TO

Make provision for the registration of voters by registration officers; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Power of Secretary of State to make regulations for data sharing

- (1) The Secretary of State shall by regulation impose a duty on government bodies requiring such bodies to provide specified information to registration officers for the purposes of electoral registration.
- (2) Registration officers shall use such specified information received in relation to a person—
 - (a) if the specified information received contains all of the information required, to register that person on the appropriate electoral register or registers; or
 - (b) if the specified information does not contain all of the information required, to make further enquiries of that person to receive the information required to register that person on the appropriate electoral register or registers.
- (3) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall include the provision of data collected by specified government bodies by virtue of specified applications.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this section shall give any government body the power to share any information about a person without that person's consent.

2 Duties on registration officers

- (1) Section 9A of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (registration officers: duty to take necessary steps) is amended as follows.

- (2) Before paragraph (a) in subsection (2), there is inserted –
- “(za) taking active steps to increase the number of people on the electoral register that belong to a specified group;
 - (zb) leading or arranging for one voter engagement session per academic year at each school or further education college within his area of responsibility;”.
