Member's explanatory statement

This creates an exception from the new duty, inserted by clause 12 of the Bill into the Housing Act 1988, for a landlord to provide a written statement of certain matters before entering into an assured tenancy, so that the landlord of a tenancy which becomes an assured tenancy following the transfer of a demoted tenancy under the Housing Act 1996 has 28 days from becoming the landlord of the tenancy to fulfil those duties.

Schedule 2, page 179, line 8, at end insert—

- “(ea) in section 184 (tenancy deposit schemes), omit subsections (10) to (13);”

Member's explanatory statement

This repeals section 184(10) to (13) of the Localism Act 2011. The repealed provision amends section 215 of the Housing Act 2004 (which is replaced by clause 25(5) of the Bill).

☆ Clause 39, page 47, line 3, at end insert—

- “(6A) On recovering a financial penalty imposed under this section, a local housing authority shall pay 20% of the recovered penalty to the person who was the subject of the discrimination.
- (6B) Where the person who was the subject of the discrimination complains to the relevant landlord redress scheme about the same discriminatory behaviour, the scheme provider shall take into account any sum paid or payable to that person under subsection (6A) in assessing any further award of compensation which the relevant person is directed to pay to that person under the scheme.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides a mechanism for a complainant to receive a portion of the financial penalty imposed by a local housing authority as compensation for being discriminated against.

Clause 59, page 84, line 23, leave out from “in” to end of line 25 and insert “section 13(1A), (1AA) or (1AB);”

65

Clause 62, page 89, line 25, after “residential landlord” insert “, whose property is not managed by an agent who is a member of an independent redress scheme approved by the Secretary of State,

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would only require a residential landlord to be a member of the landlord redress scheme introduced by Clause 62 if their tenant does not already have access to one by virtue of the landlord using an agent who is a member of another approved independent redress scheme.

Secretary Angela Rayner

Gov 23

Clause 62, page 90, line 16, at end insert—

“(4A) Regulations under subsection (1) may require a person—

- (a) to provide relevant property information to the administrator of a landlord redress scheme, on applying to become a member of the scheme;
- (b) at any time after becoming a member of a landlord redress scheme, to notify the administrator of the scheme of any change to relevant property information previously provided by the person as soon as reasonably practicable, or within a period, as specified in the regulations.

(4B) For the purposes of subsection (4A), “relevant property information” means such information as may be specified in the regulations relating to—

- (a) any residential tenancy under which the person is the residential landlord;
- (b) any dwelling which is proposed to be marketed for the purpose of creating a residential tenancy under which the person will be the residential landlord.”

Member's explanatory statement

This enables regulations made under clause 62 (landlord redress schemes) to require a person on applying to join a landlord redress scheme to provide certain information about residential tenancies of which they are the landlord, or dwellings that will be marketed for the purpose of becoming residential tenancies of which they will be the landlord. There is also a separate duty to notify the scheme administrator of any changes to such information.

- (ib) that is provided by the Ministry of Defence for use by service personnel; or”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would extend the Decent Homes Standard to accommodation provided to people on immigration bail and to that provided by the Ministry of Defence to service personnel.

Clause 98, page 118, line 27, at end insert—

- “(ba) a building or part of a building constructed or adapted for use as a house in multiple occupation if—
 - (i) it is for the time being only occupied by persons who form a single household, and
 - (ii) the accommodation which those persons occupy is let under a relevant tenancy or is supported exempt accommodation, except where the accommodation which those persons occupy is social housing and the landlord under the tenancy, or the provider of the supported exempt accommodation, is a registered provider of social housing,”

Member's explanatory statement

This expands the definition of “qualifying residential premises” - and therefore expands the scope of the power in new section 2A inserted by this clause - so as to catch HMO accommodation which is occupied by only one household (and therefore does not count as an HMO because it is not actually in multiple occupation).

“homelessness accommodation” means accommodation in England—

- (a) the availability of which is secured under Part 7 of the Housing Act 1996 (homelessness), and
- (b) which is residential premises, whether by virtue of paragraph (e) or another paragraph of section 1(4).

Service of improvement notices: homelessness accommodation (whether or not it is qualifying residential premises)

- B1 (1) This paragraph applies where the specified premises in the case of an improvement notice are homelessness accommodation (which has the same meaning here as in paragraph A1).
- (2) The notice must be served on any person—
- (a) who has an estate or interest in the premises, and
 - (b) who, in the opinion of the local housing authority, ought to take the action specified in the notice.
- (3) This paragraph applies instead of paragraph 1, 2 or 3 (in a case where that paragraph would otherwise apply to the improvement notice).”

Member's explanatory statement

The definitions are consequential on Amendment 27. The new paragraph B1 provides for the service of all improvement notices relating to homelessness accommodation (and replaces the current provision which only catches notices about requirements under regulations under section 2A).
