“SCHEDULE

THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON WELFARE DEVOLUTION

Membership

1 The Joint Committee on Welfare Devolution shall comprise the Secretary of State, who is to be the chair of the Committee, and the following other members—
(a) the Scottish Minister who is responsible to the Scottish Parliament for welfare policy and payments, who is to be the deputy chair of the Committee;
(b) the Member of the House of Commons who is for the time being the Chair of the Work and Pensions Select Committee of the House of Commons;
(c) the Member of the Scottish Parliament who is for the time being the Chair of the Welfare Reform Committee of the Scottish Parliament;
(d) two Members of Parliament who are not Ministers of the Crown;
(e) two Members of the Scottish Parliament who are not Scottish Ministers; and
(f) two persons representing local government in Scotland.

2 The members of the Joint Committee on Welfare Devolution mentioned in paragraph 1(d) are to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Commons and the Lord Speaker of the House of Lords.
Amendment No.

3 The members of the Joint Committee on Welfare Devolution mentioned in paragraph 1(e) are to be appointed by the Presiding Officer of the Scottish Parliament.

4 The members of the Joint Committee on Welfare Devolution mentioned in paragraph 1(f) are to be appointed by Scottish Ministers after consultation with the Convention of Scottish Local Authorities.

5 In this Schedule, references to the Work and Pensions Select Committee of the House of Commons are—
   (a) if the name of that Committee is changed, to be taken (subject to paragraph (b)) to be references to the Committee by its new name;
   (b) if the functions of that Committee with respect to welfare policy and payments (or functions substantially corresponding thereto) become functions of a different committee of the House of Commons, to be taken to be references to the committee by whom the functions are for the time being exercisable.

6 In this Schedule, references to the Welfare Reform Committee of the Scottish Parliament are—
   (a) if the name of that Committee is changed, to be taken (subject to paragraph (b)) to be references to the Committee by its new name;
   (b) if the functions of that Committee at the passing of this Act with respect to welfare policy and payments (or functions substantially corresponding thereto) become functions of a different committee of the Scottish Parliament, to be taken to be references to the committee by whom the functions are for the time being exercisable.

Term of office of Committee members

7 A member may resign from the Committee at any time by giving notice to the Secretary of State.

8 A member may be re-appointed (or further re-appointed) to membership of the Committee.

Committee proceedings

9 The Joint Committee on Welfare Reform may determine its own procedure.

10 The validity of any proceedings of the Joint Committee on Welfare Reform is not affected by—
   (a) any vacancy among, or
   (b) any defect in the appointment of any of, the members of the Committee.

11 The Joint Committee on Welfare Reform may appoint a member of the Committee to act at any meeting of the Committee in the absence of both the Secretary of State and the Scottish Minister who is deputy chair of the Committee.
Advisory Panel

12 The Secretary of State and Scottish Ministers acting jointly may make regulations appointing a panel to advise the Joint Committee on Welfare Reform on the transfer, implementation and operation of the powers devolved to the Scottish Parliament by Part 3 of this Act, comprising academics, representatives of the third sector and voluntary organisations, and other relevant stakeholders.

13 The Joint Committee on Welfare Reform must consult any advisory panel appointed under paragraph 12.”

LORD McCLUSKEY

66  Insert the following new Clause—

“The fiscal framework

(1) Within 30 days of the date on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must publish in full the new fiscal framework agreed between the Scottish and

UK Governments, unless it has already been published by the Secretary of State.

(2) Within 30 days of the date on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State shall publish as an appendix to the new fiscal framework as published a full description of any agreement whatsoever reached between the said

Governments relating to the future of the Barnett Formula or its application, amendment or replacement in the future, including any agreement as to when any such change is intended to be considered by the two Governments in the future.

(3) In this section, “the new fiscal framework” means the agreement between the said Governments as to the arrangements and institutions intended to underpin the tax and spending powers included and devolved under this Act and under the Scotland Acts of 1998 and 2012, including the funding of the Scottish budget, planning, management and scrutiny of public revenues and spending, the manner in which the block grant is or may be adjusted to accommodate further devolution, and the operation of borrowing powers and cash reserve, fiscal rules, and independent institutions.”

67  Insert the following new Clause—

“The Scottish Fiscal Commission

(1) The Scottish Parliament shall have an express power to expand the independent scrutiny of Scotland’s public finances.

(2) The power created by subsection (1) may be exercised by the creation by the Scottish Parliament of a Scottish Fiscal Commission that is independent of the Scottish Government.

After Clause 68 — continued

(3) The Scottish Fiscal Commission shall, as far as is possible, be modelled on the Office for Budget Responsibility.

(4) The duties and responsibilities of the Scottish Fiscal Commission shall, as far as is possible, be the same for Scotland as those of the Office for Budget Responsibility for the United Kingdom.

(5) If any person elected as a member of the Scottish Parliament challenges the independence of any person nominated to be a member of the Scottish Fiscal Commission, the Lord President of the Court of Session shall determine whether that person is independent; and shall do so on the basis of written submissions made to him or her by any person or body invited by the Lord President to make representations to him or her on the matter; and the ruling of the Lord President on the matter shall be final and not reviewable.

(6) If the Lord President rules that a person nominated to be a member of the Scottish Fiscal Commission is not independent, that person shall not be appointed to be a member of the Commission.

(7) In this section “independence” means independence from the Scottish Government and from any political party with representation in the United Kingdom Parliament or the Scottish Parliament.”

Clause 69

LORD FORSYTH OF DRUMLEAN

68 Page 75, line 26, at end insert—

“(A1) None of sections 1 to 68 may come into force until—

(a) the Secretary of State has laid before each House of Parliament a fiscal framework setting out the arrangements and institutions underpinning the tax and spending powers included and devolved under this Act and under the Scotland Acts 1998 and 2012; and

(b) the framework has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

(A2) If any of the following provisions of this section would otherwise result in any of sections 1 to 68 coming into force before the condition in subsection (A1) is met, the coming into force of that section shall be delayed until the day that the condition in subsection (A1) is met.”
