After Clause 64

BARONESS QUIN
LORD SHIPLEY

Insert the following new Clause—

“Political and economic impact of this Act on the United Kingdom

The Secretary of State and the Scottish Ministers shall, in exercising any power or order provided for under this Act, consider—

(a) the impact of exercising the power or order on the political and economic strength of the United Kingdom as a whole, and

(b) the importance of strengthening the United Kingdom as a whole, both politically and economically.”

BARONESS QUIN
LORD SHIPLEY
VISCOUNT RIDLEY

Insert the following new Clause—

“Economy of areas adjoining Scotland: report

(1) Within one year of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State and the Scottish Ministers must prepare a report reviewing the impact of Parts 2 to 5 of this Act on the areas adjoining Scotland, including Cumbria and the North-East of England.

(2) The Secretary of State must lay a copy of the report prepared under subsection (1) before Parliament.”
