☆ To move the following Clause—NC20

“Offence of trespassing with intent to commit criminal offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person trespasses on any premises with intent to commit an offence (whether or not on the premises).
- (2) In subsection (1) “premises” means any building, part of a building or enclosed area.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale (or both).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment replaces an offence in section 4 of the Vagrancy Act 1824 which is repealed by section 81 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 (not yet in force).

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Arranging or facilitating begging for gain

- (1) A person commits an offence if, for gain, the person arranges or facilitates another person’s begging.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum term for summary offences or a fine (or both).
- (3) In subsection (2) “the maximum term for summary offences” means—
  - (a) if the offence is committed before the time when section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, 6 months;
  - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes it an offence to arrange or facilitate another’s begging. When the repeal of the Vagrancy Act 1824 by the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 comes into force, begging will no longer be a criminal offence, so encouraging or assisting begging will cease to be an offence under the Serious Crime Act 2007.

“Proving an offence under section 38

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of section 38.
- (2) Where it is alleged that a person (D) intended to cause a child to commit an offence, it is sufficient to prove that D intended to cause the child to do an act which would amount to the commission of that offence.
- (3) Where it is alleged that a person (D) intended to cause a child to do anything outside the United Kingdom which would constitute an offence if done in any part of the United Kingdom, it is sufficient to prove that D intended to cause the child to do an act which, if done in any part of the United Kingdom, would amount to the commission of that offence.
- (4) Where it is alleged that a person (D) intended to facilitate the causing of a child, in future, to—
  - (a) commit an offence, or
  - (b) do anything outside the United Kingdom which would constitute an offence if done in any part of the United Kingdom, it is sufficient to prove that D intended to facilitate the causing of the child in future to do an act which would amount to the commission of that offence, or would if done in any part of the United Kingdom amount to the commission of that offence.

- (5) In proving for the purposes of this section whether an act is one which, if done or if done in any part of the United Kingdom, would amount to the commission of an offence—
- (a) if the offence is one requiring proof of fault, it must be proved that—
    - (i) D believed that, were the act to be done, it would be done with that fault, or

This new clause and amendments 34 and 35 amend this Chapter so as to adopt a similar approach, as regards what is intended to be caused or facilitated, to that found in Part 2 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 (encouraging or assisting crime). They also cater for the offence being a UK-wide offence.

Provisional discharge of confiscation orders made under saved legislation

- 54 (1) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) an amount remains to be paid under a confiscation order made under—
    - (i) section 1 of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986,
    - (ii) section 71 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988, or
    - (iii) section 2 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, and
  - (b) the relevant two-year period has ended.
- (2) The Crown Court may, of its own motion or on an application made by a person listed in sub-paragraph (3), discharge the confiscation order on a provisional basis if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (3) The persons are—
- (a) the prosecutor;
  - (b) the designated officer for a magistrates' court;
  - (c) a receiver appointed under—
    - (i) section 11 of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 1 of that Act;
    - (ii) section 80 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 71 of that Act;
    - (iii) section 29 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 2 of that Act.
- (4) In deciding whether it is in the interests of justice to discharge a confiscation order on a provisional basis the court must, in particular, take into account—

- (a) any amount that the defendant has already paid under the confiscation order;
  - (b) the extent to which the amount that remains to be paid under the order represents interest payable in respect of the order;
  - (c) any steps that have already been taken in relation to the enforcement of the order;
  - (d) the extent to which there are reasonable steps (or further reasonable steps) that could be taken in relation to the enforcement of the order;
  - (e) the amount that the court considers would be recovered if all such reasonable steps (or further reasonable steps) were to be taken.
- (5) Where an application under this paragraph is refused, a further application in relation to the confiscation order concerned may only be made—
- (a) after the end of the period of two years beginning with the date of the refusal, or
  - (b) before the end of that period, with the leave of the court.
- (6) There is no right of appeal against a decision of the court under this paragraph to discharge, or not to discharge, a confiscation order on a provisional basis.
- (7) In sub-paragraph (1), the “relevant two-year period” means the period of two years beginning with—
- (a) the day on which the confiscation order was made, or
  - (b) in a case where the order has been varied under the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986, Part 6 of the Criminal Justice Act 1998 or, as the case may be, Part 1 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, the day on which the order was varied.

Effect of provisional discharge under paragraph 54 and revocation of discharge

- 55 (1) This paragraph applies where a confiscation order has been discharged under paragraph 54 on a provisional basis.
- (2) The order is to be treated as satisfied, and accordingly the proceedings against the defendant are to be treated as having concluded for the purposes of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986, the Criminal Justice Act 1988 or, as the case may be, the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, subject to the rest of this paragraph.
- (3) The provisional discharge of the order does not prevent the making of an application in respect of the order under—
- (a) section 14 of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 1 of that Act;
  - (b) section 74C or 83 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 71 of that Act;
  - (c) section 15, 16 or 17 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 2 of that Act.
- (4) Where, on an application under any of those provisions, the court varies the order, the court may also revoke the provisional discharge of the order.

- (5) The Crown Court may, on an application made by a person listed in sub-paragraph (6), revoke the provisional discharge of the order if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (6) The persons are—
  - (a) the prosecutor;
  - (b) a receiver appointed under—
    - (i) section 11 of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 1 of that Act;
    - (ii) section 80 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 71 of that Act;
    - (iii) section 29 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 2 of that Act.
- (7) In deciding whether it is in the interests of justice to revoke the provisional discharge of a confiscation order the court must, in particular, take into account the matters listed in paragraph 54(4).
- (8) Where the court revokes the provisional discharge of a confiscation order under this paragraph—
  - (a) the order is, from the time of the revocation, no longer to be treated as satisfied, and
  - (b) accordingly—
    - (i) from that time the proceedings against the defendant are to be treated as not having been concluded, and
    - (ii) any interest which was payable in respect of the order for a period before the provisional discharge of the order but which had not been paid at the time of the provisional discharge becomes payable.
- (9) There is no right of appeal against a decision of the court under this paragraph to revoke, or not to revoke, the provisional discharge of a confiscation order.

Time for payment where provisional discharge of order is revoked

- 56 (1) This paragraph applies where a court revokes the provisional discharge of a confiscation order—
- (a) under paragraph 55(4) on an application under section 74C of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 or section 15 or 16 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, or
  - (b) under paragraph 55(5).
- (2) If the court is satisfied that the defendant is unable to pay the full amount ordered to be paid under the order on the day on which the provisional discharge is revoked, the court may make an order requiring whatever cannot be paid on that day to be paid—
- (a) in a specified period, or
  - (b) in specified periods each of which relates to a specified amount.
- (3) A specified period—

- (a) must start with the day on which the provisional discharge is revoked, and
  - (b) must not exceed three months.
- (4) If—
  - (a) within any specified period the defendant applies to the relevant court for that period to be extended, and
  - (b) the relevant court is satisfied that, despite having made all reasonable efforts, the defendant is unable to pay the amount to which the specified period relates within that period,the court may make an order extending the period (for all or any part or parts of the amount in question).
- (5) “The relevant court” means—
  - (a) in a case where the Crown Court revoked the provisional discharge of the order, the Crown Court;
  - (b) in a case where a magistrates’ court revoked the provisional discharge of the order, a magistrates’ court.
- (6) An extended period—
  - (a) must start with the day on which the provisional discharge is revoked, and
  - (b) must not exceed six months.
- (7) An order under sub-paragraph (4)—
  - (a) may be made after the end of the specified period to which it relates, but
  - (b) must not be made after the end of the period of six months starting with the day on which the provisional discharge is revoked.
- (8) Periods specified or extended under this paragraph must be such that, where the court believes that a defendant will by a particular day be able—
  - (a) to pay the amount remaining to be paid, or
  - (b) to pay an amount towards what remains to be paid,that amount is required to be paid no later than that day.
- (9) If—
  - (a) an application has been made under sub-paragraph (4) for a specified period to be extended,
  - (b) the application has not been determined by the court, and
  - (c) the period of six months starting with the day on which the provisional discharge was revoked has not ended,the amount on which interest is payable in respect of the order does not include the amount to which the specified period relates.
- (10) The court must not make an order under sub-paragraph (2) or (4) unless it gives the prosecutor an opportunity to make representations.

Financial status orders

- 57 (1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the Crown Court has decided of its own motion to consider whether to discharge a confiscation order on a provisional basis,
  - (b) an application has been made under paragraph 54 or 55, or
  - (c) the court has discharged a confiscation order on a provisional basis and an application has been made under—
    - (i) section 14 of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 1 of that Act;
    - (ii) section 74C or 83 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 71 of that Act;
    - (iii) section 15, 16 or 17 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994, in the case of a confiscation order made under section 2 of that Act.
- (2) The relevant court may order the defendant to give the court, before the end of the period specified in the order—
- (a) any information about the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances, and
  - (b) any documentary or other evidence in support of that information, that the court may require in connection with the exercise of its functions under paragraph 54 or 55.
- (3) "The relevant court" means—
- (a) where this paragraph applies as a result of sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b), the Crown Court;
  - (b) where this paragraph applies as a result of sub-paragraph (1)(c), the court to which the application mentioned in that sub-paragraph is made."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment enables a court, where it considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so, to discharge on a provisional basis a confiscation order made under legislation that pre-dates the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and to revoke such a provisional discharge.

To move the following Clause—

“Removal of women from the criminal law related to abortion

For the purposes of the law related to abortion, including sections 58 and 59 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861 and the Infant Life (Preservation) Act 1929, no offence is committed by a woman acting in relation to her own pregnancy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would disapply existing criminal law related to abortion from women acting in relation to her own pregnancy at any gestation, removing the threat of investigation, arrest, prosecution, or imprisonment. It would not change any law regarding the provision of abortion services within a healthcare setting, including but not limited to the time limit, telemedicine, the grounds for abortion, or the requirement for two doctors' approval.
