Amendment
No.

Clause 6 – continued

- () In this section “relevant function” means a function of the Competition and Markets Authority as set out in Part 3 of and Schedule 5 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013.”

After Clause 6

LORD STONEHAM OF DROXFORD
BARONESS BURT OF SOLIHULL

11★ Insert the following new Clause –

“Repeated complaints: late payments

- (1) Where –
- (a) the Commissioner determines that a particular respondent has been the subject of repeated complaints relating to the late payment of invoices,
 - (b) the respondent concerned is a large business,
 - (c) the Commissioner has considered the complaints and made a determination which has included recommendations to the respondent, and
 - (d) the respondent has repeatedly failed to make changes recommended by the Commissioner,
- the Commissioner may request that the Secretary of State propose a fine on the respondent.
- (2) Where a request is made by the Commissioner under subsection (1), the Secretary of State must issue a fine to the relevant respondent unless the Secretary of State considers such a fine would be damaging to the long-term viability of the respondent’s business.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulation make further provisions to support the effective functioning of this section including, but not limited to –
- (a) the definition of “repeated complaints” for the purpose of this section,
 - (b) the definition of “large business”,
 - (c) the maximum level of fine that may be levied,
 - (d) whether a different maximum level should be prescribed based on the size of the respondent’s business, and
 - (e) the test by which the Secretary of State should consider the long-term viability of the business.
- (4) Regulations under this section must be made by statutory instrument, and may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

Clause 8

Amendment
No.

Clause 11

BARONESS NEVILLE-ROLFE

- 13 Page 10, line 22, leave out subsections (5) and (6) and insert—
- “(5) Before making regulations under this section, the Secretary of State must consult—
- (a) the Small Business Commissioner (unless that office is vacant),
 - (b) such other persons as appear to the Secretary of State to be persons affected by the regulations, and
 - (c) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (6) If, as a result of consultation under subsection (5), the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to change the whole or part of the proposed regulations, the Secretary of State must carry out such further consultation with respect to the changes as seems appropriate.”

After Clause 11

BARONESS NEVILLE-ROLFE

- 14 Insert the following new Clause—
- “Regulations under section 11: procedure
- (1) In this section “regulations” means regulations under section 11.
 - (2) If after consultation under section 11, the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to proceed with the making of regulations, the Secretary of State may lay before Parliament—
 - (a) draft regulations, and
 - (b) an explanatory document.
 - (3) The explanatory document must—
 - (a) explain why the Secretary of State considers that one of the conditions in section 11(1) is met, and
 - (b) contain a summary of representations received in the consultation.
 - (4) The Secretary of State may not act under subsection (2) before the end of the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the consultation began under section 11(5).
 - (5) Subject to subsections (6) to (13), if after the expiry of the 40-day period the draft regulations laid under subsection (2) are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Secretary of State may make regulations in the terms of the draft regulations.
 - (6) The procedure in subsections (7) to (10) applies to the draft regulations instead of the procedure in subsection (5) if—
 - (a) either House of Parliament so resolves within the 30-day period, or
 - (b) a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft regulations so recommends within the 30-day period and the House to which the recommendation is made does not by resolution reject the recommendation within that period.

Amendment
No.

After Clause 11 – continued

- (7) The Secretary of State must have regard to—
 - (a) any representations,
 - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
 - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft regulations, made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft regulations.
- (8) If after the expiry of the 60-day period the draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Secretary of State may make regulations in the terms of the draft regulations.
- (9) If after the expiry of the 60-day period the Secretary of State wishes to proceed with the draft regulations but with material changes, the Secretary of State may lay before Parliament—
 - (a) revised draft regulations, and
 - (b) a statement giving a summary of the changes proposed.
- (10) If the revised draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Secretary of State may make regulations in the terms of the revised draft regulations.
- (11) For the purposes of this section regulations are made in the terms of draft regulations or revised draft regulations if they contain no material changes to their provisions.
- (12) In this section, references to the “30-day”, “40-day” and “60-day” periods in relation to any draft regulations are to the periods of 30, 40 and 60 days beginning with the day on which the draft regulations were laid before Parliament.
- (13) For the purposes of subsection (12) no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which either House is adjourned for more than four days.
- (14) Regulations are to be made by statutory instrument.”

LORD MENDELSON
LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA

15★

Insert the following new Clause—

“Small Business Commissioner: payment terms

- (1) On the advice of the Commissioner, the Secretary of State may make regulations—
 - (a) imposing a limit on the number of days after receipt of a supplier’s invoice a company can seek to challenge that invoice,
 - (b) prohibiting the practice of a company seeking to change the payment terms of a supplier company unilaterally, and
 - (c) prohibiting a company from retaining funds where contract terms are applied disproportionately by requiring a supplier company to make a payment in order to join that company’s list of suppliers.

Amendment
No.

After Clause 11 – continued

- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may make provision for a prescribed breach by a prescribed description of person of a requirement or prohibition imposed by the regulations to be an offence punishable on summary conviction –
 - (a) in England and Wales by a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland by a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may specify the size of company and supplier company to which they shall apply.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall require public sector agencies and companies in the private sector to settle all payments owed to their small business suppliers by the date originally agreed in the contract terms.
- (5) Companies or private sector agencies which fail to make payments to their small business suppliers on time shall be required to provide quarterly reports to the Small Business Commissioner relating to the late payment of invoices.
- (6) A report provided for under subsection (5) shall include –
 - (a) lists of all payments to suppliers which were made over 28 days after the date indicated by the suppliers' agreed payment terms, without a formal query having been registered with the suppliers within such a period as may be prescribed;
 - (b) confirmation, for each instance listed under paragraph (a), that interest, equalling the Bank of England base rate plus 8% APR, was paid to compensate the supplier for overdue payment; and
 - (c) assurance, for each instance listed under paragraph (a) where confirmation of compensation under paragraph (b) cannot be provided, after a payment plan is in place to compensate suppliers on the basis set out in that paragraph.
- (7) Before making regulations under this section the Secretary of State must consult such persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (8) Regulations under this section shall be made by statutory instrument and may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (9) For the purposes of this section “company” has the meaning given by section 1(1) of the Companies Act 2006.”

16★ Insert the following new Clause –

“Small Business Commissioner: role in assisting small businesses

- (1) The Commissioner shall establish a framework to encourage a competitive and fair operating environment for all businesses by –
 - (a) working with the Secretary of State and relevant government departments to facilitate access to information by small businesses and ensuring that both prospective and existing small businesses have sufficient knowledge to make informed business decisions;
 - (b) working with the Secretary of State to provide an effective system of alternative dispute resolution;

Amendment
No.

- (c) monitoring and reporting to the Secretary of State on emerging trends in market practices that have an adverse effect on small businesses;
 - (d) recommending measures to prevent unfair business practices by addressing the behaviour of businesses towards small businesses, and improving business conduct;
 - (e) encouraging small business operators, particularly those who are executing a contract or signing a retail lease, to seek professional advice on matters including but not limited to pre-agreed dispute resolution so that disagreements can be dealt with quickly and relationships can continue with minimum disruption;
 - (f) encouraging industry and professional associations and chambers of commerce to continue to develop educative aids for their small business members, including considering accreditation courses;
 - (g) advising the Secretary of State and government agencies about legislation, government procedures and administration affecting small businesses.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument make further provision to enable the Commissioner effectively to establish the framework and implement the duties set out in subsection (1).
- (3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”
