☆ To move the following Clause—

“Removal of women from the criminal law related to abortion

For the purposes of the law related to abortion, including sections 58 and 59 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 and the Infant Life (Preservation) Act 1929, no offence is committed by a woman acting in relation to her own pregnancy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would disapply existing criminal law related to the accessing or provision of abortion care from women acting in relation to their own pregnancy at any gestation, ensuring no woman would be liable for a prison sentence as a result of seeking to end her own pregnancy. It would not change any law regarding the provision of abortion services within a healthcare setting, including but not limited to the time limit, the grounds for abortion, or the requirement for two doctors' approval.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Abortion: Decriminalisation

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make whatever changes appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or appropriate for the decriminalisation of abortion, in line with the recommendation in Paragraph 31 of the CEDAW General Recommendation No. 24: Article 12 of the Convention that “When possible, legislation criminalizing abortion should be amended, in order to withdraw punitive measures imposed on women who undergo abortion”.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) provide for the repeal of sections 58, 59 and 60 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861,
 - (b) provide that no offence under these regulations or any other legislation is committed by a person complying with the requirements of subsection 1 of the Abortion Act 1967,
 - (c) provide that no offence under these regulations or any other legislation is committed by a person acting in relation to their own pregnancy where they have been coerced into taking that action,
 - (d) provide that no person acting in relation to their own pregnancy may be sentenced to a custodial sentence, and

- (e) provide for alternative offences in relation to acts of abortion where the woman has not, or is suspected to have not, consented to the abortion.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make any provision that appears to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in view of subsection (1), or (2).
- (4) If regulations under subsection (1) are not approved by both Houses of Parliament within three months of this Act receiving Royal Assent, then sections 58, 59 and 60 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 are repealed.
- (5) A statutory instrument made under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament."

★ To move the following Clause—

"Removal of parental responsibility for men convicted of sexual offences against children

- (1) After section 2 (parental responsibility for children) of the Children Act 1989, insert—

"2A Prisoners: suspension of parental responsibility

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person ("A") has been found guilty of a serious sexual offence involving or relating to a child or children; and
 - (b) A had parental responsibility for a child or children at the time at which the offence was committed.
- (2) A ceases to have parental responsibility for all children, for a time specified by the sentencing court or until an application by A to the family court to reinstate parental responsibility has been approved."
