To move the following Clause—

“Expanding the remit of rent repayment orders to company directors

In section 249A of the Housing Act 2004, after subsection (1) insert—

- “(1A) If a local housing authority believes that a relevant housing offence has been committed by a body corporate, it may impose a financial penalty on—
- (a) a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
  - (b) a person purporting to act in such a capacity,
- if it is satisfied, beyond reasonable doubt, that the offence was committed with the consent or connivance of that person, or that the offence was attributable to any neglect on the part of that person.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would enable local housing authorities to impose financial penalties on certain individuals when it believes a housing offence has been committed by a body corporate.

To move the following Clause—

“Evidence to consider when granting possession order for anti-social behaviour

In section 9A of the 1988 Act, after subsection (2) insert—

“(3) In considering evidence of conduct the court may consider evidence provided by way of hearsay and that evidence will be admissible without notice or permission of the court notwithstanding any rule of the court or the common law.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would enable courts to consider hearsay evidence during the course of proceedings for possession on the grounds of anti-social behaviour.

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Requirement to collect and display information on rent levels and controls

- (1) The private rented sector database must collect and display the following information on rent levels and controls including but not limited to—
- (a) a property linked rent control within and between tenancies;
  - (b) a desired rent level, to which rents have to be reduced over time;
  - (c) a private rent index to govern annual rent changes on privately rented properties, once the desired rent level has been reached; and
  - (d) any other information necessary to allow for the effective operation of a rent control system.

- (2) The details of the information in subsection (1) will be determined following the establishment of an independent Living Rent Commission tasked with consulting on and designing a national system of rent controls with local flexibility to be prescribed in regulations.
- (3) The requirements in subsection (1) will commence when the work of the Living Rent Commission is completed."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the database to collect the information necessary to allow for the operation of a national system of rent controls with local flexibility following the design of such a system by an independent commission.

NC5

To move the following Clause—

"Review of changes to grounds for possession

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within two years of the date of Royal Assent to this Act, conduct and lay before Parliament a review of the grounds for possession in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988, as amended by this Act.
- (2) The review must include—
  - (a) an assessment of the effectiveness of the new or amended grounds for possession set out in Schedule 1 of this Act in securing evictions from properties;
  - (b) an assessment of the impact on the security of tenure of tenants as a result of the use of the new or amended grounds for possession set out in Schedule 1 of this Act;
  - (c) a report on the use of enforcement action in relation to the new or amended grounds for possession set out in Schedule 1 of this Act;
  - (d) an assessment of the effectiveness of the grounds for possession listed in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 in securing evictions from properties that remain unamended by Schedule 1 of this Act.
- (3) The review under subsection (1) must make such recommendations as, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, are necessary in the light of the findings of the review."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to publish a review of the impact of the amended grounds for possession within two years of the Act coming into force.

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Requirement to state the amount of rent when advertising residential premises

- (1) A landlord must not advertise or otherwise offer a tenancy of residential premises unless the amount of rent is stated in the advertisement or offer.
- (2) A letting agent acting on behalf of a landlord must not advertise or otherwise offer a tenancy of residential premises unless the amount of rent is stated in the advertisement or offer.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require landlords or persons acting on their behalf to state the proposed rent payable in the advertisement for the premises.

---

Matthew Pennycook

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Not inviting or encouraging bids for rent

- (1) A landlord must not invite or encourage a prospective tenant or any other person to offer to pay an amount of rent for residential premises that exceeds the amount of rent stated as part of the advertisement or offer of the premises as required by section [requirement to state the amount of rent when advertising residential premises].
- (2) A letting agent acting on behalf of a landlord must not invite or encourage a prospective tenant or any other person to offer to pay an amount of rent for residential premises that exceeds the amount of rent stated as part of the advertisement or offer of the premises as required by section [requirement to state the amount of rent when advertising residential premises].
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prohibit a prospective tenant or other person from offering to pay an amount that exceeds the stated amount of rent.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would prevent landlords or persons acting on their behalf from inviting or encouraging bids that exceed the amount stated as part of the advertisement or offer of the premises.

Matthew Pennycook

NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Limit on amount of rent that a residential landlord can request in advance

In Schedule 1 to the Tenant Fees Act 2019, after paragraph 1(8) insert—

- “(9) Where rent is payable in advance, the maximum that may be charged is equivalent to the amount specified in paragraph 2(3).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that the maximum amount of rent that could be lawfully requested by a residential landlord in advance of a tenancy commencing would be 5 weeks’ rent for tenancies of less than £50,000 per annum and to 6 weeks’ rent for tenancies over £50,000 per annum.

Matthew Pennycook

NC9

To move the following Clause—

“Extension of rent repayment orders

(1) In Section 40(3) of the Housing and Planning Act 2016, at end of table insert—

8	Housing Act 1988	Section 16D, 16E	Duties on landlords and agents as regards information provision and prohibition on reletting
9	Renters (Reform) Act 2024	Sections 24	Landlord redress provisions
10	Renters (Reform) Act 2024	Section 39 (3)	Active landlord database entry”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that rent repayment orders can be made to the landlord under the relevant tenancy in any instance where a financial penalty or offence is made relating to clauses 9, 10, 24 or 27 of the Bill.

Matthew Pennycook

NC10

To move the following Clause—

“Extension of Awaab’s law to the private rented sector

- (1) Section 10A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 is amended as follows.
- (2) Omit subsections (1)(b) and (6).
- (3) In subsection (7), omit the definitions of “low-cost home ownership accommodation” and “social housing.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require private landlords to deal with hazards affecting their properties.

Matthew Pennycook

NC11

To move the following Clause—

“Ending blanket bans on renting to families with children or those in receipt of benefits

The Secretary of State may, by regulation, specify behaviour which, for the purposes of Part 4, Equality Act 2010, shall be considered unlawful discrimination unless the contrary is shown.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that blanket bans on renting to families with children or those in receipt of benefits are presumed to be unlawful discrimination unless proved otherwise.

Clause 1, page 1, line 11, at end insert “, unless the landlord and the tenant mutually agree to have a fixed term during which period the landlord agrees to suspend the ability to seek possession under Ground 1 (Occupation by landlord or family), Ground 1A (Sale of dwelling-house) or Ground 6 (Redevelopment) of Schedule 2.

(1A) During a fixed term tenancy agreed under subsection (1) the landlord shall not be entitled to increase the rent as provided for by section 13.”

Matthew Pennycook

Clause 3, page 3, leave out lines 21 to 23 and insert—

“1, 1A, 1B, 2, 2ZA, 2ZB, 4A, 6, 6A      four months beginning with the date of service of the notice

5, 5A, 5B, 5C, 5D, 7, 9

two months beginning with the date of service of the notice"

---

Matthew Pennycook

15

Clause 3, page 3, line 33, at end insert—

"(4) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a review of the changes to grounds for possession made under this Act within two years of the date of Royal Assent."

---

Matthew Pennycook

21

Clause 6, page 7, line 4, at end insert—

"13B Recovery of rent

- (1) Any increased rent which is paid otherwise than in accordance with section 13 or section 13A is recoverable from the landlord by the tenant as a debt claim in the courts.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, provide for such claims to be recoverable by proceedings in the First-Tier Tribunal, rather than the courts."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that in instances where a private landlord increases the rent without issuing a section 13 or section 13A notice the tenant can seek to recover costs through a debt claim in the court. It also provides the government with the power by regulation for such claims to be recoverable by tribunal.

Matthew Pennycook

22

Clause 7, page 8, line 9, at end insert—

"(7A) After subsection (8) insert—

"(8A) Where a notice under section 13(2) has been referred to the appropriate tribunal then, unless the landlord and the tenant otherwise agree, the rent determined by the appropriate tribunal (subject, in a case where subsection (5) above applies, to the addition of the appropriate amount in respect of rates) shall be the same or below the rent specified in the section 13 notice and the rent as determined by the tribunal shall only become payable once the decision of the tribunal has become final.

(8B) A decision becomes final only on the latest of—

- (a) the determination of any appeal;
- (b) if earlier, on the expiry of the time for bringing a subsequent appeal (if any); or
- (c) by its being abandoned or otherwise ceasing to have effect."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that where a rent assessment is carried out by a tribunal, the rent subsequently determined by that tribunal cannot be higher than that originally requested by a landlord in a section 13 notice.

Caroline Lucas*13

Clause 7, page 8, line 20, at end insert—

“(c) no more than the rent proposed by the landlord in the notice served on the tenant under section 13 of the 1988 Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that the rent payable after a tribunal determination can be no higher than the rent initially proposed by the landlord in the notice served on the tenant.

Matthew Pennycook*23

Clause 7, page 9, line 5, at end insert “which must be no earlier than two months following the date of determination”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that in cases of undue hardship tenants would have a minimum of two months from the date of determination before a new rent became payable.

Matthew Pennycook*24

Clause 7, page 9, line 6, leave out subsection (4) and insert—

- “(4A) A date specified under subsection (3)(b) must be no earlier than the date on which the determination becomes final, with a decision only becoming final on the latest of—
- (a) the determination of any appeal;
  - (b) if earlier, on the expiry of the time for bringing a subsequent appeal (if any); or
  - (c) by its being abandoned or otherwise ceasing to have effect.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the requirement for a date determined by a court for rent to become payable in cases of undue hardship to not be later than the date of the determination.

Matthew Pennycook*31

Clause 9, page 9, line 29, leave out “42nd” and insert “28th”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure a landlord gives or refuses consent in writing within 28 days of the request being made.

---

Matthew Pennycook

32

Clause 9, page 9, line 30, at and insert—

“(d) the landlord may not review or withdraw consent once given.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that a tenant may keep a pet for the duration of their tenancy once consent has been given.

Nadia Whittome

38

Clause 12, page 14, line 18, at end insert—

“(g) unreasonably refuse home adaptations for the purposes of a disabled person's access to or usage of the home.”

---

Helen Morgan

11

Clause 12, page 14, line 21, after “dwelling-house” insert “or the short-term let or holiday let”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that a landlord cannot let a property as a short-term or holiday let for at least three months after taking ownership of the property for the purposes of them or their family occupying it.

Helen Morgan

1

Clause 12, page 14, line 26, after “dwelling-house” insert “or the short-term let or holiday let”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that a landlord cannot let a property as a short-term or holiday let for at least three months after taking ownership of the property for the purposes of them or their family occupying it.

Helen Morgan

2

Clause 12, page 14, line 28, after “dwelling-house” insert “or the short-term let or holiday let”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that a landlord cannot let a property as a short-term or holiday let for at least three months after taking ownership of the property for the purposes of them or their family occupying it.

Helen Morgan 3
Kit Malthouse

Clause 12, page 15, line 15, leave out “three” and insert “six”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would increase the time which must elapse between a landlord taking ownership of a property for the purposes of them or their family occupying it and making the property available to rent from three months to six months.

Matthew Pennycook 35

Clause 12, page 15, line 15, leave out “three” and insert “twelve”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would extend the restricted period in relation to a tenancy in relation to which Ground 1 or 1A in Schedule 2 is relied on from three to twelve months.

Matthew Pennycook 36

Clause 12, page 15, line 17, leave out subsection (b)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that the restricted period is as specified in (8)(a) in all circumstances.

Helen Morgan

Clause 42, page 54, line 1, after “section 1” insert “—

- (a) omit subsection (3);
- (b) in subsection (3A) omit “the landlord of a residential occupier or an agent of the landlord” and insert “a person”;
- (c) after subsection (3B) insert—
  - “(3BA) For the purposes of this subsection, services which are reasonably required for the occupation of the premises as a household include, but are not limited to—
  - (a) water,
  - (b) gas,
  - (c) electricity, and
  - (d) electronic communications networks and services”;
- (d) omit subsection (3C);

(e)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would amend the offence of unlawful eviction and harassment of the occupier of a property under the Protection from Eviction Act 1977 so that the offence can be committed by any person (not just the landlord of their agent), and define the services with which interference can constitute an offence.

Clause 42, page 55, line 2, at end insert—

“(3A) In section 3A, after subsection (9) insert—

“(10) In any proceedings under any of the relevant statutory provisions in this Act, it shall be for the accused to prove that the tenancy or licence is excluded by virtue of subsections (2) or (3) above.”

(3B) After section 4 insert—

“4A Rebuttable presumption of landlord

(1) In any action under Part 1 of this Act (including where a Financial Penalty Notice (FPN) is issued) there is a rebuttable presumption that the person to whom the residential occupier pays rent or other payments in respect of occupation of a dwelling is the landlord of the property.”

(3C) After section 7 insert—

“7A Notification by the police

(1) Where a constable has reasonable cause to believe that an offence under the Protection from Eviction Act 1977 has occurred the constable must within 24 hours notify the authority named in section 6 as responsible for prosecution of offences in the area with the following information—

- (a) the address where the alleged offence has happened;
- (b) if known, the name of the landlord;
- (c) if known, the name of the residential occupier;
- (d) any facts known to the constable about the alleged offence.

(2) A police force has the power to assist an authority included in section 6 in the exercise of their functions under this Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would amend proceedings for offences under the Protection from Eviction Act 1977, so that it must be proved that a tenancy is an excluded tenancy, that there is a rebuttable presumption that the person to whom a tenant paid their rent is the landlord, and that the police must inform the relevant local authority when they suspect offences under the 1977 Act to have been committed.

Clause 45, page 59, line 36, after “landlord” insert “who is not otherwise a member of an independent redress scheme approved by the Secretary of State.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would only require a residential landlord to be a member of the landlord redress scheme introduced by Clause 45 if they are not already a member of another independent redress scheme which has been approved by the Secretary of State.

Matthew Pennycook

27

Clause 53, page 67, line 18, at end insert—

Clause 116, page 111, line 19, at end insert “, save that section 2(b) comes into force on the day on which this Act is passed only to the extent that it repeals section 21 of the Housing Act 1988; such repeal will not affect the validity of any notices served under that provision on or before the day on which this Act is passed and the provisions of that section will continue to apply to any claims issued in respect of such a notice”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that the abolition of section 21 evictions would come into force on Royal Assent, with saving provisions for any notices served before that date.

Clause 116, page 111, line 19, at end insert—

“(1A) Prior to laying regulations under subsection (1) the Secretary of State must commission and publish a review into the operation of residential possession proceedings in the County Courts used by residential landlords and tenants and the enforcement of possession orders.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to publish a review of the operation of residential possession proceedings before determining the commencement date for the provisions of Chapter 1 of Part 1.

Matthew Pennycook

33

Schedule 1, page 115, line 32, leave out sub-paragraph (a) and insert—

- “(a) the landlord who is seeking possession intends to—
- (i) sell a freehold or leasehold interest in the dwelling-house or to grant a lease of the dwelling-house for a term certain of more than 21 years which is not terminable before the end of that term by notice given by or to the landlord;

- (ii) re-let the dwelling house to another tenant pursuant to a Rent to Buy Agreement; or
- (iii) retain and convert the home to rented housing on either an affordable or market rent basis;"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment covers the full scope of reasons that private registered providers of social housing may wish to use the new ground for possession 1B for to offer properties to another tenant.

Matthew Pennycook

34

Schedule 1, page 116, line 12, leave out sub-paragraph (b) and insert—

- "(b) allows the tenant to rent the dwelling house for a period stated in the agreement, which is not less than 5 years or, for dwelling houses in Greater London, 10 years from the beginning of the tenancy so as to enable the tenant to save for a deposit and, over time, purchase their first home."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure the wording for the definition of "Rent to Buy Agreement" at sub-paragraph (b) is an accurate reflection of the Rent to Buy product and is in line with the Capital Funding Guide.

Matthew Pennycook

29

Schedule 1, page 116, line 29, after "tenancy" insert "(including any tenancy at will or other tenancy arising on expiry of a fixed-term lease)"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would extend Ground 2ZA to apply in a situation where a tenancy at will may arise.

---

Matthew Pennycook

30

Schedule 1, page 117, line 5, at end insert—

- "(c) where the intermediate landlord serves notice under this Ground, the intermediate landlord shall be deemed to continue to hold sufficient interest in the dwelling-house to maintain a continuing right to possession until conclusion of any possession proceedings."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that an intermediate landlord retains possession of the property and remains as the landlord of the occupying tenant until the conclusion of possession proceedings.

Schedule 1, page 118, line 4, after “HMO” insert “or is occupied by one or two students”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that the ground for possession for student properties could also be used for properties occupied by just one or two students, which would not otherwise be considered as HMOs.

Matthew Pennycook 16

Schedule 1, page 125, leave out line 17

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would retain the existing 12-month period within which the landlord can initiate proceedings on this ground for possession.

Matthew Pennycook 17

Schedule 1, page 125, line 18, at end insert—

“(c) at the end of the last unnumbered paragraph insert—
“This ground applies only where the landlord is a private registered provider of social housing.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would limit the use of Ground 7 of Schedule 2 of the 1988 Act to social rented housing.

---

Matthew Pennycook

18

Schedule 1, page 125, line 30, leave out paragraph 23

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the new ground for possession for repeated rent arrears.

---

Matthew Pennycook

19

Schedule 1, page 125, line 30, leave out "After Ground 8" and insert "Before Ground 9"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would move new Ground 8A from the list of mandatory grounds for possession (in Part I of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988) to the list of discretionary grounds for possession (in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988).

Matthew Pennycook

20

Schedule 1, page 126, line 14, leave out paragraph 24

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would maintain the existing definition of anti-social behaviour as being conduct causing or likely to cause a nuisance or annoyance, rather than being defined as behaviour "capable of causing" nuisance or annoyance.

Matthew Pennycook

25

Schedule 2, page 128, line 29, leave out "omit subsection (5)" and insert—

"for subsection (5) substitute—

"(5) A person is also threatened with homelessness if—

- (a) a valid notice has been given to the person under section 8 of the Housing Act 1988 in respect of the only accommodation the person has that is available for the person's occupation, and
- (b) that notice will expire within 56 days."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would maintain the homelessness prevention duty owed by local authorities to persons who have received a notice to vacate a property and would extend it to notices for possession issued under section 8 of the Housing Act 1988.

Matthew Pennycook

26

Schedule 2, page 129, line 1, leave out "omit subsection (6)" and insert—

"for subsection (6) substitute—

"(6) But the authority may not give notice to the applicant under subsection (5) on the basis that the circumstances in subsection (8)(b) apply if a valid notice has been given to the applicant under section 8 of the Housing Act 1988 that—

(a) will expire within 56 days or has expired, and

(b) is in respect of the only accommodation that is available for the applicant's occupation.""

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that the homelessness prevention duty owed by a local authority cannot end whilst a valid notice under section 8 of the Housing Act 1988 has been issued in respect of the only accommodation available to that person.
