Before Clause 54

LORD BATES

50 Insert the following new Clause—

“Application of Customs and Excise Management Act 1979

(1) Section 164 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (power to search persons) applies in relation to a psychoactive substance as it applies in relation to an article with respect to the importation or exportation of which any prohibition or restriction is for the time being in force under or by virtue of any enactment.

(2) A psychoactive substance is liable to forfeiture under the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 if—

(a) the psychoactive substance—

(i) is imported or exported, or

(ii) is entered for exportation or brought to any place in the United Kingdom for exportation,

(b) the psychoactive substance is likely to be consumed by any individual for its psychoactive effects, and

(c) the importation or (as the case may be) exportation of the psychoactive substance is not an exempted activity.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) the importation or exportation of a psychoactive substance is an “exempted activity” if it would not be an offence under this Act by virtue of regulations under section 10.

(4) Section 5 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (time of importation, exportation, etc) applies for the purposes of subsection (2) as it applies for the purposes of that Act.”

LORD ROSSER
LORD TUNNICLIFFE
LORD PADDICK
BARONESS HAMWEE

51 Insert the following new Clause—

“Secretary of State’s duty to increase public awareness of new psychoactive substances

(1) The Secretary of State must establish a scheme to promote public awareness of new psychoactive substances, including the dangers these substances may pose.

(2) The duty referred to in subsection (1) includes, but is not limited to, the requirement to introduce measures to—
   (a) increase public awareness of new psychoactive substances; and
   (b) assist schools in educating pupils about the dangers associated with new psychoactive substances.

(3) The Secretary of State must publish, and lay before each House of Parliament, a report on the actions undertaken in pursuance of this section, within six months of sections 4 and 5 of this Act coming into effect, and annually thereafter.

(4) The report shall include, but need not be limited to—
   (a) measures that have been taken to increase public awareness, including the cost of such measures;
   (b) measures that have been taken to assist schools in educating their pupils;
   (c) a subsequent review of the effectiveness of the measures taken; and
   (d) any further measures that the Secretary of State plans to undertake in the future.”

LORD ROSSER
LORD TUNNICLIFFE

52 Insert the following new Clause—

“Annual reporting

(1) The Secretary of State must publish an annual report on new psychoactive substances.

(2) The report under subsection (1) must be published, and a copy laid before each House of Parliament, within six months of the passing of this Act and annually thereafter.

(3) The report under subsection (1) shall include—
   (a) the number of prosecutions, and convictions for sentences, for offences under sections 4 to 8 of this Act;
   (b) the operation of powers created under sections 12, 13 and 32 to 35 of this Act;
   (c) the number of new psychoactive substances identified in the UK;

   (i) poisonings;
   (ii) mental health related; and
   (iii) other;

(e) the number of new psychoactive substances controlled under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971; and

(f) the number of exemptions for psychoactive substances granted under section 3.”

LORD HOWARTH OF NEWPORT
BARONESS MEACHER

53
Insert the following new Clause—

“Education

(1) The Secretary of State shall require that all secondary schools report annually on their drug education programmes.

(2) Ofsted, and school inspection agencies in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, shall, when reporting on the performance of secondary schools, include an assessment of the extent and quality of drug education provided by the school.

(3) The Secretary of State shall request that each further and higher education institution publish annually a report on its programme to reduce harms caused by the use of drugs by its students.”

Insert the following new Clause—

“Annual report

(1) The Secretary of State must, each year, lay before Parliament a report assessing the impact of this Act and the progress of the Government’s overall strategy on drugs, including reducing demand, restricting supply and building recovery.

(2) For the purposes of this report “drugs” shall cover new psychoactive substances as defined in this Act, drugs controlled under the provisions of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971, prescription drugs which are subject to abuse and harmful substances exempted under Schedule 1 to this Act.”

(3) Each report shall cover in particular—
   (a) scale and patterns of drug usage in the United Kingdom, including information by region, age group and socio-economic profile;
   (b) identification of new psychoactive substances obtainable in the UK, their chemical composition, purity and toxicity;
   (c) sources of supply to consumers in the UK and any significant changes thereto;
   (d) the developing situation in regard to drugs in prisons and among individuals released from prison;

(e) the relationship between the operation of the regime created by this Act, the regime created by the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 and the regimes concerning harmful substances exempted under Schedule 1 to this Act;

(f) advice sought by the Government from the Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs (ACMD), advice offered by the ACMD, advice accepted and advice rejected, together with reasons for the Government’s rejection of any such advice;

(g) how the Government, in the pursuit of its drugs strategy, works with other agencies and partners, including United Nations agencies, non-governmental organisations and the voluntary sector, academia, industry and the retail sector;

(h) enforcement, including interceptions of drugs, the use of intelligence, activities of the National Crime Agency, Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs, the Financial Conduct Authority, the police, and trading standards officers, prohibition and premises notices and orders, stop and search arrests, and prosecutions and their outcomes;

(i) the extent, quality and use of drugs forensic testing facilities across the UK;

(j) the availability and quality of information, education and training in relation to drugs and the Government’s objectives in relation to these;

(k) assessment of the impact of drugs on the health of the nation and of the availability and effectiveness of drug treatment programmes;

(l) engagement strategies with different groups of drug users;

(m) drug-related money laundering;

(n) links between drugs and terrorism;

(o) international liaison regarding drugs policies and coordination by the Government;

(p) cost-benefit analysis of the Government’s drugs strategy;

(q) further actions intended by the Government in relation to drugs policies; and

(r) any other matter which it appears appropriate to the Secretary of State to cover in the report.”

After Clause 55

LORD BATES

55
