Part 1

PUBLIC SERVICE TELEVISION

The public service remit for television

- | | | |
|----------|--|----------|
| 1 | Reports on the fulfilment of the public service remit | 5 |
| (1) | Section 264 of the Communications Act 2003 (OFCOM reports on the fulfilment of the public service remit) is amended as follows. | |
| (2) | For subsections (3) to (8) (OFCOM's review and reporting obligations and the purposes of public service television broadcasting in the United Kingdom) substitute— | 10 |
| “(3) | The review and reporting obligations for a period are— | 15 |
| (a) | an obligation to carry out a review of the extent to which the public service remit for television in the United | |

- Kingdom has, during that period, been fulfilled by the public service broadcasters (taking them all together over the period as a whole); and 5
- (b) an obligation, with a view to maintaining and strengthening the quality of the audiovisual content made available in order to fulfil the public service remit for television in the United Kingdom, to prepare a report on the matters found in the review. 10
- (4) The public service remit for television in the United Kingdom is fulfilled where the public service broadcasters (taken together) make available a broad range of audiovisual content— 15
- (a) in a manner which, taking into account when and how their relevant audiovisual services are received or accessed, is likely to meet the needs and satisfy the 20 interests of as many different audiences as practicable, and

- (b) which meets the needs and satisfies the interests of as many different available audiences as practicable as regards the nature of the audiovisual content made available and the subject-matters covered by it, 5 10 and that range of audiovisual content includes material satisfying the requirements in subsection (5) and itself satisfies the requirement in subsection (6). 15

- (5) The requirements in this subsection are—
 - (a) that the audiovisual content made available by the public service broadcasters (taken together) provides, to the extent that is appropriate for facilitating civic understanding and fair and well-informed 20 debate on news and current affairs, a comprehensive and authoritative coverage of news and current affairs—

- (i) in, and in the different parts of, the United Kingdom, and 5
 - (ii) from around the world;
- (b) that the audiovisual content made available by the public service broadcasters (taken together) includes what appears to OFCOM to be— 10
 - (i) a sufficient quantity of audiovisual content that reflects the lives and concerns of different communities and cultural interests and traditions within the United Kingdom, and locally in different parts of the United Kingdom, and 15 20

- (ii) a sufficient quantity of audiovisual content that is in, or mainly in, a recognised regional or minority language; 5
- (c) that the audiovisual content made available by the public service broadcasters (taken together) includes an appropriate range and quantity of audiovisual content, contained in original productions, that— 10
 - (i) reflects the lives and concerns of children and young people in the United Kingdom, and 15
 - (ii) helps them to understand the world around them; and 20
- (d) that the audiovisual content made available by the public service broadcasters (taken together) includes—

- (i) an appropriate range of independent productions with an appropriate combined duration,
- (ii) an appropriate range of original productions with an appropriate combined duration, and 5
- (iii) so far as the audiovisual content consists of programmes made in the United Kingdom, an appropriate range of programmes made outside the M25 area with an appropriate combined duration. 10
- (6) The requirement in this subsection is that the range of genres of audiovisual content made available by the public service broadcasters (taken together) constitutes an appropriate range of genres. 15
- (7) Particular audiovisual content 20

made available by a public service broadcaster is not to be taken into account for the purpose of determining the extent to which the public service remit for television in the United Kingdom is fulfilled unless the broadcaster has taken steps to ensure that the audiovisual content in question may be received or accessed in accordance with subsection (8) by so much of the broadcaster's intended audience as is reasonably practicable. 5 10

(8) Audiovisual content may be received or accessed in accordance with this subsection if— 15

- (a) the audiovisual content, and
- (b) the relevant audiovisual service by means of which the audiovisual content is provided, 20 may be received or accessed in intelligible form and free of charge.

(8A) Any requirement to pay sums in accordance with regulations under section 365 is to be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether audiovisual content may be received or accessed in accordance with subsection (8). 5

(8B) Particular audiovisual content made available by a public service broadcaster by means of an on-demand programme service or a non-UK on-demand programme service is not to be taken into account for the purpose of determining the extent to which the public service remit for television in the United Kingdom is fulfilled unless the audiovisual content in question is available for a period of not less than 30 days beginning with the day on which that content is first made available for viewing. 10 15 20

(8C) Subsection (8B) does not apply to news programmes or programmes containing coverage of sporting events that are made available

by a public service broadcaster by means of an on-demand programme service or a non-UK on-demand programme service.

- (8D) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend subsection (8B) so as to substitute a different period for the period for the time being specified there. 5
- (8E) In carrying out a review under this section OFCOM must consider— 10
- (a) the costs to public service broadcasters of fulfilling the public service remit for television in the United Kingdom; 15
 - (b) the sources of income available to them for meeting those costs.
- (8F) Every report under this section must— 20

- report relates, in the extent to which the public service remit for television in the United Kingdom has been fulfilled;
- (b) specify, and comment on, whatever changes appear to OFCOM to have occurred, during that period, in the manner in which that remit is fulfilled; 5 10
- (c) set out the findings of OFCOM on their consideration of the matters mentioned in subsection (8E) and any conclusions they have arrived at in relation to those findings; and 15

Enforcement

- 362BR Provisional notices of contravention 5
- (1) OFCOM may give a notice under this section (a “provisional notice of contravention”) to a person if they consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with any duty or prohibition under section 362BE, 362BG, 362BI, 362BJ or 362BN. 10
- (2) OFCOM may also give a provisional notice of contravention to a person to whom an information notice has been given if they consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with the duty under section 362BQ(9). 15

- (a) comply with the duty or prohibition, or 15
 - (b) remedy the failure to comply with it.
- (5) A provisional notice of contravention may also state that OFCOM propose to impose a penalty on the person and, in such a case, the notice must— 20

the same person to comply with more than one duty or prohibition and, in such a case, the notice may include a proposal to impose a single penalty in respect of some or all of those duties or duties and prohibition (as an alternative to separate penalties).

(8) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given in respect of a continuing failure to comply with a duty or prohibition, the notice—

10

(a) may be given in respect of any period during which the failure has continued,

(b) must specify that period, and 15

(c) may include a proposal to impose no more than one penalty in respect of that period.

(9) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given to a person in respect of a failure to comply with a duty or prohibition, a further provisional notice of contravention

 - (b) taken into account in determining what is required to meet the objective described in subsection (3)(a) in relation to the following year. 10
- (6) OFCOM may repay a person some or all of a fee paid under subsection (1) if, in the case of a fee paid by the provider of a designated radio selection service— 15
