New Amendments: NC51

Alex Norris

63

Dame Diana Johnson

Clause 73, page 64, line 36, at end insert—

“(2A) The Code must set out the actions and behaviours which will be considered to constitute “acting ethically.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the College of Policing's code to state how police officers are to embody and demonstrate the requirement to act ethically.

Jess Phillips

135

“(2A) In subsection (2) the reference to acting ethically includes a prohibition on a police officer engaging in—

- (a) sexual relationships with members of the public whilst acting in their capacity as a police officer; and
- (b) abusive conduct, including domestic abuse or sexual violence, towards any person whether in their role as a police officer or otherwise.”

Member's explanatory statement

Clause 73 is amended to make explicit that ethical policing also entails zero tolerance for violence and other forms of abuse against women and girls by police officers and staff.

Alex Norris

Clause 73, page 64, line 36, at end insert—

- “(2A) The Code must set out how persons under the chief officer’s direction and control are to act ethically and with candour when discharging their duties in relation to a major incident, including—
- (a) their duty to assist with any court proceeding, official inquiry or investigation resulting from a major incident fully, transparently and with proper expedition;
 - (b) their duty to disclose relevant information related to the discharge of their duties in relation to a major incident which would not otherwise be disclosed under the terms of reference or parameters of the relevant proceedings, inquiry or investigation.
- (2B) The duties under (2A) may arise from—
- (a) an application by any person affected by the major incident to the relevant court or inquiry chairperson;
 - (b) an instruction from the relevant court or inquiry chairperson; or
 - (c) where there are no extant court or inquiry proceedings, a requirement of any judicial review proceedings in the High Court.”

Jess Phillips

134

Clause 73, page 65, line 5, at end insert—

- “(3A) The Code must make explicit that any criminal behaviour perpetrated by persons under the chief officer’s direction and control disclosed as a result of proceedings in the family courts must be considered during the vetting process.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures criminal behaviour that is uncovered within family courts is disclosed within the vetting process of police officers.

Jess Phillips

136

Dame Diana Johnson

Clause 73, page 65, line 17, at end insert—

- “(h) the Domestic Abuse Commissioner for England and Wales;
- (i) the Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses;

(j) the Independent Anti-Slavery Commissioner.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment aims to ensure that there is independent external oversight to the Code of Practice from bodies which represent the interests of victims and survivors whom this Code seeks to protect.

Jess Phillips

137

Clause 74, page 66, line 1, leave out “a local policing body” and insert “the Independent Office for Police Conduct”

Member's explanatory statement

The power to seek a referral to the police appeals tribunal should sit with an independent organisation, such as the IOPC.

Chris Philp

Gov 50

Laura Farris

Clause 77, page 69, line 12, at end insert—

“(5) Nothing in subsections (1) to (4) limits the extent within the United Kingdom of the armed forces provisions.

(6) Section 384(1) and (2) of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (extent outside the United Kingdom) applies to the armed forces provisions as it applies to the provisions of that Act.

(7) In subsections (5) and (6) the “armed forces provisions” means—

- (a) a provision made, or inserted, by or under this Act so far as it is applied (by whatever words) by or under the Armed Forces Act 2006;
- (b) an amendment, modification or repeal made by or under this Act of—

- (i) a provision of or made under the Armed Forces Act 2006,
- (ii) a provision that amends, modifies or repeals a provision of, or made under, that Act, or
- (iii) any other provision, so far as the provision is applied (by whatever words) by or under that Act."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes provision about the extent of provisions of or made under the Bill which relate to the Armed Forces Act 2006.

Chris Philp

Gov 45

Laura Farris

Clause 78, page 69, line 18, after "sections" insert "(Testing of persons outside of police detention for presence of controlled drugs),"

To move the following Clause—

“Power to seize bladed articles etc: armed forces

In the Armed Forces Act 2006, after section 93ZC (inserted by section (Stolen goods on premises (entry, search and seizure without warrant): armed forces)) insert—

“93ZD Power to seize bladed articles etc

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a service policeman is lawfully on any premises which are searchable by virtue of this Part, or
 - (b) a person subject to service law who is not a service policeman is lawfully on any premises in the exercise of a power of search conferred by virtue of this Part.
- (2) If the service policeman or person subject to service law—
 - (a) finds, on the premises, an article which has a blade or is sharply pointed (a “relevant article”), and
 - (b) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the relevant article would be likely to be used in connection with unlawful violence (if it were not seized),they may seize the relevant article.
- (3) The following provisions apply where a relevant article is seized under this section.
- (4) The service policeman or person subject to service law who seized the relevant article—
 - (a) must give a record of what was seized to a person who is on the premises, or
 - (b) if there is no person on the premises, must leave a record of what was seized in a prominent place on the premises.
- (5) The record must—
 - (a) describe the relevant article,
 - (b) state that it has been seized under this section,
 - (c) specify the date of seizure,
 - (d) give the reason why the relevant article was seized, and
 - (e) specify the name, rank or rate, and the unit, of the service policeman or person subject to service law who seized the relevant article.
- (6) Following seizure of the relevant article, the service policeman or person subject to service law may—
 - (a) retain it, or
 - (b) destroy it or otherwise dispose of it.

This is subject to subsections (7) and (12).

- (7) A person (“P”) claiming to be the owner of the relevant article may apply to the commanding officer of the relevant person for a determination that the relevant article should be delivered to P.
- (8) The “relevant person” is the person by virtue of whose occupation of or other connection with the premises, the premises are within subsection (1).
- (9) The commanding officer may make a determination under subsection (7) if it appears to them that—
 - (a) P is the owner of the relevant article, and
 - (b) it would be just to make the determination.
- (10) If the commanding officer does not make a determination under subsection (7), P may appeal to a judge advocate.
- (11) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) with respect to the practice and procedure which is to apply in connection with applications for a determination under subsection (7) and appeals under subsection (10);
 - (b) conferring functions on judge advocates in relation to appeals under subsection (10).
- (12) The relevant article may not be destroyed or disposed of—
 - (a) in the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which it is seized, or
 - (b) if an application under subsection (7) is made in that period, until the application (including any appeal) has been finally determined or otherwise disposed of (and then, only if no determination is made that the relevant article should be delivered to P).
- (13) In this section “unlawful violence” includes—
 - (a) unlawful damage to property, and
 - (b) a threat of unlawful violence (including of unlawful damage to property).””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends the Armed Forces Act 2006 to make provision equivalent to that made by clause 18 of the Bill.

To move the following Clause—

“Stolen goods on premises (entry, search and seizure without warrant): armed forces

In the Armed Forces Act 2006, after section 93 insert—

“93ZA Search for particular stolen goods

- (1) A service policeman of at least the rank of naval lieutenant, military or marine captain or flight lieutenant may authorise a service policeman to—
 - (a) enter specified premises which are relevant residential premises, and
 - (b) search the specified premises for specified items.
- (2) An officer may give an authorisation under subsection (1) only if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that—
 - (a) the specified items are stolen goods,
 - (b) the specified items are on the specified premises, and
 - (c) it is likely that the purpose of the search would be frustrated or seriously prejudiced if no search could be carried out before the time mentioned in subsection (3).
- (3) That time is the earliest time by which it would be practicable—
 - (a) for a service policeman to obtain and execute a warrant under section 83 authorising the entry and search of the premises, or
 - (b) in a case where a member of a UK police force could obtain a warrant under section 8 of PACE or any other enactment authorising the entry and search of the premises, for a member of such a force to obtain and execute such a warrant.
- (4) An officer may give an authorisation under subsection (1) orally or in writing.
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after giving the authorisation the officer must record in writing—
 - (a) if the authorisation is given orally, the authorisation, and
 - (b) in any case, the officer’s reasons for being satisfied as mentioned in subsection (2).
- (6) The powers conferred by an authorisation under subsection (1) may be exercised only—
 - (a) by a service policeman in uniform,
 - (b) before the end of the 24 hour period beginning with the time the authorisation is given, and
 - (c) at a reasonable hour (unless it appears to the service policeman that exercising them at a reasonable hour may frustrate or seriously prejudice the purpose of exercising them).

- (7) The power of search conferred by an authorisation under subsection (1) is exercisable only to the extent that is reasonably required for the purpose of searching the specified premises for the specified items.
- (8) Where the occupier of the specified premises is present at the time the service policeman seeks to enter and search them, the service policeman must—
 - (a) identify themselves to the occupier, and
 - (b) state the purpose for which they are entering and searching the premises.

93ZB Seizure on search under section 93ZA

- (1) This section applies where a service policeman is lawfully on relevant residential premises in exercise of the powers conferred by an authorisation under section 93ZA(1).
- (2) The service policeman may seize anything which is on the specified premises (whether or not it is a specified item) if the service policeman has reasonable grounds to believe—
 - (a) that it is stolen goods, and
 - (b) that it is necessary to seize it in order to prevent it being concealed, lost, damaged altered or destroyed.
- (3) The service policeman may seize anything which is on the specified premises (whether or not it is a specified item) if the service policeman has reasonable grounds to believe—
 - (a) that it is evidence in relation to—
 - (i) an offence under section 42 which the service policeman is investigating, or
 - (ii) any other offence under section 42, as respects which the corresponding offence under the law of England and Wales is theft, and
 - (b) that it is necessary to seize it in order to prevent the evidence being concealed, lost, damaged, altered or destroyed.
- (4) The powers of seizure in subsections (2) and (3) include power to require information which is stored in an electronic form and is accessible from the premises to be produced in a form—
 - (a) in which it can be taken away and which it is visible and legible, or
 - (b) from which it can readily be produced in a visible and legible form.
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after exercising a power of seizure conferred by this section, the service policeman must record in writing—
 - (a) the grounds on which the power was exercised, and
 - (b) the items seized.

93ZC Sections 93ZA and 93ZB: supplementary

- (1) The powers conferred by sections 93ZA and 93ZB do not include powers to search for or seize—
 - (a) items subject to legal privilege,
 - (b) excluded material, or
 - (c) special procedure material.
- (2) In sections 93ZA and 93ZB “specified” means specified in an authorisation under section 93ZA(1).
- (3) Sections 93ZA and 93ZB are to be construed in accordance with section 24 of the Theft Act 1968, reading references in that section to blackmail and fraud as including an offence under section 42 as respects which the corresponding offence under the law of England and Wales is blackmail or fraud.
- (4) In sections 93ZA and 93ZB the following expressions have the meanings given by section 84—
 - “excluded material”
 - “items subject to legal privilege”
 - “relevant residential premises”
 - “special procedure material”.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends the Armed Forces Act 2006 to make provision equivalent to the provision inserted into the Theft Act 1968 by clause 19 of the Bill.

To move the following Clause—

“Powers to compel attendance at sentencing hearing: armed forces

- (1) The Armed Forces Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 259 insert—

“Attendance at sentencing hearings

259A Power to order attendance

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an offender has been convicted of a service offence in respect of which a life sentence may, or must, be passed,
 - (b) the offender is kept in service custody awaiting sentencing by the Court Martial, and

- (c) the offender has refused, or there are reasonable grounds to suspect the offender will refuse, to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (2) The Court Martial may order the offender to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may be made by the Court Martial of its own motion or on the application of the Director of Service Prosecutions.
- (4) Before making an order under subsection (2) in relation to an offender aged under 18, the Court Martial must have regard to the welfare of the offender.
- (5) In this section—
 - “life sentence” means any of the following sentences imposed by virtue of this Act—
 - (a) a sentence of imprisonment for life,
 - (b) a sentence of detention for life during His Majesty’s pleasure, or
 - (c) a sentence of custody for life;
 - “sentencing hearing” means a hearing following conviction that is held for the purposes of sentencing an offender.
- (6) Nothing in this section limits any other power of the Court Martial to order an offender to attend court for a sentencing hearing.

259B Power to order production of offender

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an offender aged 18 or over is kept in service custody awaiting sentencing by the Court Martial or the Service Civilian Court in respect of a service offence, and
 - (b) the offender has refused, or there are reasonable grounds to suspect the offender will refuse, to attend court for the sentencing hearing.
- (2) The court may order that the offender is produced before the court for the sentencing hearing.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may be made by the court of its own motion or on the application of the Director of Service Prosecutions.
- (4) A person subject to service law who is authorised for the purposes of this section by the Provost Marshal of the Royal Military Police may use reasonable force, if necessary and proportionate, to give effect to an order under subsection (2).
- (5) In this section “sentencing hearing” has the meaning given by section 259A.

- (6) A person is to be treated as having complied with an order under subsection (2) if they have done all that they reasonably can to secure that the offender is produced before the court for sentencing.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects—
 - (a) any other power of the court to order that an offender is produced before the court for a sentencing hearing;
 - (b) any other power to use force.”
- (3) In section 309 (offences of misbehaviour in court etc)—
 - (a) after subsection (1) insert—
 - “(1A) The Court Martial also has jurisdiction under this section to deal with an offender who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with an order under section 259A(2) (order to attend sentencing hearing).”;
 - (b) in subsection (2)(a) after “days” insert “or, in a case within subsection (1A), 2 years”.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends the Armed Forces Act 2006 to make provision equivalent to the provision inserted into the Sentencing Code by clause 22 of the Bill.

Gov NC13

To move the following Clause—

“Testing of persons outside of police detention for presence of controlled drugs

- (1) The Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 is amended as set out in subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) In section 30 (arrest elsewhere than at police station), after subsection (11) insert—
 - “(11A) Nothing in subsection (1A) or in section 30A prevents a constable delaying taking a person to a police station, or releasing the person under section 30A, for such time as is reasonable for the purpose of taking a sample under section 32A.
 - (11B) Where there is any such delay the reasons for the delay must be recorded when the person first arrives at the police station or (as the case may be) is released under section 30A.”

(3) After section 32 (search upon arrest) insert—

“32A Testing for presence of controlled drugs upon arrest at a place other than a police station

- (1) An approved constable may take a single non-intimate sample from a person for the purpose of ascertaining whether any specified controlled drug is in the person’s body, if the following conditions are met—
 - (a) the arrest condition,
 - (b) the age condition, and
 - (c) the request condition.
- (2) The arrest condition is that section 30(1A) applies in respect of the person and either—
 - (a) the offence for which the person was arrested is a trigger offence, or
 - (b) a constable of at least the rank of inspector—
 - (i) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the misuse by the person of a specified controlled drug caused or contributed to the offence for which the person was arrested, and
 - (ii) has authorised the sample to be taken.
- (3) The age condition is that the person is aged 18 or over.
- (4) The request condition is that an approved constable has requested the person to give the sample.
- (5) Before requesting the person to give a sample, an approved constable must—
 - (a) warn the person that if, when so requested, the person fails without good cause to do so the person may be liable to prosecution, and
 - (b) in a case within subsection (2)(b), inform the person of the giving of the authorisation and of the grounds in question.
- (6) A sample may only be taken under this section—
 - (a) at or near the place where an approved constable requested the person to give the sample, and
 - (b) before the person has been taken to a police station or released under section 30(7) or 30A.
- (7) If a sample is taken from a person under this section, an approved constable must give the person a notice in writing which sets out—
 - (a) the offence in respect of which the arrest condition is met;
 - (b) in a case within subsection (2)(b), details of the authorisation and the grounds in question;
 - (c) the date and time when the sample was taken;
 - (d) the location where the sample was taken;
 - (e) whether an analysis of the sample reveals that a specified controlled drug may be present in the person’s body.

- (8) A notice under subsection (7) must be given as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event before the earlier of the person being released or charged with the offence in respect of which the arrest condition is met.
- (9) A person who fails without good cause to give any sample which may be taken from the person under this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale (or both).

32B Section 32A: supplementary

- (1) A constable of at least the rank of inspector may give an authorisation under section 32A(2)(b) orally or in writing but, if it is given orally, the constable must confirm it in writing as soon as is practicable.
- (2) If a person from whom a sample is taken under section 32A is taken to a police station, the constable giving the notice under section 32A(7) must secure that a record is made, as part of the person's custody record, of the matters set out in the notice.
- (3) If a person from whom a sample is taken under section 32A is released under section 30(7) or 30A, the constable giving the notice under section 32A(7) must, as soon as is practicable after the notice is given, make a record in writing of the matters set out in the notice.
- (4) Section 32A does not prejudice the generality of section 63.
- (5) In section 32A—
 - “approved constable” means a constable who has been approved for the purposes of section 32A by the chief officer of police of the police force to which the constable belongs (or, where the constable belongs to the British Transport Police Force, by the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force);
 - “non-intimate sample” has the same meaning as in Part 5 (see section 65(1));
 - “specified controlled drug” means a controlled drug (within the meaning of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971) specified in regulations under section 32C;
 - “trigger offence” means an offence specified in regulations under section 32C.

32C Section 32A: regulations

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations for the purposes of section 32A—
 - (a) specify a controlled drug as a “specified controlled drug”;
 - (b) specify an offence as a “trigger offence”.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1)—

- (a) may make different provision for different purposes or different areas; and
 - (b) may make transitional, transitory or saving provision.
- (3) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing (whether alone or with other provision) regulations under subsection (1)(b) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) Any other statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) In this section “controlled drug” has the same meaning as in the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971.

32D Section 32A: disclosure of obtained information

Information obtained from a sample taken from a person under section 32A may be disclosed—

- (a) for the purpose of informing any decision about granting bail in criminal proceedings (within the meaning of the Bail Act 1976) to the person;
 - (b) for the purpose of informing any decision about the giving of a diversionary caution under Part 6 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 to the person;
 - (c) where the person is in police detention or is remanded in or committed to custody by an order of a court or has been granted such bail, for the purpose of informing any decision about the person’s supervision;
 - (d) where the person is convicted of an offence, for the purpose of informing any decision about the appropriate sentence to be passed by a court and any decision about the person’s supervision or release;
 - (e) for the purpose of an assessment which the person is required to attend by virtue of section 9(2) or 10(2) of the Drugs Act 2005;
 - (f) for the purpose of proceedings against the person for an offence under section 12(3) or 14(3) of that Act;
 - (g) for the purpose of ensuring that appropriate advice and treatment is made available to the person.”
- (4) In section 63B, after subsection (5D) insert—
- “(5E) A sample may not be taken from a person under this section if—
- (a) the person is in police detention by virtue of being taken to a police station after being arrested at a place other than a police station, and
 - (b) a sample was taken from the person under section 32A.”

- (5) In section 66(2) (codes of practice), after “section” insert “32A or”.
- (6) In Schedule 1 to the Bail Act 1976 (persons entitled to bail: supplementary provisions), in Part 1 (defendants accused or convicted of imprisonable offences), in paragraph 6B(1)(b)(i), after “under section” insert “32A or”.

Member's explanatory statement

The new clause provides for testing of controlled drugs upon arrest at a place other than a police station and makes related changes.

To move the following Clause—

“Terrorist offenders

- (1) Schedule (Notification orders) amends Part 4 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 (notification requirements) so as to enable courts to make notification orders in respect of persons who have committed certain domestic offences or service offences.
- (2) In section 43B of the Terrorism Act 2000 (terrorist offenders released on licence: arrest without warrant pending recall decision) in subsection (4) after paragraph (d) insert—
 - “(e) a person in respect of whom—
 - (i) a domestic offence notification order (within the meaning of Schedule 4A to the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008), or
 - (ii) a service offence notification order (within the meaning of Schedule 6A to that Act),has been made and who is serving a sentence for the offence by virtue of which the order was made.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause introduces the Schedule moved by NS1 (which provides for orders applying the notification requirements in Part 4 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 to persons who have committed certain domestic offences or service offences) and also extends powers of arrest and search to persons in respect of whom such orders are made.

 - (c) after subsection (4), insert—

“(4A) Each of the following is an “authorised person”—

 - (a) a constable in uniform;
 - (b) a person authorised for the purposes of this Part by the local authority in whose area the public place mentioned in subsection (1) is situated (“authorised LA officer”).”
 - (d) after subsection (6), insert—

“(6A) A direction given by an authorised LA officer under this section is not valid if the officer—

 - (a) is asked by the person to whom the direction is given to show evidence of their authorisation, and
 - (b) fails to do so.”

- (e) in subsection (7), for “the constable” substitute “a constable in uniform in the public place”;
 - (f) for subsection (8) substitute—
 - “(8) Any constable may withdraw or vary a direction given by a constable under this section.
 - (8A) Any authorised LA officer may withdraw or vary a direction given by an authorised LA officer under this section.
 - (8B) A variation under subsection (8) or (8A) must not extend the duration of a direction beyond 48 hours from when it was first given.”;
 - (g) in subsection (11), for ““exclusion period”” to the end substitute “—

- (3) In section 36 (restrictions)—
- (a) in subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4), for “A constable” substitute “An authorised person”;
 - (b) in subsection (1), for “constable”, in the second place it appears, substitute “authorised person”;
 - (c) in subsection (5), for “a constable” substitute “an authorised person”.
- (4) In section 38 (record-keeping), in subsections (1) and (2), for “A constable” substitute “An authorised person”.
- (5) In section 41 (guidance), in subsection (1), for “chief officers of police” to the end substitute “—
- (a) chief officers of police about the exercise, by officers under their direction or control, of those officers’ functions under this Part;
 - (b) local authorities about the exercise, by persons authorised under section 35(4A)(b), of those persons’ functions under this Part.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause confers dispersal powers under Part 3 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 on persons authorised by local authorities for the purposes of the Part.

To move the following Clause—

“Administering etc harmful substances (including by spiking)

(1) In the Offences Against the Person Act 1861, for sections 23 to 25 substitute—

“23 Administering etc harmful substance so as to endanger life or inflict grievous bodily harm

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person intentionally or recklessly, and unlawfully, administers a harmful substance to another person, and
 - (b) the administration of the harmful substance endangers the other person’s life or inflicts grievous bodily harm on them.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person unlawfully causes a harmful substance to be administered to or taken by another person,
 - (b) the administration or taking of the harmful substance endangers the other person’s life or inflicts grievous bodily harm on them, and
 - (c) the person intends that, or is reckless as to whether—
 - (i) the harmful substance is administered to or taken by the other person, and
 - (ii) the administration or taking of the harmful substance will endanger the other person’s life or inflict grievous bodily harm on them.
- (3) In this section “harmful substance” means any poison or other destructive or noxious thing.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or a fine (or both).

24 Administering etc harmful substance with intent to injure, aggrieve or annoy

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person unlawfully administers a harmful substance to, or causes a harmful substance to be administered to or taken by, another person, and
 - (b) the person does so with intent to injure, aggrieve or annoy the other person.
- (2) In this section “harmful substance” has the meaning given by section 23.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both);
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).

25 Alternative verdict on trial of offence under section 23

A person who is—

- (a) charged with an offence under section 23, and
- (b) found not guilty of that offence, may be convicted of an offence under section 24 (if it is proved that they committed it)."

- (2) In consequence of the amendment made by subsection (1), in the following provisions for "maliciously administering poison etc" substitute "administering etc harmful substance"—
 - (a) paragraph 8(e) and (f) of Schedule 1 to the Suppression of Terrorism Act 1978;
 - (b) paragraph 5(g) and (h) of Schedule 2A to the Housing Act 1985;
 - (c) paragraph 10 of Schedule 15 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003;
 - (d) paragraph 11 of Schedule 5 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003;
 - (e) in Schedule 2 to the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008, paragraph (b) of the entry relating to offences under the Offences against the Person Act 1861;
 - (f) paragraph 7 of Schedule 4 to the Modern Slavery Act 2015;
 - (g) paragraph 4(c) of Schedule 1 to the Sentencing Act 2020;
 - (h) paragraph 23(f) of Part 2 of Schedule 9 to the Elections Act 2022;
 and in section 72(2)(d) of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 for "poison" substitute "harmful substance".

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause re-casts the offences under sections 23 and 24 of the Offences against the Person Act 1861 (administration etc of harmful substances) and the procedural provision under section 25 of that Act relating to those offences.

To move the following Clause—

"Sexual activity in presence of child etc

- (1) The Sexual Offences Act 2003 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 11(1) (engaging in sexual activity in presence of child), in paragraph (c) for the words from "he engages" to the end (not including the "and" at the end of the paragraph) substitute "A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,".

- (3) In section 18(1) (abuse of position of trust: sexual activity in presence of child), in paragraph (c) for the words from "he engages" to the end substitute "A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,".
- (4) In section 32(1) (engaging in sexual activity in presence of person with mental disorder impeding choice), in paragraph (c) for the words from "he engages" to the end substitute "A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,".
- (5) In section 36(1) (engaging in sexual activity in presence, procured by inducement, threat or deception, of person with mental disorder)—
 - (a) in paragraph (c) for the words from "he engages" to the end substitute "A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,";
 - (b) in paragraph (d) for "paragraph (c)(i)" substitute "paragraph (c)".
- (6) In section 40(1) (care workers: sexual activity in presence of person with mental disorder), in paragraph (c) for the words from "he engages" to the end substitute "A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,".

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends offences of engaging in sexual activity in the presence of a child or person with mental disorder (B) so as to remove the requirement that the person knows or believes that B is aware, or intends that B should be aware, that the person is engaging in it.

To move the following Clause—

"Maximum term of imprisonment for certain offences on summary conviction

In the following provisions for "6 months" substitute "the general limit in a magistrates' court"— section 1(6)(a) of the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013 (unlawful sub-letting: secure tenancies);

section 2(7)(a) of that Act (unlawful sub-letting: assured tenancies and secure contracts);

section 30(3)(b) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (breach of certain orders or requirements);

section 339(2)(a) of the Sentencing Act 2020 (breach of criminal behaviour order);

section 354(4)(a) of that Act (breach of sexual harm prevention order);

section 363(2)(a) of that Act (breach of restraining order)."

“Removal of women from the criminal law related to abortion

For the purposes of the law related to abortion, including sections 58 and 59 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 and the Infant Life (Preservation) Act 1929, no offence is committed by a woman acting in relation to her own pregnancy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would disapply existing criminal law related to the accessing or provision of abortion care from women acting in relation to their own pregnancy at any gestation, ensuring no woman would be liable for a prison sentence as a result of seeking to end her own pregnancy. It would not change any law regarding the provision of abortion services within a healthcare setting, including but not limited to the time limit, the grounds for abortion, or the requirement for two doctors' approval.

 - (b) they are civil partners of each other,

- (c) one is the parent of the other, or
 - (d) they are siblings (whether of the full blood or the half blood);
- “detaining”: references to a person detaining a dog include the person—
- (a) inducing it to remain with the person or anyone else, or
 - (b) causing it to be detained;
- “maximum summary term for either-way offences”, with reference to imprisonment for an offence, means—
- a) if the offence is committed before the time when paragraph 24(2) of Schedule 22 to the Sentencing Act 2020 comes into force, 6 months;
 - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 12 months;
- “taking”: references to a person taking a dog include the person—
- (a) causing or inducing it to accompany the person or anyone else, or “Use of another person’s dwelling place for criminal purposes: cuckooing

- (1) A person “P” commits an offence if—
- (a) P makes regular use of or takes up residence in a residential building lawfully occupied by another person “R”,
 - (b) P uses the residential building as a base for criminal activities including but not limited to—
 - (i) dealing, storing or taking unlawfully held controlled drugs,
 - (ii) facilitating sex work,
 - (iii) taking up residence without a lawful agreement with R in circumstances where R is under duress or otherwise being coerced or controlled, or
 - (iv) financially abusing R.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “building” includes any structure or part of a structure (including a temporary or moveable structure), and
 - (b) a building is “residential” if it is designed or adapted, before the time of entry, for use as a place to live.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would make cuckooing an offence. Cuckooing is where the home of a vulnerable person is taken over by a criminal in order to use it to deal, store or take drugs, facilitate sex work, as a place for them to live, or to financially abuse the occupier.

- (2) In subsection (1) for “arranges or facilitates the travel of” substitute “recruits, transports, transfers, harbours or receives through force, fraud or deception”.
- (3) In subsection (2) for “travel” substitute “the matters mentioned in subsection (1)”.
- (4) Omit subsections (3) to (5).
- (5) In paragraph (6)(a) for “arranging or facilitating takes” substitute “matters mentioned in subsection (1) take”.
- (6) Omit paragraph (6)(b).
- (7) In paragraph (7)(a) for “arranging or facilitating takes” substitute “matters mentioned in subsection (1) take”.
- (8) In paragraph (7)(b) for the first “the” substitute “any”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause brings the definition of human trafficking in the Modern Slavery Act 2015 in line with the UN definition, particularly removing the requirement for exploitation to have involved travel.

To move the following Clause—

“Grooming as an aggravating factor

After section 72 of the Sentencing Code (supply of psychoactive substance in certain circumstances) insert—

“(72A) Grooming

- (1) This section applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence which is aggravated by grooming.
- (2) The court—
 - (a) must treat the fact that the offence is aggravated by grooming as an aggravating factor, and
 - (b) must state in open court that the offence is so aggravated.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause ensures grooming is to be seen as an aggravating factor in certain cases where the victim is an adult.

“Reasonable force in domestic abuse cases

- (1) Section 76 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (reasonable force for purposes of self-defence etc.) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (5A) after “In a householder case” insert “or a domestic abuse case”.

- (3) In subsection (6) after “In a case other than a householder case” insert “or a domestic abuse case”.
- (4) After subsection (8F) insert—
- “(8G) For the purposes of this section “a domestic abuse case” is a case where—
- (a) the defence concerned is the common law defence of self-defence,
 - (b) D is, or has been, a victim of domestic abuse, and
 - (c) the force concerned is force used by D against the person who has perpetrated the abusive behaviour referred to in paragraph (b).
- (8H) Subsection (8G)(b) will only be established if the behaviour concerned is, or is part of, a history of conduct which constitutes domestic abuse as defined in sections 1 and 2 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021, including but not limited to conduct which constitutes the offence of controlling or coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship as defined in section 76 of the Serious Crime Act 2015 (controlling or coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship).”
- (5) In subsection (9) after “householder cases” insert “and domestic abuse cases”.”

Member's explanatory statement

Statutory defence for victims of domestic abuse who may have been coerced into committing certain crimes or driven to use force against their abuser, as a result of being a victim of domestic abuse.

To move the following Clause—

“Defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence

- (1) A person is not guilty of an offence if—
- (a) the person is aged 18 or over when the person does the act which constitutes the offence,
 - (b) the person does that act because the person is compelled to do it,
 - (c) the compulsion is attributable to their being a victim of domestic abuse, and
 - (d) a reasonable person in the same situation as the person and having the person’s relevant characteristics would have no realistic alternative to doing that act.
- (2) A person may be compelled to do something by another person or by the person’s circumstances.
- (3) Compulsion is attributable to domestic abuse only if—
- (a) it is, or is part of, conduct which constitutes domestic abuse as defined in sections 1 and 2 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021, including but not limited to conduct which constitutes the offence of controlling or

- coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship as defined in section 76 of the Serious Crime Act 2015, or
- (b) it is a direct consequence of a person being, or having been, a victim of such abuse.
- (4) A person is not guilty of an offence if—
- (a) the person is under the age of 18 when the person does the act which constitutes the offence,
 - (b) the person does that act as a direct consequence of the person being, or having been, a victim of domestic abuse as defined at subsection (3)(a) above, and
 - (c) a reasonable person in the same situation as the person and having the person's relevant characteristics would do that act.
- (5) For the purposes of this section "relevant characteristics" means age, sex, any physical or mental illness or disability and any experience of domestic abuse.
- (6) In this section references to an act include an omission.
- (7) Subsections (1) and (4) do not apply to an offence listed in Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply].
- (8) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply].
- (9) The Secretary of State must make arrangements for monitoring of the types of offence for which victims of domestic abuse are prosecuted and use this evidence to inform an annual review of the offences listed in Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply] and any amendment to Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply].""

Member's explanatory statement

Statutory defence for victims of domestic abuse who may have been coerced into committing certain crimes as a result of being a victim of domestic abuse.

To move the following Clause—

"Police perpetrated domestic abuse as a recordable complaint

- (1) Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002 is amended as follows.
- (2) After paragraph 1(2)(b) insert—
 - "(c) it is alleged by any person, including any person serving with the police, that a person under his direction and control, whether in the course of their duties or otherwise, has engaged in domestic abuse within the meaning of section 1 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 or abuse of position for a sexual purpose,”

- (3) After paragraph 2(6B)(c) insert—
- “(ca) the complaint is one which alleges that a person serving with the police, whether in the course of their duties or otherwise, has engaged in domestic abuse or abuse of position for a sexual purpose; and “domestic abuse” has the meaning set out in section 1 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021,“.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure all allegations of Police Perpetrated Domestic abuse are treated either as a recordable police complaint or as a recordable conduct matter.

To move the following Clause—

“Remand of juveniles in police detention

In section 38 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984—

- (1) Omit sub-section (1)(b) and insert “if he is an arrested juvenile—
- (i) his name or address cannot be ascertained or the custody officer has substantial grounds for doubting whether a name or address furnished by him as his name or address is his real name or address;
 - (ii) in the case of a juvenile arrested for an indictable offence—
 - (A) the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that the juvenile arrested will fail to appear in court to answer bail;
 - (B) the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that the detention of the juvenile arrested is necessary to prevent him from interfering with the administration of justice or with the investigation of offences or of a particular offence;
 - (iii) in the case of a juvenile arrested for an offence which is not an indictable offence—
 - (A) the juvenile has previously failed to appear in court to answer bail and the custody officer has substantial

- grounds to believe that the juvenile would fail to appear;
- (B) the juvenile has been arrested for breach of bail in these proceedings and the custody officer has substantial grounds to believe that the juvenile would fail to appear;
 - (C) the juvenile is arrested for breach of bail and the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that they would interfere with the administration of justice or with the investigation of offences;
- (iv) the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that the detention is necessary to prevent the juvenile committing further indictable offences and to protect the public from death or serious injury, and these risks cannot be safely managed through bail conditions.”
- (2) After sub-section (1), insert—
- “(1A) Before deciding whether to remand a juvenile the custody officer must consider the best interests and welfare of the juvenile.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would bring the grounds on which the police can refuse to bail a child post-charge, and remand them in police custody, into closer alignment with the grounds used by the court to refuse bail and remand a child to custody.

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of assaulting a retail worker

- (1) It is an offence for a person to assault, threaten or abuse another person who is a retail worker, and who is engaged, at the time, in retail work.
- (2) The offence under section 1 of threatening or abusing a retail worker—
 - (a) is committed by a person if the person—
 - (i) behaves in a threatening or abusive manner towards the worker, and
 - (ii) intends by the behaviour to cause the worker or any other person fear or alarm or is reckless as to whether the behaviour would cause such fear or alarm.
 - (b) applies to—
 - (i) behaviour of any kind including, in particular, things said or otherwise communicated as well as things done,
 - (ii) behaviour consisting of—
 - (A) a single act, or
 - (B) a course of conduct.
- (3) No offence is committed under subsection (1) unless the person who assaults, threatens or abuses knows or ought to know that the other person is a retail worker and is engaged, at the time, in retail work.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding £10,000 (or both).
- (5) An offence committed under subsection (1) is aggravated if the behaviour constituting the offence occurred because of the enforcement of a statutory age restriction.
- (6) Where, in proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it is—
 - (a) specified in the complaint that the offence is aggravated by reason of the retail worker enforcing a statutory age restriction, and
 - (b) proved that the offence is so aggravated,the court must—
 - (a) state on conviction that the offence is so aggravated,
 - (b) record the conviction in a way that shows that the offence is so aggravated,
 - (c) take the aggravation into account in determining the appropriate sentence, and
 - (d) state—
 - (i) where the sentence imposed in respect of the offence is different from that which the court would have imposed if the offence were not so aggravated, the extent of and the reasons for that difference, or

(ii) otherwise, the reasons for there being no such difference.

(7) Evidence from a single source is sufficient to establish, for the purposes of this section—

- (a) whether a person is a retail worker,
- (b) whether the person is engaged, at the time, in retail work,
- (c) whether an offence committed under subsection (1) is aggravated because of the enforcement of a statutory age restriction.

(8) In this section—

“retail worker”—

- (a) means a person whose usual place of work is retail premises, or whose usual place of work is not retail premises but who does retail work,
- (b) includes, in relation to a business that owns or occupies any premises in which the person works, a person who—
 - (i) is an employee of the business,
 - (ii) is an owner of the business, or
 - (iii) works in the premises under arrangements made between the business and another person for the provision of staff,
- (c) includes a person who delivers goods from retail premises.

“retail premises” means premises that are used wholly or mainly for the sale or supply of goods, on a retail basis, to members of the public.

“retail work”—

- (a) in the case of a person whose usual place of work is retail premises, means any work in those retail premises,
- (b) in the case of a person whose usual place of work is not retail premises, means work in connection with—
 - (i) the sale or supply of goods, on a retail basis, to members of the public, or
 - (ii) the sale or supply of services (including facilities for gambling) in respect of which a statutory age restriction applies,
- (c) in the case of a person who delivers goods from retail premises, means work in connection with the sale or supply of goods, on a retail basis, to members of the public done during the period beginning when the person arrives at a place where delivery of goods is to be effected and ending when the person leaves that place (whether or not goods have been delivered),
- (d) is not dependent on a person receiving payment.

“enforcement”, in relation to a statutory age restriction, includes—

- (a) seeking information as to a person's age,
- (b) considering information as to a person's age, or
- (c) refusing to sell or supply goods or services, for the purposes of complying with the restriction (and “enforcing” is to be construed accordingly), “statutory age restriction” means a provision in an enactment making it an offence to sell or supply goods or services to a person under an age specified in that or another enactment.”

- “authorised person” means the Secretary of State or—
- (a) in England and Wales, a chief officer of police;
 - (b) in Scotland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland;
- “offence”: any reference to an offence is to an offence under the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland (and does not include a service offence).

Domestic offence notification orders

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies where an authorised person makes an application to the appropriate court for an order under this paragraph (a “domestic offence notification order”) in respect of a person (“the offender”).
- (2) The court must make a domestic offence notification order in respect of the offender if it is satisfied that the following 4 conditions are met (and must otherwise refuse the application).
- (3) The first condition is that the offender has been dealt with for an offence (“the relevant offence”) that—
- (a) was committed before 29 June 2021,
 - (b) is punishable with imprisonment for more than 2 years, and
 - (c) is not an excluded offence.
- (4) “Excluded offence” means—
- (a) an offence to which this Part applied when the offender was dealt with (see sections 41 and 42),
 - (b) an offence in relation to which section 30 or 31 of this Act or section 69 of the Sentencing Code applied,

- (c) an offence in relation to which section 31 of this Act would have applied if paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of that section were omitted, or
 - (d) an offence under section 19, 21A or 39 of the Terrorism Act 2000.
- (5) If the offender was dealt with for the relevant offence before the commencement of this Part, sub-paragraph (4) applies as if for paragraph (a) there were substituted—
- “(a) an offence which, on the commencement of this Part, was within section 41(1) or (2),”.
- (6) The second condition is that—
- (a) the offender has been dealt with for the relevant offence in a way mentioned in section 45 (reading any reference to an offence to which this Part applies as a reference to the relevant offence),
 - (b) the offender was aged 16 or over at the time of being dealt with for the relevant offence, and
 - (c) the offender—
 - (i) is imprisoned or detained in pursuance of the sentence passed or order made in respect of the offence,
 - (ii) would be so imprisoned or detained but for being unlawfully at large, absent without leave, on temporary leave or leave of absence, or on bail pending an appeal, or
 - (iii) is on licence, having served the custodial part of a sentence of imprisonment in respect of the offence.
- (7) The third condition is that the relevant offence has a terrorist connection (see section 93).
- (8) The fourth condition is that the period in respect of which the notification requirements would apply in respect of the relevant offence (see section 53) has not expired.

Restrictions on applications for domestic offence notification orders

- 3 (1) A chief officer of police may make an application for a domestic offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in the chief officer’s police area, or
 - (b) the chief officer believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, that area.
- (2) The chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland may make an application for a domestic offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in Scotland, or
 - (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Scotland.

- (3) The chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland may make an application for a domestic offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in Northern Ireland, or
 - (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Northern Ireland.

Effect of domestic offence notification order

- 4 The effect of a domestic offence notification order is that the notification requirements of this Part apply to the offender.

Modifications of this Part

- 5 (1) The following modifications apply where a domestic offence notification order is made.
- (2) Section 43(1) does not apply to the offender, as regards the relevant offence.
 - (3) Section 47(1) (initial notification) applies as if the reference to the day on which the person is dealt with were a reference to the date of service of the domestic offence notification order.
 - (4) For the purposes of section 53 (period for which notification requirements apply), references there to “the offence” are to the relevant offence.
 - (5) For the meaning of “the relevant offence”, see paragraph 2(3).”

- 9 After Schedule 6 insert—

“SCHEDULE 6A

Section 59(2)

SERVICE OFFENCE NOTIFICATION ORDERS

Introductory

- 1 In this Schedule—
- “the appropriate court” means—

- (a) in England and Wales, a chief officer of police;
 - (b) in Scotland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

Service offence notification orders

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies where an authorised person makes an application to the appropriate court for an order under this paragraph (a “service offence notification order”) in respect of a person (“the offender”).
- (2) The court must make a service offence notification order in respect of the offender if it is satisfied that the following 4 conditions are met (and must otherwise refuse the application).
- (3) The first condition is that the offender has been dealt with for a service offence (“the relevant offence”) that—
 - (a) is punishable with imprisonment for more than 2 years,
 - (b) is not an excluded offence, and
 - (c) if a day has been appointed for the commencement of section 1 of the Counter-Terrorism and Sentencing Act 2021 as that section has effect for the purposes of section 69 of the Sentencing Code as applied by section 238 of the Armed Forces Act 2006, is committed before that day.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3)(b) “excluded offence” means—
 - (a) a service offence to which this Part applied when the offender was dealt with (see paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 6),
 - (b) a service offence in relation to which section 32 of this Act or section 69 of the Sentencing Code applied, or
 - (c) a service offence as respects which the corresponding civil offence is an offence under section 19, 21A or 39 of the Terrorism Act 2000.
- (5) If the offender was dealt with for the relevant offence before the commencement of this Part, sub-paragraph (4) applies as if for paragraph (a) there were substituted—
 - “(a) a service offence as respects which the corresponding civil offence was on the commencement of this Part within section 41(1) or (2),”.
- (6) The second condition is that—
 - (a) the offender has been dealt with for the relevant offence in a way mentioned in paragraph 5 of Schedule 6 (reading any reference to a service offence to which this Part applies as a reference to the relevant offence),
 - (b) the offender was aged 16 or over at the time of being dealt with for the relevant offence, and
 - (c) the offender—
 - (i) is imprisoned or detained in pursuance of the sentence passed or order made in respect of the offence,
 - (ii) would be so imprisoned or detained but for being unlawfully at large, absent without leave, on

- temporary leave or leave of absence, or on bail pending an appeal, or
 - (iii) is on licence, having served the custodial part of a sentence of imprisonment in respect of the offence.
- (7) The third condition is that the relevant offence has a terrorist connection (see section 93).
- (8) The fourth condition is that the period in respect of which the notification requirements would apply in respect of the relevant offence (see paragraph 7 of Schedule 6) has not expired.

Restrictions on applications for service offence notification orders

- 3 (1) A chief officer of police may make an application for a service offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in the chief officer's police area, or
 - (b) the chief officer believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, that area.
- (2) The chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland may make an application for a service offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in Scotland, or
 - (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Scotland.
- (3) The chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland may make an application for a service offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in Northern Ireland, or
 - (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Northern Ireland.

Effect of service offence notification order

- 4 The effect of a service offence notification order is that the notification requirements of this Part apply to the offender.

Modifications of this Part

- 5 (1) The following modifications apply where a service offence notification order is made.
- (2) Section 47(1) (initial notification) applies as if the reference to the day on which the person is dealt with were a reference to the date of service of the service offence notification order.
 - (3) Paragraph 3(1) of Schedule 6 does not apply to the offender, as regards the relevant offence.
 - (4) For the purposes of paragraph 7 of that Schedule (period for which notification requirements apply), references there to "the service offence" or "the offence" are to the relevant offence.

(5) For the meaning of “the relevant offence”, see paragraph 2(3).””

Member's explanatory statement

The new schedule provides for orders applying the notification requirements in Part 4 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 to persons who have committed certain domestic offences or service offences.
