To move the following Clause—

“Removal of women from the criminal law related to abortion

For the purposes of sections 58 and 59 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 and the Infant Life (Preservation) Act 1929, no offence is committed by a woman acting in relation to her own pregnancy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would disapply existing criminal law related to the accessing or procurement of abortion care from women acting in relation to their own pregnancy at any gestation, ensuring no woman would be liable for a prison sentence as a result of seeking to end her own pregnancy. It would not change any law regarding the provision of abortion services within a healthcare setting, including but not limited to the time limit, the grounds for abortion, or the requirement for two doctors' approval.

To move the following Clause—

“Duty of officer to hand over personal mobile phone

(1) Section 50 of the Police Act 1996 is amended in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) After subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) Regulations under this section may, in connection with the procedures that are established by or under regulations made by virtue of subsection (3), provide that an officer has a duty to hand over to the appropriate authority a personal telecommunications device capable of storing information in any electronic format which can readily be produced in a visible and legible form, belonging to that police officer where there is a request by the appropriate authority in circumstances where the appropriate authority has reasonable grounds to suspect the police officer of behaving in a way that could amount to gross misconduct and in respect of which information stored on the device may be relevant to the suspected misconduct.

(4B) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (4A), regulations may provide for—

- (a) the form of the request to be made to the police officer concerned and any related information that must be provided by the police officer in releasing the device including, but not limited to, any passcode required to access information stored on the device;
- (b) the time period within which the device must be provided to the appropriate authority and any sanction which may be imposed on the police officer for failing to do so;
- (c) the provision to the police officer concerned of reasons for the requested possession of a device;
- (d) the arrangements to be put in place for the protection of confidential, privileged or sensitive information stored on the device which is not relevant to the matter under investigation;

- (e) the period of time that the device may be retained by the appropriate authority and arrangements for the return of the device when it is no longer required for the purposes of the investigation;
  - (f) the deletion of information obtained from the device and retained by the appropriate authority other than information which is reasonably required to be retained in connection with the matter under investigation; and
  - (g) the making of ancillary and consequential amendments to other regulations as may be considered necessary.
- (4C) In subsections (4A) and (4B) “appropriate authority” has the meaning given in article 2 (interpretation) of the Police (Conduct) Regulations 2020.””

To move the following Clause—

“Occupation or control of another person’s residence for criminal purposes
 “Cuckooing”

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person occupies or exercises control over the home of another person (V) in connection with the commission of a criminal offence or offences using any of the following methods—
- (a) the threat or use of force or other coercive behaviour;
  - (b) abduction, kidnap or false imprisonment;
  - (c) fraud or other deception;
  - (d) the abuse of power or a position of vulnerability;
  - (e) the giving of payments or other benefits to achieve the consent of a person who has control over V.

- (2) A person also commits an offence under this section if the person arranges or facilitates the activity set out in subsection (1).
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years,
  - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both)."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause makes it an offence to exercise control over another person's residence for the purpose of criminal activity by means of coercion, threats or abuse of a position of vulnerability.

To move the following Clause—

"Offence of enabling or profiting from prostitution

- (1) A person or body corporate (C) commits an offence if they—
  - (a) facilitate, whether online or offline, or
  - (b) gain financially froma person (A) engaging in sexual activity with another person (B) in exchange for payment or other benefit, or the promise of payment or other benefit, and the conditions in subsection (2) are met.
- (2) The conditions are—
  - (a) that C knows or ought to know that A is engaging in, or intends to engage in, sexual activity for payment or other benefit; and
  - (b) that C is not a dependent child of A.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—
  - (a) "Sexual activity"—
    - (i) means any acts which a reasonable person would, in all the circumstances but regardless of any person's purpose, consider to be sexual,
    - (ii) requires A and B to be in each other's presence,
  - (b) "Facilitates" includes, but is not limited to, causing or allowing to be displayed or published, including digitally, any advertisement in respect of sexual activity involving A.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both;
  - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years."

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would make it an offence to facilitate or profit from the prostitution of another person.

“One-punch manslaughter

- (1) A person (P) is guilty of an offence where they cause the death of another person (B) as a result of a single punch in the circumstances described in subsection (2).
- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) are—
  - (a) P administered a single punch to the head or neck of B;
  - (b) there was significant risk that the punch would cause serious physical harm to B;
  - (c) P was or ought to have been aware of the risk mentioned in paragraph (b);
  - (d) P did not administer the punch referred to in paragraph (a) in self-defence; and
  - (e) B's death was caused by—
    - (i) the impact of the punch, or
    - (ii) further impact or injury resulting from the single punch.
- (3) In this section “serious physical harm” means harm that amounts to death or serious personal injury for the purposes of the Offences against the Person Act 1861.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a minimum of seven years.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause is intended to create a specific offence of “One Punch Manslaughter”, with a minimum sentence of seven years.

“Use of anti-social behaviour powers in respect of begging and sleeping rough

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within two months of Royal Assent to this Act, issue guidance to local authorities and police forces regarding the use of powers relating to anti-social behaviour in—
  - (a) this Act; and
  - (b) the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
- (2) Guidance issued under subsection (1) must state that—
  - (a) the following principles are to be applied in the exercise of powers under the Acts referred to in subsection (1)—
    - (i) begging or sleeping rough does not in itself amount to action causing harassment, alarm or distress (in the absence of other factors);

- (ii) begging or sleeping rough does not in itself amount to unreasonable conduct (in the absence of other factors);
    - (iii) policing and other enforcement action should balance protection of the community with sensitivity to the problems that cause people to engage in begging or sleeping rough; and
    - (iv) the powers contained in the Acts referred to in subsection (1) should not in general be used in relation to people sleeping rough, and should be used in relation to people begging only where no other approach is reasonably available;
  - (b) a constable or other person exercising functions under the Acts referred to in subsection (1), or considering whether to exercise such functions, in connection with a person who has been, or may have been, involved in begging or sleeping rough, must consider whether the person could be referred to public authorities, or charitable or other persons, for help in addressing the problems that cause them to be involved in begging or sleeping rough.
- (3) Local authorities and police forces must—
- (a) have regard to the guidance issued under subsection (1); and
  - (b) take reasonable steps to provide education and training to their employees and officers designed to ensure consistent and effective application of the principles outlined in subsection (2).
- (4) Before issuing or revising guidance under subsection (1) the Secretary of State must consult—
- (a) representatives of police forces;
  - (b) representatives of local authorities; and
  - (c) persons representing the interests of homeless persons.
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
- “begging” means asking for gifts on streets or in other public places (for which purpose it is immaterial whether gifts are of money or in kind, whether they are expressed as gifts or as loans, or whether a person asks expressly or impliedly), by displaying receptacles for donations or otherwise, but does not include soliciting donations to a registered charity with the express written authority of that charity or accepting voluntary gifts offered by any person without prior request;
- “registered charity” means a charity registered under section 30 of the Charities Act 2011, or exempted or excepted from registration under or by virtue of that section; and
- “sleeping rough” means sleeping (or making preparations to sleep, or possessing bedding or other equipment for the purpose of sleeping) on streets or in other public places, or in places or structures not designed for human habitation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to issue guidance on the use of powers relating to anti-social behaviour under this Act and the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

To move the following Clause—

“Controlling or coercive behaviour by persons providing psychotherapy or counselling services

- (1) A person (“A”) commits an offence if—
  - (a) A is a person providing or purporting to provide psychotherapy or counselling services to another person (“B”),
  - (b) A repeatedly or continuously engages in behaviour towards B that is controlling or coercive,
  - (c) the behaviour has a serious effect on B, and
  - (d) A knows or ought to know that the behaviour will or may have a serious effect on B.
- (2) A’s behaviour has a “serious effect” on B if—
  - (a) it causes B to fear, on at least two occasions, that violence will be used against B, or
  - (b) it causes B psychological harm which has a substantial adverse effect on B’s usual day-to-day activities.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d) A “ought to know” that which a reasonable person in possession of the same information would know.
- (4) In proceedings for an offence under this section it is a defence for A to show that—
  - (a) in engaging in the behaviour in question, A believed that he or she was acting in B’s best interests, and
  - (b) the behaviour was in all the circumstances reasonable.
- (5) A defence under subsection (4) requires A to have shown—
  - (a) sufficient evidence of the facts, and
  - (b) that the contrary is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.
- (6) The defence in subsection (4) is not available to A in relation to behaviour that causes B to fear that violence will be used against B.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or a fine, or both;
  - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or a fine, or both.”

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of encouraging or assisting conversion practices

- (1) A person (B) commits an offence if—

- (a) B does an act capable of encouraging or assisting another person to undergo conversion practices, or arranges for another person (C) to do such an act, and
  - (b) the act is intended to encourage or assist another person to undergo conversion practices.
- (2) The other person mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) need not be a specific person (or class of persons) known to or identified by B or C.
- (3) An offence under this section may be committed whether or not the other person undergoes conversion practices.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
  - “act” includes any conduct except conduct consisting only of one or more omissions (and a reference to the doing of an act is to be read accordingly);
  - “encouraging or assisting” means any act or behaviour which puts pressure on a person or which enables them to undertake a certain course of action;
  - “conversion practices” mean practices which are directed towards a person—
    - (a) on the basis of the person’s sexual orientation or gender identity; and
    - (b) for the purpose of changing or suppressing the person’s sexual orientation or gender identity;but do not include—
    - (i) any actions taken by health practitioners in the course of providing a health service where the practitioner considers in their professional judgement that the action is appropriate and compliant with all relevant legal, professional, and ethical standards;
    - (ii) actions intended to assist an individual in the process of undergoing, or considering undergoing, a gender transition;
    - (iii) actions intended to support an individual’s personal, emotional or social development, including explorations of sexual orientation or gender identity, which are not intended to change or suppress the individual’s sexual orientation or gender identity;
    - (iv) the expression of a belief or a religious principle made to an individual that is not intended to change or suppress the individual’s sexual orientation or gender identity.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);
  - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or a fine (or both).”
