84G Insert the following new Clause –

“Rights of tenants with respect to information

- (1) A relevant person may by notice in writing require a landlord or superior landlord to supply him or her with the relevant information.
- (2) The landlord or superior landlord shall, within the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which he or she receives the notice, comply with it by supplying the relevant information to the relevant person.
- (3) For the purposes of this section –
“relevant person” means a person who is the registered long leasehold owner of a dwelling in the premises to which the request relates; and
“relevant information” means –
(a) the name of the registered owner of each long leasehold interest of a dwelling in the premises to which the request relates;
(b) the full postal address of that dwelling; and
(c) the electronic and/or postal address(es) to which service charge and ground rent demands are sent.
- (4) Any agreement or arrangement relating to the relevant information is void to the extent that it would, apart from this subsection, have effect to entitle the landlord or superior landlord to withhold the relevant information.
- (5) The right to information under subsection (1) may only be exercised in relation to the exercise of, or a proposal to exercise –
(a) the right to seek and/or maintain recognition of a tenants’ association under section 29 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985;
(b) the right of first refusal under Part 1 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987;
(c) the right to apply for the appointment of a manager under Part 2 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987; and

- (d) the right to acquire the right to manage under Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002.
- (6) Subsections (7) to (9) apply where, at a time when a duty imposed on a landlord or superior landlord by virtue of any of subsections (1) to (5) remains to be discharged by him or her, the landlord or superior landlord disposes of the whole or part of his or her interest as landlord or superior landlord.
- (7) If the landlord or superior landlord is, despite the disposal, still in a position to discharge the duty to any extent, he or she remains responsible for discharging it to that extent.
- (8) If the person to whom the interest has been transferred is in a position to discharge the duty to any extent, he or she is responsible for discharging it to that extent.
- (9) Where the person to whom the interest has been transferred is responsible for discharging the duty to any extent (whether or not the landlord or superior landlord is also responsible for discharging it to that or any other extent) –
- (a) references to the landlord or superior landlord in subsections (1) to (5) include the person to whom the interest has been transferred so far as is appropriate to reflect his or her responsibility for discharging the duty to that extent, but
- (b) in connection with its discharge by that person, subsections (1) to (5) apply as if the reference to the day on which the landlord or superior landlord receives the notice were to the date of the disposal referred to in subsection (6).
- (10) The assignment of a tenancy does not affect any duty imposed by virtue of subsections (1) to (5), but a person is not required to comply with more than a reasonable number of requirements imposed by any one person.
- (11) Failure to comply with a notice requiring a landlord to supply the relevant information shall be enforceable by way of civil action.
- (12) In this section, “registered long leasehold owner” means the registered leasehold owner of a long lease within the meaning of section 7 of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993.”

- (1) Where an adjoining owner does not notify the building owner in writing within 14 days that the works notified under section (notice to adjoining owners) are agreed, or agreed subject to conditions that are acceptable to the building owner, and a dispute is deemed to have arisen, the surveyors appointed in accordance with the 1996 Act shall –
 - (a) determine a sum to be held as security for expenses and losses which reasonably reflects –
 - (i) the risk of damage to the adjoining owner’s building likely to occur in consequence of the works;
 - (ii) the likely cost of completing the works, sufficiently to safeguard the adjoining owner’s building and to leave it weather tight if those works are suspended or left incomplete;
 - (iii) the cost of any loss to the adjoining owner as a result of the adjoining owner being unable to sell or lease his or her property for the normal market value as a result of the subterranean development works; and
 - (iv) the cost of appropriate alternative accommodation if the surveyors determine that the adjoining owner or any member of his or her household who normally undertakes remunerative work in their building is unable to do so because of the disturbance caused by the subterranean development works, or that alternative accommodation is required for a member of the household seriously affected by the disturbance by reason of his or her physical condition; and
 - (b) hold and administer the determined sum.
- (2) Any liability arising from works shall remain with the owner or owners of the land or buildings where the subterranean works are taking or took place, and may be registered as a charge against the property for the purposes of the Land Registration Act 2002.”

101BF Insert the following new Clause –

“Other works taking place on the subterranean development site

Non-subterranean works taking place on the building owner’s building during the period of the works on the subterranean development shall be treated –

- (a) as part of the subterranean development works for the purposes of sections 2 and 4 of this Act; and

- 112 Insert the following new Clause –
“Disposing of surplus public land in the area of a mayoral combined authority
 (1) A relevant public body in the area of a mayoral combined authority shall not dispose of any surplus land (as defined in section 184(3), but subject to section 184(8)) without first giving the mayoral combined authority the opportunity, within a reasonable time-scale, to acquire or refuse to acquire the surplus land –
 (a) for a sum that has been assessed as equivalent to the best consideration that can reasonably be obtained, or
 (b) with the consent of the Secretary of State, for a sum that has been assessed as less than the sum referred to in paragraph (a).
 (2) Consent under subsection (1)(b) may be general or specific, and may be given unconditionally or subject to conditions.
 (3) If, having been given the opportunity to acquire or refuse to acquire any surplus land of a public body under subsection (1), the mayoral combined authority decides not to acquire that land, it must notify the public body of its decision in writing.

- (4) Upon receiving written notice given by the mayoral combined authority under subsection (3), the public body may dispose of the surplus land to which that notice relates to a person or body other than the mayoral combined authority, but only in accordance with a plan for disposing of the surplus land which has been approved by the mayoral combined authority.
- (5) A plan under subsection (4) must contain the public body's proposals for disposing of the surplus land to which it relates and, in preparing and producing the plan, the public body must consult the mayoral combined authority and such other bodies as the mayoral combined authority may direct.
- (6) Regulations made under this Part may make further provision about—
 - (a) what constitutes a “disposal” under subsection (1);
 - (b) the process and means by which any surplus land may be assessed as equivalent to or less than the best consideration that can reasonably be obtained under subsection (1);
 - (c) the process by and terms on which a mayoral combined authority shall be given the opportunity to acquire or refuse to acquire surplus land under subsection (1); and
 - (d) the contents, nature, form and requirements of any plan for disposing of surplus land referred to in subsection (4), and the process by which that plan is to be produced and approved.
- (7) This section is without prejudice to section (Disposing of surplus public land in Greater London).
- (8) In this section a “mayoral combined authority” means a mayoral combined authority established under section 107A of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009.”
