To move the following Clause—

“Administering etc harmful substances (including by spiking)

(1) In the Offences Against the Person Act 1861, for sections 23 to 25 substitute—

“23 Administering etc harmful substance so as to endanger life or inflict grievous bodily harm

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person intentionally or recklessly, and unlawfully, administers a harmful substance to another person, and
 - (b) the administration of the harmful substance endangers the other person’s life or inflicts grievous bodily harm on them.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person unlawfully causes a harmful substance to be administered to or taken by another person,
 - (b) the administration or taking of the harmful substance endangers the other person’s life or inflicts grievous bodily harm on them, and
 - (c) the person intends that, or is reckless as to whether—

- (i) the harmful substance is administered to or taken by the other person, and
 - (ii) the administration or taking of the harmful substance will endanger the other person's life or inflict grievous bodily harm on them.
- (3) In this section "harmful substance" means any poison or other destructive or noxious thing.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or a fine (or both).

24 Administering etc harmful substance with intent to injure, aggrieve or annoy

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person unlawfully administers a harmful substance to, or causes a harmful substance to be administered to or taken by, another person, and
 - (b) the person does so with intent to injure, aggrieve or annoy the other person.
- (2) In this section "harmful substance" has the meaning given by section 23.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).

25 Alternative verdict on trial of offence under section 23

- A person who is—
 - (a) charged with an offence under section 23, and
 - (b) found not guilty of that offence,may be convicted of an offence under section 24 (if it is proved that they committed it)."
- (2) In consequence of the amendment made by subsection (1), in the following provisions for "maliciously administering poison etc" substitute "administering etc harmful substance"—
 - (a) paragraph 8(e) and (f) of Schedule 1 to the Suppression of Terrorism Act 1978;
 - (b) paragraph 5(g) and (h) of Schedule 2A to the Housing Act 1985;

- (c) paragraph 10 of Schedule 15 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003;
 - (d) paragraph 11 of Schedule 5 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003;
 - (e) in Schedule 2 to the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008, paragraph (b) of the entry relating to offences under the Offences against the Person Act 1861;
 - (f) paragraph 7 of Schedule 4 to the Modern Slavery Act 2015;
 - (g) paragraph 4(c) of Schedule 1 to the Sentencing Act 2020;
 - (h) paragraph 23(f) of Part 2 of Schedule 9 to the Elections Act 2022;
- and in section 72(2)(d) of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 for “poison” substitute “harmful substance”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause re-casts the offences under sections 23 and 24 of the Offences against the Person Act 1861 (administration etc of harmful substances) and the procedural provision under section 25 of that Act relating to those offences.

To move the following Clause—

“Sexual activity in presence of child etc

- (1) The Sexual Offences Act 2003 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 11(1) (engaging in sexual activity in presence of child), in paragraph (c) for the words from “he engages” to the end (not including the “and” at the end of the paragraph) substitute “A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,”.
- (3) In section 18(1) (abuse of position of trust: sexual activity in presence of child), in paragraph (c) for the words from “he engages” to the end substitute “A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,”.
- (4) In section 32(1) (engaging in sexual activity in presence of person with mental disorder impeding choice), in paragraph (c) for the words from “he engages” to the end substitute “A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,”.
- (5) In section 36(1) (engaging in sexual activity in presence, procured by inducement, threat or deception, of person with mental disorder)—
 - (a) in paragraph (c) for the words from “he engages” to the end substitute “A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,”;
 - (b) in paragraph (d) for “paragraph (c)(i)” substitute “paragraph (c)”.
- (6) In section 40(1) (care workers: sexual activity in presence of person with mental disorder), in paragraph (c) for the words from “he engages” to the end substitute “A engages in it when another person (B) is present or is in a place from which A can be observed,”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends offences of engaging in sexual activity in the presence of a child or person with mental disorder (B) so as to remove the requirement that the person knows or believes that B is aware, or intends that B should be aware, that the person is engaging in it.

To move the following Clause—

“Maximum term of imprisonment for certain offences on summary conviction

In the following provisions for “6 months” substitute “the general limit in a magistrates’ court”— section 1(6)(a) of the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013 (unlawful sub-letting: secure tenancies);

section 2(7)(a) of that Act (unlawful sub-letting: assured tenancies and secure contracts);

section 30(3)(b) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (breach of certain orders or requirements);

section 339(2)(a) of the Sentencing Act 2020 (breach of criminal behaviour order);

section 354(4)(a) of that Act (breach of sexual harm prevention order);

section 363(2)(a) of that Act (breach of restraining order).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause provides that the maximum term of imprisonment for certain offences, on summary conviction, is the general limit in a magistrates’ court.

To move the following Clause—

“Removal of women from the criminal law related to abortion

For the purposes of the law related to abortion, including sections 58 and 59 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 and the Infant Life (Preservation)

Act 1929, no offence is committed by a woman acting in relation to her own pregnancy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would disapply existing criminal law related to the accessing or provision of abortion care from women acting in relation to their own pregnancy at any gestation, ensuring no woman would be liable for a prison sentence as a result of seeking to end her own pregnancy. It would not change any law regarding the provision of abortion services within a healthcare setting, including but not limited to the time limit, the grounds for abortion, or the requirement for two doctors' approval.

To move the following Clause—

“Abortion: Decriminalisation

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make whatever changes appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or appropriate for the decriminalisation of abortion, in line with the recommendation in Paragraph 31 of the CEDAW General Recommendation No. 24: Article 12 of the Convention that “When possible, legislation criminalizing abortion should be amended, in order to withdraw punitive measures imposed on women who undergo abortion”.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) provide for the repeal of sections 58, 59 and 60 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861,
 - (b) provide that no offence under these regulations or any other legislation is committed by a person complying with the requirements of subsection 1 of the Abortion Act 1967,
 - (c) provide that no offence under these regulations or any other legislation is committed by a person acting in relation to their own pregnancy where they have been coerced into taking that action,
 - (d) provide that no person acting in relation to their own pregnancy may be sentenced to a custodial sentence, and
 - (e) provide for alternative offences in relation to acts of abortion where the woman has not, or is suspected to have not, consented to the abortion.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make any provision that appears to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in view of subsection (1), or (2).

- (4) If regulations under subsection (1) are not approved by both Houses of Parliament within three months of this Act receiving Royal Assent, then sections 58, 59 and 60 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 are repealed.
- (5) A statutory instrument made under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

To move the following Clause—

“Taking of dog without lawful authority

- (1) A person commits an offence if, without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, the person takes or detains a dog in England—
 - (a) so as to remove it from the lawful control of any person, or
 - (b) so as to keep it from the lawful control of a person who is entitled to have lawful control of it.
- (2) No offence is committed if the person taking or detaining the dog is connected with any of the following—
 - (a) any person entitled to have lawful control of it;
 - (b) where it is removed from the lawful control of a person, that person.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).
- (4) In this section—

“connected person”: a person is connected with another person if—

 - (a) they are married to each other,
 - (b) they are civil partners of each other,
 - (c) one is the parent of the other, or
 - (d) they are siblings (whether of the full blood or the half blood);

“detaining”: references to a person detaining a dog include the person—

 - (a) inducing it to remain with the person or anyone else, or
 - (b) causing it to be detained;

“maximum summary term for either-way offences”, with reference to imprisonment for an offence, means—

 - a) if the offence is committed before the time when paragraph 24(2) of Schedule 22 to the Sentencing Act 2020 comes into force, 6 months;
 - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 12 months;

“taking”: references to a person taking a dog include the person—

 - (a) causing or inducing it to accompany the person or anyone else, or
 - (b) causing it to be taken.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause makes provision for the creation of an offence of taking a dog from the lawful control of another person.

To move the following Clause—

“Duty of officer to hand over personal mobile phone

- (1) Section 50 of the Police Act 1996 is amended in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) After subsection (4) insert—
 - “(4A) Regulations under this section may, in connection with the procedures that are established by or under regulations made by virtue of subsection (3), provide that an officer has a duty to hand over to the appropriate authority a personal telecommunications device capable of storing information in any electronic format which can readily be produced in a visible and legible form, belonging to that police officer where there is a request by the appropriate authority in circumstances where the appropriate authority has reasonable grounds to suspect the police officer of behaving in a way that could amount to gross misconduct and in respect of which information stored on the device may be relevant to the suspected misconduct.
 - (4B) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (4A), regulations may provide for—
 - (a) the form of the request to be made to the police officer concerned and any related information that must be provided by the police officer in releasing the device including, but not limited to, any passcode required to access information stored on the device;
 - (b) the time period within which the device must be provided to the appropriate authority and any sanction which may be imposed on the police officer for failing to do so;
 - (c) the provision to the police officer concerned of reasons for the requested possession of a device;
 - (d) the arrangements to be put in place for the protection of confidential, privileged or sensitive information stored on the device which is not relevant to the matter under investigation;
 - (e) the period of time that the device may be retained by the appropriate authority and arrangements for the return of the device when it is no longer required for the purposes of the investigation;
 - (f) the deletion of information obtained from the device and retained by the appropriate authority other than information which is reasonably required to be retained in connection with the matter under investigation; and
 - (g) the making of ancillary and consequential amendments to other regulations as may be considered necessary.
 - (4C) In subsections (4A) and (4B) “appropriate authority” has the meaning given in article 2 (interpretation) of the Police (Conduct) Regulations 2020.””

To move the following Clause—

“Intentionally administering a substance with intent to cause harm

- (1) A person (“P”) commits an offence if P intentionally administers a substance to, or causes a substance to be taken by, another person—
 - (a) without the consent of that other person, and
 - (b) with the intention of causing harm to that other person.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.”

Member's explanatory statement

As it stands, spiking is covered by several different offences. This amendment is intended to create a standalone offence of spiking.

To move the following Clause—

“Complicity in joint enterprise cases

In section 8 (abettors in misdemeanors) of the Accessories and Abettors Act 1861, after “shall” insert “, by making a significant contribution to its commission,”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would clarify the definition of ‘joint enterprise’ (or secondary liability), so that an individual must make a “significant contribution” to an offence committed by another to be criminally liable.

Peter Dowd

NC17

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of failing to remain at the scene of a traffic collision

In section 170 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, after subsection (4) insert—

- “(4A) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) is liable—
- (a) If a person other than the driver of the vehicle suffered a fatal injury—

- (i) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 14 years.
- (b) If a person other than the driver of the vehicle suffered a serious non-fatal injury—
 - (i) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or a fine not exceeding £20,000 or both;
 - (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.
- (c) In any other case—
 - (i) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or a fine not exceeding £20,000 or both;
 - (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would expand the existing offence of failing to stop after a road collision to create more serious penalties for failing to stop after collisions which result in death or serious injury.

Peter Dowd

NC18

To move the following Clause—

“Time to report road collision

In section 170 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, omit subsection (6) and insert—

- (6) In complying with a duty under this section to report an accident or to produce such a certificate of insurance or other evidence, as is mentioned in section 165(2)(a) of this Act, it is an offence for a driver—
 - (a) not to do so at a police station or to a constable as soon as is reasonably practicable, and
 - (b) not to do so within two hours of the occurrence of the accident in relation to reporting an accident, or within twenty-four hours of the occurrence of the accident in relation to the production of a certificate of insurance or other evidence.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would amend the Road Traffic Act 1988 to reduce the time within which a driver must report a road collision in which they were involved from twenty-four hours to two hours, and make it an offence not to report an accident.

Alex Cunningham

NC19

Shabana Mahmood

To move the following Clause—

“Use of another person’s dwelling place for criminal purposes: cuckooing

- (1) A person “P” commits an offence if—
 - (a) P makes regular use of or takes up residence in a residential building lawfully occupied by another person “R”,
 - (b) P uses the residential building as a base for criminal activities including but not limited to—
 - (i) dealing, storing or taking unlawfully held controlled drugs,
 - (ii) facilitating sex work,
 - (iii) taking up residence without a lawful agreement with R in circumstances where R is under duress or otherwise being coerced or controlled, or
 - (iv) financially abusing R.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) “building” includes any structure or part of a structure (including a temporary or moveable structure), and
 - (b) a building is “residential” if it is designed or adapted, before the time of entry, for use as a place to live.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would make cuckooing an offence. Cuckooing is where the home of a vulnerable person is taken over by a criminal in order to use it to deal, store or take drugs, facilitate sex work, as a place for them to live, or to financially abuse the occupier.

To move the following Clause—

“Sharing or threatening to share intimate photograph or film: modesty clothing

- (1) Section 188 of the Online Safety Act 2023 is amended as follows.
- (2) After inserted section 66D(5)(e) insert—
 - “(f) the person not wearing modesty clothing such as a hijab or niqab when they would normally do so.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would see definition of “intimate image” extended to include specific categories of image that may be considered intimate by particular religious or cultural groups.

NC23

To move the following Clause—

“Sexual exploitation of an adult

- (1) The Sexual Offences Act 2003 is amended as follows.
- (2) Section 52 is amended as follows—
 - (a) in the title for “Causing or inciting prostitution” substitute “Sexual exploitation”, and
 - (b) in paragraph (1)(a) for “causes or incites another person to become a prostitute” substitute “sexually exploits another person”.
- (3) Section 53 is amended as follows—
 - (a) in the title for “prostitution” substitute “sexual exploitation”, and
 - (b) in paragraph (1)(a) for “prostitution” substitute “sexual exploitation”.
- (4) Section 54 is amended as follows—
 - (a) in subsection (2) for “sections 51A, 52, 53 and 53A” substitute “section 53A”, and
 - (b) at end insert—
 - “(4) In sections 52 and 53 “sexual exploitation” means conduct by which a person manipulates, deceives, coerces or controls another person to undertake sexual activity.”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause is an amendment to the Sexual Offences Act 2003, specifically in Sections 52 and 53, “replacing prostitution for gain” with “sexual exploitation of an adult”.

To move the following Clause—

“Human trafficking

- (1) Section 2 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1) for “arranges or facilitates the travel of” substitute “recruits, transports, transfers, harbours or receives through force, fraud or deception”.
- (3) In subsection (2) for “travel” substitute “the matters mentioned in subsection (1)”.
- (4) Omit subsections (3) to (5).
- (5) In paragraph (6)(a) for “arranging or facilitating takes” substitute “matters mentioned in subsection (1) take”.
- (6) Omit paragraph (6)(b).

- (7) In paragraph (7)(a) for “arranging or facilitating takes” substitute “matters mentioned in subsection (1) take”.
- (8) In paragraph (7)(b) for the first “the” substitute “any”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause brings the definition of human trafficking in the Modern Slavery Act 2015 in line with the UN definition, particularly removing the requirement for exploitation to have involved travel.

NC25

To move the following Clause—

“Grooming as an aggravating factor

After section 72 of the Sentencing Code (supply of psychoactive substance in certain circumstances) insert—

“(72A) Grooming

- (1) This section applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence which is aggravated by grooming.
- (2) The court—
 - (a) must treat the fact that the offence is aggravated by grooming as an aggravating factor, and
 - (b) must state in open court that the offence is so aggravated.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause ensures grooming is to be seen as an aggravating factor in certain cases where the victim is an adult.

Jess Phillips

NC26

To move the following Clause—

“Loitering and soliciting: repeal

Section 1 of the Street Offences Act 1959 (loitering or soliciting for purposes of prostitution) is repealed.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause repeals soliciting and loitering as an offence.

Jess Phillips

NC27

To move the following Clause—

“Aggravating factor relevant to offence of murder: honour based violence and abuse

- (1) Schedule 21 to the Sentencing Code (determination of minimum term in relation to mandatory life sentence for murder etc) is amended as follows.
- (2) After paragraph 9(g) insert—
 - “(h) the fact that the offender inflicted honour-based violence or abuse on the victim.””

Member's explanatory statement

A new clause to instate honour-based abuse as an aggravating factor in murder cases.

To move the following Clause—

“Aggravating factor relevant to offence of murder: strangulation

- (1) Schedule 21 to the Sentencing Code (determination of minimum term in relation to mandatory life sentence for murder etc) is amended as follows.
- (2) After paragraph 9(g) insert—
 - “(h) the fact that the offender strangled the victim as part of the homicide.””

Member's explanatory statement

A new clause to instate strangulation as an aggravating factor in murder cases.

NC29

To move the following Clause—

“Infidelity of victim not to be used as part of a defence to murder

When considering a charge of murder, the court may not take into account as part of the defendant’s defence an allegation that the victim was at any time or in any way, physical or verbal, sexually unfaithful to the defendant.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure sexual infidelity can never be used as a defence to murder.

To move the following Clause—

“Power of Secretary of State to disregard convictions or cautions: Loitering or soliciting for purposes of prostitution

- (1) Section 92 of the Street Offences Act 1959 is amended as follows.
- (2) For subsection (1) substitute—
 - “(1) A person who has been convicted of, or cautioned for, an offence in circumstances where—
 - (a) the conduct constituting the offence was sexual activity between persons of the same sex, or
 - (b) the offence was committed under section 1 of the Street Offences Act 1959, may apply to the Secretary of State for the conviction or caution to become a disregarded conviction or caution.”
- (3) In subsection (2) after first “caution” insert “received in the circumstances set out in subsection (1)(a)”.

Member's explanatory statement

A new clause that allows a process allowing the Secretary of State to disregard convictions and cautions received under section 1 of the Street Offences Act 1959.

To move the following Clause—

“Reasonable force in domestic abuse cases

- (1) Section 76 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (reasonable force for purposes of self-defence etc.) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (5A) after “In a householder case” insert “or a domestic abuse case”.
- (3) In subsection (6) after “In a case other than a householder case” insert “or a domestic abuse case”.
- (4) After subsection (8F) insert—
 - “(8G) For the purposes of this section “a domestic abuse case” is a case where—
 - (a) the defence concerned is the common law defence of self-defence,
 - (b) D is, or has been, a victim of domestic abuse, and
 - (c) the force concerned is force used by D against the person who has perpetrated the abusive behaviour referred to in paragraph (b).

- (8H) Subsection (8G)(b) will only be established if the behaviour concerned is, or is part of, a history of conduct which constitutes domestic abuse as defined in sections 1 and 2 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021, including but not limited to conduct which constitutes the offence of controlling or coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship as defined in section 76 of the Serious Crime Act 2015 (controlling or coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship)."

- (5) In subsection (9) after "householder cases" insert "and domestic abuse cases"."

Member's explanatory statement

Statutory defence for victims of domestic abuse who may have been coerced into committing certain crimes or driven to use force against their abuser, as a result of being a victim of domestic abuse.

Jess Phillips

NC32

To move the following Clause—

"Defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence

- (1) A person is not guilty of an offence if—
- (a) the person is aged 18 or over when the person does the act which constitutes the offence,
 - (b) the person does that act because the person is compelled to do it,
 - (c) the compulsion is attributable to their being a victim of domestic abuse, and
 - (d) a reasonable person in the same situation as the person and having the person's relevant characteristics would have no realistic alternative to doing that act.
- (2) A person may be compelled to do something by another person or by the person's circumstances.
- (3) Compulsion is attributable to domestic abuse only if—
- (a) it is, or is part of, conduct which constitutes domestic abuse as defined in sections 1 and 2 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021, including but not limited to conduct which constitutes the offence of controlling or coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship as defined in section 76 of the Serious Crime Act 2015, or
 - (b) it is a direct consequence of a person being, or having been, a victim of such abuse.
- (4) A person is not guilty of an offence if—
- (a) the person is under the age of 18 when the person does the act which constitutes the offence,
 - (b) the person does that act as a direct consequence of the person being, or having been, a victim of domestic abuse as defined at subsection (3)(a) above, and
 - (c) a reasonable person in the same situation as the person and having the person's relevant characteristics would do that act.

- (5) For the purposes of this section “relevant characteristics” means age, sex, any physical or mental illness or disability and any experience of domestic abuse.
- (6) In this section references to an act include an omission.
- (7) Subsections (1) and (4) do not apply to an offence listed in Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply].
- (8) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply].
- (9) The Secretary of State must make arrangements for monitoring of the types of offence for which victims of domestic abuse are prosecuted and use this evidence to inform an annual review of the offences listed in Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply] and any amendment to Schedule [Offences to which the defence for victims of domestic abuse who commit an offence does not apply].”

Member's explanatory statement

Statutory defence for victims of domestic abuse who may have been coerced into committing certain crimes as a result of being a victim of domestic abuse.

NC33

To move the following Clause—

“Police perpetrated domestic abuse as a recordable complaint

- (1) Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002 is amended as follows.
- (2) After paragraph 1(2)(b) insert—
 - “(c) it is alleged by any person, including any person serving with the police, that a person under his direction and control, whether in the course of their duties or otherwise, has engaged in domestic abuse within the meaning of section 1 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 or abuse of position for a sexual purpose,”
- (3) After paragraph 2(6B)(c) insert—
 - “(ca) the complaint is one which alleges that a person serving with the police, whether in the course of their duties or otherwise, has engaged in domestic abuse or abuse of position for a sexual purpose; and “domestic abuse” has the meaning set out in section 1 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021,.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure all allegations of Police Perpetrated Domestic abuse are treated either as a recordable police complaint or as a recordable conduct matter.

Jess Phillips

NC34

To move the following Clause—

“Domestic abuse complainants: police officers and police staff

- (1) Section 29(4)(a) of the Police Reform Act 2002 is amended as follows.
- (2) After “person whose conduct it was” insert “, save that this paragraph does not apply where the conduct alleged (assuming it to have occurred) falls within the definition of domestic abuse in section 1 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 or constitutes abuse of position for a sexual purpose,”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that police officers and members of police staff have the same right to make a complaint of domestic abuse against a member of their force as do members of the public.

To move the following Clause—

“Vetting: duty of chief officers

- (1) Chief officers must ensure that all persons under their direction and control have valid and current vetting clearance appropriate to their role.
- (2) All persons under the direction and control of a chief officer must be re-vetted—
 - (a) within a period of five years from an individual coming under the direction and control of a chief officer; and
 - (b) within a period no longer than every five years thereafter.
- (3) Vetting clearance must not be granted to persons who have received a caution or conviction for serious violent or sexual offences including, but not limited to offences involving—
 - (a) domestic abuse,
 - (b) coercive and controlling behaviour,
 - (c) stalking,
 - (d) harassment,
 - (e) sexual assault or abuse,
 - (f) rape, or
 - (g) female genital mutilation.
- (4) A person who does not have valid and current vetting clearance appropriate to their role will be dismissed.”

To move the following Clause—

“Allegation of violence against women and girls: withdrawal of warrant card

Where a police officer is the subject of an allegation that the officer has perpetrated violence against a woman or a girl, the officer’s warrant card must be withdrawn pending investigation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause creates a provision requiring the removal of warrant cards from police officers who are under investigation for crimes relating to violence against women and girls.

To move the following Clause—

“Remand of juveniles in police detention

In section 38 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984—

- (1) Omit sub-section (1)(b) and insert “if he is an arrested juvenile—
- (i) his name or address cannot be ascertained or the custody officer has substantial grounds for doubting whether a name or address furnished by him as his name or address is his real name or address;
 - (ii) in the case of a juvenile arrested for an indictable offence—
 - (A) the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that the juvenile arrested will fail to appear in court to answer bail;
 - (B) the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that the detention of the juvenile arrested is necessary to prevent him from interfering with the administration of justice or with the investigation of offences or of a particular offence;
 - (iii) in the case of a juvenile arrested for an offence which is not an indictable offence—
 - (A) the juvenile has previously failed to appear in court to answer bail and the custody officer has substantial grounds to believe that the juvenile would fail to appear;
 - (B) the juvenile has been arrested for breach of bail in these proceedings and the custody officer has substantial grounds to believe that the juvenile would fail to appear;
 - (C) the juvenile is arrested for breach of bail and the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that they would interfere with the administration of justice or with the investigation of offences;

- (iv) the custody officer has substantial grounds for believing that the detention is necessary to prevent the juvenile committing further indictable offences and to protect the public from death or serious injury, and these risks cannot be safely managed through bail conditions."

(2) After sub-section (1), insert—

"(1A) Before deciding whether to remand a juvenile the custody officer must consider the best interests and welfare of the juvenile." "

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would bring the grounds on which the police can refuse to bail a child post-charge, and remand them in police custody, into closer alignment with the grounds used by the court to refuse bail and remand a child to custody.

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of assaulting a retail worker

- (1) It is an offence for a person to assault, threaten or abuse another person who is a retail worker, and who is engaged, at the time, in retail work.
- (2) The offence under section 1 of threatening or abusing a retail worker—
 - (a) is committed by a person if the person—
 - (i) behaves in a threatening or abusive manner towards the worker, and
 - (ii) intends by the behaviour to cause the worker or any other person fear or alarm or is reckless as to whether the behaviour would cause such fear or alarm.
 - (b) applies to—
 - (i) behaviour of any kind including, in particular, things said or otherwise communicated as well as things done,
 - (ii) behaviour consisting of—
 - (A) a single act, or
 - (B) a course of conduct.
- (3) No offence is committed under subsection (1) unless the person who assaults, threatens or abuses knows or ought to know that the other person is a retail worker and is engaged, at the time, in retail work.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding £10,000 (or both).
- (5) An offence committed under subsection (1) is aggravated if the behaviour constituting the offence occurred because of the enforcement of a statutory age restriction.
- (6) Where, in proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it is—
 - (a) specified in the complaint that the offence is aggravated by reason of the retail worker enforcing a statutory age restriction, and
 - (b) proved that the offence is so aggravated,the court must—
 - (a) state on conviction that the offence is so aggravated,
 - (b) record the conviction in a way that shows that the offence is so aggravated,
 - (c) take the aggravation into account in determining the appropriate sentence, and
 - (d) state—
 - (i) where the sentence imposed in respect of the offence is different from that which the court would have imposed if the offence were not so aggravated, the extent of and the reasons for that difference, or
 - (ii) otherwise, the reasons for there being no such difference.

- (7) Evidence from a single source is sufficient to establish, for the purposes of this section—
- (a) whether a person is a retail worker,
 - (b) whether the person is engaged, at the time, in retail work,
 - (c) whether an offence committed under subsection (1) is aggravated because of the enforcement of a statutory age restriction.

- (8) In this section—

“retail worker”—

- (a) means a person whose usual place of work is retail premises, or whose usual place of work is not retail premises but who does retail work,
- (b) includes, in relation to a business that owns or occupies any premises in which the person works, a person who—
 - (i) is an employee of the business,
 - (ii) is an owner of the business, or
 - (iii) works in the premises under arrangements made between the business and another person for the provision of staff,
- (c) includes a person who delivers goods from retail premises.

“retail premises” means premises that are used wholly or mainly for the sale or supply of goods, on a retail basis, to members of the public.

“retail work”—

- (a) in the case of a person whose usual place of work is retail premises, means any work in those retail premises,
- (b) in the case of a person whose usual place of work is not retail premises, means work in connection with—
 - (i) the sale or supply of goods, on a retail basis, to members of the public, or
 - (ii) the sale or supply of services (including facilities for gambling) in respect of which a statutory age restriction applies,
- (c) in the case of a person who delivers goods from retail premises, means work in connection with the sale or supply of goods, on a retail basis, to members of the public done during the period beginning when the person arrives at a place where delivery of goods is to be effected and ending when the person leaves that place (whether or not goods have been delivered),
- (d) is not dependent on a person receiving payment.

“enforcement”, in relation to a statutory age restriction, includes—

- (a) seeking information as to a person's age,
- (b) considering information as to a person's age, or
- (c) refusing to sell or supply goods or services, for the purposes of complying with the restriction (and “enforcing” is to be construed accordingly),

“statutory age restriction” means a provision in an enactment making it an offence to sell or supply goods or services to a person under an age specified in that or another enactment.”

"authorised person" means the Secretary of State or—

- (a) in England and Wales, a chief officer of police;
- (b) in Scotland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland;
- (c) in Northern Ireland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland;

"offence": any reference to an offence is to an offence under the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland (and does not include a service offence).

Domestic offence notification orders

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies where an authorised person makes an application to the appropriate court for an order under this paragraph (a "domestic offence notification order") in respect of a person ("the offender").
- (2) The court must make a domestic offence notification order in respect of the offender if it is satisfied that the following 4 conditions are met (and must otherwise refuse the application).
- (3) The first condition is that the offender has been dealt with for an offence ("the relevant offence") that—
 - (a) was committed before 29 June 2021,
 - (b) is punishable with imprisonment for more than 2 years, and
 - (c) is not an excluded offence.
- (4) "Excluded offence" means—
 - (a) an offence to which this Part applied when the offender was dealt with (see sections 41 and 42),
 - (b) an offence in relation to which section 30 or 31 of this Act or section 69 of the Sentencing Code applied,
 - (c) an offence in relation to which section 31 of this Act would have applied if paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of that section were omitted, or
 - (d) an offence under section 19, 21A or 39 of the Terrorism Act 2000.

- (5) If the offender was dealt with for the relevant offence before the commencement of this Part, sub-paragraph (4) applies as if for paragraph (a) there were substituted—
- “(a) an offence which, on the commencement of this Part, was within section 41(1) or (2),”.
- (6) The second condition is that—
- (a) the offender has been dealt with for the relevant offence in a way mentioned in section 45 (reading any reference to an offence to which this Part applies as a reference to the relevant offence),
- (b) the offender was aged 16 or over at the time of being dealt with for the relevant offence, and
- (c) the offender—
- (i) is imprisoned or detained in pursuance of the sentence passed or order made in respect of the offence,
- (ii) would be so imprisoned or detained but for being unlawfully at large, absent without leave, on temporary leave or leave of absence, or on bail pending an appeal, or
- (iii) is on licence, having served the custodial part of a sentence of imprisonment in respect of the offence.
- (7) The third condition is that the relevant offence has a terrorist connection (see section 93).
- (8) The fourth condition is that the period in respect of which the notification requirements would apply in respect of the relevant offence (see section 53) has not expired.

Restrictions on applications for domestic offence notification orders

- 3 (1) A chief officer of police may make an application for a domestic offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in the chief officer’s police area, or
- (b) the chief officer believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, that area.
- (2) The chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland may make an application for a domestic offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in Scotland, or
- (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Scotland.
- (3) The chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland may make an application for a domestic offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
- (a) the person resides in Northern Ireland, or

- (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Northern Ireland.

Effect of domestic offence notification order

- 4 The effect of a domestic offence notification order is that the notification requirements of this Part apply to the offender.

Modifications of this Part

- 5 (1) The following modifications apply where a domestic offence notification order is made.
- (2) Section 43(1) does not apply to the offender, as regards the relevant offence.
- (3) Section 47(1) (initial notification) applies as if the reference to the day on which the person is dealt with were a reference to the date of service of the domestic offence notification order.
- (4) For the purposes of section 53 (period for which notification requirements apply), references there to “the offence” are to the relevant offence.
- (5) For the meaning of “the relevant offence”, see paragraph 2(3).”

9 After Schedule 6 insert—

“SCHEDULE 6A

Section 59(2)

SERVICE OFFENCE NOTIFICATION ORDERS

Introductory

- 1 In this Schedule—
- “the appropriate court” means—
- (a) in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the High Court;
- (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session;
- “authorised person” means the Secretary of State or—
- (a) in England and Wales, a chief officer of police;
- (b) in Scotland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland;
- (c) in Northern Ireland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

Service offence notification orders

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies where an authorised person makes an application to the appropriate court for an order under this paragraph (a “service offence notification order”) in respect of a person (“the offender”).

- (2) The court must make a service offence notification order in respect of the offender if it is satisfied that the following 4 conditions are met (and must otherwise refuse the application).
- (3) The first condition is that the offender has been dealt with for a service offence (“the relevant offence”) that—
 - (a) is punishable with imprisonment for more than 2 years,
 - (b) is not an excluded offence, and
 - (c) if a day has been appointed for the commencement of section 1 of the Counter-Terrorism and Sentencing Act 2021 as that section has effect for the purposes of section 69 of the Sentencing Code as applied by section 238 of the Armed Forces Act 2006, is committed before that day.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3)(b) “excluded offence” means—
 - (a) a service offence to which this Part applied when the offender was dealt with (see paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 6),
 - (b) a service offence in relation to which section 32 of this Act or section 69 of the Sentencing Code applied, or
 - (c) a service offence as respects which the corresponding civil offence is an offence under section 19, 21A or 39 of the Terrorism Act 2000.
- (5) If the offender was dealt with for the relevant offence before the commencement of this Part, sub-paragraph (4) applies as if for paragraph (a) there were substituted—
 - “(a) a service offence as respects which the corresponding civil offence was on the commencement of this Part within section 41(1) or (2),”.
- (6) The second condition is that—
 - (a) the offender has been dealt with for the relevant offence in a way mentioned in paragraph 5 of Schedule 6 (reading any reference to a service offence to which this Part applies as a reference to the relevant offence),
 - (b) the offender was aged 16 or over at the time of being dealt with for the relevant offence, and
 - (c) the offender—
 - (i) is imprisoned or detained in pursuance of the sentence passed or order made in respect of the offence,
 - (ii) would be so imprisoned or detained but for being unlawfully at large, absent without leave, on temporary leave or leave of absence, or on bail pending an appeal, or
 - (iii) is on licence, having served the custodial part of a sentence of imprisonment in respect of the offence.

- (7) The third condition is that the relevant offence has a terrorist connection (see section 93).
- (8) The fourth condition is that the period in respect of which the notification requirements would apply in respect of the relevant offence (see paragraph 7 of Schedule 6) has not expired.

Restrictions on applications for service offence notification orders

- 3 (1) A chief officer of police may make an application for a service offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
 - (a) the person resides in the chief officer's police area, or
 - (b) the chief officer believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, that area.
- (2) The chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland may make an application for a service offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
 - (a) the person resides in Scotland, or
 - (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Scotland.
- (3) The chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland may make an application for a service offence notification order in respect of a person only if—
 - (a) the person resides in Northern Ireland, or
 - (b) the chief constable believes that the person is in, or is intending to come to, Northern Ireland.

Effect of service offence notification order

- 4 The effect of a service offence notification order is that the notification requirements of this Part apply to the offender.

Modifications of this Part

- 5 (1) The following modifications apply where a service offence notification order is made.
 - (2) Section 47(1) (initial notification) applies as if the reference to the day on which the person is dealt with were a reference to the date of service of the service offence notification order.
 - (3) Paragraph 3(1) of Schedule 6 does not apply to the offender, as regards the relevant offence.
 - (4) For the purposes of paragraph 7 of that Schedule (period for which notification requirements apply), references there to "the service offence" or "the offence" are to the relevant offence.
 - (5) For the meaning of "the relevant offence", see paragraph 2(3)."

Member's explanatory statement

The new schedule provides for orders applying the notification requirements in Part 4 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 to persons who have committed certain domestic offences or service offences.
