NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Report on use of personal data in relation to automated vehicles

- (1) Within one year of the day on which this Act is passed, and every year thereafter, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report on the use of personal data collected from automated vehicles.
- (2) The report in subsection (1) must cover but need not be limited to—
 - (a) levels of compliance with data protection legislation within the automated motor industry,
 - (b) instances where the Secretary of State has made regulations under section 42(3) of this Act (protection of information), and the impact of those regulations on personal data protection, and
 - (c) any significant trends in the collection of personal data and whether further action is needed to regulate the collection of personal data.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to report to Parliament on the collection of personal data from automated vehicles.

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Consultation with the Information Commissioner’s Office in relation to personal data

Before making regulations under section 42 of this Act (Protection of information), or any other regulations or requirements in relation to the provision of personal data in automated vehicles, the Secretary of State must consult the Information Commissioner’s Office.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to consult the ICO before making regulations in relation to the provision of personal data relevant to automated vehicles.

Bill Esterson

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Establishment of an Advisory Council

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within six months of the passing of this Act, establish a council to advise on the implementation of this Act, with a focus on learning lessons from any accidents involving automated vehicles.
- (2) The Advisory Council must include representatives from—
 - (a) consumer groups;
 - (b) organisations representing drivers;
 - (c) road safety experts;
 - (d) relevant businesses such as automobile manufacturers, vehicle insurance providers and providers of delivery and public transport services;
 - (e) trade unions;
 - (f) the police and other emergency services, including Scottish and Welsh emergency services;

- (g) highway authorities, including Scottish and Welsh highway authorities;
 - (h) groups representing people with disabilities;

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Accessibility information for passengers in automated vehicles

After section 181D of the Equality Act 2010, insert—

“ “Chapter 2B

AUTOMATED VEHICLES PROVIDING AUTOMATED PASSENGER SERVICES

181E Information for passengers in automated passenger services

- (1) The Secretary of State may, for the purpose of facilitating travel by disabled persons, make regulations requiring providers or operators of automated passenger services to make available information about a service to persons travelling on the service.
- (2) The regulations may make provision about—
 - (a) the descriptions of information that are to be made available;
 - (b) how information is to be made available.
- (3) The regulations may, in particular, require a provider or operator of an automated passenger service to make available information of a prescribed description about—

- (a) the name or other designation of the service;
 - (b) the direction of travel;
 - (c) stopping places;
 - (d) diversions;
 - (e) connecting local services.
- (4) The regulations may, in particular—
- (a) specify when information of a prescribed description is to be made available;
 - (b) specify how information of a prescribed description is to be made available, including requiring information to be both announced and displayed;
 - (c) specify standards for the provision of information, including standards based on an announcement being audible or a display being visible to a person of a prescribed description in a prescribed location;

- (d) specify forms of communication that are not to be regarded as satisfying a requirement to make information available.
- (5) Regulations under this section may make different provision—
 - (a) as respects different descriptions of vehicle;
 - (b) as respects the same description of vehicle in different circumstances.
- (6) Before making regulations under this section, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Welsh Ministers;
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers. ” ”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause mirrors existing provisions in the Equality Act 2010 relating to the provision of information in accessible formats to bus passengers and applies them to automated passenger services.

To move the following Clause—

“Publication of list of information to be provided

- (1) The Secretary of State must, by regulations, make provision for the publication of a list detailing—
 - (a) the information related to the data for authorisation of automated vehicles which must be provided;
 - (b) the parties by whom such information must be provided;
 - (c) the parties to whom such information must be provided; and
 - (d) the purposes for which the information must be provided.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) must provide for the content of the list to be subject to public consultation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to publish a list of information which is to be provided to and by certain parties on the operation of authorised automated vehicles, and to hold a public consultation on the list.

Bill Esterson

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Liability of insurers

Section 2 of the Automated and Electric Vehicles Act 2018 (liability of insurers etc where accident caused by automated vehicle) is amended as follows—

- (a) in subsection (1)(a), leave out “when driving itself”;
- (b) in subsection (2)(a), leave out “when driving itself”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would remove the need for people to have to prove that an automated vehicle was “driving itself” if they make a legal claim for compensation under Section 2 of the Automated and Electric Vehicles Act 2018.

Wera Hobhouse

Clause 6, page 11, line 22, at end insert—

“(6) A person may not be an authorised self-driving entity unless they meet the following requirements—

- (a) they have obtained a certificate of compliance with data protection legislation from the Information Commissioner’s Office for their policy in regard to the handling of personal data,
- (b) their policy in regard to the handling of personal data clearly outlines who has ownership of any personal data collected, including after the ownership of a vehicle has ended, and
- (c) they are a signatory to an industry code of conduct under the UK General Data Protection Regulation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to probe a number of concerns around data protection and ownership and seeks to prevent authorisation of companies as self-driving entities unless robust personal data practices are in place.

Secretary Mark Harper

Clause 43, page 79, line 9, after “State” insert “or by a traffic commissioner”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment corrects a drafting omission, by allowing no-user-in-charge operator licensing functions conferred on traffic commissioners to be taken into account in setting fees under Part 1.

Secretary Mark Harper

Gov 2

Clause 43, page 79, line 15, at end insert—

“(3) Money received by a traffic commissioner as a result of regulations under section 13 must be paid into the Consolidated Fund in such manner as the Treasury may direct.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is one of two that clarify what happens to fees, penalties or costs under Part 1 if they are made payable to traffic commissioners by regulations.

Clause 50, page 91, line 8, at end insert—

- “(4) The Secretary of State must obtain and lay before Parliament the written consent of the Scottish Government to make regulations under this section which amend—
- (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) any instrument made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament.
- (5) The Secretary of State must obtain and lay before Parliament the written consent of the Welsh Government to make regulations under this section which amend—
- (a) an Act or Measure of Senedd Cymru,
 - (b) any instrument made under an Act or Measure of Senedd Cymru.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of devolved governments before exercising the Clause 50 power in relation to devolved legislation.

Gavin Newlands

Clause 50, page 91, line 8, at end insert—

- “(4) The Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Government before making regulations under this section which amend—
- (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) any instrument made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament.
- (5) The Secretary of State must consult the Welsh Government before making regulations under this section which amend—
- (a) an Act or Measure of Senedd Cymru,
 - (b) any instrument made under an Act or Measure of Senedd Cymru.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to consult the devolved governments before exercising the Clause 50 power in relation to devolved legislation.

Secretary Mark Harper

Gov 3

Clause 89, page 174, line 9, at end insert—

“(8) Regulations under subsection (7) made by the Scottish Ministers or the Welsh Ministers—

- (a) if they apply to a function in respect of which a fee is payable, must also apply to the function of charging and receiving that fee;
- (b) if they apply to the function of issuing a notice under paragraph 1 or 2 of Schedule 6 (compliance notices and monetary penalty notices), must also apply to the functions under paragraph 4 of that Schedule (costs notices) so far as exercisable in connection with the first function.

- (9) Money received by a traffic commissioner as a result of regulations under subsection (7) must, unless subsection (10) applies, be paid into the Consolidated Fund in such manner as the Treasury may direct.
- (10) Money received by a traffic commissioner under paragraph 2(2) of Schedule 6 (monetary penalties) as a result of regulations under subsection (7) made by the Scottish Ministers or the Welsh Ministers must be paid to those Ministers.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes provision about fees, penalties and costs made payable to traffic commissioners by regulations under Part 5.

Secretary Mark Harper

Schedule 1, page 216, line 19, after “Part” insert “(other than section)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on amendment 1.

Schedule 1, page 217, line 10, at end insert—

“(5) Money received by a traffic commissioner as a result of regulations under this paragraph must be paid into the Consolidated Fund in such manner as the Treasury may direct.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is one of two that clarify what happens to fees, penalties or costs under Part 1 if they are made payable to traffic commissioners by regulations.
