Patrick Spencer

Clause 7, page 12, line 13, at end insert —

“(3A) Where staying close support is provided, it must be provided with due regard to the wishes of the relevant person and a record must be kept of that person’s wishes.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require local authorities to take account of the wishes of the relevant young person when providing staying close support, and keep a record of those wishes.

Ellie Chowns

16

Clause 7, page 12, line 14, after first “support” insert “and staying put support”

Member's explanatory statement

See Amendment 12.

Clause 7, page 12, line 22, at end insert —

- “(vi) financial support;
- (vii) financial literacy”

Ellie Chowns

17

Clause 7, page 12, line 22, at end insert—

- “(5) “Staying put” has the meaning given by section 23CZA(2) of the Children’s Act 1989.”

Member's explanatory statement

See Amendment 12.

Munira Wilson

41

Ian Sollom
Liz Jarvis

Clause 7, page 12, line 28, at end insert—

- “(c) the provision of supported lodgings, where the young person and local authority deem appropriate.”

Neil O'Brien

24

Patrick Spencer

Clause 10, page 16, line 39, at end insert —

- “(8A) After subsection (9) insert —
- “(10) Where a child is kept in secure accommodation under this section, the relevant local authority has a duty to provide therapeutic treatment for the child.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would place a duty on local authorities to provide treatment for children in secure accommodation.

Munira Wilson

42

Ian Sollom
Liz Jarvis

Clause 14, page 28, line 37, at end insert—

- “(c) independent schools with caring responsibilities and offering SEND provision.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would include independent special schools within the profit cap provision.

Neil O'Brien

25

Patrick Spencer

Clause 14, page 29, line 25, at end insert—

- “(10) Before making regulations under this section the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report containing —
- (a) details of the number of available placements in relevant establishments or agencies;
 - (b) an analysis of the expected impact of this section on the number of available placements in relevant establishments or agencies.”

Catherine McKinnell

Gov 6

Clause 21, page 42, line 23, leave out “has the meaning given by section 437(8)” and insert “means—

- (a) a community, foundation or voluntary school, or
- (b) a community or foundation special school”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment amends the definition of “maintained school” in section 551B (inserted into the Education Act 1996 by clause 21) so that it does not exclude community or foundation special schools established in a hospital. Such schools are already excluded by the definition of “relevant school” in that inserted section.

Neil O'Brien

26

Patrick Spencer

Clause 21, page 43, line 31, at end insert —

- “(4) This section may only come into force after the Secretary of State has laid before Parliament a report containing the following information—
- (a) what form breakfast club provision by schools currently takes;
 - (b) how much breakfast club provision costs schools, and how much is charged by schools for such provision;
 - (c) how much funding is estimated to be required to enable schools to meet the requirements of this section;
 - (d) what additional staff will be required to deliver the breakfast clubs; and
 - (e) the grounds on which the Secretary of State would use the power under section 551C.”

Neil O'Brien

27

Patrick Spencer

Clause 21, page 43, line 31, at end insert—

- “(4) This section may only come into force after the Secretary of State has provided details of how schools are to be resourced to meet the requirements of this section.”

Neil O'Brien

28

Patrick Spencer

Clause 21, page 43, line 31, at end insert—

“551E Duty to fund secondary school breakfast clubs

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within three months of the passing of the Children’s Wellbeing and Schools Act, create a national school breakfast club programme.
- (2) A programme created under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) provide a 75% subsidy for the food and delivery costs of breakfast club provision; and
 - (b) offer pupils in participating schools free food and drink.
- (3) To be eligible to participate in the programme—
 - (a) a school must be a state funded secondary school, special school or provider of alternative provision; and
 - (b) at least 40% of the pupils on the school’s pupil roll must be in bands A-F of the Income Deprivation Affecting Children Index.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to continue with the existing funding programme for secondary school breakfast clubs in areas of deprivation.

Catherine McKinnell

Gov 7

Clause 23, page 44, line 22, after “school” insert “in England”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 8, and is needed to ensure that clause 23 applies only in relation to relevant schools in England.

Neil O'Brien

29

Patrick Spencer

Clause 23, page 44, line 23, leave out “have” and insert “buy”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would enable schools to require pupils to wear more than three branded items of school uniform as long as parents have not had to pay for them.

Mike Amesbury

59

☆ Clause 23, page 44, line 24, leave out “three” and insert “two”

Neil O'Brien

30

Patrick Spencer

Clause 23, page 44, line 26, leave out “have” and insert “buy”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would enable schools to require pupils to wear more than three branded items of school uniform as long as parents have not had to pay for them.

Mike Amesbury

60

☆ Clause 23, page 44, line 27, leave out “three” and insert “two”

Mike Amesbury

61

☆ Clause 23, page 44, line 28, leave out from “year” to end of paragraph

Neil O'Brien

31

Patrick Spencer

Clause 23, page 44, line 29, at end insert—

“(1A) The appropriate authority of a school may require a pupil to buy or replace branded items which have been lost or damaged, or which the pupil has grown out of.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would enable schools to require pupils to replace lost or damaged branded items.

Neil O'Brien

32

Patrick Spencer

Clause 23, page 44, line 40, at end insert “except PE kit or other clothing or items required as part of the school’s provision of physical education lessons”

Catherine McKinnell

Gov 8

Clause 23, page 45, leave out lines 13 to 18 and insert—

““relevant school” means—

- (a) an Academy school,
- (b) an alternative provision Academy,
- (c) a maintained school,
- (d) a non-maintained special school, or
- (e) a pupil referral unit,

other than where established in a hospital;”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the definition of “relevant school” in section 551ZA (inserted into the Education Act 1996 by clause 23) is consistent with the definition in section 551B of the Education Act 1996 (inserted by clause 21), and accordingly excludes any school established in a hospital.

Catherine McKinnell

Gov 9

Clause 23, page 45, line 25, leave out “has the meaning given by section 437(8)” and insert “means—

- (a) a community, foundation or voluntary school, or
- (b) a community or foundation special school”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment amends the definition of “maintained school” in section 551ZA (inserted into the Education Act 1996 by clause 23) so that it does not exclude community or foundation special schools established in a hospital, which are now excluded as a result of Amendment 8.

Catherine McKinnell

Gov 10

Clause 23, page 45, line 27, at end insert—

“(4) In section 551A (guidance about the costs of school uniforms: England), for subsections (5) and (6) substitute—

“(5) In this section “the appropriate authority” and “relevant school” have the same meanings as in section 551ZA.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment aligns the definitions in section 551A of the Education Act 1996 with those in the sections inserted by clauses 21 and 23 (as amended by Amendments 6, 7, 8 and 9).

Neil O'Brien 33

Patrick Spencer

Clause 24, page 46, line 3, leave out from beginning of line to “a” in line 10

Munira Wilson 46

Ian Sollom

Liz Jarvis

Clause 24, page 46, line 4, leave out subsection (3)

Neil O'Brien 35

Patrick Spencer

Clause 24, page 46, line 18, at end insert “or,

“(c) providing services to the child or their family under section 17 of the Children Act 1989.”

Neil O'Brien 34

Patrick Spencer

Clause 24, page 47, line 6, at end insert—

“(8A) Where a local authority refuses consent in respect of a child who meets the criteria for Condition A, the local authority must provide the parents or carers of the relevant child with a statement of reasons for the decision.

(8B) A statement of reasons provided under subsection (8A) must include an assessment of the costs and benefits to the child.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require a local authority to submit a statement of reasons when they do not agree for a child who meets Condition A to be home educated.

Neil O'Brien 62

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 25, page 49, leave out lines 20 to 21

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove a requirement for the register of children not in school to include details of how much time a child spends being educated by parents.

Neil O'Brien

63

Patrick Spencer

- ☆ Clause 25, page 49, line 23, after “parent” insert “in respect of each individual or organisation which provides such education for more than six hours a week”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that information relating to short activities such as those operated by museums, libraries, companies and charities, as well as individual private tutoring activities, would only need to be recorded on the register of children not in school if they are provided for more than six hours a week.

Neil O'Brien

64

Patrick Spencer

- ☆ Clause 25, page 49, line 36, at end insert—

“(1A) The requirements of subsection (1)(e) do not apply to provision provided on weekends or during school holidays.”

Neil O'Brien

65

Patrick Spencer

- ☆ Clause 25, page 50, line 41, at end insert—

“(2A) The Secretary of State may only require further information about children to be included on the register by introducing regulations subject to the affirmative procedure.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to introduce regulations, subject to agreement in Parliament, when seeking to require additional information to be included in the register of children not in school.

Neil O'Brien

67

Patrick Spencer

- ☆ Clause 25, page 52, line 33, after “436B)” insert “but does not include any person or provider that is providing out-of-school education to home-educated children on weekends or during school holidays.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that providers of out-of-school education would not be required to provide information to local authorities in respect of education they provide on weekends or during school holidays to home-schooled children.

Neil O'Brien

66

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 25, page 52, line 40, after “way” insert “, but may not refer to an amount of time that is less than or equal to six hours a week.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that providers of out-of-school education would not be required to provide information to local authorities where they provide education for fewer than six hours a week.

Neil O'Brien

68

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 25, page 54, line 43, at end insert—

“(9) The Secretary of State shall publish annually the GCSE results of children listed on the register.

(10) The Secretary of State shall ensure that the GCSE results of children on the register are included for each set of outcome data published by the Government.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to record outcome data for children on the register as a subsection of each set of performance data published by the Department for Education.

Neil O'Brien

69

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 26, page 63, line 18, at end insert—

“(7) A school may submit an appeal against a school nomination notice to the School Admissions Adjudicator for the reasons given in this part and for any other reason.

(8) During the appeal period, the school will be responsible for the education of the child.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment allows schools to appeal nomination notices.

Neil O'Brien

70

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 31, page 72, line 31, at end insert—

“(1A) Powers under subsection (1) may not be exercised in relation to an academy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment specifies that the Secretary of State should rely on the provisions in Funding Agreements as regards to academies.

Neil O'Brien

71

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 33, page 86, line 12, leave out lines 12 and 13

Neil O'Brien

72

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 33, page 86, line 38, at end insert—

“(2D) The Secretary of State must issue guidance for relevant institutions on how subsection (2)(g) is to be understood.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment to allow independent schools not to have to notify the Secretary of State about change of use for buildings.

Neil O'Brien

73

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 40, page 99, line 23, at end insert—

“(1A) In section 133 (requirement to be qualified), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) The requirement in subsection (1)(a) only applies after a person has been carrying out such work in a school for five years.””

Neil O'Brien

74

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 40, page 99, line 23, at end insert—

“(1A) In section 133 (requirement to be qualified), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) Where a person was carrying out such work at the time of the passing of the Children's Wellbeing and Schools Act 2025, the requirement in subsection (1)(a) does not apply.””

Neil O'Brien

75

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 40, page 99, line 23, at end insert—

“(1A) In section 133 (requirement to be qualified), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) Where a person is carrying out such work for the purposes of teaching a shortage subject, the requirement in subsection (1)(a) does not apply.

(1B) For the purposes of this section, “shortage subject” means any subject in relation to which the Department for Education’s recruitment targets for initial teacher training have been missed in the most recent year for which such statistics exist.””

Neil O'Brien

76

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 40, page 99, line 23, at end insert—

“(1A) In section 133 (requirement to be qualified), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) Where a person is carrying out such work in an academy school, the requirement in subsection (1)(a) does not apply where the condition in subsection (1B) is met.

(1B) The condition is that—

- (a) the individual is employed by the proprietor of an academy;
- (b) the proprietor of the academy is satisfied that the individual has sufficient expertise to enable them to undertake such work appropriately; and
- (c) the proprietor will provide the individual with appropriate training, support and guidance to ensure that they are able to undertake such work appropriately.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment allows academies to maintain discretion about whether to employ teachers without QTS if they are subject matter experts and have received training from the academy.

Neil O'Brien

78

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 43, page 102, leave out lines 35 and 36

Neil O'Brien

79

Patrick Spencer

- ☆ Clause 43, page 102, line 37, leave out from “may” to the end of line 3 on page 103 and insert “exercise their powers under the funding agreement to terminate or require performance of the funding agreement in accordance with its terms.”

Neil O'Brien
Patrick Spencer

77

- ☆ Clause 43, page 103, line 3, at end insert—

“(2A) Where the Secretary of State exercises functions under this section, the Secretary of State must make a statement in the House of Commons which explains the actions taken and the reasons for taking such actions.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to make a statement to Parliament each time the Secretary of State uses the powers in this clause.

Neil O'Brien
Patrick Spencer

80

- ☆ Clause 44, page 103, leave out from line 25 to line 8 on page 104 and insert—

- “(a) in subsection (A1), after “measures)” insert “unless the Secretary of State determines that no suitable sponsor is available”;
- (b) after subsection (A1) insert—

“(A2) Where the Secretary of State determines that no suitable sponsor is available, the Secretary of State must, within 14 days, publish a plan to secure appropriate governance and leadership of the school and to secure its rapid improvement.

(A3) A plan published under subsection (A2) must include—

- (a) the parties with responsibility for the school and its improvement;
- (b) the parties who will take action to improve provision in the school;
- (c) the resources that will be provided to the relevant parties, including who will provide the resources and when the resources will be provided; and
- (d) the intended outcomes of the plan, with the relevant timetables for the outcomes.

(A4) The Secretary of State must report annually to Parliament on—

- (a) the number of times the Secretary of State has published a plan under subsection (A2);
- (b) the resources which have been provided as part of any plans; and
- (c) the outcomes of any plans.””

Neil O'Brien

81

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 44, page 103, line 28, at end insert—

“(c) after subsection (1), insert—

“(1ZA) The Secretary of State must make an Academy order in respect of a maintained school in England if—

- (a) Ofsted has judged the school to require significant improvement; or
- (b) a Regional Improvement for Standards and Excellence team has judged the school to be significantly underperforming when compared with neighbouring schools with similar demographics.””

Neil O'Brien

82

Patrick Spencer

☆ Clause 44, page 103, line 28, at end insert—

“(c) after subsection (7), insert—

“(7A) No application or petition for judicial review may be made or brought in relation to a decision taken by the Secretary of State to make an Academy order.””

To move the following Clause—

“Care leavers not to be regarded as becoming homeless intentionally

- (1) In section 191 of the Housing Act 1996 (becoming homeless intentionally)—
- (a) after subsection (1) insert—
- “(1ZA) But a person does not become homeless intentionally in a case described in any of subsections (1A) to (1C).”;
- (b) in subsection (1A), for the words before paragraph (a) substitute “The first case is where—”;
- (c) after subsection (1A) insert—
- “(1B) The second case is where the person is a relevant child within the meaning given by section 23A(2) of the Children Act 1989.
- (1C) The third case is where the person is a former relevant child within the meaning given by section 23C(1) of that Act and aged under 25.”;
- (d) in subsection (3), in the words before paragraph (a), after “person” insert “, other than a person described in subsection (1B) or (1C),”.
- (2) The amendments made by this section do not apply in relation to an application of a kind mentioned in section 183(1) of the Housing Act 1996 made before the date on which this section comes into force, except where the local housing authority deciding the application has not yet decided the matters set out in section 184(1)(a) and (b) of that Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

The Housing Act 1996 requires local housing authorities to assist persons with securing accommodation in certain circumstances and limits the requirement in relation to persons who have become homeless intentionally. This amendment would prevent the limitation applying in relation to certain young persons formerly looked after by local authorities.

In the Children and Families Act 2014, after section 40 insert—

“40A Reporting of local authority performance

- (1) Local authorities must publish regular information relating to their fulfilment of duties relating to EHC needs assessments and EHC plans under this part.
- (2) Such information must include—
 - (a) the authority's performance against the requirements of this Act and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014 relating to the timeliness with which action needs to be taken by the authority in relation to EHC needs assessments and EHC plans;

- (b) explanations for any failures to meet relevant deadlines or timeframes;
 - (c) proposals for improving the authority's performance.
- (3) Information published under this section must be published—
- (a) on a monthly basis;
 - (b) on the local authority's website; and
 - (c) in a form which is easily accessible and understandable.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require local authorities to publish their performance against the statutory deadlines in the EHCP process.

To move the following Clause—

“Provision of free meals and activities during school holidays

- (1) A local authority must—
 - (a) provide; or
 - (b) coordinate the provision of programmes which provide, free meals and activities to relevant children during school holidays.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, “relevant children” means children in receipt of free school meals.
- (3) The Secretary of State may, by regulations made by statutory instrument—
 - (a) specify minimum standards for meals and activities during school holidays;
 - (b) specify criteria that organisations involved in the delivery of meals and activities during school holidays must meet.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would place a duty on local authorities to provide or coordinate free meals and activities for children eligible for free school meals during school holidays.

To move the following Clause—

“Power to prescribe pay and conditions for teachers

The Secretary of State must, within three months of the passing of this Act—

- (a) make provision for the power of the governing bodies of maintained schools to set the pay and working conditions of school teachers to be made equivalent with the relevant powers of academies;
- (b) provide guidance to all applicable schools that—
 - (i) pay levels given in the School Teachers’ Pay and Conditions Document are to be treated as the minimum pay of relevant teachers;
 - (ii) teachers may be paid above the pay levels given in the School Teachers’ Pay and Conditions Document.
 - (iii) they must have regard to the School Teachers’ Pay and Conditions Document but may vary from it in the best interests of their pupils and staff.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would make the pay set out in the School Teachers’ Pay and Conditions Document a floor, and extend freedoms over pay and conditions to local authority maintained schools.

“512ZAA Identification of children eligible for free school meals

- (1) The Secretary of State must identify all children eligible for free school meals in England.
- (2) A child’s eligibility for free school meals is not dependent on any application having been made for free school meals on their behalf.

- (3) Where a child has been identified as eligible for free school meals, the Secretary of State must provide for this information to be shared with—
 - (a) the school at which the child is registered; and
 - (b) the relevant local education authority.

“Abolition of common law defence of reasonable punishment

- (1) The Children Act 2004 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 58 (Reasonable Punishment: England), omit subsections (1) to (4).
- (3) After section 58, insert—

“58A Abolition of common law defence of reasonable punishment

- (1) The common law defence of reasonable punishment is abolished in relation to corporal punishment of a child taking place in England.
- (2) Corporal punishment of a child taking place in England cannot be justified in any civil or criminal proceedings on the ground that it constituted reasonable punishment.
- (3) Corporal punishment of a child taking place in England cannot be justified in any civil or criminal proceedings on the ground that it constituted acceptable conduct for the purposes of any other rule of the common law.
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (1) to (3) “corporal punishment” means any battery carried out as a punishment.

- (5) The Secretary of State may make regulations for transitory, transitional or saving provision in connection with the coming into force of this section.
- (6) The power to make regulations under subsection (5) is exercisable by statutory instrument.

58B Promotion of public awareness and reporting

- (1) The Secretary of State must take steps before the coming into force of section 58A to promote public awareness of the changes to the law to be made by that section.
- (2) The Secretary of State must, five years after its commencement, prepare a report on the effect of the changes to the law made by section 58A.
- (3) The Secretary of State must, as soon as practicable after preparing a report under this section—

To move the following Clause—

"Consultation on the structures of governance for local authority and academy schools

- (1) The Secretary of State must conduct a public consultation on the current structures of governance within both local authority and academy schools.
- (2) The consultation conducted under subsection (1) must consider—
 - (a) the role of school governors;
 - (b) the statutory duties of school governors;
 - (c) ways to encourage people to become school governors; and

- (d) any other matters that the Secretary of State may see fit.
- (3) The Secretary of State must issue the consultation conducted under subsection (1) within one year of the commencement of this Act.
- (4) The Secretary of State must, within three months of the consultation closing, publish and lay before Parliament his response to the consultation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause instigates a review of school governance in light of the severe shortage of school governors and the increasing responsibilities that volunteer governors are taking on.

To move the following Clause—

“Establishment of Child Protection Authority

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within six months of the passing of this Act, establish a Child Protection Authority for England.
- (2) The purpose of such an Authority will be to—
 - (a) improve practice in child protection;
 - (b) provide advice and make recommendations to the Government on child protection policy and reforms to improve child protection;
 - (c) inspect institutions and settings at some times and in such ways as it considers necessary and appropriate to ensure compliance with child protection standards; and
 - (d) monitor the implementation of the recommendations of the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse and other inquiries relating to the protection of children.
- (3) The Authority must act with a view to—
 - (a) safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children;
 - (b) ensuring that institutions and settings fulfil their responsibilities in relation to child protection.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would seek to fulfil the second recommendation of the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse in establishing a Child Protection Authority for England.

To move the following Clause—

“National offer for care leavers

In the Children and Social Work Act 2017, after section 2 insert—

“2A National offer for care leavers

- (1) The Secretary of State for Education must publish information about services which care leavers in all areas of England should be able to access to assist them in adulthood and independent living or in preparing for adulthood and independent living.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), services which may assist care leavers in adulthood and independent living or in preparing for adulthood and independent living include services relating to—
 - (a) health and well-being;
 - (b) relationships;
 - (c) education and training;
 - (d) employment;
 - (e) accommodation;
 - (f) participation in society.
- (3) Information published by the Secretary of State under this section is to be known as the “National Offer for Care Leavers”.
- (4) The Secretary of State must update the National Offer for Care Leavers from time to time.
- (5) Before publishing or updating the National Offer for Care Leavers the Secretary of State must consult with relevant persons about which services may assist care leavers in adulthood and independent living or in preparing for adulthood and independent living.
- (6) In this section—
 - “care leavers” means—
 - (a) eligible children within the meaning given by paragraph 19B of Schedule 2 to the Children Act 1989;
 - (b) relevant children within the meaning given by section 23A(2) of that Act;
 - (c) persons aged under 25 who are former relevant children within the meaning given by section 23C(1) of that Act;
 - (d) persons qualifying for advice and assistance within the meaning given by section 24 of that Act;
 - “relevant persons” means—
 - (a) such care leavers as appear to the Secretary of State to be representative of care leavers in England; and

- (b) other Ministers of State who have a role in arranging services that may assist care leavers in or preparing for independent living.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would introduce a new requirement on the Secretary of State for Education to publish a national offer detailing what support care leavers are entitled to claim by expanding the provisions in the Children and Social Work Act 2017 which require local authorities to produce a “Local offer”.

To move the following Clause—

“Establishment of National Wellbeing Measurement Programme

- (1) The Secretary of State must establish a national children and young people’s wellbeing measurement programme.
- (2) A programme established under this section must—
 - (a) conduct a national survey of the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people in relevant schools in England;
 - (b) support schools in the administration of the survey;

- (c) make provision for parental and student consent to participation in the survey, ensuring that participation is voluntary and that results are handled confidentially; and
 - (d) regularly publish the results of the survey and provide relevant data to participating schools, local authorities and other public bodies for the purposes of improving children and young people’s wellbeing.
- (3) A programme established under this section must—
- (a) be developed and piloted within two years of the passing of this Act;
 - (b) be fully implemented in England no later than the start of the academic year three years after the passing of this Act;
 - (c) be reviewed as to its effectiveness by the Secretary of State every three years.
- (4) Any review of the programme under subsection (3)(c) must be published and laid before Parliament.
- (5) For the purposes of this section “relevant school” means –
- (a) an academy school,
 - (b) an alternative provision Academy,
 - (c) a maintained school,
 - (d) a non-maintained special school,
 - (e) an independent school, or
 - (f) a pupil referral unit,
- other than where established in a hospital.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would place a duty on the Secretary of State to introduce a national programme to regularly measure and report on the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people in schools.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Flexibility to not follow the National Curriculum

- (1) The Education Act 2002 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 79(4), omit from “include” to the end of paragraph (a).
- (3) In section 80—
 - (a) in subsection (1)(b), omit “known as” and insert “which may be, or include,”;
 - (b) after subsection (1), insert—
 - “(1A) Any curriculum taught under subsection (1)(b) which is not the National Curriculum for England must not be of a lower standard than the National Curriculum for England.

(1B) All curriculums must be assessed by the Chief Inspector to be of high quality.”.

(4) In section 88—

- (a) in subsection (1), omit from “that the” to “is implemented” and insert “a balanced and broadly based curriculum”;
- (b) in subsection (1A), omit from “that the” to “are implemented” and insert “appropriate assessment arrangements”.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would allow local authority maintained schools to offer a curriculum that is different from the national curriculum but that is broad and balanced. It extends academy freedoms over the curriculum to maintained schools.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Ban on mobile telephones and other devices in schools

- (1) All schools in England, subject to subsection (4), must have a policy that prohibits the use and carrying of certain devices during the school day.
- (2) A policy implemented under subsection (1)—
 - (a) may provide for exemptions from the policy, or for an alternative policy, for sixth form students, in so far as such exemptions or alternative policies do not negatively impact upon the wider policy;
 - (b) is to be implemented as the relevant school leader considers appropriate.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—
 - “certain devices” means mobile phones and other devices which provide similar functionality and whose main purpose is not the support of learning or study;
 - “the school day” includes all time between the start of the first lesson period and the end of the final lesson period.
- (4) A policy under this section implemented by a boarding school or residential school may include appropriate guidance for the use of certain devices during other periods which their pupils are on school premises, subject to such policies safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children in accordance with relevant national standards.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require all schools in England to ban the use of mobile telephones, and other devices with similar functionality, during the school day.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Report on Alternative Provision

- (1) Within one year of the passing of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Secretary of State must publish a report on alternative provision commissioned by schools or local authorities in England.
- (2) “Alternative provision” means that commissioned for—
 - (a) permanently excluded pupils;
 - (b) pupils educated out of school for reasons of illness or disability; and
 - (c) other pupils who would not receive suitable education without such provision; and includes education provided in alternative provision academies and pupil referral units.
- (3) A report published under this section must include the action the Government has taken in the previous year to improve achievement, attendance and behaviour in alternative provision settings.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to report on the action it has taken each year to improve alternative provision.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Duty for schools to report acts of violence against staff to the police

- (1) Where an act listed in subsection (2) takes place which involves the use or threat of force against a member of a school’s staff, the school must report the incident to the police.
- (2) An act must be reported to the police where—
 - (a) it is directed towards a member of school staff or their property; and
 - (b) it takes place—
 - (i) on school property; or
 - (ii) because of the victim’s status as a member of a school’s staff.
- (3) The provisions of this section do not require or imply a duty on the police to take specific actions in response to such reports.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would create a duty for all schools to report acts or threats of violence against their staff to the police. It would not create a requirement for the police to charge the perpetrator.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Bereavement policy in schools

- (1) The governing body of a relevant school in England has a duty to develop and publish a bereavement policy.
- (2) A policy developed under this section must include—
 - (a) a process for supporting a pupil or staff member facing or following bereavement;
 - (b) details of how the school will incorporate opportunities to learn about death and bereavement as part of life in its taught curriculum;
 - (c) details of partnership arrangements with child bereavement services; and
 - (d) arrangements for staff training.
- (3) In developing a policy under this section, the governing body of the school must consult with bereaved pupils and their parents or carers.
- (4) The Secretary of State must provide, or make arrangements for the provision of, appropriate financial and other support to school governing bodies for their purposes of facilitating the fulfilling of the duty in this section.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, “relevant school” means—
 - (a) an academy school,
 - (b) an alternative provision Academy,
 - (c) a maintained school,
 - (d) a non-maintained special school,

- (e) an independent school, or
- (f) a pupil referral unit.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require schools to develop and publish a bereavement policy.
