consumer Council for Water

The Health Service Commissioner for England

The Legal Ombudsman

The Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman

The Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (registered company number 04823842) in relation to its functions as the designated operator under section 13 of the Higher Education Act 2004

The Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration

The Pensions Ombudsman”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment alters the list of persons in Part 1 of Schedule 22. The listed persons will, subject to any limitation on their exemption provided for in the Schedule, be exempt from the prohibitions in clause 285. The first, sixth and seventh entries are new. Other entries currently in Part 1 are omitted because they are superseded by entries in Part 1A of Schedule 22 as proposed by Amendment 109.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 109

Schedule 22, page 357, line 15, at end insert—

“PART 1A

EXEMPT REDRESS SCHEMES

An approved estate agents redress scheme

An approved postal operators redress scheme

An approved social housing ombudsman scheme

Approved public communications provider dispute procedures

The Financial Ombudsman Scheme

A qualifying lettings agency work redress scheme

A qualifying property management work redress scheme

A qualifying redress scheme for the gas or electricity sector”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment inserts a Part 1A in Schedule 22 listing schemes or similar arrangements that are to be “exempt redress schemes” for the purposes of Chapter 4 of Part 4 (ADR).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 110

Schedule 22, page 357, line 18, leave out “Part 1” and insert “this Schedule”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the insertion of Part 1A of Schedule 22 proposed by Amendment 109.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 111

Schedule 22, page 357, line 28, at end insert—

““approved social housing ombudsman scheme” means a scheme which is approved for the purposed of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1996;

“qualifying lettings agency work redress scheme” means a redress scheme which is approved as mentioned in section 83(1)(a), or is a government scheme for the purposes of section 83(1)(b), of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013;

“qualifying property management work redress scheme” means a redress scheme which is approved as mentioned in section 84(1)(a), or is a government administered redress scheme for the purposes of section 84(1)(b), of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013;”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment defines three expressions used in entries in Part 1A as proposed to be inserted by Amendment 109.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 97

Clause 289, page 195, line 3, leave out “as extended”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to make clear that new accreditation conditions imposed when extending an accreditation are not limited to any particular part of the extended accreditation.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 98

Clause 289, page 195, line 4, leave out “condition on the existing” and insert “existing condition on the”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment and Amendment 99 are drafting amendments to clarify which accreditation conditions can be varied or removed by the Secretary of State when extending an accreditation.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 99

Clause 289, page 195, line 21, leave out “condition on the existing” and insert “existing condition on the”

Member's explanatory statement

See the member’s explanatory statement for Amendment 98.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 100

Clause 289, page 195, line 26, at end insert—

“(14) Where an accreditation covers the making of special ADR arrangements, conditions on the accreditation may be framed so as to secure that the accredited ADR provider is responsible for acts or omissions of other ADR providers who carry out ADR under special ADR arrangements made by the accredited ADR provider.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that accreditation conditions can be worded so as to make an accredited ADR provider directly responsible for things done by another ADR provider who carries out ADR under special ADR arrangements made by the accredited provider under its accreditation. This could enable regulatory action under clause 290 or 293 to be taken against the accredited ADR provider in relation to acts of the other ADR provider.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 101

Clause 291, page 197, line 9, leave out “potential applicants for accreditation” and insert “accredited ADR providers”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment would correct a mistake in clause 291(3) which should refer to accredited ADR providers, as they are the persons who pay fees under the clause.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 102

Clause 294, page 199, line 1, after “(1)(a)” insert “or (b)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, with Amendments 103 to 105, would ensure that the power in subsection (1)(b) of clause 294 is subject to similar constraints to those currently provided for by subsection (3) in relation to the power in subsection (1)(a). The regulation making powers in clause 294(1) are not to be available for imposing requirements to provide information for purposes other than those set out in subsection (3)(a) to (c).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 103

Clause 294, page 199, line 3, leave out from “following” to end of line 4

Member's explanatory statement

See the explanatory statement for Amendment 102.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 104

Clause 294, page 199, line 5, leave out “provided to the Secretary of State”

Member's explanatory statement

See the explanatory statement for Amendment 102.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 105

Clause 294, page 199, line 10, at end insert—

“(3A) It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (3) whether the publication, monitoring or evaluation is carried out by the Secretary of State, by a person with functions conferred by regulations under section 298 or by any other person acting under arrangements made with that other person by the Secretary of State or a person with such functions.”

Member's explanatory statement

See the explanatory statement for Amendment 102.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 106

Clause 295, page 200, line 13, leave out from “legislation” to end of line 14

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment would omit words that unnecessarily duplicate a definition in clause 297(6).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 107

Clause 296, page 200, line 35, leave out “power conferred by this section is” and insert “powers conferred by this section are”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment would clarify that the words at the end of subsection (4) apply to both of the powers conferred by the clause.

To move the following Clause—

“Decision not to make final offer order

- (1) The CMA may decide not to make a final offer order in relation to the transaction where it has reasonable grounds to believe that there has been a material change of circumstances since the final offer initiation notice was given.
- (2) For the purposes of this section and section 42(3) a material change of circumstances includes an agreement between the designated undertaking and the third party with respect to terms as to payment in relation to the transaction.
- (3) Where the CMA decides not to make a final offer order, it must give a notice to that effect to the designated undertaking and the third party.
- (4) The notice must include the reasonable grounds referred to in subsection (1).
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after giving a notice under subsection (3), the CMA must publish a statement summarising the contents of the notice.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause, together with Amendment 10, ensures that the CMA can end the final offer mechanism without making a final offer order at any time after giving a final offer initiation notice. It would appear after clause 41.

To move the following Clause—

“Recognised news publisher: definition

- (1) In section 20, “recognised news publisher” means any of the following entities—
 - (a) the British Broadcasting Corporation,
 - (b) Sianel Pedwar Cymru,

- (c) the holder of a licence under the Broadcasting Act 1990 or 1996 who publishes news-related material in connection with the broadcasting activities authorised under the licence, and
 - (d) any other entity which—
 - (i) meets all of the conditions in subsection (2), and
 - (ii) is not an excluded entity (see subsection (3)).
- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(d)(i) are that the entity—
- (a) has as its principal purpose the publication of news-related material, and such material—
 - (i) is created by different persons, and
 - (ii) is subject to editorial control,
 - (b) publishes such material in the course of a business (whether or not carried on with a view to profit),
 - (c) is subject to a standards code,
 - (d) has policies and procedures for handling and resolving complaints,
 - (e) has a registered office or other business address in the United Kingdom,
 - (f) is the person with legal responsibility for material published by it in the United Kingdom, and
 - (g) publishes—
 - (i) the entity's name, the address mentioned in paragraph (e) and the entity's registered number (if any), and
 - (ii) the name and address of any person who controls the entity (including, where such a person is an entity, the address of that person's registered or principal office and that person's registered number (if any)).
- (3) An "excluded entity" is an entity—
- (a) which is a proscribed organisation under the Terrorism Act 2000 (see section 3 of that Act), or
 - (b) the purpose of which is to support a proscribed organisation under that Act.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)—
- (a) news-related material is "subject to editorial control" if there is a person (whether or not the publisher of the material) who has editorial or equivalent responsibility for the material, including responsibility for how it is presented and the decision to publish it;
 - (b) "control" has the same meaning as it has in the Broadcasting Act 1990 by virtue of section 202 of that Act.
- (5) In this section—
- "news-related material" means material consisting of—
- (a) news or information about current affairs,
 - (b) opinion about matters relating to the news or current affairs, or
 - (c) gossip about celebrities, other public figures or other persons in the news;

“publish” means publish by any means (including by broadcasting), and references to a publisher and publication are to be construed accordingly;

“standards code” means—

- (a) a code of standards that regulates the conduct of publishers, that is published by an independent regulator, or
- (b) a code of standards that regulates the conduct of the entity in question, that is published by the entity itself.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause is linked to Amendment 58.

To move the following Clause—

“CMA annual report on final offer mechanism

- (1) The CMA must, once a year, produce a report about the final offer mechanism.
- (2) Each report must include information about—
 - (a) the number of final offer orders the CMA has made over the previous year;
 - (b) for each final offer order—
 - (i) the amount of time taken between final offer initiation notice being given and the final offer order being made.
 - (ii) whether bids were submitted by both the undertaking and the third party, and
 - (iii) the outcome of the process; and
- (3) The CMA may provide the information in such a way as to withhold any details that the CMA considers to be commercially sensitive.
- (4) The first report must be published and laid before both Houses of Parliament within one year of this Act being passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the CMA to publish an annual report on the workings of the final offer mechanism. The report will be made publicly available and will be laid in both Houses of Parliament.

To move the following Clause—

“Annual report on operation of CMA functions

- (1) The Secretary of State must, at least once a year, produce a report on the operation of the CMA’s functions under Part 1 of this Act.
- (2) Each report must include an assessment of the following matters—
 - (a) the outcomes of SMS investigations carried out by the CMA, with regard to the number of undertakings found—
 - (i) to have SMS, and
 - (ii) not to have SMS;
 - (b) the extent to which designated undertakings have fulfilled any conduct requirements imposed by the CMA; and
 - (c) the effectiveness of any pro-competition interventions made by the CMA.
- (3) The first report must be published and laid before Parliament within one year of this Act being passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to produce an annual report on the operation of the CMA’s functions under Part 1. The report will be made publicly available and will be laid in Parliament.

To move the following Clause—

“Contract renewal: option to opt in

- (1) Before a trader enters into a subscription contract with a consumer where section 246(2) applies, the trader must ask the consumer whether they wish to opt into an arrangement under which the contract renews automatically at one or more of the following times—
 - (a) after a period of six months and every six months thereafter, or
 - (b) if the period between the consumer being charged for the first and second time is longer than six months, each time payment is due.
- (2) If the consumer does not opt into such an arrangement, the trader must provide a date by which the consumer must notify the trader of the consumer’s intention to renew the contract, which must be no earlier than 28 days before the renewal date.
- (3) If the consumer has not—
 - (a) opted into an arrangement under subsection (1),
 - (b) given notification of the consumer’s intention to renew by the date specified under subsection (2), the contract will lapse on the renewal date.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would allow the consumer to opt-out of their subscription auto-renewing every six months, or if the period between payments is longer than six months, before every payment. If the consumer does not opt-in of auto-renewal, they would be required to notify the trader manually if they wanted to renew.

To move the following Clause—

“Contract renewal: variable rate contracts

- (1) Before a trader enters into a subscription contract with a consumer where section 246(3) applies, the trader must ask the consumer whether they wish to opt into an arrangement under which the contract renews automatically on the date the consumer becomes liable for the first charge or the first higher charge.
- (2) If the consumer does not opt into an arrangement under subsection (1), the trader must provide a date by which the consumer must notify the trader of the consumer’s intention to renew the contract, which must be no earlier than five days before the renewal date.
- (3) The trader must also ask the consumer whether they wish to opt into an arrangement under which the contract renews automatically—
 - (a) after a period of either six months from the first charge or higher charge and every six months thereafter, or
 - (b) if the period between the consumer being charged for the first and second time is longer than six months, each time payment is due.
- (4) If the consumer does not opt into an arrangement under subsection (3), the trader must provide a date by which the consumer must notify the trader of the consumer’s intention to renew the contract, which must be no earlier than 28 days before the renewal date.
- (5) If the consumer has not—
 - (a) opted into an arrangement under subsection (1) or subsection (3), or
 - (b) given notification of the consumer’s intention to renew by the date specified under (as the case may be) subsection (2) or subsection (4),the contract will lapse on the next renewal date.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would introduce an option for the consumer to opt out of their subscription auto-renewing after their free or discounted trial. Otherwise, they would have to notify the trader manually if they wanted to continue the subscription. It also introduces an option for the consumer to opt out of their subscription auto-renewing.

To move the following Clause—

“Regulation of consumer savings schemes

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations establish a system under which the Financial Conduct Authority has responsibility for regulating consumer savings scheme contracts.
- (2) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) must be made within six months of this Act being passed, and
 - (b) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (3) In this section, a “consumer savings scheme contract” has the meaning given in section 274.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would make the FCA, rather than local authorities, responsible for regulating consumer savings scheme contracts.
