CHAPTER 1

RESPECT ORDERS, YOUTH INJUNCTIONS AND HOUSING INJUNCTIONS 5

1 Respect orders

- (1) The Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 is amended as follows.
- (2) Before Part 1 insert—

“PART A1 10

RESPECT ORDERS

*Respect ordersA1 Power to make respect orders

- (1) A court may make an order under this section (“a respect order”) against a person aged 18 or over (“the respondent”) if— 15
- (a) the court is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the respondent has engaged in or threatens to engage in anti-social behaviour, and 20
- (b) the court considers it just and convenient to make the order for the purpose of preventing the 25

- respondent from engaging in anti-social behaviour.
- (2) A respect order may for the purpose of preventing the respondent from engaging in anti-social behaviour— 5
- (a) prohibit the respondent from doing anything described in the order;
 - (b) require the respondent to do anything described in the order.
- (3) Prohibitions and requirements in a respect order must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid— 10
- (a) any interference with the times, if any, at which the respondent normally works or attends any educational establishment; 15
 - (b) any conflict with the requirements of any other court order or injunction to which the respondent is subject. 20
- (4) A respect order must—
- (a) specify the period for which it has effect, or
 - (b) state that it has effect until further order. 25
- (5) A respect order may specify periods for which particular prohibitions or requirements have effect.

- (6) A respect order may be made only on the application of a relevant authority.
- (7) An application for a respect order may be made to the High Court or the county court. 5
- (8) A court may treat an application for a respect order as an application under section 1A (power to grant housing injunctions) for an injunction under that section. 10
- (9) In this Part, “anti-social behaviour” means conduct that has caused, or is likely to cause, harassment, alarm or distress to any person.
- B1 Section A1: meaning of “relevant authority” 15
- (1) This section applies for the purposes of section A1.
- (2) “Relevant authority” means— 20
- (a) a local authority,
 - (b) a housing provider,
 - (c) the chief officer of police for a police area,
 - (d) the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force, 25
 - (e) Transport for London,
 - (f) Transport for Greater Manchester,
 - (g) the Environment Agency,

- (h) the Natural Resources Body for Wales,
 - (i) the Secretary of State exercising security management functions, or a Special Health Authority exercising security management functions on the direction of the Secretary of State, or 5
 - (j) the Welsh Ministers exercising security management functions, or a person exercising security management functions on the direction of the Welsh Ministers or under arrangements made between the Welsh Ministers and that person. 10 15
- (3) In subsection (2) “security management functions” means—
- (a) the Secretary of State's security management functions within the meaning given by section 195(3) of the National Health Service Act 2006; 20
 - (b) the functions of the Welsh Ministers corresponding to those functions. 25
- (4) A housing provider may make an application for a respect order only if the application concerns anti-social behaviour that directly or indirectly

- relates to or affects its housing management functions.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4) the housing management functions of a housing provider include— 5
- (a) functions conferred by or under an enactment;
 - (b) the powers and duties of the housing provider as the holder of an estate or interest in housing accommodation. 10
- (6) In subsection (5), “housing accommodation” includes—
- (a) flats, lodging-houses and hostels;
 - (b) any yard, garden, outhouses and appurtenances belonging to the accommodation or usually enjoyed with it; 15
 - (c) any common areas used in connection with the accommodation. 20
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) amend this section;
 - (b) amend section N1 in relation to expressions used in this section. 25

Contents of respect orders

C1 Power to exclude person from home in cases of violence or risk of harm

- (1) A respect order may have the effect of excluding the respondent from the place where the respondent normally lives (“the premises”) only if two conditions are met. 5
- (2) The first condition is that the order is made on the application of— 10
 - (a) a local authority,
 - (b) the chief officer of police for the police area that the premises are in, or
 - (c) if the premises are owned or managed by a housing provider, that housing provider. 15
- (3) The second condition is that the court considers that—
 - (a) the anti-social behaviour in which the respondent has engaged or threatens to engage consists of or includes the use or threatened use of violence against other persons, or 20
 - (b) there is a significant risk of harm to other persons from the respondent. 25

- (4) For the purposes of this section a housing provider owns premises if—
- (a) the housing provider is a person (other than a mortgagee not in possession) entitled to dispose of the fee simple of the premises, whether in possession or in reversion, or 5
 - (b) the housing provider is a person who holds or is entitled to the rents and profits of the premises under a lease that (when granted) was for a term of 3 years or more. 10

D1 Requirements included in respect of orders 15

- (1) A respect order that includes a requirement must specify the person (“the supervisor”) who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement. 20
The supervisor may be an individual or an organisation.
- (2) Before including a requirement, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from— 25
- (a) the individual to be specified as the supervisor, if an individual is to be specified;

- (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified as the supervisor, if an organisation is to be specified.
- (3) Before including two or more requirements, the court must consider their compatibility with each other. 5
- (4) Where a court includes in a respect order a requirement the effect of which the court considers is to require the respondent to participate in a particular activity— 10
 - (a) the court must declare the requirement to be an “activity requirement” for the purposes of this Part, and 15
 - (b) the order must specify that the court has done so.
- (5) It is the duty of a person specified as the supervisor in relation to a requirement— 20
 - (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the supervisor has responsibility (the “relevant requirements”); 25
 - (b) to promote the respondent's compliance with the relevant requirements;

- (c) to inform the person who applied for the order and (if different) the appropriate chief officer of police if the supervisor considers that the respondent has complied with all the relevant requirements. 5
- (6) If the supervisor considers that the respondent has failed to comply with a relevant requirement, the supervisor must inform the person who applied for the order and (if different) the appropriate chief officer of police unless— 10
- (a) the supervisor considers that the respondent had a reasonable excuse for the failure, or 15
- (b) section H1 applies (duty to give warning for breach of activity requirement).
- (7) A respondent subject to a requirement included in a respect order must— 20
- (a) keep in touch with the supervisor in relation to that requirement, in accordance with any instructions given by the supervisor from time to time; 25
- (b) notify the supervisor of any change of address.
- These obligations have effect as requirements of the order. 30

- (8) In this section, “the appropriate chief officer of police” means—
 - (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in which it appears to the supervisor that the respondent lives, or 5
 - (b) if it appears to the supervisor that the respondent lives in more than one police area, whichever of the relevant chief officers of police the supervisor considers it most appropriate to inform. 10

Procedure

E1 Applications without notice

- (1) An application for a respect order may be made without notice being given to the respondent. 15
- (2) If an application is made without notice, the court must do one of the following—
 - (a) adjourn the proceedings and make an interim order (see section F1); 20
 - (b) adjourn the proceedings without making an interim order;
 - (c) dismiss the application.
- (3) Rules of court may provide that an appeal from a decision of the High Court or the county court— 25

- (a) to dismiss an application for a respect order made without notice being given to the respondent, or
 - (b) to refuse to make an interim order when adjourning proceedings following such an application, 5
- may be made without notice being given to the respondent.

F1 Interim respect orders

- (1) This section applies where the court adjourns the hearing of an application (whether made with notice or without) for a respect order. 10
- (2) The court may make a respect order lasting until the final hearing of the application or until further order (an “interim respect order”) if the court considers it just to do so. 15
- (3) An interim respect order made at a hearing of which the respondent was not given notice may not have the effect of requiring the respondent to participate in particular activities. 20
- (4) Subject to that, the court has the same powers in relation to an interim respect order as it has in relation to a respect order made at a final hearing. 25

G1 Variation and discharge of respect orders

- (1) The court may vary or discharge a respect order on the application of—
 - (a) the person who applied for the order, or 5
 - (b) the respondent.
- (2) In subsection (1) “the court” means the court that made the order.
- (3) The power to vary an order includes power to include an additional prohibition or requirement in the order, or to extend the period for which a prohibition or requirement has effect. 10
- (4) If an application under this section is dismissed, the party who made the dismissed application may make no further application under this section without— 15
 - (a) the consent of the court, or 20
 - (b) the agreement of the other party.
- (5) Section D1 applies to additional requirements included under subsection (3) as it applies to requirements included in a new order. 25

*Breaches of respect ordersH1 Duty to give warning for breach of activity requirement

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) the supervisor responsible for an activity requirement is of the opinion that the respondent has without reasonable excuse failed to comply with the requirement, and 5
 - (b) the respondent has not been given a warning under this section in relation to the requirement within the period of 12 months ending with the date of the failure. 10
- (2) The supervisor must give the respondent a warning in relation to the requirement which— 15
- (a) must be in writing,
 - (b) must describe the circumstances of the failure to comply, and 20
 - (c) must inform the respondent that if the respondent breaches the activity requirement again within the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the warning is given, the respondent will be liable to prosecution under section 11. 25

- (3) A warning under this section may be given to a person—
 - (a) by hand, or
 - (b) by sending it by first class post addressed to the person at the person’s last known address. 5
- (4) As soon as practicable after giving a warning under this section, the supervisor must record that fact.
- (5) In this section, “supervisor” has the meaning given by section D1(1). 10

I1 Offence of breach of respect order

- (1) It is an offence for a person without reasonable excuse—
 - (a) to do anything the person is prohibited from doing by a respect order, or 15
 - (b) to fail to do anything the person is required to do by a respect order.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply in relation to a failure to comply with an activity requirement unless, within the period of 12 months ending with the date of the failure, the person has been given a warning under section H1 in relation to that requirement. 20
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable— 25

- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both); 5
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 2 years or a fine (both).
- (4) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this section it is not open to the court by or before which the person is convicted to make, in respect of the offence, an order for conditional discharge. 10
- (5) In proceedings for an offence under this section, a copy of the original order, certified by the proper officer of the court which made it, is admissible as evidence of its having been made and of its contents to the same extent that oral evidence of those things is admissible in those proceedings. 15

Supplementary

Offence of child criminal exploitation

17 Child criminal exploitation

- (1) A person aged 18 or over commits an offence if—
- (a) the person engages in conduct towards or in respect of a child, with the intention of causing the child to engage in criminal conduct (at any time), and 10
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the child is under the age of 13, or 15
 - (ii) the person does not reasonably believe that the child is aged 18 or over.
- (2) In this Chapter—
- “child” means a person under the age of 18; 20
 - “criminal conduct” means—
 - (a) conduct which constitutes an offence under the law of England and Wales, or 25

- (b) conduct which would constitute such an offence if either or both of the following were the case (insofar as they are not the case)—

Child criminal exploitation prevention orders made otherwise than on conviction

18 Power to make CCE prevention order

- (1) This section applies if— 20
- (a) an application for a CCE prevention order in respect of a person is made to a magistrates' court, in accordance with section 20,
 - (b) a person is acquitted of any offence, by or before a court, 25

- (c) the Crown Court allows a person’s appeal against a conviction for any offence, or

 - (i) the person is not guilty of any offence by reason of insanity, or
 - (ii) the person is under a disability and has done the act charged against them in respect of any offence. 10
- (2) The court may make an order under section 19 (a “CCE prevention order”) in respect of the person (“the defendant”) if they are aged 18 or over and the conditions in subsection (3) to (5) are met. 15
- (3) The first condition is that—
 - (a) in any case, the court is satisfied that the defendant has engaged in conduct associated with causing children to engage in criminal conduct, or 20
 - (b) in a case within subsection (1)(d), the offence in question is an offence under section 17.
- (4) The second condition is that the court considers that there is a risk that the defendant will seek to cause children, or any particular children, to engage in criminal conduct. 25

- (5) The third condition is that the court considers that it is necessary to make the order to protect children, or any particular children, from being caused to engage in criminal conduct. 5
- (6) In subsection (3)(a) the reference to conduct “associated with” causing children to engage in criminal conduct includes in particular grooming children, or encouraging others to groom children, with the intention that they will in future engage in criminal conduct. 10
- (7) In subsection (3) the reference to conduct or an offence includes conduct or an offence occurring before (as well as after) this section comes into force. 15

19 CCE prevention orders

- (1) A CCE prevention order is an order which—
- (a) prohibits the defendant from doing anything described in the order; 20
 - (b) requires the defendant to do anything described in the order.
- The order may in particular require the defendant to comply with section 24 (notification). 25
- (2) A court may include a prohibition or requirement only if it considers it necessary for the purpose of protecting children, or

- any particular children, from being caused to engage in criminal conduct.
- (3) Prohibitions and requirements must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid—
- (a) any conflict with any religious beliefs of the defendant; 5
 - (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the defendant normally works or attends any educational establishment; 10
 - (c) any conflict with the prohibitions and requirements of any other court order or injunction to which the defendant is subject.
- (4) A prohibition or requirement applies throughout the United Kingdom unless expressly limited to a particular area. 15
- (5) A CCE prevention order must—
- (a) specify the period for which it has effect, which must be at least two years, or 20
 - (b) state that it has effect until further order.
- (6) A CCE prevention order may specify periods for which particular prohibitions or requirements have effect. 25
- (7) Where a court makes a CCE prevention order in respect of a defendant who is already subject to such an order, the earlier order ceases to have effect.

*Procedure20 Applications for CCE prevention orders

- (1) An application for a CCE prevention order may be made by—
- (a) a relevant chief officer of police, 5
 - (b) the Chief Constable of the British Transport Police Force,
 - (c) the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police, or
 - (d) the Director General of the National Crime Agency. 10
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) a chief officer of police is a “relevant chief officer of police” in relation to an application if— 15
- (a) the defendant lives in the chief officer's police area, or
 - (b) the chief officer believes that the defendant is in, or is intending to come to, the chief officer's police area. 20
- (3) Where a person within subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d) makes an application, the person must as soon as practicable notify the chief officer of police for—
- (a) the police area in which the defendant lives, or 25

(b) the police area which the applicant believes the defendant is in or is intending to come to, of that application.

21 Applications without notice 5

(1) An application for a CCE prevention order may be made without notice to the defendant.

(2) If an application is made without notice the court must do one of the following— 10

(a) adjourn the proceedings and make an interim CCE prevention order (see section 22);

(b) adjourn the proceedings without making an interim order; 15

(c) dismiss the application.

22 Interim CCE prevention orders

(1) This section applies where the court adjourns the hearing of an application (whether made with or without notice) for a CCE prevention order. 20

(2) The court may, if it considers it necessary to do so, make a CCE prevention order lasting for a fixed period or until the determination of the application (an “interim CCE prevention order”). 25

- Section 19(5) does not apply in relation to an interim CCE prevention order.
- (3) The only requirement that may be imposed by an interim CCE prevention order on the defendant is a requirement to comply with section 24 (notification). 5
- (4) Subject to that, the court has the same powers in relation to an interim CCE prevention order as it has in relation to an order made at a final hearing. 10
- (5) An interim CCE prevention order made at a hearing of which the defendant was not given notice takes effect on being served on the defendant.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents the variation of the duration of an interim CCE prevention order, or the discharge of such an order, under section 25. 15
- 23 Procedural powers where no application made 20
- (1) This section applies in the circumstances mentioned in section 18(1)(b), (c) or (d).
- (2) For the purpose of deciding whether to make a CCE prevention order, the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and evidence led by the defendant. 25

- (3) It does not matter whether the evidence would have been admissible in the proceedings giving to the circumstances referred to in subsection (1).
 - (4) The court may adjourn any proceedings relating to the making of a CCE prevention order. 5
 - (5) If the defendant does not appear for any adjourned proceedings, the court may—
 - (a) further adjourn the proceedings, 10
 - (b) issue a warrant for the defendant's arrest, or
 - (c) hear the proceedings in the defendant's absence.
 - (6) The court may act under subsection (5)(b) only if satisfied that the defendant has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings. 15
 - (7) The court may act under subsection (5)(c) only if satisfied that the defendant—
 - (a) has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings, and
 - (b) has been informed that if the defendant does not appear for those proceedings, the court may hear the proceedings in the defendant's absence. 20 25
 - (8) Nothing in this section limits any other powers of the court.

- (2) Before the end of the period of three days beginning with the day on which a CCE prevention order requiring the defendant to comply with this section is first served, the defendant must notify to the police— 10
- (a) the defendant's name and, where the defendant uses one or more other names, each of those names, and

 - (8) In determining the period of three days mentioned in subsection (2) or (4), no account is to be taken of any time when the defendant is— 25

 - (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in which the defendant lives, or 25
 - (b) where the application is made by a chief officer of police, that chief officer.

This subsection does not apply to an interim CCE prevention order.

 - (iii) the designated officer for a magistrates’ court, and

(2) For the purposes of this section, property is “relevant property” if the property was obtained by the defendant as a result of or in connection with the conduct concerned and—

 - “D” is the amount required to be paid under the order.
- (6) The court must vary the order by substituting C for the amount required to be paid.
- (7) The variation of the order under subsection (6) does not—

 - (b) give rise to any obligation to refund any amount already paid by the defendant under the order.

(ii) for paragraph (b) substitute—

“(b) if one or more new calculations of the defendant’s benefit have been made under this section or section 21A, the amount found on the occasion of the last such calculation.”

(4) In section 22 (order made: reconsideration of available amount)—

(a) after subsection (7) insert—

“(7A) Section 11 applies in relation to a confiscation order when it is varied under this section as it applies in relation to a confiscation order when it is made (reading references to the making of the order as references to the varying of the order and references to the day on which the order is made as references to the day on which the order is varied).

(7B) Where section 12 applies in relation to a confiscation order that has been varied under this section, the reference in section 12(3)(c) to the day on which the order was made is to be read as a reference to the day on which the order was varied.”;

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a court has made a confiscation order, and
- (b) the relevant two-year period has ended.

(2) The Crown Court may, of its own motion or on an application made by a person listed in subsection (3), discharge the confiscation order on a provisional basis if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) The persons are—

- (a) the prosecutor;
- (b) the designated officer for a magistrates’ court;
- (c) a receiver appointed under section 50.

(4) In deciding whether it is in the interests of justice to discharge a confiscation order on a provisional basis the court must, in particular, take into account—

- (a) any amount that the defendant has already paid under the confiscation order;

- (b) the extent to which the amount that remains to be paid under the order represents interest payable under section 12;
 - (c) any steps that have already been taken in relation to the enforcement of the order;
 - (d) the extent to which there are reasonable steps (or further reasonable steps) that could be taken in relation to the enforcement of the order;
 - (e) the amount that the court considers would be recovered if all such reasonable steps (or further reasonable steps) were to be taken.
- (5) The court may discharge a confiscation order on a provisional basis even though the court does not consider that doing so is best calculated to further the principal objective (see section 5A(4)).
- (6) Where an application under this section is refused, a further application in relation to the confiscation order concerned may only be made—
- (a) after the end of the period of two years beginning with the date of the refusal, or

- (b) before the end of that period, with the leave of the court.
- (7) There is no right of appeal against a decision of the court under this section to discharge, or not to discharge, a confiscation order on a provisional basis.
- (8) In subsection (1), the “relevant two-year period” means the period of two years beginning with—
 - (a) the day on which the confiscation order was made, or
 - (b) in a case where the order has been varied under this Part, the day on which the order was varied.

24B Effect of provisional discharge and revocation of discharge

- (1) This section applies where a confiscation order has been discharged under section 24A on a provisional basis.
- (2) The order is to be treated as satisfied subject to the rest of this section.
- (3) The provisional discharge of the order does not prevent the making of an application in respect of the order under section 21, 21A, 22 or 23.

- (4) Where, on an application under any of those provisions, the court varies the order, the court may also revoke the provisional discharge of the order.
- (5) The Crown Court may, on an application made by a person listed in subsection (6), revoke the provisional discharge of the order if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (6) The persons are—
 - (a) the prosecutor;
 - (b) a receiver appointed under section 50.
- (7) In deciding whether it is in the interests of justice to revoke the provisional discharge of a confiscation order the court must, in particular, take into account the matters listed in section 24A(4).
- (8) Where the court revokes the provisional discharge of a confiscation order under this section—
 - (a) the order is, from the time of the revocation, no longer to be treated as satisfied, and
 - (b) accordingly—
 - (i) from that time the proceedings against the defendant are to be treated as not having been concluded (see section 85(5)(a)), and

- (ii) any interest which was payable under section 12 for a period before the provisional discharge of the order but which had not been paid at the time of the provisional discharge becomes payable.
- (9) Where the court revokes the provisional discharge of an order under subsection (5), section 11 applies in relation to any part of the amount ordered to be paid under the order that had not been paid when the order was provisionally discharged as it applies in relation to the full amount ordered to be paid under a confiscation order when it is made.
- (10) Where section 11 applies as mentioned in subsection (9), references in that section to the making of the order are to be read as references to the revocation of the provisional discharge of the order and references to the day on which the order is made as references to the day on which the provisional discharge of the order is revoked.

- (11) Where section 12 applies in relation to a confiscation order following the revocation of a provisional discharge of the order under subsection (5), the reference in section 12(3)(c) to the day on which the order was made is to be read as a reference to the day on which the provisional discharge of the order was revoked.
- (12) There is no right of appeal against a decision of the court under this section to revoke, or not to revoke, the provisional discharge of a confiscation order.

24C Financial status orders

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) the Crown Court has decided of its own motion to consider whether to discharge a confiscation order on a provisional basis,
 - (b) an application has been made under section 24A or 24B, or
 - (c) the court has discharged a confiscation order on a provisional basis and an application has been made under section 21, 21A, 22 or 23.

(2) The court may order the defendant to give the court, before the end of the period specified in the order—

(a) any information about the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances, and

(b) any documentary or other evidence in support of that information, that the court may require in connection with the exercise of its functions under section 24A or 24B."

(3) In the italic heading before section 19, at the end insert "and discharge".

PART 8

ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement plans

18(1) The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 13 insert—

“Measures to promote effectiveness of confiscation orders

13ZA Enforcement plans

- (1) This section applies where a court makes a confiscation order.
- (2) On making the confiscation order, the court must also prepare an enforcement plan for the order if—
 - (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant might default on the confiscation order for any reason, or
 - (b) the court otherwise believes it is appropriate to do so for the purpose of ensuring that the confiscation order is effective.
- (3) An enforcement plan for a confiscation order is a document setting out drafts of one or more orders that the court considers the enforcing court could make in the event that the defendant defaults on the confiscation order.
(For the meaning of “the enforcing court” see section 35D.)
- (4) For the purposes of this section and section 13ZB—

- (a) the defendant defaults on a confiscation order if the defendant fails to pay the amount required to be paid under the order on or before the due date;
 - (b) the “due date”, in relation to a confiscation order, means—
 - (i) in a case where no period is specified under section 11(2), the day on which the confiscation order is made, or
 - (ii) in a case where one or more periods is so specified, the final day of the specified period that ends last (including any such period as extended under section 11(4)).
- (5) Where the court making the confiscation order is the Court of Appeal (see section 67E(5)(b)(i) (appeals)), on making the order the Court of Appeal may direct that the Crown Court is to carry out the duties under this section as if the Crown Court had made the order.

13ZB Enforcement plan: initial enforcement hearing

- (1) This section applies where an enforcement plan is prepared for a confiscation order.
 - (2) The enforcing court must set a date for a hearing to take place in the event that the defendant defaults on the confiscation order, and that date must be the first date then available to the court after the due date.
(See section 35D for the meaning of “the enforcing court” and section 35F for provision about this hearing.)
 - (3) If an order is made under section 11(4) as a result of which the due date in relation to the confiscation order changes, the enforcing court must reset the date for the hearing to the first date then available to the enforcing court after the new due date.
 - (4) If the enforcing court is a magistrates’ court, the duties under this section are to be carried out by the magistrates’ court mentioned in section 35J(2).”
- (3) In section 13A (compliance orders), in subsection (1) at the end insert “(whether or not the court also prepares an enforcement plan under section 13ZA)".

The default term and the powers of the enforcing court

19 (1) The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 is amended as follows.

(2) In the italic heading before section 35, for "as fines etc" substitute ": general".

(3) For section 35 (enforcement as fines) substitute—

"35A Default term of imprisonment or detention

(1) This section applies if a court makes a confiscation order.

(2) The court must also make an order fixing a term (the "default term")—

(a) of imprisonment, or

(b) of detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, which the defendant is to undergo if any of the amount required to be paid under the confiscation order is not duly paid.

(3) Where a court is fixing the default term in respect of an amount required to be paid under a confiscation order, the maximum terms are those specified in the second column of the Table for amounts described in the corresponding entry in the first column.

Amount	Maximum term
£10,000 or less	6 months
More than £10,000 but no more than £500,000	5 years
More than £500,000 but no more than £1 million	7 years
More than £1 million	14 years

- (4) The defendant may not be committed to prison, or detained, by virtue of an order under subsection (2) on the same occasion as the confiscation order is made unless—
- (a) the court is satisfied that the defendant is able to pay the amount on that occasion,
 - (b) the court is satisfied that the defendant is unlikely to remain long enough at a place of abode in the United Kingdom to enable

- payment of the amount to be enforced by other methods,
- (c) on that occasion the court sentences the defendant to immediate imprisonment, custody for life or detention in a young offender institution for an offence, or
 - (d) the defendant is already serving a sentence of custody for life or a term—
 - (i) of imprisonment,
 - (ii) of detention in a young offender institution, or
 - (iii) of detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (detention in default).
- (5) The Secretary of State may by order amend the Table in subsection (3) so as to remove, alter or replace any entry or to add any entry.

35B Effect of part payment on the default term

- (1) This section applies where, after a default term has been fixed under section 35A(2) in respect of an amount required to be paid under a confiscation order, the defendant pays part of that amount in accordance with rules of court.

- (2) The default term is reduced by the number of days found using the following formula—

$$\frac{A}{B} \times C$$

where—

A is the amount of the part payment;

B is the amount that was required to be paid under the order at the time that the default term was fixed;

C is the number of days in the default term that was fixed under section 35A(2) less one day.

- (3) In calculating the reduction required under subsection (2) any fraction of a day is to be left out of account.

35C Release from custody on full payment

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) a default term has been fixed under section 35A(2) in respect

- of an amount required to be paid under a confiscation order, and
 - (b) the defendant pays that amount.
- (2) Where this subsection applies—
- (a) any warrant of commitment issued for the purpose of recovering the amount ceases to have effect, and
 - (b) if the defendant has been committed to custody, the defendant is to be released unless the defendant is in custody for some other cause.

35D The enforcing court

- (1) This section applies if a court makes a confiscation order.
- (2) On making the confiscation order, the court must make an order specifying whether the Crown Court or a magistrates' court is the enforcing court in relation to the confiscation order.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) an order has been made under subsection (2) specifying that a magistrates' court is the enforcing court in relation to a confiscation order, and

- (b) a period has been specified under section 11(2) (specified period for payment) in relation to the confiscation order, a magistrates' court may, at any time on or before the final day of the specified period, order that the Crown Court is instead the enforcing court in relation to the confiscation order.
- (4) The reference in subsection (3) to the period specified under section 11(2)—
 - (a) includes any such period as extended under section 11(4), and
 - (b) where more than one such period has been specified, is a reference to the period that ends last.
- (5) Where an order has been made under subsection (2) or (3) specifying that the Crown Court is the enforcing court in relation to a confiscation order, the Crown Court may, at any time, order that a magistrates' court is instead the enforcing court in relation to the confiscation order.
- (6) A court may make an order under subsection (3) or (5) only if it considers it appropriate to do so for the purpose of securing the efficient and effective enforcement of a confiscation order.

- (7) An order under subsection (3) or (5) may include an order transferring enforcement proceedings to the Crown Court or, as the case may be, to the magistrates' court specified in the order.
 - (8) The defendant has no right of appeal against an order under this section.
 - (9) If—
 - (a) a collection order has been made under Schedule 5 to the Courts Act 2003 in respect of the sum required to be paid under a confiscation order, and
 - (b) after the making of the collection order, an order is made under subsection (3) in relation to the confiscation order,the collection order ceases to have effect.
 - (10) In this section “enforcement proceedings” means any proceedings in connection with the enforcement of a confiscation order.
 - (11) For the purposes of this Part (other than this section), “the enforcing court”, in relation to a confiscation order, means—

- (a) the Crown Court in a case where—
 - (i) an order has been made under subsection (2) or (3) specifying that the Crown Court is the enforcing court in relation to the confiscation order, and
 - (ii) no order has subsequently been made under subsection (5);
- (b) a magistrates' court in any other case.

35E Power for new enforcing court to vary enforcement action taken by former enforcing court

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if at any time—
 - (a) a magistrates' court or the Crown Court becomes the enforcing court ("the new enforcing court") in relation to a confiscation order as a result of an order made under section 35D(3) or (5),
 - (b) before that time the Crown Court or, as the case may be, a magistrates' court took enforcement action under an enforcement power, and

- (c) that action could have been taken by the new enforcing court under a corresponding enforcement power had the new enforcing court been the enforcing court in relation to the order at the time that the enforcement action was taken.
- (2) The new enforcing court may exercise one or more of its enforcement powers to vary or revoke the enforcement action in the same way that it could have exercised such a power had the enforcement action been taken by that court.
 - (3) In this section—
 - (a) references to taking enforcement action mean making an order, issuing a direction, warrant or summons, imposing conditions or taking any other action under an enforcement power;
 - (b) “enforcement power” means any power which may be exercised by a court in connection with the enforcement of a confiscation order.

35F Confiscation order with enforcement plan: initial enforcement hearing

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a court has prepared an enforcement plan for a confiscation order (see section 13ZA), and
 - (b) the defendant defaults on the confiscation order (within the meaning given by section 13ZA(4)).
- (2) If the condition in subsection (4) is met the enforcing court must, at the initial enforcement hearing, make an order or orders in the terms that were set out in draft in the enforcement plan (the “initial enforcement orders”).
- (3) If that condition is not met the enforcing court must, at that hearing, consider what other steps to take for the purposes of enforcing the confiscation order.
- (4) The condition is that the enforcing court believes that—
 - (a) the proceeds of the realisation of property pursuant to the initial enforcement orders would be less than or equal to the amount remaining to be paid under the confiscation order, and

(b) the interests of justice do not require any initial enforcement order not to be made.

(5) In this section “the initial enforcement hearing” means the hearing held pursuant to section 13ZB.

35G Power to compel defendant to attend court for enforcement purposes

(1) This section applies if a court has made a confiscation order.

(2) The enforcing court may, for any purpose in connection with the enforcement of the order—

(a) issue a summons requiring the defendant to appear before the court at the time and place appointed in the summons, or

(b) issue a warrant to arrest the defendant and bring them before the court.

(3) On the failure of the defendant to appear before the court in answer to a summons issued under subsection (2)(a), the enforcing court may issue a warrant to arrest them and bring them before the court.

- (4) A warrant issued under this section may be executed in the same manner, and the same proceedings may be taken with a view to its execution, in any part of the United Kingdom, as if it had been issued under section 13 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980.

35H Financial status orders

- (1) This section applies if a court has made a confiscation order.
- (2) The enforcing court may order the defendant to give the court, before the end of the period specified in the order—
- (a) any information about the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances, and
 - (b) any documentary or other evidence in support of that information,
- that the court may require in connection with the enforcement of the confiscation order.

35I Confiscation assistance advisers

- (1) This section applies if a court has made a confiscation order.
- (2) The enforcing court may appoint any person the court thinks appropriate to advise and assist the defendant in satisfying the confiscation order.
- (3) But a person may only be appointed under subsection (2) with the person's consent.

Enforcement by magistrates' courts

35J Enforcement as a fine by magistrates' court

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a court has made a confiscation order, and
 - (b) a magistrates' court is for the time being the enforcing court (see section 35D).
- (2) The amount required to be paid under the confiscation order is to be treated for the purposes of collection of any unpaid amount and enforcement of the order as a fine imposed on the defendant—

- (a) by a magistrates' court specified in an order made by the Crown Court, or
- (b) if no such order is made, by the magistrates' court by which the defendant was sent to the Crown Court for trial under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, and as having been so imposed on conviction by the magistrates' court in question.

- (3) Subsection (4) applies where a magistrates' court issues a warrant of commitment in default of payment of an amount required to be paid by a confiscation order.
- (4) The term of imprisonment, or detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, specified in the warrant of commitment as the term which the defendant is liable to serve is to be—
 - (a) the default term fixed under section 35A(2), or
 - (b) if that term has been reduced under section 35B(2) (part payment), that term as so reduced.

- (5) In the application of Part 3 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 to an amount payable under a confiscation order—
- (a) ignore section 75 of that Act (power to dispense with immediate payment);
 - (b) ignore section 76(3) of that Act (maximum term of commitment);
 - (c) section 77(2) of that Act is to be read as if the words from “fix a term” to “for default) and” were omitted;
 - (d) ignore section 79 (release from custody and reduction of detention on payment);
 - (e) such an amount is not—
 - (i) a sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction for the purposes of section 81 of that Act (enforcement of fines imposed on young offenders), or
 - (ii) a fine for the purposes of section 85 of that Act (remission of fines);
 - (f) in section 87 of that Act, ignore—
 - (i) subsection (3) (inquiry into means), and
 - (ii) subsection (3A) (requirement for fines officer to conduct means inquiry before enforcement proceedings).

- (6) Subsection (7) applies where, by virtue of section 118, a transfer of fine order under section 222 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 provides for the enforcement by a magistrates' court in England and Wales of an amount ordered to be paid under a confiscation order.
- (7) Section 91(3) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 is to be read as if for "fine fell to be enforced by virtue of section 132(1) of the Sentencing Code" there were substituted "confiscation order fell to be enforced by virtue of section 35J of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002".
- (8) In this section, "unpaid amount", in relation to a confiscation order, means an amount required to be paid by the defendant under the order that has not been paid when it is required to have been paid.

Enforcement by Crown Court: powers corresponding to those of magistrates' courts

35K Enforcement by Crown Court: general

- (1) This section and sections 35L to 35R apply if—
 - (a) a court has made a confiscation order, and
 - (b) the Crown Court is for the time being the enforcing court in relation to the order (see section 35D).
- (2) The amount required to be paid under the confiscation order is to be treated for the purposes of any enactment as if it were a sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction of the Crown Court.
- (3) Payments under the confiscation order are to be made, except where provided otherwise by an enactment or court order, to the designated officer for the collecting magistrates' court.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part, “the collecting magistrates' court”, in relation to a confiscation order, means—

- (a) the magistrates' court specified as the collecting magistrates' court in the order made under section 35D(2) or (as the case may be) (3) in relation to the confiscation order, or
 - (b) if no such specification is made, the magistrates' court by which the defendant was sent to the Crown Court for trial under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1988.
- (5) In sections 35L to 35R, "unpaid amount", in relation to a confiscation order, means an amount required to be paid by the defendant under the order that has not been paid when it is required to have been paid.

35L Warrants of control

- (1) The Crown Court may issue a warrant of control for the purpose of recovering any unpaid amount in relation to the confiscation order.
- (2) The court may, if it thinks it expedient to do so, postpone the issue of the warrant until such time and on such conditions, if any, as the court thinks just.

35M Warrants of commitment

- (1) The Crown Court may issue a warrant of commitment if the defendant defaults on the confiscation order (within the meaning given by section 13ZA(4)).
- (2) But a warrant of commitment may be issued only—
 - (a) where it appears on the return to a warrant of control issued for the purpose of recovering the unpaid amount, that the money and goods of the defendant are insufficient to pay the amount outstanding, or
 - (b) instead of a warrant of control.
- (3) The term of imprisonment, or detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, specified in the warrant of commitment as the term which the defendant is liable to serve is to be—
 - (a) the default term fixed under section 35A(2), or
 - (b) if that term has been reduced under section 35B(2), that term as so reduced.

- (4) In subsection (2)(a) “amount outstanding” has the meaning given by paragraph 50(3) of Schedule 12 to the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007.

35N Postponement of issue of warrant of commitment

- (1) This section applies where the Crown Court has the power to issue a warrant of commitment under section 35M.
- (2) The court may, if it thinks it expedient to do so, postpone the issue of the warrant until such time and on such conditions, if any, as the court thinks just.
- (3) The court may at any time (and whether or not an application has been made under subsection (5)) do either or both of the following—
- (a) direct that the issue of the warrant is postponed until a time different from that to which it was previously postponed;
 - (b) vary any of the conditions on which its issue is postponed, but only if it thinks it just to do so having regard to a change of circumstances since the relevant time.

- (4) In this section “the relevant time” means—
 - (a) where neither of the powers conferred by subsection (3) has been exercised previously, the date when the issue of the warrant was postponed under subsection (2), and
 - (b) in any other case, the date of the exercise or latest exercise of either or both of the powers.
 - (5) Subsections (6) to (8) apply if, on an application by the defendant, it appears to the Crown Court that since the relevant time there has been a change of circumstances which would make it just for the court to exercise one or other or both of the powers conferred by subsection (3).
 - (6) The court must—
 - (a) fix a time and place for the application to be heard, and
 - (b) give notice of that time and place to the defendant.
 - (7) Where notice under subsection (6)(b) has been given but the defendant does not appear at the time and place specified in the notice, the court may consider the application in the defendant's absence.

- (8) If a warrant of commitment has been issued before the hearing of the application, the court may, if it is satisfied that the change of circumstances on which the defendant relies was not put before the court when it was determining whether to issue the warrant—
 - (a) order that the warrant is to cease to have effect, and
 - (b) if the defendant has been arrested under it, order that the defendant is to be released.

350 Restriction on power to issue warrant of commitment

- (1) This section applies in relation to the issue of a warrant of commitment under section 35M otherwise than on the occasion of the making of the confiscation order.
- (2) The court may not issue the warrant unless—
 - (a) the defendant appears to the court to have sufficient means to pay the unpaid amount immediately, or
 - (b) the court—

- (i) is satisfied that the default is due to the defendant's wilful refusal or culpable neglect, and
 - (ii) has considered or tried the methods of enforcing payment listed in subsection (3) and it appears to the court that they are inappropriate or were unsuccessful.
- (3) The methods of enforcing payment mentioned in subsection (2)(b)(ii) are—
 - (a) a warrant of control under section 35L;
 - (b) an application to the High Court or county court for enforcement under section 35Q;
 - (c) an attachment of earnings order.
- (4) The warrant must specify which of the conditions in subsection (2) is satisfied.
- (5) The court may not issue the warrant except at a hearing at which the defendant is present unless the court has served a notice on the defendant—
 - (a) stating—

- (i) that the court intends to hold a hearing to consider whether to issue the warrant;
 - (ii) the time and place appointed for the hearing,
 - (b) giving the reason why the court intends to hold the hearing, and
 - (c) informing the defendant that, if the defendant considers that there are grounds why the warrant should not be issued, the defendant may make representations to the court in person or in writing.
- (6) The court may exercise its powers in relation to the issue of the warrant whether or not the defendant makes representations.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), the time stated in the notice under subsection (5)(a)(ii) must not be earlier than the last day of the period of 21 days beginning with the day after the day on which the notice was issued.
- (8) Where the notice under subsection (5) is issued at the same hearing as that at which the court exercises its power to postpone the issue of the warrant, the time stated in the notice may be a time on any day after the end of the period for which the issue of the warrant is postponed.

- (9) A notice under subsection (5) which is sent by registered post, or by recorded delivery, addressed to the defendant at the defendant's last known address is deemed to have been served on the defendant, even if the notice is returned as undelivered or is for any other reason not received by the defendant.

35P Execution of warrant issued by Crown Court under section 35L or 35M

- (1) Section 125(2) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (execution anywhere in England and Wales) applies in relation to a warrant of control or warrant of commitment issued by the Crown Court under section 35L or 35M as it applies in relation to a warrant of control or warrant of commitment issued by a justice of the peace.
- (2) Section 125ZA of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (endorsement of warrant of control) applies in relation to a warrant of control issued by the Crown Court under section 35L as it applies in relation to a warrant of control issued by a justice of the peace.

- (3) Section 125A(1) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (enforcement by civilian enforcement officers) applies to a warrant of control or warrant of commitment issued by the Crown Court under section 35L or 35M.
- (4) Accordingly, the following sections of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 also apply in relation to a warrant of control or warrant of commitment issued by the Crown Court under section 35L or 35M—
 - (a) section 125B (execution by approved enforcement agency),
 - (b) section 125C (disclosure of information), and
 - (c) section 125D(1) and (4) (execution by person not in possession of warrant).
- (5) In the application of section 125C of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 to a warrant issued by the Crown Court under section 35L or 35M, the references to the designated officer for a magistrates' court are to be read as references to the court.

- (6) Section 125CA of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (power to make disclosure order) applies in relation to a warrant of control or warrant of commitment issued by the Crown Court under section 35L or 35M as it applies in relation to a warrant of control or warrant of commitment issued by a justice of the peace but—
- (a) reading the reference in subsection (1) to a magistrates' court as a reference to the Crown Court, and
 - (b) reading the reference in subsection (2) to the designated officer for the court as a reference to the court.
- (7) Section 13 of the Indictable Offences Act 1848 (which relates, among other things, to the execution in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands of certain warrants of arrest) applies to a warrant of commitment issued under section 35M as it applies to a warrant issued in England and Wales by the Crown Court for an indictable offence.

35Q Enforcement by High Court or county court

- (1) Payment of the amount required to be paid under the confiscation order may be enforced by the High Court or the county court (otherwise than by issue of a writ of control or other process against goods or by imprisonment or attachment of earnings) as if the amount were due to the appropriate designated officer in pursuance of a judgment or order of the High Court or, as the case may be, the county court.
- (2) “Appropriate designated officer” means the designated officer for the collecting magistrates’ court (see section 35K(4)).

35R Transfer to Scotland or Northern Ireland

PART 6

RECONSIDERATION AND PROVISIONAL
DISCHARGE

Order made: reconsideration

15(1) The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 171 insert—

“171A Order made: reconsideration of benefit on decrease in value and sale etc

(1) This section applies if—

(a) a court has made a confiscation order,

(b) there is relevant property,

(c) an application to proceed under this section is made to the Crown Court by—

(i) the prosecutor, or

(ii) a receiver appointed under section 198, and

(d) the applicant believes that if the court were to make a new calculation of the defendant's benefit and in doing so applied section 171(3) to (6), the amount found would not exceed the amount that would be found if the court were to make a new calculation of the defendant's benefit under subsection (4).

- (2) For the purposes of this section, property is “relevant property” if the property was obtained by the defendant as a result of or in connection with the conduct concerned and—
- (a) it was held by the defendant when the relevant amount was calculated, but
 - (b) it is no longer held by the defendant because it has been—
 - (i) sold, or
 - (ii) destroyed by virtue of a court order under section 199(2)(e) or section 215AA (orders for the destruction of cryptoassets).
- (3) In a case where this section applies, the court must determine whether A is less than B, where—
- “A” is the total of the values of all relevant property as decided in accordance with section 228(3A) or (3B) (as appropriate), and
 - “B” is the total of the values at which that property was taken into account when the relevant amount was calculated, adjusted to take account of changes in the value of money since it was calculated.

- (4) If A is less than B, the court must make a new calculation of the defendant's benefit by—
 - (a) adjusting the relevant amount to take account of changes in the value of money since it was calculated, and
 - (b) deducting from that adjusted amount the amount by which A is less than B.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where—
 - (a) the court makes a new calculation of the defendant's benefit under subsection (4), and
 - (b) the court determines that C is less than D, where—
 - “C” is the amount that, if it was adjusted to take account of changes in the value of money since the amount required to be paid was last determined, would give the amount found under the new calculation of the defendant's benefit, and
 - “D” is the amount required to be paid under the order.

- (6) The court must vary the order by substituting C for the amount required to be paid.
 - (7) The variation of the order under subsection (6) does not—
 - (a) affect the defendant's liability to pay any interest which was payable under section 162 for a period before the variation of the order but which had not been paid at the time of the variation, or
 - (b) give rise to any obligation to refund any amount already paid by the defendant under the order.
 - (8) The relevant amount is—
 - (a) the amount found as the defendant's benefit for the purposes of the confiscation order, or
 - (b) if one or more new calculations of the defendant's benefit have been made under section 171 or this section, the amount found on the occasion of the last such calculation.”
- (3) In section 171 (order made: reconsideration of benefit)—

- (a) after subsection (11) insert—
- “(11A) Section 161 applies in relation to a confiscation order when it is varied under this section as it applies in relation to a confiscation order when it is made (reading references to the making of the order as references to the varying of the order and references to the day on which the order is made as references to the day on which the order is varied).
- (11B) Where section 162 applies in relation to a confiscation order that has been varied under this section, the reference in section 162(3)(c) to the day on which the order was made is to be read as a reference to the day on which the order was varied.”;
- (b) in subsection (13)—
- (i) in paragraph (a), for “if this section has not applied previously;” substitute “or”;
- (ii) for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) if one or more new calculations of the defendant’s benefit have been made under this section or section 171A, the amount found on the occasion of the last such calculation.”

(4) In section 172 (order made: reconsideration of available amount)—

(a) after subsection (7) insert—

“(7A) Section 161 applies in relation to a confiscation order when it is varied under this section as it applies in relation to a confiscation order when it is made (reading references to the making of the order as references to the varying of the order and references to the day on which the order is made as references to the day on which the order is varied).

(7B) Where section 162 applies in relation to a confiscation order that has been varied under this section, the reference in section 162(3)(c) to the day on which the order was made is to be read as a reference to the day on which the order was varied.”;

(b) in subsection (9), in paragraph (b), after “section 171” insert “or 171A”.

- (5) In section 188 (reconsideration etc: variation of prison term), in subsection (1)(a), after “171,” insert “171A,”.

Provisional discharge of confiscation order

16 (1) The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 is amended as follows.

- (2) For sections 174 and 175 substitute—

“174A Provisional discharge of order

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a court has made a confiscation order, and
 - (b) the relevant two-year period has ended.
- (2) The Crown Court may, of its own motion or on an application made by a person listed in subsection (3), discharge the confiscation order on a provisional basis if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (3) The persons are—
- (a) the prosecutor;
 - (b) a receiver appointed under section 198.
- (4) In deciding whether it is in the interests of justice to discharge a confiscation order on a provisional

basis the court must, in particular, take into account—

- (a) any amount that the defendant has already paid under the confiscation order;
 - (b) the extent to which the amount that remains to be paid under the order represents interest payable under section 162;
 - (c) any steps that have already been taken in relation to the enforcement of the order;
 - (d) the extent to which there are reasonable steps (or further reasonable steps) that could be taken in relation to the enforcement of the order;
 - (e) the amount that the court considers would be recovered if all such reasonable steps (or further reasonable steps) were to be taken.
- (5) The court may discharge a confiscation order on a provisional basis even though the court does not consider that doing so is best calculated to further the principal objective (see section 155A(4)).
- (6) Where an application under this section is refused, a further application in relation to the confiscation order concerned may only be made—

- (a) after the end of the period of two years beginning with the date of the refusal, or
 - (b) before the end of that period, with the leave of the court.
- (7) There is no right of appeal against a decision of the court under this section to discharge, or not to discharge, a confiscation order on a provisional basis.
- (8) In subsection (1), the “relevant two-year period” means the period of two years beginning with—
- (a) the day on which the confiscation order was made, or
 - (b) in a case where the order has been varied under this Part, the day on which the order was varied.

174B Effect of provisional discharge and revocation of discharge

- (1) This section applies where a confiscation order has been discharged under section 174A on a provisional basis.

- (2) The order is to be treated as satisfied subject to the rest of this section.
- (3) The provisional discharge of the order does not prevent the making of an application in respect of the order under section 171, 171A, 172 or 173.
- (4) Where, on an application under any of those provisions, the court varies the order, the court may also revoke the provisional discharge of the order.
- (5) The Crown Court may, on an application made by a person listed in subsection (6), revoke the provisional discharge of the order if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (6) The persons are—
 - (a) the prosecutor;
 - (b) a receiver appointed under section 198.
- (7) In deciding whether it is in the interests of justice to revoke the provisional discharge of a confiscation order the court must, in particular, take into account the matters listed in section 174A(4).

- (8) Where the court revokes the provisional discharge of a confiscation order under this section—
- (a) the order is, from the time of the revocation, no longer to be treated as satisfied, and
 - (b) accordingly—
 - (i) from that time the proceedings against the defendant are to be treated as not having been concluded (see section 233(5)(a)), and
 - (ii) any interest which was payable under section 162 for a period before the provisional discharge of the order but which had not been paid at the time of the provisional discharge becomes payable.
- (9) Where the court revokes the provisional discharge of an order under subsection (5), section 161 applies in relation to any part of the amount ordered to be paid under the order that had not been paid when the order was provisionally discharged as it applies in relation to the full amount ordered to be paid under a confiscation order when it is made.

- (10) Where section 161 applies as mentioned in subsection (9), references in that section to the making of the order are to be read as references to the revocation of the provisional discharge of the order and references to the day on which the order is made as references to the day on which the provisional discharge of the order is revoked.
- (11) Where section 162 applies in relation to a confiscation order following the revocation of a provisional discharge of the order under subsection (5), the reference in section 162(3)(c) to the day on which the order was made is to be read as a reference to the day on which the provisional discharge of the order was revoked
- (12) There is no right of appeal against a decision of the court under this section to revoke, or not to revoke, the provisional discharge of a confiscation order.

174C Financial status orders

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) the Crown Court has decided of its own motion to consider whether to discharge a

- confiscation order on a provisional basis,
 - (b) an application has been made under section 174A or 174B, or
 - (c) the court has discharged a confiscation order on a provisional basis and an application has been made under section 171, 171A, 172 or 173.
- (2) The court may order the defendant to give the court, before the end of the period specified in the order—
- (a) any information about the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances, and

- (2) On making the confiscation order, the court must also prepare an enforcement plan for the order if—
 - (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant might default on the confiscation order for any reason, or
 - (b) the court otherwise believes it is appropriate to do so for the purpose of ensuring that the confiscation order is effective.
- (3) An enforcement plan for a confiscation order is a document setting out drafts of one or more orders that the court considers the Crown Court could make in the event that the defendant defaults on the confiscation order.

- (5) Where the court making the confiscation order is the Court of Appeal (see section 215E(4)(b)(i) (appeals)), on making the order the Court of Appeal may direct that the Crown Court is to carry out the duties under this section as if the Crown Court had made the order.

163ZB Enforcement plan: initial enforcement hearing

- (1) This section applies where an enforcement plan is prepared for a confiscation order.
- (2) The Crown Court must set a date for a hearing to take place in the event that the defendant defaults on the confiscation order, and that date must be the first date then available to the court after the due date (see section 185A for provision about this hearing).
- (3) If an order is made under section 161(4) as a result of which the due date in relation to the confiscation order changes, the court must reset the date for the hearing to the first date then available to the court after the new due date.”

 - (b) the interests of justice do not require any initial enforcement order not to be made.

- (5) In this section “the initial enforcement hearing” means the hearing held pursuant to section 163ZB.”
