To move the following Clause—

“Report: accession of states to the CPTPP

- (1) Before any decision is made by the Government of the United Kingdom on the accession of economies designated a “threat” or “systemic challenge” in the Integrated Review to the CPTPP under Chapter 30 of the CPTPP, the Secretary of State must publish a report assessing the impact of the accession of that economy on the United Kingdom.
- (2) Both Houses of Parliament must be presented with a motion for resolution on the report under subsection (1).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to ensure a parliamentary debate and decision on the UK’s position towards the accession to the CPTPP of certain states presenting a threat or systemic challenge to the UK.

To move the following Clause—

“Assessment of impact of CPTPP on deforestation and import of certain products

- (1) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report containing an assessment of the impact of the implementation of the CPTPP on—
  - (a) the volume of UK imports of palm oil;
  - (b) the volume of UK imports of tropical wood;
  - (c) the rate of deforestation in Asia;
  - (d) the UK’s ability to fulfil its obligations under—
    - (i) the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change; and
    - (ii) the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity.

- (2) A report under subsection (1) must be published no earlier than a year and no later than 18 months after the passing of this Act.”

To move the following Clause—

“Comparative analysis of impact on UK businesses

- (1) Within three months of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must lay before each House of Parliament a report on the impact of the implementation of the CPTPP on the matters listed in subsection (3).

- (2) The report must include an analysis comparing the respective situation for each of the matters listed in subsection (3) prior to the implementation of the CPTPP with the situation post the implementation of the CPTPP.
- (3) The issues which must be included in the comparative analysis contained in the report laid under subsection (1) are—
  - (a) tariffs paid by UK businesses to bring in or remove items from the UK;
  - (b) costs of non-tariff border control measures paid by UK businesses to bring in or remove items from the UK;
  - (c) inflation in the UK;
  - (d) the extent of alignment of regulations relevant to UK businesses;

- (e) the ability of UK businesses to trade with the EU;
  - (f) the implications for UK businesses of introducing new trade and climate regulations, including for carbon pricing;
  - (g) tariff and non-tariff costs facing businesses trading with the EU; and
  - (h) trade volumes for UK businesses trading with the EU.
- (4) Within 10 days of a report being laid under subsection (1) the Government must schedule a debate on the findings of the report in each House.”

To move the following Clause—

“Report on economic impact of implementation of CPTPP

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within six months of the passing of this Act, publish a report on the economic impact of the implementation of the CPTPP.

- (2) A report published under subsection (1) must include an analysis comparing the respective situation for each of the matters listed in subsection (3) prior to the implementation of the CPTPP with the situation post the implementation of the CPTPP.
- (3) The matters which must be included in the comparative analysis contained in the report laid under subsection (1) are—
  - (a) the UK's trade in goods;
  - (b) the UK's trade in services; and
  - (c) UK GDP.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to publish a comparative analysis of the impact of the implementation of the CPTPP on UK trade and GDP.

To move the following Clause—

“Impact assessment: new states
accessing to the CPTPP

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare and publish a report assessing the impact of the accession of new states to the CPTPP on the United Kingdom.
- (2) In respect of states that have submitted a request to the Depository of the CPTPP to join the CPTPP since 2019, the Secretary of State must lay a report before both Houses of Parliament within three months of this Act coming into force.
- (3) In respect of states submitting a request to the Depository of the CPTPP to join the CPTPP following the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State must lay a report before both Houses of Parliament within three months of a request being made.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to provide an impact assessment on the accession of countries that have made and will make a formal request to join the CPTPP.
