TO

Make provision for ending the liability of lay rectors for the repair of chancels.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Abolition of liability to repair chancels

No person shall after the commencement of this Act be liable as lay rector for the repair of the chancel of any church or chapel.

2 Transitional provisions

- (1) Section 1 above shall not apply to a person's liability in respect of a claim made in proceedings brought against him— 5
- (a) before the commencement of this Act,
 - (b) within two years of the commencement of this Act by another person liable as lay rector, or
 - (c) within two years of the commencement of this Act as a party to proceedings brought before the commencement of this Act against another person liable as lay rector. 10
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), proceedings shall be treated as brought against a person on the day on which he is served with process making him a party to those proceedings. 15
- (3) Subsection (1) above shall not be construed as enabling proceedings to be brought against a person by virtue of his becoming lay rector after the commencement of this Act.

3 Extent, commencement and short title

- (1) This Act extends to England only. 20
- (2) This Act comes into force on the day it is passed.
- (3) This Act may be cited as the Chancel Repairs Act 2014.
