Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Bill

(Amendment Paper)

This document lists all amendments tabled to the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Bill. Any withdrawn amendments are listed at the end of the document. The amendments are arranged in the order in which it is expected they will be decided.

This document should be read alongside the Chair's provisional Selection and Grouping, which sets out the order in which the amendments will be debated.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 83

Clause 283, page 189, line 5, leave out subsection (9) and insert—

“(9) For the meaning of “exempt ADR provider” and “exempt redress scheme” see section 287.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment provides a signpost for the reader to clause 287, which identifies who are exempt ADR providers for the purposes of Chapter 4.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 84

Clause 284, page 189, line 34, leave out “(the gas code)” and insert “, or by section 12(1) or (2) of the Energy Act (Northern Ireland) 2011 (2011 c. 6),”

Member's explanatory statement

The provisions of the Gas Act 1986 referred to in clause 284(3)(b) do not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 85

Clause 284, page 189, line 39, leave out “(the electricity code)” and insert “or by paragraph 3(1) or (2) of Schedule 6 to the Electricity (Northern Ireland) Order 1992 (S.I.1992/231 (N.I.1))”

Member's explanatory statement

The provisions of the Electricity Act 1989 referred to in clause 284(3)(d) do not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 86

Clause 284, page 190, line 4, at end insert "or Part 2 of the Electricity (Northern Ireland) Order 1992"

Member's explanatory statement

Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989 does not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 87

Clause 284, page 190, line 6, at end insert "or Part 2 of the Gas (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (S.I.1996/275 (N.I.2))"

Member's explanatory statement

Part 1 of the Gas Act 1986 does not extend to Northern Ireland. This amendment would add a reference to the corresponding legislation in Northern Ireland.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 88

Clause 284, page 190, line 8, at end insert—

- “(b) a person supplying water under a water services licence within the meaning of the Water Services etc. (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 3), or
- (c) a water undertaker within the meaning of the Water and Sewerage Services (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 (S.I.2006/3336 (N.I.21)).”

Member's explanatory statement

The definition of “water supplier” in Part 1 of the Water Industry Act 1991 only extends to England and Wales. This amendment would add references to the corresponding suppliers in Scotland and Northern Ireland. In the current text of the definition, the words after “means” will become paragraph (a).

Kevin Hollinrake

Clause 284, page 191, leave out line 4

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment deletes an unnecessary word: the term “business” does not need to be defined as it is not used in Chapter 4 of Part 4 of the Bill.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 90

Clause 286, page 191, line 39, after “the” insert “accredited”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to clarify which ADR provider is referred to in clause 286(2)(a).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 91

Clause 286, page 192, line 4, after “the” insert “accredited”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to clarify which ADR provider is referred to in clause 286(2)(c).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 92

Clause 287, page 192, line 11, leave out subsection (1) and insert—

“(1) In this Chapter—

“exempt ADR provider” means a person who—

- (a) is listed (or of a description of persons listed) in Part 1 of Schedule 22, or
- (b) is (when carrying out ADR or making special ADR arrangements) acting under or for the purposes of an exempt redress scheme;

“exempt redress scheme” means a scheme or other similar arrangement which is listed (or of a description listed) in Part 1A of Schedule 22.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment reflects the approach proposed by the government amendments to Schedule 22 to have two lists: Part 1 will list particular authorities (or descriptions of authorities) who are (if and to the extent they carry out ADR or make special ADR arrangements) exempt ADR providers. Part 1A will list “exempt redress schemes”. A person who carries out ADR or makes ADR arrangements under or for the purposes of an exempt redress scheme will be an exempt ADR provider.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 93

Clause 287, page 192, line 19, leave out subsection (3) and insert—

“(3) Regulations under subsection (2) may, in particular—

- (a) provide for an entry in Part 1 of Schedule 22 to apply to a specified person or to any person of a specified description;
- (b) provide for an entry in Part 1A of that Schedule to apply to a specified scheme or any scheme of a specified description;
- (c) limit the scope of the exemption given to a person by virtue of an entry in Part 1 or 1A of that Schedule, whether in relation to carrying out ADR or making special ADR arrangements (or both).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment clarifies the scope of the power to make regulations under clause 287(2). The effect of the exemption given to a person by an entry in Part 1 or 1A of Schedule may be limited, for example by reference to the purposes for which an otherwise prohibited activity is carried out or to the kinds of otherwise prohibited activity that are (or are not) exempt.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 94

Clause 287, page 192, line 34, leave out subsection (5) and insert—

- “(5) Subject to any limitation on its scope provided for by Schedule 22—
- (a) an exemption given to a person by virtue of an entry in Part 1 of that Schedule covers anything done by the person in the exercise of the person’s functions that would otherwise be prohibited, and
 - (b) an exemption given to a person by virtue of an entry in Part 1A of that Schedule covers anything done under or for the purposes of an exempted redress scheme that would otherwise be prohibited.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment clarifies the general scope of an exemption that will apply by default, unless there is provision in the Schedule for it to be more limited.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 95

Clause 287, page 192, line 37, after “section” insert “—

“prohibited” means prohibited by section 285(1) or (2);”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment defines “prohibited” for the purposes of the clause by reference to clause 285.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 96

Clause 287, page 193, line 1, leave out subsection (8)

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment omits a subsection that is no longer needed as a result of the other government amendments to clause 287 and Schedule 22.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 108

Schedule 22, page 356, leave out from beginning of line 31 to end of line 11 on page 357 and insert—

“LIST OF EXEMPT PERSONS

The Commission for Local Administration in England (also known as the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman) and each Local Commissioner within the meaning of section 23(3) of the Local Government Act 1974

The Consumer Council for Water

The Health Service Commissioner for England

The Legal Ombudsman

The Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman

The Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (registered company number 04823842) in relation to its functions as the designated operator under section 13 of the Higher Education Act 2004

The Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration

The Pensions Ombudsman”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment alters the list of persons in Part 1 of Schedule 22. The listed persons will, subject to any limitation on their exemption provided for in the Schedule, be exempt from the prohibitions in clause 285. The first, sixth and seventh entries are new. Other entries currently in Part 1 are omitted because they are superseded by entries in Part 1A of Schedule 22 as proposed by Amendment 109.

Kevin Hollinrake

Schedule 22, page 357, line 15, at end insert—

“PART 1A

EXEMPT REDRESS SCHEMES

An approved estate agents redress scheme

An approved postal operators redress scheme

An approved social housing ombudsman scheme

Approved public communications provider dispute procedures

The Financial Ombudsman Scheme

A qualifying lettings agency work redress scheme

A qualifying property management work redress scheme

A qualifying redress scheme for the gas or electricity sector”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment inserts a Part 1A in Schedule 22 listing schemes or similar arrangements that are to be "exempt redress schemes" for the purposes of Chapter 4 of Part 4 (ADR).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 110

Schedule 22, page 357, line 18, leave out "Part 1" and insert "this Schedule"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the insertion of Part 1A of Schedule 22 proposed by Amendment 109.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 111

Schedule 22, page 357, line 28, at end insert—

"approved social housing ombudsman scheme" means a scheme which is approved for the purposes of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1996;

"qualifying lettings agency work redress scheme" means a redress scheme which is approved as mentioned in section 83(1)(a), or is a government scheme for the purposes of section 83(1)(b), of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013;

"qualifying property management work redress scheme" means a redress scheme which is approved as mentioned in section 84(1)(a), or is a government administered redress scheme for the purposes of section 84(1)(b), of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013;"

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment defines three expressions used in entries in Part 1A as proposed to be inserted by Amendment 109.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 97

Clause 289, page 195, line 3, leave out "as extended"

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to make clear that new accreditation conditions imposed when extending an accreditation are not limited to any particular part of the extended accreditation.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 98

Clause 289, page 195, line 4, leave out "condition on the existing" and insert "existing condition on the"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment and Amendment 99 are drafting amendments to clarify which accreditation conditions can be varied or removed by the Secretary of State when extending an accreditation.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 99

Clause 289, page 195, line 21, leave out "condition on the existing" and insert "existing condition on the"

Member's explanatory statement

See the member's explanatory statement for Amendment 98.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 100

Clause 289, page 195, line 26, at end insert—

"(14) Where an accreditation covers the making of special ADR arrangements, conditions on the accreditation may be framed so as to secure that the accredited ADR provider is responsible for acts or omissions of other ADR providers who carry out ADR under special ADR arrangements made by the accredited ADR provider."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that accreditation conditions can be worded so as to make an accredited ADR provider directly responsible for things done by another ADR provider who carries out ADR under special ADR arrangements made by the accredited provider under its accreditation. This could enable regulatory action under clause 290 or 293 to be taken against the accredited ADR provider in relation to acts of the other ADR provider.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 101

Clause 291, page 197, line 9, leave out "potential applicants for accreditation" and insert "accredited ADR providers"

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment would correct a mistake in clause 291(3) which should refer to accredited ADR providers, as they are the persons who pay fees under the clause.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 102

Clause 294, page 199, line 1, after "(1)(a)" insert "or (b)"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, with Amendments 103 to 105, would ensure that the power in subsection (1)(b) of clause 294 is subject to similar constraints to those currently provided for by subsection (3) in relation to the power in subsection (1)(a). The regulation making powers in clause 294(1) are not to be available for imposing requirements to provide information for purposes other than those set out in subsection (3)(a) to (c).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 103

Clause 294, page 199, line 3, leave out from “following” to end of line 4

Member's explanatory statement

See the explanatory statement for Amendment 102.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 104

Clause 294, page 199, line 5, leave out “provided to the Secretary of State”

Member's explanatory statement

See the explanatory statement for Amendment 102.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 105

Clause 294, page 199, line 10, at end insert—

“(3A) It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (3) whether the publication, monitoring or evaluation is carried out by the Secretary of State, by a person with functions conferred by regulations under section 298 or by any other person acting under arrangements made with that other person by the Secretary of State or a person with such functions.”

Member's explanatory statement

See the explanatory statement for Amendment 102.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 106

Clause 295, page 200, line 13, leave out from “legislation” to end of line 14

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment would omit words that unnecessarily duplicate a definition in clause 297(6).

Kevin Hollinrake

Gov 107

Clause 296, page 200, line 35, leave out “power conferred by this section is” and insert “powers conferred by this section are”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment would clarify that the words at the end of subsection (4) apply to both of the powers conferred by the clause.

Kevin HollinrakeGov 112

Schedule 24, page 360, line 22, leave out "duties and powers" and insert "legislation"

Member's explanatory statement

This is a drafting amendment to ensure there is an accurate description of the content of paragraph 11 of Schedule 5 to the Consumer Rights Act 2015.

Neil Coyle136

Clause 316, page 221, line 25, at end insert—

"(3) Sections 245 to 273 come into force from April 2026."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides an explicit implementation period for the subscription contract provisions.

Paul ScullyGov NC1

To move the following Clause—

"Decision not to make final offer order

- (1) The CMA may decide not to make a final offer order in relation to the transaction where it has reasonable grounds to believe that there has been a material change of circumstances since the final offer initiation notice was given.
- (2) For the purposes of this section and section 42(3) a material change of circumstances includes an agreement between the designated undertaking and the third party with respect to terms as to payment in relation to the transaction.
- (3) Where the CMA decides not to make a final offer order, it must give a notice to that effect to the designated undertaking and the third party.
- (4) The notice must include the reasonable grounds referred to in subsection (1).
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after giving a notice under subsection (3), the CMA must publish a statement summarising the contents of the notice."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause, together with Amendment 10, ensures that the CMA can end the final offer mechanism without making a final offer order at any time after giving a final offer initiation notice. It would appear after clause 41.

To move the following Clause—

“Recognised news publisher: definition

- (1) In section 20, “recognised news publisher” means any of the following entities—
 - (a) the British Broadcasting Corporation,
 - (b) Sianel Pedwar Cymru,
 - (c) the holder of a licence under the Broadcasting Act 1990 or 1996 who publishes news-related material in connection with the broadcasting activities authorised under the licence, and
 - (d) any other entity which—
 - (i) meets all of the conditions in subsection (2), and
 - (ii) is not an excluded entity (see subsection (3)).
- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(d)(i) are that the entity—
 - (a) has as its principal purpose the publication of news-related material, and such material—
 - (i) is created by different persons, and
 - (ii) is subject to editorial control,
 - (b) publishes such material in the course of a business (whether or not carried on with a view to profit),
 - (c) is subject to a standards code,
 - (d) has policies and procedures for handling and resolving complaints,
 - (e) has a registered office or other business address in the United Kingdom,
 - (f) is the person with legal responsibility for material published by it in the United Kingdom, and
 - (g) publishes—
 - (i) the entity’s name, the address mentioned in paragraph (e) and the entity’s registered number (if any), and
 - (ii) the name and address of any person who controls the entity (including, where such a person is an entity, the address of that person’s registered or principal office and that person’s registered number (if any)).
- (3) An “excluded entity” is an entity—
 - (a) which is a proscribed organisation under the Terrorism Act 2000 (see section 3 of that Act), or
 - (b) the purpose of which is to support a proscribed organisation under that Act.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)—
 - (a) news-related material is “subject to editorial control” if there is a person (whether or not the publisher of the material) who has editorial or equivalent responsibility for the material, including responsibility for how it is presented and the decision to publish it;

- (b) “control” has the same meaning as it has in the Broadcasting Act 1990 by virtue of section 202 of that Act.
- (5) In this section—
- “news-related material” means material consisting of—
- (a) news or information about current affairs,
 - (b) opinion about matters relating to the news or current affairs, or
 - (c) gossip about celebrities, other public figures or other persons in the news;
- “publish” means publish by any means (including by broadcasting), and references to a publisher and publication are to be construed accordingly;
- “standards code” means—
- (a) a code of standards that regulates the conduct of publishers, that is published by an independent regulator, or
 - (b) a code of standards that regulates the conduct of the entity in question, that is published by the entity itself.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause is linked to Amendment 58.

To move the following Clause—

“CMA annual report on final offer mechanism

- (1) The CMA must, once a year, produce a report about the final offer mechanism.
- (2) Each report must include information about—
 - (a) the number of final offer orders the CMA has made over the previous year;
 - (b) for each final offer order—
 - (i) the amount of time taken between final offer initiation notice being given and the final offer order being made.
 - (ii) whether bids were submitted by both the undertaking and the third party, and
 - (iii) the outcome of the process; and
- (3) The CMA may provide the information in such a way as to withhold any details that the CMA considers to be commercially sensitive.
- (4) The first report must be published and laid before both Houses of Parliament within one year of this Act being passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the CMA to publish an annual report on the workings of the final offer mechanism. The report will be made publicly available and will be laid in both Houses of Parliament.

To move the following Clause—

“Annual report on operation of CMA functions

- (1) The Secretary of State must, at least once a year, produce a report on the operation of the CMA’s functions under Part 1 of this Act.
- (2) Each report must include an assessment of the following matters—
 - (a) the outcomes of SMS investigations carried out by the CMA, with regard to the number of undertakings found—
 - (i) to have SMS, and
 - (ii) not to have SMS;
 - (b) the extent to which designated undertakings have fulfilled any conduct requirements imposed by the CMA; and
 - (c) the effectiveness of any pro-competition interventions made by the CMA.
- (3) The first report must be published and laid before Parliament within one year of this Act being passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to produce an annual report on the operation of the CMA’s functions under Part 1. The report will be made publicly available and will be laid in Parliament.

To move the following Clause—

“Contract renewal: option to opt in

- (1) Before a trader enters into a subscription contract with a consumer where section 246(2) applies, the trader must ask the consumer whether they wish to opt into an arrangement under which the contract renews automatically at one or more of the following times—
 - (a) after a period of six months and every six months thereafter, or
 - (b) if the period between the consumer being charged for the first and second time is longer than six months, each time payment is due.
- (2) If the consumer does not opt into such an arrangement, the trader must provide a date by which the consumer must notify the trader of the consumer’s intention to renew the contract, which must be no earlier than 28 days before the renewal date.

- (3) If the consumer has not—
 - (a) opted into an arrangement under subsection (1),
 - (b) given notification of the consumer's intention to renew by the date specified under subsection (2), the contract will lapse on the renewal date."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would allow the consumer to opt-out of their subscription auto-renewing every six months, or if the period between payments is longer than six months, before every payment. If the consumer does not opt-in of auto-renewal, they would be required to notify the trader manually if they wanted to renew.

To move the following Clause—

"Contract renewal: variable rate contracts

- (1) Before a trader enters into a subscription contract with a consumer where section 246(3) applies, the trader must ask the consumer whether they wish to opt into an arrangement under which the contract renews automatically on the date the consumer becomes liable for the first charge or the first higher charge.
- (2) If the consumer does not opt into an arrangement under subsection (1), the trader must provide a date by which the consumer must notify the trader of the consumer's intention to renew the contract, which must be no earlier than five days before the renewal date.
- (3) The trader must also ask the consumer whether they wish to opt into an arrangement under which the contract renews automatically—
 - (a) after a period of either six months from the first charge or higher charge and every six months thereafter, or
 - (b) if the period between the consumer being charged for the first and second time is longer than six months, each time payment is due.
- (4) If the consumer does not opt into an arrangement under subsection (3), the trader must provide a date by which the consumer must notify the trader of the consumer's intention to renew the contract, which must be no earlier than 28 days before the renewal date.
- (5) If the consumer has not—
 - (a) opted into an arrangement under subsection (1) or subsection (3), or
 - (b) given notification of the consumer's intention to renew by the date specified under (as the case may be) subsection (2) or subsection (4), the contract will lapse on the next renewal date."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would introduce an option for the consumer to opt out of their subscription auto-renewing after their free or discounted trial. Otherwise, they would have to notify the trader manually if they wanted to continue the subscription. It also introduces an option for the consumer to opt out of their subscription auto-renewing.

To move the following Clause—

“Regulation of consumer savings schemes

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations establish a system under which the Financial Conduct Authority has responsibility for regulating consumer savings scheme contracts.
- (2) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) must be made within six months of this Act being passed, and
 - (b) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (3) In this section, a “consumer savings scheme contract” has the meaning given in section 274.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would make the FCA, rather than local authorities, responsible for regulating consumer savings scheme contracts.

To move the following Clause—

“Limit on secondary ticketing

- (1) The Consumer Rights Act 2015 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 91 (prohibition on cancellation or blacklisting) insert—

“91A Limit on secondary ticketing

- (1) This section applies where a person (“the seller”) re-sells a ticket for a recreational, sporting or cultural event in the United Kingdom through a secondary ticketing facility.
- (2) The operator of the facility must—
 - (a) identify the maximum number of tickets available for a consumer to buy from the primary market for any event for which tickets are being re-sold through their facility; and
 - (b) check that the seller has not bought more tickets than they are permitted to buy as set out in subsection (2)(a) with the intention to re-sell, unless the seller provides proof that they have bought more tickets than they are permitted to buy from the primary market with the consent of the event organiser.

- (3) The operator of the facility must not allow the seller or any associate of the seller to list more tickets for an event than can be bought by a consumer through the primary market.
- (4) If the operator breaches its duties in subsections (2) and (3), they are jointly liable with the seller for enforcement action against them as set out in section 93""

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would amend the Consumer Rights Act 2015 to introduce provisions banning sellers on secondary ticketing sites from selling more tickets than can be bought by consumers on the primary market.

To move the following Clause—

“Secondary Ticketing: duty to verify seller’s details

The Consumer Rights Act 2015 is amended as follows—

“After section 90 insert—

“90A 90A Duty to verify seller’s details

- (1) The operator must—
 - (a) obtain from any seller using their facility the information set out in subsection (2), and
 - (b) verify that information.
- (2) That information is—
 - (a) proof that the seller owns the ticket they are intending to sell through the facility,
 - (b) proof that the information specified in section 90(3) is accurate; and,
 - (c) the seller’s address.
- (3) If the operator breaches the duty under subsection (2), the operator is jointly liable with the seller for enforcement action against them as set out in section 93.”””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends the Consumer Rights Act 2015 to impose a duty on secondary ticketing platforms to verify further details from sellers using their platform.

To move the following Clause—

“Secondary ticketing regulation: reporting requirement

- (1) The Secretary of State must—
 - (a) prepare a report on the merits of introducing a new regulatory function for regulating the secondary ticketing sector; and,
 - (b) lay a copy of this report before parliament.
- (2) The report must include consideration of the recommendation to introduce a new regulatory function to the secondary ticketing sector as set out in the CMA’s ‘Secondary Ticketing’ report published in August 2021.
- (3) The report must be laid within the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would introduce a reporting requirement on the Secretary of State to produce a report on the merits of introducing a new regulatory function in the secondary ticketing sector, as recommended by the CMA in their August 2021 ‘Secondary Ticketing’ report.

To move the following Clause—

“Annual Report on Operation of CMA Functions Under Parts 2 and 3

- (1) The CMA must, within 12 months of this Act being passed and every 12 months thereafter, prepare a report on—
 - (a) the effectiveness of the operation of the CMA’s functions under Parts 2 and 3,
 - (b) the impact of the operation of those functions on maintaining competition in digital markets, and
 - (c) the impact of the operation of those functions on the enforcement of consumer protection law.
- (2) The CMA must arrange for a copy of the report prepared under subsection (1) to be laid before each House of Parliament
- (3) This new clause would introduce an annual reporting requirement on the CMA to report to Parliament on the operation of their functions under Parts 2 and 3 of the Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would introduce an annual reporting requirement on the CMA to report to Parliament on the operation of their functions under Parts 2 and 3 of the Act.
