LORD SHARKEY

41 Page 70, line 19, at end insert—

- “(2) Subject to subsection (7), the provisions of Schedule 21 other than paragraph 43 may not come into force until the Secretary of State has requested the Law Commissions to review the legislation to be repealed by those provisions and the three conditions set out in subsections (3) to (5) are met.
- (3) The first condition is that the Law Commissions have reported on whether each item of legislation to be repealed by paragraphs 1 to 42, 44 and 45 of Schedule 21 is, or may be, of practical use; or is no longer of practical use.
- (4) The second condition is that the reports of the Law Commissions under subsection (3) have been laid before each House of Parliament.
- (5) The third condition is that the Secretary of State has, by regulations made by statutory instrument, removed from the list of legislation to be repealed in Schedule 21 any provisions which the Law Commissions have reported are, or may be, of practical use.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (5) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) The provisions of Schedule 21 come into force, notwithstanding that the conditions in subsections (3) to (5) have not been met, 12 months after the Secretary of State has requested the Law Commissions to review the legislation if the Law Commissions have failed to make a report within that period.
- (8) In this section the “Law Commissions” means the Law Commission of England and Wales and the Scottish Law Commission.”

45 Insert the following new Clause –

“Tenancy deposits: provision of information by agents

- (1) The Housing (Tenancy Deposits) (Prescribed Information) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/797) is amended as follows.

Amendment
No.

After Clause 29 – continued

- (2) In article 2 (prescribed information relating to tenancy deposits), after paragraph (2) insert –
- “(3) In a case where the initial requirements of an authorised scheme have been complied with in relation to the deposit by a person (“the initial agent”) acting on the landlord’s behalf in relation to the tenancy –
- (a) references in paragraphs (1)(b), (g)(iii) and (vii) to the landlord are to be read as references to either the landlord or the initial agent;
 - (b) references in paragraphs (1)(d), (e), (g)(iv) and (vi) and (2) to the landlord are to be read as references to either the landlord or a person who acts on the landlord’s behalf in relation to the tenancy.
- (4) In any other case, references in paragraphs (1)(d), (e), (g)(iv) and (vi) and (2) to the landlord are to be read as references to either the landlord or a person who acts on the landlord’s behalf in relation to the tenancy.
- (5) Section 212(9)(a) of the Act (references to landlord include persons acting on landlord’s behalf) does not apply for the purposes of this article.”
- (3) After article 2 insert –
- “3 Article 2(3) to (5): transitional provisions
- (1) Paragraphs (3) to (5) of article 2 are treated as having had effect since 6th April 2007, subject to the following provisions of this article.
 - (2) Paragraphs (3) to (5) of article 2 do not have effect in relation to –
 - (a) a claim under section 214 of the Act or section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 in respect of a tenancy which is settled before the commencement date (whether or not proceedings in relation to the claim have been instituted), or
 - (b) proceedings under either of those sections in respect of a tenancy which have been finally determined before the commencement date.
 - (3) Paragraph (5) applies in respect of a tenancy if –
 - (a) proceedings under section 214 of the Act in respect of the tenancy have been instituted before the commencement date but have not been settled or finally determined before that date, and
 - (b) because of paragraphs (3) to (5) of article 2, the court decides –
 - (i) not to make an order under section 214(4) of that Act in respect of the tenancy, or
 - (ii) to allow an appeal by the landlord against such an order.

Amendment
No.

- (4) Paragraph (5) also applies in respect of a tenancy if—
 - (a) proceedings for possession under section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 in respect of the tenancy have been instituted before the commencement date but have not been settled or finally determined before that date, and
 - (b) because of paragraphs (3) to (5) of article 2, the court decides—
 - (i) to make an order for possession under that section in respect of the tenancy, or
 - (ii) to allow an appeal by the landlord against a refusal to make such an order.
- (5) Where this paragraph applies, the court must not order the tenant or any relevant person (as defined by section 213(10) of the Act) to pay the landlord’s costs, to the extent that the court reasonably considers those costs are attributable to the proceedings under section 214 of the Act or (as the case may be) section 21 of the Housing Act 1988.
- (6) Proceedings have been “finally determined” for the purposes of this article if —
 - (a) they have been determined by a court, and
 - (b) there is no further right to appeal against the determination.
- (7) There is no further right to appeal against a court determination if there is no right to appeal against the determination, or there is such a right but—
 - (a) the time limit for making an appeal has expired without an appeal being brought, or
 - (b) an appeal brought within that time limit has been withdrawn.
- (8) In this article “the commencement date” means the date on which the Deregulation Act 2015 is passed.”
- (4) The amendments made by this section to the Housing (Tenancy Deposits) (Prescribed Information) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/797) do not affect a power to use subordinate legislation to amend or revoke that Order.
- (5) In subsection (4), “subordinate legislation” has the same meaning as in the Interpretation Act 1978.”

“Preventing retaliatory evictions

In the Housing Act 1988, after section 21 insert –

“21A Preventing retaliatory evictions

- (1) A notice under section 21(1)(b) or (4)(a) (a “section 21 notice”) may not be given in relation to an assured shorthold tenancy of a dwelling-house in England within six months beginning with the day of service of a relevant notice in relation to the dwelling-house.
- (2) A section 21 notice given in relation to an assured shorthold tenancy of a dwelling-house in England is invalid if –
 - (a) before the section 21 notice was given, the tenant made a relevant complaint in relation to the dwelling-house to the landlord or the relevant local housing authority, and
 - (b) since the section 21 notice was given, the relevant local housing authority has served a relevant notice in relation to the dwelling-house.
- (3) It is a defence to proceedings for an order under section 21 in relation to an assured shorthold tenancy of a dwelling-house in England that –
 - (a) before the section 21 notice was given, the tenant made a relevant complaint in relation to the dwelling-house to the landlord or the relevant local housing authority, and
 - (b) subsection (4) applies.
- (4) This subsection applies if –
 - (a) the relevant local housing authority has not decided whether to inspect the dwelling-house or the common parts,
 - (b) the relevant local housing authority has decided to inspect the dwelling-house or the common parts but has not conducted an inspection,

Amendment
No.

- (c) the relevant local housing authority has conducted an inspection of the dwelling-house or the common parts but has not decided whether to serve a relevant notice, or
 - (d) the relevant local housing authority has decided to serve a relevant notice in relation to the dwelling-house but the relevant notice has not been served.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply where—
- (a) the relevant notice has been wholly revoked under section 16 of the Housing Act 2004 (revocation and variation of improvement notices) as a result of the notice having been served in error,
 - (b) the relevant notice has been quashed under paragraph 15 of Schedule 1 to that Act (procedure and appeals relating to improvement notices),
 - (c) a decision of the relevant local housing authority to refuse to revoke the relevant notice has been reversed under paragraph 18 of Schedule 1 to that Act,
 - (d) a decision of the relevant local housing authority to take the action to which the relevant notice relates has been reversed under section 45 of that Act (appeals relating to emergency measures), or
 - (e) the relevant notice has been made subject to an order under section 29 of the Senior Courts Act 1981 (mandatory, prohibiting and quashing orders).
- (6) References in this section and section 21B to a relevant notice served, or relevant complaint made, in relation to a dwelling-house include a relevant notice served, or complaint made, in relation to any common parts of the building of which the dwelling-house forms a part.
- (7) But subsection (6) applies only if—
- (a) the landlord has an estate or interest in the common parts in question, and
 - (b) the condition of those common parts is such as to affect the tenant’s enjoyment of the dwelling-house or of any common parts which the tenant is entitled to use.
- (8) In this section and section 21B, a reference to a complaint to a landlord includes a complaint made to a person acting on behalf of the landlord in relation to the tenancy.
- (9) In this section and section 21B—
- “assured shorthold tenancy” means a tenancy within section 19A or 20 of this Act;
 - “common parts”, in relation to a building, includes—
 - (a) the structure and exterior of the building, and
 - (b) common facilities provided (whether or not in the building) for persons who include one or more of the occupiers of the building;
 - “dwelling-house” has the meaning given by section 45 of this Act;

Amendment
No.

After Clause 34 – continued

“relevant complaint”, in relation to a dwelling-house, means a complaint made –

- (a) to a landlord in writing, or
- (b) to a relevant local housing authority,

regarding the condition of the dwelling-house at the time of the complaint;

“relevant local housing authority”, in relation to a dwelling-house, means the local housing authority as defined in section 261(2) and (3) of the Housing Act 2004 within whose area the dwelling-house is located;

“relevant notice” means –

- (a) a notice served under section 11 of the Housing Act 2004 (improvement notices relating to category 1 hazards),
- (b) a notice served under section 12 of that Act (improvement notices relating to category 2 hazards),
- (c) a notice served under section 28 of that Act (hazard awareness notices relating to category 1 hazards),
- (d) a notice served under section 29 of that Act (hazard awareness notices relating to category 2 hazards), or
- (e) a notice served under section 40(7) of that Act (emergency remedial action).

21B Further exemptions to section 21A

- (1) Subsections (1) to (3) of section 21A do not apply where the condition of the dwelling-house or common parts that gave rise to the service of the relevant notice, or consideration of whether to serve a relevant notice, is due to a breach by the tenant of –
 - (a) the duty to use the dwelling-house in a tenant-like manner, or
 - (b) an express term of the tenancy to the same effect.
- (2) Subsection (3) of section 21A does not apply if the court considers that the relevant complaint is totally without merit.
- (3) Subsections (1) to (3) of section 21A do not apply where the dwelling-house is genuinely on the market for sale.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a dwelling-house is not genuinely on the market for sale if, in particular, the landlord intends to sell the landlord’s interest in the dwelling-house to –
 - (a) a person associated with the landlord,
 - (b) a business partner of the landlord,
 - (c) a person associated with a business partner of the landlord, or
 - (d) a business partner of a person associated with the landlord.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), references to a person who is associated with another person are to be read in accordance with section 178 of the Housing Act 1996 (meaning of associated person).

Amendment
No.

After Clause 34 – continued

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4), a business partner of a landlord includes a person who is –
 - (a) a director, secretary or other officer of a company of which the landlord is also a director, secretary or other officer, or
 - (b) a partner of a partnership of which the landlord is also a partner.
- (7) Subsections (1) to (3) of section 21A do not apply where the landlord is a private registered provider of social housing.
- (8) Subsections (1) to (3) of section 21A do not apply where –
 - (a) the dwelling-house is subject to a mortgage granted before the beginning of the tenancy,
 - (b) the mortgagee is entitled to exercise a power of sale conferred on the mortgagee or by section 101 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (powers incident to estate or interest of mortgage), and
 - (c) the mortgagee requires possession of the dwelling-house for the purpose of disposing of it with vacant possession in exercise of that power.
- (9) In subsection (8) –
 - (a) “mortgage” includes a charge, and
 - (b) “mortgagee” includes a receiver appointed by the mortgagee under the terms of the mortgage or in accordance with the Law of Property Act 1925.””
